About Ladyslipper

Ladyslipper is a North Carolina non-profit, tax-exempt organization which has been involved in many facets of women's music since 1976. Our basic purpose has consistently been to heighten public awareness of the achievements of women artists and musicians and to expand the scope and availability of musical and literary recordings by women.

One of the unique aspects of our work has been the annual publication of the world's most comprehensive Catalog and Resource Guide of Recordings by Women—the one you now hold in your hands. This annotated catalog has given hundreds of thousands of people information about and access to recorded works by an expansive variety of female musicians, writers, comics, and composers. Many public and university libraries have added large portions of the catalog to their collections; in this manner, the recordings are accessible to much larger populations, and are archived at the same time.

We also distribute recordings on a wide variety of labels to book and record stores in the eastern seaboard states, from eastern Pennsylvania down through Florida. We also distribute many of these recordings to women's and alternative bookstores nationally and internationally. (If you know of a store in your town you'd like to see stocking the titles in this catalog, please introduce us to each other!) Additionally, we handle sub-distribution (distribution to other distributors) of several labels.

Ladyslipper is also a small independent label; our purpose is to further new musical and artistic directions for women musicians. We have issued recordings by Kay Gardner, Ruth Barrett, Libana, Rhiannon, Sue Fink, Beth York, Debbie Fier, and Marie Rhines.

Our name comes from an exquisite flower which is one of the few wild orchids native to North America and is currently an endangered species.

Donations are tax-deductible, and we do need the help of friends to continue to grow. We have instituted two clubs to add some pizzazz to fund-raising, the Donor Discount Club and the Musical Month Club... details inside. We also seek endowments and bequests... as we grow older, many of us are having our wills drawn up; and we would ask that if you would like to, please do remember us in your will! Many organizations have retained their continuity down through centuries by the generosity of supporters in this fashion.

As a tax-exempt organization, we are also eligible for grants. If you are a grant-writer, and know of an agency you think will fund us, and would like to help us out by writing and submitting a grant application for us, please write!

If you would like us to send any of your friends, relatives or colleagues a free copy of this catalog, please send us their names and addresses; stamps appreciated.

We hope you enjoy reading this catalog, listening to the recordings you purchase, and celebrating with us the continuation of a rich and diverse women's culture.

Women's Spirituality ♦ New Age

Acoustic Medicine

Return of the Circle

This mixed group of women and men performs original rounds and chants, mostly acappella with percussion, with Native American drumming and themes of Great Spirit, Mother Earth, vision, wisdom, dance. A few of the selections feature women's voices exclusively. Includes Mother I Feel You and others which can easily be learned for ritual gatherings. Lyrics included. (AMP201) CS: 9.98

Find A Way

This exploration into the soul and essence of music is a choreographer's delight; the rhythms and changing tempos of this instrumental masterpiece will also appeal to anyone who believes in the power of music to transcend sound, lift spirits and inspire. From the energetic After the Anger to her stirring rendition of The Rock Will Wear Away, her keyboard and synthesized sounds have captivated audiences wherever she's performed. This highly recommended second release also includes How Many Mountains, Samba Expressway, and Every Night Winnie Mandela. (ABO226) CS: 9.98

Brooklyn From the Roof

A fairly spectacular instrumental album for piano and synthesizers by a virtuoso composer and keyboardist who some of you may remember as Holly Near's accompanist, several years ago; others of you have luckily witnessed her marvelous solo performances. If you fall into neither category, start now with this tape. Each piece has a varied sound and rhythm, keeping the listener's interest active...from avant garde to upbeat to emotional and intense to mellow and lyrical. Includes A Song for Soweto, for the poem by June Jordan, plus The Slow Return of Saturn, Things I Cannot Say, and the loveliest, And So They Two (Home). (ABO519) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

In the Cosmic Flow

Akasha is a group of five women from Sweden. With voices and a blend of Eastern and Western instruments—flutes, guitar, harmonium, and the sitar-like esraj—they weave ethereal harmonies to songs written by Sri Chinmoy, based on simple Indian folk music and sung in the Bengali language. They have toured extensively in Europe and have recently completed a U.S. tour, which incorporated a workshop on music and healing. Angelic and heavenly. (HEA1) CS: 9.98

Sky-Wings

It's hard to know how to distinguish this one from In the Cosmic Flow, since we don't speak Bengali, but musically we think both are worth listening, so if this group interests you, start with either one; if you like it, order the other! This one has several selections in the haunting minor modes, and is this reviewer's favorite by a very slight edge. You may order lyric books directly from them at an extra charge. (HEA2) CS: 9.98

Alice Coltrane

Journey in Satchidananda

Before there was New Age, there was Alice Coltrane, an amazing composer and instrumentalist... who fused her knowledge of world music, jazz and Eastern spirituality, and created sounds that were to become foundations for a genre. Recorded in 1970, this album combines her virtuosity on harp and piano with Pharoah Sanders' transcendental soprano sax, plus tamboura and oud, yielding original compositions that are evocative, meditative, searching, yearning, and just simply beautiful. Includes title, Isis and Osiris, Something About John Coltrane, Shiva-Loka. A personal favorite of this reviewer 20 years ago, and still highly recommended! (MCA33119) CD: 15.98

Alicia Bonnet

Emergence

One of Lisa Thiel's favorite recordings, who calls it "a true healing tape and an excellent companion." Alicia accompanies her original songs and chants — such as Can't Hurry the Goddess — on banjo, dulcimer, tamboura, Balinese flute and synthesizer. An accomplished vocalist, Alicia contributes background vocals on Anne Williams' Song of the Jaguar. (DS343) CS: 9.98

Amber Wolfe

Shamana-Vision Quest/ Earth Journey

Two vivid guided images to a background of drums, bells, howls, chants...power! You are guided to quest for your inner wise woman/ goddess...you'll meet a wise woman at the top of a sacred mountain peak who shares the knowledge of the 4 crystals, which contain the wisdom of 4 different kinds of vibrations, energy and knowledge found on the earth. ## Amy Fradon/Leslie Ritter/Kim Rosen

Delphys

Delphys is the Greek word for womb, and this tape contains breath visualizations led by Kim Rosen (The Oceans Are Calling, The Delphys Connection, an inner journey guided by the dolphins, and Breathing Home) with an original musical score. It is intended as a reminder of one's inner sanctuary, which can be tapped into for guided or personal meditation, and utilizes their gentle harmonies and music as a peaceful backdrop. With "Amy & Leslie" on vocals and Cathie Malach on keyboards, this release — subtitled Sacred Spaces for Inner Journeys — is a masterful meditation tool. (DLP1) CS: 10.98

Ancient Future

Quiet Fire

Their more recent release adds South American, European classical and African influences to their rich ethnic sound. In this incarnation, the one woman member of the 4-person ensemble is Marcia Sloane, on cello: a lovely instrumental addition. Guest appearances by Alex DeGrassi and Darol Anger. Pretty gorgeous. ## Ancient Future

Natural Rhythms

This fascinating release of Balinese-influenced music — one of the earlier world fusion creations — features a 3-member group, one of whom is co-founder Mindy Klein. She plays banuri flute, tinklik (bamboo gamelan instrument), gangsa and regular flute. Some segments (rice paddy frogs with bamboo percussion, as well as some wave sounds) were actually recorded in Bali. Other compositions represent other world cultures; for instance, Seventh Heaven is set in an eleven-beat rhythmic cycle of North India. A timeless quality, befitting their name. (PH9006) CS: 9.98

Andrea Lyman

The Spirit Who Sings

Andrea, a white woman who has studied Native American spirituality under teachers such as Brooke Medicine Eagle, has created a tape of beautiful original chants and songs to call spirit, sing praise, and remind us of our connection with all things. At times strong and warrior-like, other times haunting and dreamlike, her powerful vocals are accompanied by drums, rattles, chimes, synthesizer and more. Includes Grandmother, White Buffalo Woman, Invocation, Mother/Father, Eagle's Lullaby; excellent production, and a good source for some new chants, if you're looking. Brooke Medicine Eagle recommends this, and we do too. (MB1) CS: 9.98

Angie Remedi

The Mother Calls

This celebration of women's spirituality and neo-Paganism includes 20 songs and chants honoring Goddesses from around the world (or The Goddess in Her many guises, as the case may be), celebrating the seasons and the Wheel of the Year, and giving tribute to the ideals and culture of ancient matriarchal people. Angie's voice is spirited if not in perfect pitch at every single moment; all songs are original; acoustic instrumentation in Celtic and folk styles by female and male musicians. Includes Sabbat Round, Cry of the Rebel Witch, Blessed Be Chant, making it a good resource for circles, rituals. (TRB1) CS: 9.98

Anna Homler & Steve Moshier

Breadwoman

This is essentially a performance art work: Breadwoman is a storyteller who speaks in an "alternative" language, a vocabulary of primal tones, which came to the artist, or "linguistic chemist," while driving one day. This language blends the sounds of the East with the feel of Native American chanting, hinting at possibilities of meaning and communication beyond language as we know it. The accompanying music is high in percussion but with an added eastern flare. Don't expect to understand the words, but be prepared for a rhythmic, hypnotic, unexplainable attraction to them. ## Anne McCaffrey/Joanne Forman

Dragonsongs

Award-winning science fiction writer Anne McCaffrey narrates from her best-selling novels Dragonsong and Dragonsinger, in a tapestry of music composed by Joanne Forman for soprano, flute, harp and guitar. The story takes place on the planet of Pern where young Menolly, told that young girls can't become musicians, can and does. (PAP1) CS: 8.98

Lotus Returning

With folk harp, autoharp, dulcimer, flute, bells and voice, Anne's original songs celebrate the joy of remembering ancient wisdom. The interweaving of the instruments, all performed by her, seems to touch upon the crystalline center of the listener—beautiful! (ES1) CS: 9.98

Summer Rose

Outstanding! Even more beautiful than her first, in this reviewer's humble opinion; this cassette is pure musical imagery—voice without words—which, with harp, autoharp, cello, flute and bells—becomes a sound that is felt rather than heard. Again, all original and all performed by the artists, with innovative use of harmonies and rhythms. An emotional richness, an audio massage, celestial seasonings for the spirit! Highly recommended. (ES2) CS: 9.98

Sky Dance

While Anne's harp remains the focal point here, layers of synthesizer by Joel Harrison add another dimension of depth and mystery, along with Anne's recorder, Tibetan bowls, wind-chimes and vocalizations. Imagery is of sea and sky...a full 60 minutes for relaxation and meditation. Includes Dolphin Dance, Moon Shadow Waters. (ES4) CS: 10.98

Song of Isis

Received and recorded in the Pyramids of Egypt during the Harmonic Convergence of 1987, this very special recording of harp, double pipes, flute, bells, and voice was created after a preparatory boat trip down the Nile! The echoing power of Spirit sings out through these inspired musical blessings, invocations, chants, and homages to the great goddess, beautifully woven in delicate strands of sound. Timeless, transformative; recommended! (ES5) CS: 9.98

Song of the Jaguar

Inspired by Celtic, Mayan, Aztec, Egyptian, and Sumerian cultures, this beautiful Goddess-oriented collection of ritual songs, blessing chants, and homages incorporates an array of Latin American flutes and percussion instruments. Goddesses honored include Inanna, Nuit, Maat, Ta Urit, Bridget; selections include Mother of All Ages, Isla Mujeres, Keepers of the Sacred Fire. Harmony vocals by Lisa Thiel and Alicia Bonnet. Magical and evocative. (ES7) CS: 9.98

On this 1991 release, enchanting "music to honor a time of great awakening" reaches deep into the heart of the rainforest, with pre-Colombian flutes and percussion by Mazatl Galindo, weaving magic with the mystical beauty of Anne's — or Ani's, as she's now known — pure harp and vocals. Elegant, earthy, evocative! (ES8) CS: 9.98

Wind Spirit

Reflecting the clarity and spaciousness of the Southwest desert lands and elements, this 1989 release incorporates such diverse sounds as Tarahumara drum, fretless bass, clarinet, penny whistle, and even vocal-flute whale calls, accompanying her exquisite-as-ever harp. Wind on the Desert was inspired by the Navajo people at Big Mountain. ### Tears of the Grandmothers

Ten "matrifocal" original vocal songs in a style she describes as "earth-based, a rhythm and language indigenous to the human experience of our past"—it has elements of folk, Native American and primitive. Her vocalizations are often chant-like, and her songs tell stories which spring from her spiritual beliefs. Her themes are of ancestors, the earth, power, mystery, woman-spirit: Mother of the Mountain, Motherland, Womb Around, Pass Down the Stories. It's unusual, and worth hearing. (CLG1) CS: 9.98

Lady of the Serpent Skirt

Drummer Barbara (of Alive!) fame) and keyboardist/flutist/vocal technician Shellah collaborate here on an entirely entrancing musical and rhythmic journey. The territory they cover is wide, varied, and previously uncharted, ricocheting back and forth between melodic and avant-garde, intense and mellow, primal and high-tech, winding through a suffusion of moods and imagery. Very sensual and captivating, and definitely recommended! (CL1) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

From the slow and sensual to the more uptempo pieces, you're surrounded with the quiet fire that is the underlying link of Barbara's creative expression. Appropriate for ritual, dance, love-making, and creative visualization, as well as plain clean listening! (CL2) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

I Always Wanted To Play Drums

This is an instructional tape for beginning drummers, by one of the most exciting and proficient drummers around. She begins with an exercise to relax the body (to a hot percussive accompaniment—beats any exercise tape we've heard!), continues through theory, time divisions, call and response, and free drumming. Her instruction is very animated; even if you never thought you wanted to be a drummer, listening to this may change your mind! (PAR1) CS: 9.98

Transformations

Please note sale price on LP! Exquisite, restoring, delicious, perfect instrumental music composed by this Atlanta feminist and performed by Beth (on piano) and her group, The New Women's Chamber Ensemble (on oboe, sax, flute, synthesizer, bass, percussion). It could be termed classical-jazz fusion. If you've enjoyed Paul Winter Consort, Oregon, or Kay Gardner, you're sure to enjoy this. The sax is so sweet, the oboe so searing in its beauty, it's enough to lift the spirit of any cynic. A music therapist by profession, Beth has performed her works at the National Women's Music Festival, the National Women's Jazz Festival, and at Atlanta's Fox Theater, with Judy Chicago's Dinner Party. Includes title, Time and Again, and Dolphin, a dance piece. Very highly recommended. (LR104) LP: 6.98 ... CS: 9.98

Betsy Rose

In My Two Hands

One side of this tape represents a creative venture for an artist well-known to women's and folk audiences: it embodies a unique collaboration between an Asian and a North American artist, and expresses the interrelationship between engaged activism and the spiritual foundation which make continued activism possible. The songs were inspired and co-authored by Thich Nhat Hahn, a Vietnamese poet-teacher and Nobel Peace Prize nominee, who chaired the Vietnamese Buddhist Peace Delegation, and taught and lived "engaged Buddhism" in his country during the war. The music, sung by Betsy in English, blends eastern and western instrumentation: koto, bamboo flute, string bass and more. The other side consists of Betsy's own songs, reflecting her journey as a spiritual activist and eco-feminist. (PLX101) CS: 9.98

Sacred Ground

Seeking to rise beyond an age of individual disconnection, this music springs from sources both ancient and universal, drawing on traditions such as pagan, Native American, western mystical, and Goddess spirituality. Betsy presents protest music at its best, music of community, with background choruses which invite participation as well as listening. Sparse acoustic instrumentation allows the clarity of Betsy's words, music and voice to shine; adept production and accompaniment by Nina Gerber. A wonderful blend of music, spirit, and social concern. (KAL43) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Initiation

An original "neo-classical" work of great magnitude — a full-length concert of visionary imagery, for full synthesized orchestra and wordless voice, in four movements...with libretto (lyrics) which are written but not sung. The feeling is quite dramatic, majestic, and triumphant, musically conveying an initiate's soul rising from its earthly body into the light of higher consciousness. It's beautiful, and we recommend it. (SFS016) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Feminist Hypnosis 1

There are many hypnosis techniques/ books/ tapes on the market; but to our knowledge, Dr. Cindee Grace's are the only ones specifically feminist, lesbian-affirming, and globally-oriented. She's the author of an excellent book entitled Feminist Hypnosis, both a self-help guide and an expose of patriarchal abuses in the field. Her tape series contains exercises derived from her book; this one covers Sensory Assessment & Mental Flexibility, for both real and imaginary senses...use to determine which senses are weakest, and to strengthen them in order to receive greater benefit from hypnosis. 32 minutes. Constance Demby
Sacred Space Music Vol. 1
 "Sparkling bursts of star showers...the magic of the Hammer Dulcimer," this is her response to requests for more music on that instrument, and in our opinion, one of her finest efforts; in spite of the title, one of the most lyrical and least "spacy." The hammered dulcimer, which dates back 5000 years, has a truly timeless, eternal quality to it, especially in the hands of this musician. Also lovely here is the viola of Toni Marcus. Includes Radiance and The Longing. (HS11010) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Constance Demby
Set Free
 Deepening and extending the symphonic space music of her previous works, this 1989 release also boldly explores new directions. At Alaron
 With a synthesizer that sounds like the most glorious pipe organ, and with a psalter, gamelan and cheng, Constance gave a performance in 1983 whose magic and energy have been captured here; and she often played two instruments at once, seemingly effortlessly, overlaying the ensuing rich mixture with her electronically altered voice. Included: This Moment Is a Gift, Birth of a Shaman, Atabei ("The source of power is the Mother of All Things"), Earth & Water - Fire & Air, a 3-part chant, and others, offering a lot of variety and an excellent source for new material for your repertoires.  Note sale price on LP! This richly harmonious instrumental album traces Deb's path from her distinctive Latin/African-flavored jazz style toward a quieter, more contemplative mode...there is a feeling of fullness here, of having travelled full-circle to now share the stories and gifts from the transition. Producer Mary Watkins (who also contributes string synthesizer) skillfully weaves Deb's melodic piano and percussion with Marilyn Wilson's plaintive oboe, Jean Fineberg's sweet soprano sax and flute, and Nydia "Liberty" Mata's insistent percussion to create an encompassing interplay of moods: from the richly introspective The Journey to the passionately searching Children of Jerusalem to the joyous Celebration. Esther "Little Dove" John et al
The Elements
 Produced under the artistic direction of Nancy Rumbel, this exquisite concert was inspired by, and incorporates, the sounds of the four elements: Water, Air, Earth and Fire. Flutist Esther "Little Dove" John, accompanied by synthesists Kaaren Moltoza and Dent Davidson, weaves melodic, thematic improvised music into the recorded sounds of ocean, mountain stream, night creatures, and campfire, creating an ambience which is exotic, peaceful and visually provoking. This reviewer was a big fan of Paul Horn's flute compositions with The Elements back in the 70's... while quite different, this is just as stunning. Use for relaxing, meditating, enjoying; highly recommended! (MMH2289) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 15.98

I Get Thurs Off & Don't Do Windows!
 A wonderful supplement to A Rainbow Path, this psychotherapist/ flutist (whose improvisational style and classically-trained intonation remind us a lot of Kay Gardner) offers musical chakra cleaning/ clearing exercises, on which you tune along with the artist. Side One consists of 7 exercises with oral instructions and her exquisite fluting; Side Two's exercises consist of music only. So if you like Kay's flute music, try this by all means! Proceeds go to support Esther's program, "Mission for Music and Healing" — an organization dedicated to producing music that promotes inner and global peace — which sends artists to perform for critically and terminally ill patients in Seattle hospitals and hospices, and for people living with AIDS. Recommended! (MMH4) CS: 10.98

Gabrielle Roth and the Mirrors
Dancing Toward the One
 From this creative musician/ composer, dedicated to inspire people to the trance- and ecstasy-inducing powers of music and rhythm, come two full-length pieces, replete with a large female and male cast of vocalists plus percussionists and electric instrumentalists. Sing the Body is the first power chant Gabrielle received from the spirit...a "rhythm ride" to be taken alone or with others. Can You See Me was created in a healing circle as a dance meditation, as a way of breaking down barriers between people. (RAV01) CS: 9.98

Gabrielle Roth and the Mirrors
Totem
 Fantastic! Yes, even ecstasy-inspiring! Ancient and contemporary worlds unite in this urban-primitive, tribal-trance music for dancing and listening. Unique compositions primarily by Gabrielle, with a host of other musicians, mostly percussionists. Synthesizer, wooden flute, and electric and bass guitars supply intermittent melodies, while the soul of the pieces rides the rhythms of asheiko or djembe, Taos drum, kihembe, log drum, toke, jun-jun, high hat, congas, guiro, and many more from the corners of the earth. Includes title, Ritual, Eternal Dance, Eliana. We have nothing else like this in our catalog...let yourself loose with this one! (RAV02) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 14.98

Gabrielle Roth and the Mirrors
Initiation
 Gabrielle describes it this way: "This music is a map. It can take you from inertia to ecstasy if you surrender to its pulse. Side A moves through the rhythm patterns of the shamanic journey I call the Dancing Path. Side B begins with a warm-up of each of the body parts (Body Jazz) and ends with a celebration of them all (Initiation). Integrate this moving meditation into the mainstream of your daily life and feel the power that flows from an energized body and an empty mind." Gabrielle's compositions feature a fascinating variety and progression of sounds and moods, incorporating synthesizers, acoustic guitars, vibes and flutes along with the world's most extensive collection of percussion. Not background music; meant to be played at full volume...it will preclude other thought and activity! (RAV03) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 14.98

Bones
 "...a musical lament for the past and a prayer for the future... a calling to the inner dance, the dance around your bones..." Gabrielle's 1989 release is another fascinating exploration of the possibilities of sound, rhythm, and music. Combining the trademark array of percussive delights with melodic instruments such as cello, fiddle, silver flute, synthesizer, each composition delves into the spirit of a different animal being — Dolphin, Raven, Snake, Deer, Wolf — and comes forth with an interpretation to be experienced... skeletally! Teachings of an Urban Shaman
 This program is an interview of Gabrielle, conducted by Michael Toms for New Dimensions Radio, with some of her music from Initiation and Totem woven in. She speaks of her love of dance and movement, her experiences over 20 years, and explains how ecstasy is attainable on a daily basis by using movement to release pain, heighten sexual fulfillment, and free emotion. Waves
 Haunting and uptempo, this 1991 release seduces the listener into an ecstatic whirlpool. The Chorus of Life
 This Bay Area mixed chorus, directed by Deborah Hamouris, specializes in 20th century music that addresses themes of nature and Earth-centered (read Pagan) spirituality. They perform some great re-worked versions of old familiars, such as Unorthodoxology ("Praise Her from whom all blessings flow..."), Star-Spangled Pagan, The Magic Wheel (to the tune of Green Grow the Rushes-O), and originals such as Gaia Speaks, One with Our Mother. Georgia Kelly
Seapeace
 Georgia's first album is truly a new age classic. She is a harpist who composes and plays music for meditation (which of course is suitable for other subtle activities), utilizing eastern and western idioms: ragas, Greek modes, etc. On this album, accompanied by electric violin, she musically creates a tidal ebb-and-flow soothingness. Derra Shelly adds vocal in French to two songs by Debussy. (SAT104) LP: 4.98 ... CS: 7.98 ... CD: 13.98

Glee Briggs
Who Are You?
 This album, which came about in part to the kind prodding of Lisa Thiel, debuts a "seeker" who uses her music as a spiritual tool. Her beautiful and compelling voice conveys purity, clarity and intensity; the moods, influences and styles of her original songs range from the eloquent simplicity of traditional folk ballads, to the haunting evocations of plainsong, to the contemplative fervor of East Indian chanting. Title track was inspired by the mystic Teresa of Avila, while You Bless Me, Mother is a hymn of thanksgiving to the Universal Spirit. Only criticism: cover art is weak; but the contents are centering, moving, and inspiring. (GBR101) CS: 9.98

Gwen Jones & Kayla Kirsch
Raindreaming
 Rich and evocative, simple and distinct; this is acoustic music using instruments from around the world. Rather than developing layers of synthetic sounds through electronic equipment, Gwen and Kayla believe that the beauty of these traditional and ancient instruments—from the Japanese koto to the Aboriginal yidaki to the human voice—can best reach the hearts of a wide variety of listeners. Only complaint: wish there were more program notes, on the instruments, sounds, and cultures... but, hey, recommended anyway! (RD1) CS: 9.98

Womanspirit

The production represents a synthesis of feminism and spirituality, and recognizes woman as the creation maker. (WIS1) CS: 9.98

Rites of the Dolphin

Eleven stars on a ten-star system! A very unusual, intoxicating, and totally exquisite instrumental offering from a mostly-women's trio which takes its name from the Babylonian goddess of the moon and interpreter of dreams. Lisa Moskow is a master of the sarod (a North Indian instrument with 25 strings, metal fretless fingerboard and brass resonating bell) which is somewhat the centerpoint; Nicole Milner is the pianist-composer (her playing full of emotion); Doug Carroll is the cellist. Their innovative repertoire is inspired by a wide spectrum of musical ideas from Europe and Asia, creating an unique East-West fusion. Includes Moon Flaga, Three Deer, Haiku... highly recommended! (ISH1) CS: 9.98

Jai Ma Kirtan-Songs to Divine Moth

A truly beautiful 93-minute program of chanting in Sanskrit to the various aspects of God as the Mother: Kali, Durga, Amba, Radha, Ma, Lakshmi, Gauri, etc., by primarily women's voices. Sung in Kirtan, an ancient Indian call-and-response form. Includes the Hymn to the Goddess Mother, the Durga Arati Song. Traditional eastern instruments—tabla, tanpura, harmonium—are tastefully interwoven with western guitar, mandolin, dulcimer, silver flute. Cover pictures Shakti Yantra, a mandala used for meditation on the energy of the female aspect of God. Recommended! (SRI0006) CS: 9.98

Ancestral Dream / Improvised Ritual

A very unique first solo recording by one half of the well-known British feminist duo, Ova. Passionately celebrating women's spirituality, Jana uses natural and special effects, pagan chants, and a vast array of instruments (temple bells, Indian and Chinese flutes, classical flute, clarinet, African drums, African kalimba / thumb piano, Indian tabla, dulcimer and percussion). Invocations are sung to Tiāmat (Babylonian sky goddess), Diane (We all come from Goddess, chant to the pagan mother of all life), Kore (Greek earth goddess), Aaëa (Celtic sky goddess), Kali (Hindu goddess of fire). Beginning and ending with Deep Woman, and meandering through some spectacular instrumentals such as Spirit of Avalon along the way, this cassette offers an entry into the spirit-world like no other. Highly recommended. (STC300) CS: 11.98

Eye of the Womb

In the second volume of her Improvised Ritual Music series, Jana continues her employment of primal, rhythmic energy as a creative expression of women's spirituality and as a bridge between politics and faith. She explores the realms of the womb as a creative source of deep power and radical awareness, with ritual chanting, vocal improvisations, and intense instrumentation from bamboo flute to percussion. Includes Withwoman, Remember Goddess Is Within, Mami Watu (Hawaiian goddess), Inanna (Sumerian goddess), and more. The pulse is irresistible, the melodies haunting, and the meanings will be experienced on a multitude of levels. Recommended! (STC301) CS: 11.98

Tree Magic

This magic began with a common vision of these two women of the power, beauty, and magic of trees on our world; it started in a Celtic tree circle near Glastonbury, traditionally a site of magic; and that is what this music is, absolute magic, a site of magic, and that is what this music is, absolute magic. Instruments such as hammered dulcimer (played to sound at times like a koto), clarinet, soprano saxophone... try to imagine the possibilities of these in combination, and you may come close to the beauty of these improvisations. Titles include Amazona, Spirit of the Forest, In the Tree Circle, African Walk. Rhythmic, creative, unique, inspired, and once again... highly recommended! (STC302) CS: 11.98

With this soothing music that transports you beyond space and time, Joanna demonstrates through her compositions how a single note can resonate to create a symphony. Her music is used in hospitals and healing facilities, and for birthing and post-natal care, massage, and meditation. Joanna has also had strong ties with the feminist community. Here, her piano and synthesizer are heard on one side, and flute improvisations by Maggi Payne fill the other. (HUM101) CS: 9.98

Odyssey: Afro-Celtic-Harp-Fusion

A stunning, evocative, radiant musical work by a woman who was half of the WindHarp duo (we carried their tape Wind/Water/Light when it was in print, and was one of our Top Ten favorites back then). Her solo effort is a document of her continuing journey, illustrating her ability to create new sounds by interweaving elements of her primary influences: traditional eastern and western world music, classical, jazz, traditional West African drumming and kora (a stringed instrument), and even the power of silence. Mostly original instrumentals, plus one improvisation on an O'Carolan tune, and the stand-out piece here, Jato Jje Binkolo—she combines harmonizing vocals and harp on a Mandingo blessing song, then segues into a similarly-arranged song from Mali for the liberation of all women—would love an entire album of this from her someday!! Highly recommended. (AH1) CS: 9.98

Ocean Moon

Combining all the best from Mooncircles — all the instrumental tracks — and Emerging — the entire album minus one track, this extra-long-playing compact disc brings Kay's early classic discography to the technological age. Most of you with old Mooncircles albums probably needed to replace them anyway, if you played them over and over during those long intimate sessions with someone special... This collection features some of Kay's most important work, including Lunamuse, which she considers the best piece she ever composed; with Meg Christian on guitar. A 1991 re-release. Highly recommended, of course! (WWE85) CD: 15.98

Moods & Rituals

Subtitled "Meditations for Solo Flutes," intended for meditation and relaxation, this sequence of 4 compositions truly has the effect of evoking tranquility, a feeling of well-being and wide-open space. On one long piece entitled Soul Flight, she employs an echoplex, which almost sounds like a second flute and works perfectly. Other pieces, each using a scale from a different culture, are entitled Saraswati (for bamboo flute and bell), Mountain Melody, The Temple of Ishtar. This represents another stage in Kay's research into the use of music in healing. (EKR39) LP: 6.98 ... CS: 9.98

Primarily vocal, it has a distinctly traditional sound. The Earth side is rich with ballads, wisdom and female affirmation. The Sea side (this reviewer's favorite) is full of New England sea shanties. All songs directly relate to woman's power, woman's story. The Ballad of Mary & Ann is about two New England women persecuted for being lesbians. Do You Remember? is a deeply spiritual song which reverberates with the Matriarchy. Musicians include Kay on dulcimer, flutes and vocals, April Rain and Alix Dobkin on guitar. (EKR44) LP: 6.98 ... CS: 9.98

A Rainbow Path

Please note sale price on LP! Ladyslipper could not be more proud to present to you this phenomenal work which has been years in the making. This is evocative, beautiful acoustic instrumental music, perfect not only for relaxation and listening pleasure, but also for movement and dance, and most specifically for meditation, massage, and various disciplines of holistic healing. Kay has pioneered in the field of healing through music, arts and color, and this recording is the culmination of her research. It is scored for (get ready): flute, recorder, harp, oboe, clarinet, bassoon, French and English horns, trombone, violin, viola, cello, doublebass, vibraphone, tambura, timpani, bells and small percussion, and subtle voices. Well, the result is nearly indescribable! We have never heard such full yet totally acoustic sounds on any other meditation or "new age" recording; this is one element of its uniqueness; and this is probably the only such recording with timpani! Kay draws from classical, Irish, Eastern, medieval, and avant-garde elements. Each of the 8 segments correlates to a color and a chakra (energy center); instruments were chosen accordingly, and written meditations are provided. The musicians: Sylvia Woods on harp, Carol Rowe on viola, Martha Siegel on cello, Vivian Stoll on vibraphone, Kay on flute and recorder, and many others. Composition titles include Castle in the Mist, See My Wings Shining, Dorian Hills. LP includes bibliography and discography for further study. A Rainbow Path is truly a deluxe, multi-dimensional experience. (LR103) LP: 6.98 ... CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Garden of Ecstasy

Ancient, medieval, renaissance, contemporary... eastern/western, northern/southern... an all-hemisphere mixture of sounds from Middle Eastern, Latin, Gypsy, Irish, African cultures... this 1989 studio recording (on the Ladyslipper label!) is another absolute masterpiece which melds music and healing in revolutionary ways, and is truly the follow-up to A Rainbow Path! Lush, tropical, resonant strains of cello, viola, oboe, English horn, timpani, marimba, percussion, classical guitar, (Adrienne Tori's) piano, harp, and of course Kay's flutes, are transformed into the flowers of this remarkable garden. Three pieces are upbeat, melodic, rhythmic dance pieces — a departure for Kay — featuring fiery percussive sections by Annette Aguilar and Nurudafina Pili Abena. But perhaps most important and most notable is Vinditas, a long composition in three movements, which can be utilized by anyone with AIDS or any other life-threatening disease. Written in the key which corresponds to the heart chakra and the immune system, it is structured to take the listener through the emotion of despair to a cosmic feeling of joy, and finally to a place of comfort and resolve. Aesthetically also one of the finest pieces Kay has written to date, as well as the most ambitious, it has limitless potential for a myriad of uses. One of the most worthwhile projects we have ever had the privilege to be involved in, and a body of music we are sure will please you as much as it does us. Very highly recommended! ### Sounding the Inner Landscape (Tape)

To coincide with the release of her long-awaited book on music and healing, Sounding the Inner Landscape: Music as Medicine, we proudly present a special long-playing project, Kay's first recording of spoken meditations. Ordinary spoken meditation tapes merely offer music as background. This recording instead fully and deliberately utilizes the music as the primary tool, through a variety of techniques, with music composed — for flute, harp, cello, vibraphone and percussion — specifically for these meditations and instructions. Included are the Chakra Meditation, which further expounds upon the principles explored in A Rainbow Path: Lay Down Your Burden, to help the listener release whatever is causing stress or pain or any other incumbrance upon joy and freedom; and an exploration of the properties and effects of various kinds of musical sounds in Inner Landscape, ending with some of her exquisite, transformational music. ### Avalon

This tape of solo flute meditations was created when Kay co-led a "women's mysteries" tour in Glastonbury, England, where Brigid, the Goddess of wells, flames, oaks, creative arts/music and healing, once dwelled and was worshipped. As Kay moved from High Altar to holy fountain to holy well, her flute improvisations were recorded by a hand-held tape-player, and the magic of the place, of the healing waters, of those moments, and of the Goddess Brigid's inspiration can be heard by all. Remarkably good quality, quieting, and very suitable for meditation. Includes The Lady's Chapel, Chalice Hill Fairy Circle. This is hopefully the first in a series to be recorded by Kay at women's holy places. (LR106) CS: 9.98

This 1988 album contains Charlie Murphy's powerful Burning Times, about the goddess-worshipping "witches" and the genocide of 9 million women in the Middle Ages, plus Brothers of the Forest, Full Moon, Harvest Dance, Brigit and more. ## Kim Robertson & Virginia Kron

Gratitude

Gratitude for your pair of ears, as well as for the wonders of the universe, is what you'll feel when you experience the beauty of this recording. Kim, at her absolute best as composer and performer, is joined by concert cellist Virginia Kron, whose musicianship is virtuosity supreme. "The two strung instruments, one plucked and one bowed, unite the different yet complimentary sounds into pure magic." The most original of Kim's discography thus far; many Eastern sounds, interesting scales. Includes Women of Ireland, Maya, Amethyst, She Moves Through the Fair. A must-have if you have enjoyed her Celtic harp in the past...or, if this will be your first opportunity. Very highly recommended! (INV125) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Kim Robertson / Singh Kaur

Crimson Vol. 1: Guru Ram Das

This absolutely unique series for healing, with celestial vocals by Singh Kaur, and Celtic harp and keyboards by Kim Robertson, consists of long recordings (40 minutes per side and repeated on both sides) of the same phrase chanted over and over, with some of the most gorgeous music ever heard, and which truly uses some power to transform the listener into a serene state. This volume induces a healing state of consciousness; in the ancient scriptures the phrase is said to strengthen the connection with the inner spirit and to develop a sense of purpose and guidance. Very highly recommended! (INV301) CS: 9.98

Crimson Vol. 2: Mool Mantra

The second volume is designed to open the heart; this mantra will gently remove the problems of the day and free the resources of the spirit, becoming relaxed, graceful and radiant with dignity and success assured. Harp and synthesizers by Kim are haunting, ethereal, and the vocals are heavenly. Very highly recommended! (INV302) CS: 9.98

*Crimson Vol. 3: Sat Nam * Wahe Guru*

This is a more lively chant with three stages, for an active day, as a joyous celebration of the self. This mantra is for opening the heart and developing intuition and spirit. Very highly recommended! (INV303) CS: 9.98

Crimson Vol. 4: Har Har Mukande

This is an ancient song/chant, and it is written that this sound current will give the experience of living from a carefree perspective which is the liberated soul; it can stimulate the capacity for commitment and courage. The harp here sounds very Irish, an interesting combination. (INV304) CS: 9.98

Kim Robertson / Singh Kaur

Crimson Vol. 5: Mender of Hearts

This sound current has the ability to heal the heart and the wounds of life, and to reawaken joy and enthusiasm; a love song in the purest sense, to the infinite within. (INV305) CS: 9.98

Crimson Vol. 6: Ardas

In ancient times, Ardas was known as the prayer that goes beyond all prayers; the power of this healing sound will continue even after the audible sound current has finished. Kim double-tracks harp over her keyboard, and with Singh Kaur's voice, the result is not of this earth. It's floating bodiless in the galaxy. (INV306) CS: 9.98

The Healing Art

Kiva is a 3-women acoustic ensemble performing beautiful original songs of the Goddess, healing, and Earth's ancient ways. They employ vocal harmonies with traditional arrangements and instrumentation (cello, bodhran, mandolin, guitar), in a style that is contemplative and peaceful on side 1; inspirational of movement, laughter and dance on side 2. Lead singer-songwriter Ariana (formerly of Pomegranate) is a priestess of the Old Religion, and her lyrics are thus informed. Accompanied by a multitalented kaleidoscope of friends, among them long-time Ladyslipper helper Barbara McPherson on drums! Songs include Diana, Aphrodite's Flowers, Witchin' Hour, The Healing Art, Jai Ma. Recommended! (KIV1) CS: 9.98

Kiva

Renewal
More percussive Goddess and Earth songs and chants by Ariana's primarily acoustic ensemble. The stand-outs are the chants which each feature two percussionists — Barbara and Robin — who employ African, Latin, Caribbean, Native and Brazilian rhythms, but the musicians' ease with traditional forms and harmonies also adds to this collection. Includes Dance In the Moonlight, Yemaya, Diana Fanfare/ Huntress, Fire Flow Free, The Earth Is Our Mother. Recommended again! (KIV2) CS: 9.98

Lady Isadora (with Lord Pan) The Witching Hour

Lady Isadora is a feminist Witch priestess and singer-songwriter. Her lovely debut cassette of witchy material, considered a classic in the Neo-Pagan community, contains 15 songs, one spoken chant with drums (Heartbeat of Creation), and one spoken ritual prose poem with musical accompaniment, with such titles as Witches and Amazons, The Goddess Sings, Isis, 'Tis Hallowe'en. Her clear soprano and guitar styles are in keeping with traditional Celtic folksong; the majority of the songs are original, the rest by Lord Pan; accompaniment includes guitars, recorders, piano, pipe organ, vocal overdubs. (LI1) CS: 10.98

Lady Isadora The Queen of Earth and Sky

Lady Isadora's long-awaited solo effort features songs of love, magic, and Goddess religion in folk, rock, and medieval/ Renaissance styles. The use of overdubs on several selections creates striking harmonies and multi-vocal textures. Original lyrics and mostly original melodies; includes Mistress of the Mysteries, The Pentacle and the Rose, Lion-Hearted Woman (a ballad about a Witch condemned to be burned at the stake), Ye Birds and Ye Beasts (a vegetarian anthem!) and a medley of Yule carols including Our Lady Greensleeves. Says HeartSong Review: "Her pure soprano voice comes from deep within her soul... Inspired and fulfilling music, highly recommended." (LI2) CS: 10.98

Lady Isadora Priestess of the Pentacle

Released simultaneously with The Queen of Earth and Sky as a companion album, here are more haunting melodies and thought-provoking lyrics from this Witch singer-songwriter who has received critical acclaim in the Neo-Pagan/ Goddess spirituality press. ## Libana

Fire Within

Finally: the long-awaited sequel to their acclaimed women's spirituality album A Circle Is Cast! Synthesizing their two musical identities — as performers of ethnic music and of music for ritual — this release features rounds, chants and songs for ritual and celebration, from medieval, Native American, African, Shaker, Japanese, Jewish, Hawaiian, Swedish, German, and contemporary American sources. Its primarily acappella form gives it a very meditational feel, yet there is a bit more of an instrumental presence here; several selections feature subtle percussion, hammer dulcimer, psaltory, recorders, and/or drone instruments. Includes The Earth Is a Woman; Neesa, by a contemporary Seneca woman; Tree Planter's Round, Clear Horizon, Rise Up O Flame, O Virgo Splendens (O Resplendent Virgin) and many more. We're proud and excited to offer you — on the Ladyslipper label — Libana's best work yet! Accompanying songbook also available. Very highly recommended! (LR108) CS: 9.98 . . . CD: 15.98

Libana

A Circle Is Cast

This 1986 release from this feminist chorus is a departure from their previous recordings—it represents Libana's spiritual basis of celebrating community and reverence for the rootedness of ritual, the Earth, the nuances of seasons, the solitude of meditation, and the Divine within. Side I traces the seasonal changes of a year, while Side II marks the facets and cadences of a ritual gathering. Opening with an invocation to the elements and the casting of a circle, it proceeds to honor the spirit and spirituality of women. Sources drawn from are Native American, African, Anglo, Israeli, and European, inspired by music from the Renaissance through contemporary feminist times. They sing each selection in unison, then divide into harmonies and arrangements; most is acappella, with occasional simple instrumental accompaniment. Includes 22 selections; a matching songbook is available separately. Hauntingly beautiful—a perfect holiday gift—very, very highly recommended! (SPN002) CS: 9.98 . . . CD: 15.98

Sojourns

From Bulgaria to Bolivia, the 13 women of Libana intertwine the captivating sounds and rhythms of the world's women. They deftly juxtapose diverse traditional and contemporary expressions into a collage of shifting vocal colors, and lush instrumental textures. Sojourning into the lives and hearts of women from Eastern Europe, the Middle East, the Mediterranean and South America, they sing of love, work, defiance and celebration. Recommended! Includes Spirit Friend, Peace Is Waiting Inside, Honest Eyes, Music of Our Changes. (LW3) CS: 9.98

Lisa Dancing-Light Point of Balance

Recommended by Brooke Medicine Eagle, Lisa's 1990 debut album features her original vocal compositions, intended for the healing of Mother Earth and the spiritual reawakening of all her children. If there were a New Age Radio Top 10, the title cut would certainly be in it, with a melody which you'll hear in your mind long after the album has ended, with tenor sax and more; Winds of Change, dedicated to Oya, Goddess of change and transformation; Power Chant; Mother Earth Chant and others; but you could buy this primarily for the title cut — it's worth it. (ETR91) CS: 9.98 . . . CD: 14.98

Lisa Moskow & Kukoo Grewal Passages from India

Here Lisa on sarod teams up with Kukoo, an Indian tabla-player who studied under the most well-known master of Indian drumming East and West — Zakir Hussain — and adds drone on tambura by Philippine artist Evelie Arellano, to offer her first recording of traditional North Indian classical music. Included are the very sweet and romantic raga, Gorakh Kalyan, in slow and fast tempos; Sindhi Bhairave, a raga full of mystery, wonderment and compassion in sitarkhani, a rhythm cycle that swings like a bossa nova; Jog, a bluesy raga in dadra, a light 6-beat folk rhythm that changes to a fast 16-beat cycle; and Raga Kirwani, one of the most popular Indian ragas, with a playful and exotic character. Artful and very enjoyable. (LMW2) CS: 9.98

Lisa's much-anticipated fourth release is a collection of healing and awakening songs inspired by the spirit and given to her in meditation. Rooted in many traditions, they are offered here as new songs for a new time, with respect for all the traditions reflected; and her voice serves as a beautiful instrument for conducting them. Wolf Chant, inspired by the sounds of howling wolves, is an emotional release song, while The Giveaway Chant gives us a way to ceremonially let go of old habits which impede us. Contains a guide for using the songs for healing and in ceremony. As always, highly recommended. (SD4) CS: 9.98

Nancee Kahler

Open the Sky

Each year we receive several hundred instrumental recordings seeking distribution... so to add one to our catalog, there needs to be something special about it. This one's an absolute stand-out! Nancee's a talented composer and keyboardist whose music is fresh, engaging, upbeat, vaguely in the spirit of Pat Metheny, Mason Williams or Earl Klugh at times: a beautiful blend of classical, jazz, folk and pop idioms, with strong melodies and (most of the time) back-up instrumentation of electric and acoustic guitar, violin, bass, percussion. Two of the best are Under the Influence of the Ninth... Beethoven's that is, and The Raven's Flight Back Home. Great driving music — Highly recommended! (BD4000) CD: 15.98

Tibetan Bells II

Utilizing solely the bells, bowls, cymbals and gongs of Tibet, these artists create sounds which could almost be confused for electronic music! An unprecedented synthesis of the sounds of East and West, of Past and Present, of Here and Beyond — quintessential space music, produced by Stephen Hill of Hearts of Space. This is the musical and metaphysical heir to their original 1971 underground classic, "Tibetan Bells". Prepare for an out-of-body experience. (CEL005) CS: 9.98 . . . CD: 15.98

Tibetan Bells III: The Empty Mirror

This album completes the musical odyssey of Nancy and Henry begun in 1969-70 in India and Nepal. By the expression of subtle harmonic relationships, it quickly transcends the temporal domain. The resonance of the Tibetan Bell tones, far richer than any synthetically produced sound, builds an increasingly fine perception and subtle comprehension in the listener. (CEL027) LP: 9.98 . . . The Bells of Sh'ang Sh'ung

With this 1991, new trails are blazed by the musicians who created the classic Tibetan Bells trilogy. Sh'ang Sh'ung is the Tibetan name for Shambala, the fabled lost kingdom where the most precious teachings of Buddhism were conceived and remain preserved to this day. The artists musically depict a journey to this mythical place, complete with physical, mental and spiritual tribulations of the pilgrimage, and evoking the awe-inspiring spectacle of the Himalayas. Based upon but not limited to the unadorned music of the bells of Tibet, they utilize synthesizers and space-age electronics as counterparts to the magic resonances of the Tibetan bells. Strange and dazzling! (CEL037) CS: 9.98 . . . CD: 15.98

Emerald

Yes! What charm and grace! Nancy's liquid oboe, English horn, and ocarina flow beautifully with Eric's guitar and Spencer's piano into the sparkling, shining gem-like compositions which make up this collection... the green of Ireland is absolutely its color! And melodic, mischievous and magical is the mood. Some cello, harp, flute accompaniment. Everything Nancy contributes to we heartily recommend. (NAL1011) LP: 10.98 . . . CS: 9.98 . . . CD: 15.98

Legends

With magical interaction of woodwinds and guitar, this album celebrates people who became legends because "they had a certain centered connection with the Universe that yielded high personal expression." Among the subjects, and song titles, are Sacajawea, Amelia Earhart (The eyes of Amelia), Joan of Arc, and Gandhi. It was Nancy who provided the concept early in the project. Inspirational for turning dreams to reality, and for pursuing one's highest visions. (NAL1022) LP: 9.98 . . . CS: 9.98 . . . CD: 15.98

Kalama: A Sufi Song of Love

This 1990 release carries the extended chant to a new level of complexity, with 48 tracks and 32 separate lines of choral music, while maintaining the stunning simplicity which creates wholeness and peace in the listener. Sides 1 and 2 are mixed differently; the first side, Rememberance, is gentler, more ambient; side 2 Celebration, features more variation, faster transitions and some intense male chanting. Sufism is a native Middle Eastern mysticism which stresses the underlying unity of all traditions. (SHM1011) CS: 9.98

Shri Ram

The artists compare this 1991 release to two of their previous titles, Om Namaha Shivaya and From the Goddess... Side 1 is a beautiful weaving of the simple melody of this widely-known Sanskrit chant — ideal for relaxation or meditation. On Side 2, the voices of On Wings of Song build to an ecstatic climax, as Eastern and Western influences are merged into a loving and heart-opening celebration. (SHM1013) CS: 9.98

Heart of Perfect Wisdom

On this 1990 extended chant album, Side I is an extraordinary cross-cultural tapestry based on the Buddhist Heart Sutra. Side II is a meditative journey skillfully blending Eastern overtone chanting, Tibetan bells and bowls, and Nepalese bamboo flutes. The frequencies created can affect brain waves, heart beat, and respiration, and induce alpha and theta states of deep meditation. Ancient yet technotronically futuristic! (SHM1012) CS: 9.98

Gloria

Imagine entering a Gothic cathedral as the great bell sounds the call to prayer. The thousand-year-old melodies of Gregorian chant echo through the cathedral as the monks intone: "Gloria in excelsis deo, et in terra pax." ("Glory be to God and peace on earth.") The congregation responds, chanting again and again the simple refrain "Adoramus te." ("I adore thee.") On this 1991 extended-chant album, male voices are joined in beautiful harmony by the women of On Wings of Song and the delicate accompaniment of classical guitar. (SHM1014) CS: 9.98

In A Light Garden

Our highest recommendation goes to this one... every second is pure listening pleasure, and it does not sound like every other new age recording you've heard; in fact, it doesn't sound like any other one. Original compositions for Celtic harp, cellos, violins, violas, flute and keyboards... glorious baroque sequences, rock riffs, jazz progressions, classical strains... sparkly magical soundbursts, playful, giddy dances over the soundwaves. Arpa De Las Americas

"Arpa Paraguaya y Guitarra": truly gorgeous Paraguayan harp and guitar performances of Latin American traditional folk music, by North American duo Sandy Smith and Jack Montgomery. Sandy's harp is right out front, carrying most of the melody lines, and her precision, proficiency and delicacy are sumptuous to the ear. This recording is simultaneously soothing and lively, stands up to repeated listenings, and is a perfect blend of New Age and International elements. Timeless and beautiful, if you were to represent it visually, your picture would be full of sparkles...fitting, since platero is the Spanish word for silver. Highly recommended! (PLT1001) CS: 9.98

Pomegranate

This 3-woman ensemble represents a new voice singing of the Old Religion, with ancient people's veneration of the Goddess as the keynote. Forceful and striking vocal harmonies blend with acoustic stringed instruments (guitar, cello) and percussion, creating chants and songs which are strong affirmations of the feminine. The first side of the tape musically casts a Dianic circle, and the second side includes songs of a more pantheistic nature. Two members, Ariana and Alaina, are both priestesses of the Old Religion; Diana is a classically-trained musician, influenced by multi-ethnic music; and the tape additionally features "a company of womyn." Includes Blessed Mother, May Queen, Earth Mother, and more. 60 min. (POM1) CS: 9.98

Within the Wind

Departing from previous releases somewhat, her third is a sumptuous international journey, introducing the listener to an intriguing variety of lively and exotic instruments; anglung (Indonesian bamboo shakers), kalimba (African thumb piano), chyn (Chinese harp), waterphone (an unusual handmade metal sculptured water-resonating instrument which sounds somewhat like a whale), African slit-drum, plus sitar and classical harp. Balancing these expressions with the western beauty of an Irish love song and a Debussy composition, Radhika has created a body of work which will hold your interest, soothe you and transport you, from start to finish. Recommended! (RM1103) CS: 9.98

Origins

A "radhikal" departure from her previous releases, this incredible, ambitious work was recorded at St. John the Divine Cathedral, and blends Radhika's talents on flutes and recorders with those of instrumentalists like David Darling on cello, Michelle Sell on harp, Dorothy Papadakis on piano and cathedral pipe organ, plus percussion and more, some by Paul Winter Consort members. This time, Radhika concentrates on original material; much of it is rhythmic and upbeat, all of it is uplifting. (RM1108) CS: 9.98 . . . CD: 14.98

Gems of Grace

A perfect title for this inspirationally centering work, on which she collaborates again with harpist Michelle Sell, cellist David Darling, and pianist Allaudin Mathieu. All compositions are variations on the theme of grace — the sense of balance and beauty which brings us peace. She explores new textures here, introducing French horn player Alicia Telford, and some carefully chosen synthesized orchestral parts. Originally conceived of as a lullaby album for children (until she realized adults need unwinding more than their younger counterparts), it contains Her Majesty's Lullaby, Lullaby for Mary, Night Herding Song, and Motherless Child. As always, highly recommended. (RM1109) CS: 9.98 . . . CD: 14.98

We All Come From the Goddess

Here's how Merlin Stone, author of When God Was a Woman, described this tape by Tori Rea, Molly Scott, and Sarah Benson... we couldn't say it better: "Drawing upon the Goddess images of Asia, the Near East and North America, these songs and chants create a magical space in which we can move thousands of years into the past or glide into visions of joyous future. Certainly a high point in the music emerging from women's spirituality!" Harmonizing vocals, some acappella, some with flute, percussion; recorded in sacred places in southern France. Lyrics enclosed. Recommended! (MED1) CS: 9.98

Accompanied by percussion, flute, guitar, she performs chants and songs including Let Us Cast a Circle, Earth Mother (set to music by Kate Wolf), Only Within Burns the Fire I Kindle (Poem by a Buddhist nun), Sundancer, Songs to the 4 Elements, and a chant from a women's circle. Inner Palace I & II (2-Tape Set)

Tape I is a fascinating selection of devotional songs from spiritual communities of the (mostly western) world—in an impressive variety of languages—with rippling, evocative instrumentation by primarily women artists. For instance: Navajo Night Chant (with "God" changed to "Goddess"); a 14th century French song; a song from the Taizé Community in southern France; Lemurian Chant, written in a language called "Ra-Ali-Leu-Hu". Tape II is a further exploration of the ways different cultures worship the Great Mystery. This time, she draws heavily upon Asian and African concepts, images and chants, with invocations to goddesses Oya, Iemanjá, and even Artemis. A very ancient feeling prevails. Beautiful...recommended! (MED4) CS: 17.98

Rashani (Tori Rea) & Sister Phuong

A Rose For You, The Buddha To Be

Sister Cao Ngoc Phuong sings poignant poem-songs written by Vietnamese peace activist Thich Nhat Hahn; her undulating, almost other-worldly voice underscores the bare simplicity and stark reality of the poetry. The subtle accompaniment of shakuhachi (bamboo flute), koto, and ocarina creates an unobtrusive backdrop to both Sister Phuong's singing in Vietnamese and Rashani's reciting of the songs in English. Insert includes English translations. Very different, and very beautiful. (MED7) CS: 10.98

Sarah Benson, co-founder of the Sound Healers Association and flautist extraordinaire, is known to some of our customers for her collaboration with Tori Rea and Molly Scott on We All Come From the Goddess; this "solo" effort (which does feature Elizabeth Reeke on accompanying tamboura) exquisitely echoes the sonic energies of the ancient healing temples of Egypt. ### Spiral Dance

For a decade, Starhawk's book by the same name has been the primary resource for women to explore their spirituality. This cassette provides a rare opportunity for the listener to share in a ritual, a circle, or a meditation with Starhawk herself. Included are rituals for casting the circle, raising the cone of power, invoking the Goddess, and reaching trance states. She explains how these rituals are linked to psychological states, and how to create your own rites. The author is also a peace activist, founder of two covens, and a minister of the Covenant of the Goddess. 90 minutes. (HRP055) CS: 11.98

Sunita Staneslow Eastward Winds

On this 1990 release, Sunita takes the harp back to its roots in the Middle East, where the cultures have been intertwined with the instrument for millennia. She frequently travels to the Middle East to study, perform, and explore the region's deserts, mountains and rivers; her harp improvisations were inspired by these experiences. In addition to traditional Ladino folk melodies from the Jewish culture of medieval Spain; the Sephardic Jews carried their traditions east throughout the Mediterranean after their expulsion from Spain in 1492. With some keyboard accompaniment; a calming, serene, evocative instrumental collection. (MAX2021) CS: 9.98

Susan Elizabeth Hale Circle the Earth with Song

"The chants on this tape are simple and repetitive. They are seeds with which to create your own verses, harmonies or songs. They are presented so that you may find your own voice and your own songs." These chants—both original and collected and performed with a minimum of percussion or flute accompaniment—are about The Goddess, Mother Earth; The Great Spirit, Kokopelli (the male hump-backed flute player from Hopi mythology), the Four Directions, and so forth. Insert has instructions on creating chants, rituals, and affirmations. Only complaint: we wish she had notated more about the origin of each chant, especially those she didn't write. Includes Ancient Mother, We All Come From the Goddess, with gorgeous harmonies and nature sounds. (SHA1) CS: 9.98

Susan Osborn Signature

Some of you may have heard this incredible vocalist perform with the Paul Winter Consort. This is the first album she's recorded which she really feels has her signature on it. Includes Rolling Back the Stone, I'll Always Be a Lover, Winter's Dream, and John Lennon's Imagine. Her themes are affirmation, joy-ousness, spirit. (LIF100) CS: 9.98

The Power of My Love For You

Note sale price on LP! If you are even remotely interested in spirituality, please read the fine print here: Susan consciously integrates feminizing images to symbolize sacred reality, and thus has been somewhat of a rabble-rouser as one of the early women to be ordained as a (UCC) minister, over 15 years ago. This album is a musical feast, with plentiful contributions by Rhiannon, Linda Tillery, Terry Garthwaite (also the producer), Barbara Borden, Mary Watkins, Janet Small, and many other talents. From the Native American drumbeats of the vivid call to heal the earth, Simple Ceremonies, to the shimmering brilliance of the closing refrains of Mama Trilogy, written during her mother's illness and death, Susan uses her insight, vision and richly-timbered voice to communicate spiritual realities. Highly recommended! (HL325) LP: 6.98 ... CS: 9.98

The Peace Church LIVE! (Double)

Susan serves as a minister to the Peace Church of Southern Maine, and this 80-minute 27-song tape for worship, meditation, chanting and community singing is performed by Susan and this ecumenical, inter-faith congregational choir, with and without accompaniment by Janet Hood. All songs are original, except Oh Great Spirit and Go in Beauty, which are traditional Native American; Alleluia and Meditation, based on Pachelbel's Canon, and Lay My Burden Down, based on the traditional Black spiritual. Proceeds benefit the Peace Church. (HL425) CS: 14.98

Susan Slack Semah

Semah comes from an Arabic term meaning a special evening of sharing music and poetry for spiritual awakening, and it's an appropriate title for this album of primarily voice and percussion. Recorded in one take, with the artist singing and drumming at the same time — no over-dubs — the pieces were offered more as prayers than performances. Her original compositions draw heavily from Arabic, African, Brazilian and gospel sources, and utilize occasional piano, vocal and drum accompaniment. A percussionist for 20 years, she demonstrates her talents on metal doudou, tar, djembe, frame drum, congas and more. Refreshing and recommended! (WAH1) CS: 9.98

Temple Song-Hearts

This group of 9 astonishing young British women perform the melodies of Sri Chinmoy, with whom they are studying music and meditation. The compositions are arranged by Santoshi, a young female classical pianist and a member of this group, for voices with cello, clarinet, flute, piano, harmonium and glockenspiel, creating some of the most heavenly sounds to be heard. The Bengali lyrics translate to words such as "In my heart is the smile of liberation from the Mother of the Universe." Angelic, harmonic, haunting, lovely, recommended. (HEA3) CS: 9.98

Teri Conti w/Radhika Miller Harvest Your Light

Two full-length guided meditations by a massage therapist: title, and A Journey Home. This recording attains an especially high degree of effectiveness, producing a deep state of refreshed relaxation, because of the vibrant, exquisite musical accompaniment by Radhika's master flute; we recommend it! (NAT1) CS: 9.98

Therese Schroeder-Sheker Rosa Mirocha

This 1990 release showcases the artist's subtlety, as well as her acuity, lyricism, and potent musical virtuosity. The poignant purity of her soprano voice, and the warmth of her harp accompaniments, imbue the ancient Irish, Rumanian, Israeli, and Sephardic melodies with a beauty and clarity that transcends time. And her original composition For the Roses draws inspiration from the past to shed light on how 20th century women mourn the loss of love and begin to heal in time. Therese casts an almost mystical spell, bringing rich tapestries of medieval music to life. (CEL034) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Therese Schroeder-Sheker Historical Harp Volume I: Celebrant

Magnificent! On seven harps and two psalteries built by Lynne Lewandowski, Therese impeccably performs medieval sacred repertoire, elaborating upon monastic chants and improvising within the style as was customary in early music. The wide display of sound colors reflects some of the many voices typical to Romanesque, Gothic, Celtic, and early Renaissance harps. Some selections are accompanied by voice. Recommended for new age as well as classical and early music lovers. (LAD1001) CS: 9.98

Motherpeace 5: Chakras

Relates to meditation and healing with Motherpeace and the body's energy systems; how to clear energy centers, heal emotional pain, and break negative agreements (psychic cleansing). Interesting, enlightening, relaxing and fun...one of the best explanatory and mind/bodywork tapes on the subject around. Excellent for use in conjunction with Kay Gardner's A Rainbow Path! Recommended. (WBW5) CS: 9.98

Parting the Waters

"This continuum of musical and rhythmic energy emanating from the female warrior within is a celebration for the soul; from the female warrior within is a celebration for the soul; the public expression of a uniquely personal culture revealing the influences of Europe, India, Africa and Japan." On this instrumental masterpiece, Vicki's primary colors are violin and electric violin, to which she adds shadings of kalimba and alto, with accompaniment from tabla, guitar, Peruvian flute and percussion. Her 25-plus years of study and exploration of violin-playing bear fruit here; lots of depth and breadth, spaciousness, uniqueness and creativity; highly recommended. (TSM1001) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Ode to the Elements

Contemporary original ethnic dance music inspired by the four elements — Earth, Air, Water, and Fire — arranged by choreographer Z-Helene, a.k.a. Helene Christopher, for her dance performances. Her dumbbell and tambourine accompany the flute, mandolin, guitar and drum of other band members, creating a blend of Middle Eastern, Indian, African, and modern sounds. Captivating, rhythmic, energetic, and different! Recommended especially for movement. (ZB1) CS: 9.98

Crossfires of Change
Mari is both a chemical dependency counselor and an excellent musician who is involved in the lesbian/gay community in Milwaukee. Her debut tape contains primarily original songs which relate to various recovery issues: addictions, sexual abuse, and co-dependency. They're inspirational and positive, with a necessary touch of humor — her 2-line Pity Pot song, which she doesn't plan to sing very long, for instance — performed in her strong, vibrant alto with her own piano and guitar accompaniment, with help from a few friends. Certainly recommended for anyone involved in a 12-step program, as well as others who are doing (or contemplating) any sort of personal work on these issues. (MH1) CS: 9.98

Nancy Day
Survivor
Music about the experience of and recovery from sexual assault, from a survivor. Nancy presents, with honesty and candor, the range of conflicting emotions which surface and are an important part of the healing process. A significant and crucial work. (ND4) CS: 9.98

Pam Morgan
Me and Enid/ Survivor
This 1990 release is directed to survivors of child abuse, but the messages included can easily be applied to anyone who needs to re-evaluate self-worth and put the pains of the past behind them. Her messages focus on the lovability of everyone in spite of the negative harmful influences that bring us down: on ourselves. Pam's simple, direct and beautiful delivery add intensity to the meaning of these obviously heartfelt songs. With charged songs such as More Aware, Take Care of Myself? and Daddy's Little Girl, this tape is recommended for both content and clarity. Our only complaint: we wish the lyrics were included. Facing Codependency
In this fresh look at codependency, the author traces its origins back to childhood, teaching how to identify that behavior. She introduces the concept of the "precious child" — that part of each human being needing reparenting in order to become a whole and healthy adult. (HRP1871) CS: 10.98

Rokelle Lerner
Challenge of Intimacy for ACoA's
"Healthy intimacy is the ability to give and receive full attention. This kind of attention is often overwhelming for children of alcoholics. As children, full attention may have meant violence, abuse or criticism. This tape will guide the listener into discovering their patterns of intimacy in order to achieve more fulfilling relationships." Rokelle is the author of the best-selling book, Daily Affirmations for Adult Children of Alcoholics. (HCI99) CS: 9.98

Ruth Huber & Kate McClennan
Trailblazers
This is truly trailblazing music, in that it addresses issues of recovery from dysfunctional and alcoholic families in an entertaining and universal context that everyone can enjoy. Both Ruth and Kate are experienced singer-songwriters and instrumentalists, and their excellent songs, harmonizing vocals, sparkling guitars and magical keyboards form a healing and sometimes hilarious potpourri of musical styles. Includes Seesaw Emotions, I Am Innocent, I Deserve to Thrive, and more. Recommended! (CIP1) CS: 9.98

Sandy Shanin
Step to the Music
Subtitled Songs of Affirmation for Personal Growth, this is a lovely and uniquely arranged collection geared toward fostering self-love. Side One, the vocal side, features choruses of positive affirmations coupled with a "fill in the blank" format; every third verse is instrumental, allowing the listener to create their own affirmation. Side Two contains the instrumental versions of the songs on side one, so you can be the soloist! Joined on vocals by Alan O'Day, plus Elton John's keyboardist, Guy Babylon, and others. Includes Love Is Opening My Heart, My Higher Power is Taking Care of Me, I Live This Day (I Live in This Moment). Very well produced, and very recommended! (SOC1) CS: 9.98

Susan Herrick
Loving Me
Now that you (hopefully) have Susan's newer album, some of you will probably want this debut folk recording too! While not specifically dealing with recovery issues, there is a strong healing theme — not surprising from a music therapist: includes Warrioress, The Dreams I Work For Are Mine, Step By Step, Inner Voice, The Embrace, title song... plus White Porch (a lovely image of two old lesbians in rocking chairs comes to this reviewer's mind). (SH1) CS: 9.98

Truth & the Lie
A remarkable recording from a remarkable artist and performer — one we recently experienced in concert for the first time, and, quite frankly, were blown away! On this album, she sings original songs about her childhood sexual abuse, and the discovery and healing process she has undergone as an adult... which has been enhanced in all probability by making this album, since it is breaking a silence that has been expected of her from early years. Her lyrics are full of depth and grace; her voice tender yet strong, her harmonies sweet; musically the production is excellent. Whether the issues she addresses are ones you are specifically confronting in your own life or not, we advise that you make the time and place to listen to this... we're giving it our highest recommendation! Recovering Joy (Double)

Representing 10 years of Susan's own work on recovery, this is one of the most lyrically excellent, thorough, inspirational bodies of work on the subject, eloquently communicating each step of the process, including the move from self-healing to justice in the world. And, pronouns for the higher power—when used—are primarily female. Recorded live, with piano by Janet Hood. (HL525) CS: 14.98

Women's Music ♦ Feminist Music

Abbe Lyons
Household Chores
Jewish Lesbian is one of the great selections on this tape of original blues and songs, performed with passion, humor and simple accompaniment; the title song is another, sounding too familiar to all of us who have ever argued and negotiated about household chores; then there's Leffer Baby's Blues, about a long-distance relationship... don't miss this 1990 debut release! (AB224) CS: 9.98

ADA
Opportunity Knocks More Than Once
This amazingly talented woman, originally from Texas, is now local to us Ladyslips! She produced, engineered, mixed and recorded these engaging songs she co-wrote with her mother Nancy Khoury, moving effortlessly between country, folk, pop, and blues, and tackling subjects from love to the KKK with passion. Her voice is deep, evocative, emotion-laden, backed by her mother's vocals on some. A wonderful debut. (PTE1) CS: 9.98

Too Controversial
This 1990 release features more of Alice's trademark heartfelt lyrics and soulful voice, plus tightly arranged accompaniment (acoustic guitar, bass, keyboards, percussion, soprano sax and cello). Many songs focus on detailing the oppressive aspects of American culture, but what saves this from being a ranting political manifesto is Alice's gorgeous vocal treatment — alternately sweet and growly, whispery and full-throated — and integral acoustic instrumentation. Other songs speak of a woman's love (Naomi), women's spirituality (New Moon), and a lovely cover of the traditional Water is Wide. Overall, a great example of "personally political" music. (ADM103) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Alice Di Micele
Make A Change
If you're looking for some political folk music performed in an irresistibly gorgeous alto voice, try this! Her strong, deep, textured vocal quality will pull you right in and mesmerize you, as it effectively communicates her ideas: love for the earth and all creatures, a strong commitment to peace, political and social change, and to personal and political growth — pretty comprehensive, eh? Includes Wise Old Woman, Dismantle, and more; primary accompaniment is cello, guitar. Nice! (ADM101) CS: 9.98

Alice Di Micele
It's A Miracle
Alice's second recording features a fuller sound — acoustic guitars and cello are joined by some sizzlin' sax and drums — and a lyrical exploration of the earth's wonders, spiritual connections, love and loss. Her sense of arrangement is uncanny to the content, and her voice is infused with emotion, spirit, and beauty. Songs include Orange Moon, Silver Fire, Woke Up Cryin', The Beaver Song. "A triumph of human and musical spirit—that is City Life at its best. Their individual and collective mastery of idioms—from bebop and ballads to Afro-Cuban and pop—is abundantly evident on this album"—this quote from their jacket sums it up. Order this classic recording now, before it becomes ever out of print. With Rhiannon as lead singer, Alive! was one of the most dynamic jazz ensembles ever to hit the Women's Music scene... and one of the most dynamic ensembles of any kind ever to hit the jazz scene. This 5-woman band weaves instrumental & vocal improvisation with jazz & classical sounds, with traditional African & Latin polyrhythms, with female images & feminist lyrics. Out of this blend has flowered some of the most revolutionary, unified & beautiful sounds being created these days by anyone. Among the songs here are City Life, Somebody's Talkin', Dark Side of the Moon, & Spirit Healer. (WWE84) LP: 6.98

Alix Dobkin, Kay Gardner
Lavender Jane Loves Women
The first blatantly lesbian album we know about (1974) and one of the first to be completely produced & engineered by & for women. An artful blend of serious & humorous material. Contains some real classics, like I Only Want To Be With You, a couple of traditional songs, help from the kids, Alix's voice-training yells, plus original Lesbian compositions. Includes The Woman in Your Life is You, Talking Lesbian & View From Gay Head. (A001) LP: 9.98 ... CS: 9.98

Alix Dobkin
Living With Lesbians
This outrageously funny yet warm & wise tribute to lesbians contains not only words of support, but the sweet voice of Alix. Trained in Balkan singing by Ethel Raim, Alix has incredible control over her voice. She utilizes it well on her own songs & a few traditional Balkan ones. Original compositions feature her on guitar with all-woman back-up singing to & about lesbians. Includes Mary B., Good Old Dora & Amazon ABC ("a saucy romp through the lesbo-alphabet"). (A002) CS: 9.98

Alix Dobkin
Yahoo Australia! Live from Sydney
This incredibly wonderful release — in our opinion, Alix's best yet — was recorded live in concert when Alix toured the world's oldest continent in January of 1990. Uniting Alix's identity as a world folksinger (that's how she began her career, before she came out) as well as one of the most lesbian-affirming musicians performing today, it includes Yahoo Australia, Women of Ireland, Women Singing in Zimbabwe, plus Lesbian Code, Intimacy, Shameless Hussies, The Girls Want To Be With the Girls, New Ground, Crushes (the last, one of our favorites for years). Simply produced, it's an intimate experience with Alix and her guitar, humor, honesty, warmth and love, and a moving celebration of the world-wide community of women. Very, very highly recommended! XX Alix

Note sale price on LP! Alix's material just gets better and better. This collection of songs is, as usual, highly personal, concrete, articulate, thoughtful, & thought-provoking. Her originality, observations & experiences emerge as entities which are simultaneously aesthetic & contentful; vulnerable & solid-as-a-rock. Alix doesn't camouflage paradoxes with rhetoric, she explores them, uses them...so refreshing and satisfying. Features the talents of River Lightwomoon & Susan Shanbaum, includes Theme from "Getting Ready," Living with Contradictions, Separation '78, Woman to Woman. These Women/ Never Been Better

Again, note reduced LP price! Ever in a ground-breaking, controversial mode, Alix will shock her folkie fans with some of these selections! Mixing high-tech sound with unadulterated feminist and lesbian messages, Alix joins with Carol MacDonald and Witch to create the honest, scathing Boy-Girl Rap, Some Boys, and a country remake of her classic The Woman In Your Life Is You. Then, switching to her more familiar and still-dear folk style, she delivers Big Girls, Crazy Dance, 100 Easy Ways To Lose a Man, and the lovely These Women. Never Been Better...is how Alix views women's lives and women's culture...is how Alix empowers women to focus on strength and change...is what you'll say about Alix's music after you hear this! Highly recommended. (A005) LP: 6.98 ... CS: 9.98

Compelling, introspective, and all acoustic, in a folksy/ jazzy/ bluesy vein. (WND0291) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Sex for Breakfast

What an odd, different sort of a tape! Frankly lesbian lyrics, with a 1930's lounge sound and Allen Sherman-type humor and rhyming... her original songs include Body Hair, I Get a Rash from Relationships, Your Women's Bookstore, Provincetown, A Lesbian Cemetery. Watch for her at women's music festivals! (AS1) CS: 9.98

Assar Santata & Chamel No. 6

Live

Anyone who attended the 15th Anniversary Michigan Festival in 1990 will remember this dynamic percussionist and her world-beat women's ensemble from the Saturday night show! Born in Brazil, she lived and traveled in Venezuela, Europe and West Africa before settling in Montreal... and brings the African, Latin, reggae and jazz traditions and rhythms from her life experiences to her music (she has also been invited to perform with Miles Davis) as well as a dedication to promoting women's talents. The 6-woman Chamel No. 6 (their name a caustic wordplay on the cologne) provides ample backup on sax, bass, guitar, keyboards and vocals to her congas, percussion, and lead vocals. This tape was recorded in 1989 at the Crossing Culture Festival in Toronto. (NDA169) CS: 10.98

Aya!

In addition to a sensationally wonderful Canadian women's acappella ensemble, Aya is also the word for a Celtic goddess as well as a fern for a symbol of defiance in an African language. When they recorded this album, a benefit for AIDS Vancouver, they were a trio (they have since become a quartet), and their sumptuous, layered 3-part harmonies proclaim lyrics from women's, labor, and other solidarity movements. Includes their powerful original Witch Hunt, which correlates the oppressions over the centuries of women herbalists, suffragists, Black liberationists, feminists, lesbians and gays, and other groups. Recommended! (SEV005) CS: 9.98

Barbara Higbie

Signs of Life

Awaited for so many years, here at long last is the 1990 solo album by one of the most talented keyboardist-composers around, known to many for her work with Teresa Trull and Montreux. And it will probably exceed your highest expectations. Here she blends her incredibly beautiful voice (which has been a secret to us for a long time) with stirring lyrics, adding to them her already accomplished instrumental style. Includes The Safest Place in the World, which couples will probably play over and over. Very highly recommended! (WH1090) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 16.98

Bernice Johnson Reagon

River of Life / Harmony: One

This incredible, incredible acappella album features Bernice stacking parts — i.e. multi-tracking her own voice — with up to 12-16 parts in one song! This is a documentation of the several harmony systems she operates with in her work with Sweet Honey as well as in her solo efforts. The traditional songs — Jacob's Ladder, Since I Laid My Burden Down, and others — utilize the Black congregational harmony system, not commonly used in recordings or performances, which generally feature quartet, do-wop, or jazz systems. Other harmony systems are employed in her originals: I Am A Lady, Easy Street, Running. Another facet of Bernice's invaluable contributions in the fields of education, culture, musicology, and history, not to mention listening enjoyment! Highly recommended. (FF411) CS: 9.98

Bernice Johnson Reagon/ Bill Moyers

The Songs Are Free

This is the audio track from the video by the same title (see Video section of this catalog), on which Bernice traces the history of communal singing and the repertoire rooted in the Black church — from songs of resistance, courage and pride to songs of determination and faith — and explores their roles from the Underground Railroad through the Civil Rights movement into the present. Includes dialogue, instruction, and performance, solo and with both the SNCC Freedom Singers and Sweet Honey in the Rock. (MYS902) CS: 11.98

Betsy Lippitt

It's been about a ten-year wait on our parts for this, we've been fans for that long!! Her voice is immensely rich and textured, full of nuances in emotion; she paints with it, every color on the palette. Includes For Therese, her masterpiece for Therese Edell, Focus, Hesitate, Vocal Violin, with some too-short moments of her stunning instrumental virtuosity, and So We Talk, which features Therese Edell on low harmonies. Beth Mullaney

Simon Says

Beth, one of the only women who has ever sued a church — and won! — has an interesting story to tell. In 1987, she was excommunicated from her Nebraska fundamentalist church, where she had been an active member for 8 years, for being "immoral" a.k.a. a lesbian. To a trained counselor at the church who guaranteed confidentiality, Beth had shared information about her lesbian relationship. Violating the ethical code, the counselor had revealed this to an all-male Board of Elders, whose response was to inform the entire 2000-person congregation of her "immorality" and to demand she give up the relationship. When she refused, they excommunicated her and forbade the congregation to associate with her. She sued for breach of confidentiality, and in 1990 won a settlement, with which she was able to record this cassette! It's an excellent, professional production: the title track speaks of her devastating experience with church discipline; and her love songs are especially touching, considering the circumstances. She hopes to set precedence for others by her action, and we'd like to support her by encouraging you to order this! (DR1) CS: 9.98

Betsy Rose

Wings Against the Sky

The first recording in several years by this pioneering women's musician is a lovely collection of original songs about issues dear to her heart. From the angry House Full of Secrets about the lasting effects of child abuse, to Darlin' I'm Glad, a light-hearted coming-out story with a surprise ending, to a loving tribute to the Sanctuary movement, Open the Doors Again, the songs display her open-heartedness to all people. Accompanying vocalists include Judy Fjell and Judy Friedman, as well as a funky scat solo by Rhiannon. (KAL31) CS: 9.98

Betsy Rose

Live From the Very Front Row

Produced by Roma Baran (Laurie Anderson's producer, too), this is a very beautiful representation of this singer-songwriter's warm, compassionate, strong, funny and eloquent spirit. Betsy is a charismatic performer — an advocate for so many — and a live recording is her medium, second only to an in-person appearance. This album is a statement of love for women and men, of growing older, of wanting children, of a commitment to being true to herself, ever stepping outside of boundaries. One of the best songs is In the Very Front Row, about her woman minister friend. (PCR5455) CS: 9.98

BETTY

Hello, BETTY!

This favored harmonizing DivaRock trio announces their debut release — it features the hit singles Wolfwoman, Batticalo Junction, Ms. Snake, Picnic Love Affair, Go Ahead and Spit, Mr. Amoeba Man. 21 songs in all, 48 minutes of fun. We know how hard this has been to get, and we are visualizing that there are no further delays! (BET1) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 16.98

Blazing Redheads

Put on your cha-cha slippers and get ready to dance...to the Latin jazz from this 7-woman band from the Bay area. With 3 percussionists, 2 sax/lute players plus bass and keyboards, you know the rhythm's gonna be driving, undulating and raucous! Each brings years of experience playing salsa, jazz, funk, Latin, Brazilian, and rock music, and together they form a tight ensemble. Material and arrangements are original...recommended! Crazed Women

The Redheads have a new one for 1991...jazzy and percussion-rich, with elements of Latin, R&B, and even rock...fun and exciting! Joy Julks plays bass on this one. (REF41) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 16.98

Bobbi Carmitchell

Crossing the Line

Debut album from a woman who's charmed audiences at the Southern and National Women's Music Festivals. She creates a soft easy folk sound, playing all the keyboards, acoustic guitars, bass, and singing all the vocals, with some additional accompaniment...ther/s something in her delivery and/or vocal timbre that's somehow reminiscent of James Taylor. Several of her songs are for particular women. (LOC1) CS: 9.98

Cappy Kotz/ Phrin Pickett

In Search of/ Return of the Hammer

Sort of a wild lesbian musical soundtrack here (or, actually, two lesbian musicals): the adventures of The Three Mustbequeers (Thunder, Toughie, and Butchina) in search of the Hammer, an item that looks like a labrys, which was ritually important to the matriarchal culture. On their way, they encounter characters like Lesbe Ann and Mary Femrite, and we hear songs like The Clothes Don't Make the Amazon, Committee Blues, She Drives Me Crazy. Developed and performed by a lesbian feminist theater group in Seattle in the 80's, this is an absolutely outrageous, unique, and fun production! (HAM1) CS: 9.98

Show Off What You Got

Check out this price! Rhythmic, driving rock-n-roll from one of the true pioneers in women's rock — she was founder and leader of Isis, one of the most long-lived women's bands with lesbian material, for 7 years. This LP, recorded with a male band, includes the rock ballad Silver Shoes and Strawberry Wine, Streethfighter, You Brought Me Out, and her original Laugh 'Til We Cried, written for Isis. It's the only available album by Carol, and we probably have the only copies! (SWS1104) LP: 2.98

Carole Etzler & Bren Chambers

Thirteen Ships

Thirteen was a number sacred to the Goddess. Inspired by "a vision that one day thirteen ships, each with thirteen women, would set sail and find a new land untouched by patriarchy, a land of peace and plenty...a metaphor for our journey as individual women and as sisters, finding and creating new space where we can be healthy and whole"...Carole's first release in 7 years contains songs of love, hope and vision by Carole and Brenda Chambers. Includes political songs like Women, Raise Your Voice, personal songs such as Women I Have Known and Loved, with a myriad of women on back-up vocals and accompaniment...a very women-identified volume! (SIS3) CS: 9.98

Carole Etzler & Bren Chambers

Rainbows In My Mind

Rainbows appear when the sun and the rain embrace and create magic. In the same way, this 1989 album reaches out and lifts the spirit. From the delicate chimes of Cup of the Moon to the drumbeats of Chant for Mother Earth, the music touches the threads of our relationships with each other and the planet. Carole and Bren intertwave cello, guitar, voices, piano, chimes, Aztec drum, gong, Celtic harp, and Tibetan singing bowls into a joyful celebration of life. (SIS4) CS: 9.98

Caryl DeGroot

Womoon To Womoon

Lovely lesbian music by a folkie Phoenix performer, who has written unabashed love songs in a strong woman-identified tradition. Guitar and harmony vocals accompany Gentle Womoon, Womoon Rise Up Rising, Come and Dance, Lay Me Down. Tired of vague references? This is for you. (ROL1) CS: 9.98

A fitting follow-up to her first, here is another collection of songs about deeply and proudly loving women: Lady Love, Amelia, Mountain Woman, Song Sage Sister, Lovely Woman and more. (ROL2) CS: 9.98

Casselberry-Dupree

This duo of Black women is wowing audiences wherever they perform. Their voices and harmonies are full, strong, sweet, and vibrant. They've been making music together for years, appearing at women's music festivals, rallies, etc., and their sound reflects their long association. Selections here number 5 reggae tunes, including Judy Mowatt's Sisters' Chant, some acappella, others with tasteful percussion or accompaniment. Recently remixed for better sound, their cassette now has one new song plus three re-recorded songs. (ICE211) CS: 9.98

Casselberry-Dupree

City Down

No doubt one of the finer women's music releases of this decade! This duo synthesizes African, Latin, and reggae sounds with folk, contemporary, soul, even country, and the recipe transforms the ingredients into extraordinary and exciting fare. From the urban title cut, to the Rastafarian Positive Vibration, the Yoruba Obatala, the political South Africa, to the elegy written by Dory Previn to "a Black Woman that did exist" — Did Jesus Have A Baby Sister? — join them on their rich journey. Produced by Linda Tillery. (ICE215) CS: 9.98

Catherine Madsen

The Patience of Love

A very special, unique recording: women's harmonies and Celtic folk/medieval-style songs, with feminist, women-celebrating (and some erotic) lyrics. There is both a light and reverent feeling to this collection, and anyone who has appreciated hymn-singing for its musical quality is sure to enjoy this. The liner notes point out that the music here is "grounded in and inspired by the intelligence of the female body...it is on the authority of (her) skin, (her) bones, (her) heretic heart that the poet cheerfully turns Christian hymns to her pagan purposes." Of her song The Heretic Heart, written to the tune of an Episcopal hymn, she says, "If Jesus loves me...he must go unrequited." Some acappella, some accompanied by guitar, harp, dulcimer, drum, tinwhistle. Recommended. (WWD001) CS: 9.98

Cathy Miller

Superwoman

Do you crumble at the sound of one of those extraordinary voices? If so, this'll do it for you: a three-octave range with perfect control, and the lower registers are...mmm...super. With a background in feminist cabaret theater, this Canadian woman describes herself as "a little political, a little facetious, a little nostalgic, and a whole lot of krazoo," and this collection is as eclectic: material is mostly original, some in a classic folk style. Includes title, Song for Jan, Calling To The Moon, and Four A.M., an indescribable acappella women's-harmonies song which alone is worth the price of this tape. (SWK01) CS: 9.98

Connie Kaldor

One of These Days

This album is a gem, it's great! The voice of this Canadian singer-songwriter is exceptionally fine and strong, some songs are feminist, and one is among the funniest we've ever heard: "Jerks/With a capital J" "Hey hey hey baby"... who whistle at and harass women walking by. This song is worth the price alone, but there's a whole album of good stuff with it. Another notable one is gospel-style Strength, Love and Laughter, imploring women to look inside for these treasures. However, this LP is one treasure you'll have to order from an external source (like us) and we hope you will! You won't be disappointed. (COY1317) LP: 9.98 ... CS: 9.98

Connie Kaldor

Gentle of Heart

A 1989 release of original songs infused with this Canadian artist's prairie-derived independence and sense of spaciousness, performed with her magnificently deep, emotive, resonant voice. Usually she includes at least one song on a specifically feminist issue; here it is One Hit Leads To Another, about wife-battering. An irrepresable energy and talent; it would be nice if her renown in the US would equal that which she is attaining in Canada! (OS019) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 16.98

Moonlight Grocery

Out of print in the US, but this Canadian import is again available...from Ladyslipper! A late '84 release by one of our favorite singer-songwriters. Includes Maria's Place, the very feminist Get Back the Night, Talk Without Speaking, Caught in the Cross-fire and more. (RR8504) CS: 10.98

The Changer and the Changed

There is good reason that this is hands-down the #1 seller in Women's Music — there will never be another album like this — and it set the tone for a decade of a new genre of music. It contains classics such as Waterfall, Song of the Soul, Dream Child of Desire. If you haven't heard it, we predict you'll love it, and urge you to take our word! Perfect gift for all sorts of friends & relatives. (OL904) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Strange Paradise

Musically on par with Changer & the Changed, with more rock-n-roll influence & some phenomenal synthesizer. Joined by Jackie Robbins, June Millington, & on one cut, Bonnie Raitt. (OL921) CS: 9.98

Cris Williamson

A reissue of the 1971 Ampex recording which introduced Meg Christian to Cris' music and sparked the idea for the women's recording company which became Olivia. This is "vintage" Cris in her simultaneously raw and refined vocal power, with the first recorded versions of Joanna, Waiting, Frontier. (OL927) CS: 9.98

Cris Williamson

Blue Rider

Rich vocals, mellow rock and balladry on this new studio album. Includes Lucille, featuring Bonnie Raitt on slide guitar and back-up vocals. Lodestar which Cris wrote for Judy Collins, a love song by Vicki Randle, Leviathan — a song about whales, and Heart to Heart. String arrangements by Mary Watkins. (OL931) CS: 9.98

Portrait

This retrospective compiled in 1983 is a collection of favorites drawn from her previous albums. (OL935) CS: 9.98

Cris Williamson

Prairie Fire

Singing of pioneering spirits and western expanses, Cris really rocks out on this one! The driving sounds of the title cut, the reggae of Colorado Dustbowl Days, the visionary rock of Tsunami (a Japanese word for new wave!) and the Native-American sound of Grandmother's Land make this a recording that will be hard to stop listening to. And bassist Carrie Barton and drummer Cam Davis underscore the sound with a top-notch, tight rhythm — what talent there! (OL941) CS: 9.98

Wolf Moon

This varied selection of songs has one common thread: a wolf theme running throughout! From The Run of the Wolf, a poignant dedication to Kate Wolf, to the love song Home Free ("no longer the lone wolf"... ) to title song about listening to Wolfman Jack's radio show! Also Goodnight Marjorie Morningstar, for Natalie Wood; Teen Queen, about the innocence of adolescence; and a cover of the early 60's tune Come and Go With Me. (OL951) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Best of Cris Williamson

Special long-playing 17-song late-1990 release — basically, a double-length album, chosen from her large discography (but not overlapping her previous anthology, Portrait). Both a wonderful introduction to those not familiar with one of the most successful artists in independent music, and a nostalgic reunion for long-time fans. Includes some of her most woman-identified material — Sweet Wmoman, Sister, Joanna, Surrender Dorothy — and many others of her best ever, such as Waterfall, Soaring, Strange Paradise. Circle of Friends: Cris Live...

This live recording of the 15th Anniversary of the Changer and the Changed show, as performed in Berkeley in 1990, brings back the special magic of that remarkable album which influenced so many of us in the early years. Includes selected highlights from the Changer — Waterfall, Sweet Woman, Shooting Star, Dreamchild, Sister, Song of the Soul — as well as previously unrecorded songs from Cris' early repertoire: If It Weren't For the Music (well, it was released, but only on a 45 rpm), Circle of Friends, Sisters of Mercy, Olivia, Millworker, Hey Good Lookin', and more. A wonderful way to remember and to honor the album and the era. 72 minutes long. (OL963) CS: 14.98 ... CD: 15.98

Cris Williamson & Teresa Trull

Country Blessed

A high-powered recording featuring two of the best! Their strong voices intertwine on both upbeat songs and ballads — with a touch of country. Includes Cris' Mother, Mother, written about a child with AIDS, which many of you will recognize from Olivia's 15th Anniversary concert tour; Calamity Jane, "good-time cowgirl romp," and the glorious blessed title track. Several songs represent stylistic departures, particularly for Cris as interpreter of other writers' material, stretching her talents in new and refreshing ways... and proving, once again, Teresa's superb skill as producer and presumably A&R ("artist & repertoire") woman. Highly recommended for old and new fans alike! (SW22013) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Meg/Cris at Carnegie Hall (2-Set)

A deluxe double volume of the entire herstory-making Carnegie Hall performance of Nov. 1982, which celebrated Olivia's 10th anniversary. Some of the highlights include the Cris-Meg duo Anniversary Song, Cris' Texas Ruby Red, Meg's rendition of Betsy Rose's tribute to herself and all of us, Glad to Be a Woman, and Vicki Randle and Linda Tillery's knock-out vocals on Ain't No Mountain High Enough. Lots of new material plus a medley of favorite oldies. The CD is one volume and contains all but 2 selections. (SW933) CS: 14.98 ... CD: 15.98

Cross Current

From Western PA's coal mines, steel mills, campuses, kitchens and hospitals come the members of this feminist performance group which addresses a broad range of issues with music, comedy and drama. They sing about women's rights, human dignity, opposition to war, apartheid and all forms of racism, and of solidarity with people struggling for justice around the world... through primarily original material, though they mix in a few choice songs by other writers. Includes If Men Could Get Pregnant, Sweep Aside Apartheid, Union Maids. Look for them at women's music festivals soon! (CCT1) CS: 9.98

D. A. Clarke

Messages: Music for Lesbians

This technical and musical "Renaissance lesbian" has released a debut album that is quite striking on many counts. First of all it starts off in a rock 'n roll mode, which is surprising for a solo tape; secondly, her voice is great; third, her lyrics are so to the point...very lesbian-affirming (she sings about dykes), or political (Good Germans is a song about good Americans), or spiritual (Crying Her Messages is about the Goddess). And then there's her wizardry on a wide variety of high-tech instruments - and she explains how she did it all (and she did it all, except for a couple of sax solos). Fifth, the production's crystal-clear, amazingly so for a self-engineered master. And, she created this for lesbians. So, that's 6 reasons why you should buy this! (CLA1) CS: 9.98

Dayna B. Kurtz

Debbie Saunders
A Shot in the Dark

Here's a special deal we're offering because we're overstocked: a warm, high-energy, outstanding debut recording from a vocalist who's been around the women's music scene for years, performing with Woody Simmons and as a member of several women's bands including Mama Sez Funk, Homespun, and Airhart. Blind since birth, she got her musical start singing and playing tenor sax and piano with the Texas School of the Blind band. Her vocal style is bluesy, textured, and very expressive. Produced by Mary Watkins, showcasing the talents of many other new and familiar women musicians; recommended! (SBS1011) CS: 4.98

Deidre McCalla
Don't Doubt It

Very hip, very contemporary, very danceable, Deidre's unique sound is clearly brought out by the superb production skills of Teresa Trull. Deidre has been performing for women's audiences for many years and this, her debut solo recording, has been anxiously awaited. Songs include Dance All Night, Wake Me Up Gently, Did You Think I Didn't Know. If you like Cns Williamson or Teresa Trull, you're sure to like Deidre. And we'd sure like to hear more from her! (OL939) CS: 9.98

With a Little Luck

...and a ton of talent! With a voice like silk and a presence that conveys vulnerability, honesty and quiet strength, Deidre has developed a devoted listenership of thousands. Her second album is even better than her first, from the irrepressible celebratory exuberance of All Day Always (bound to become a classic), to her pursuit of a woman in Would You Like to Dance, to a vocal duet with Teresa Trull that's just too hot for words... Recommended! (OL953) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

DEUCE

A very jazzy and funky album, primarily instrumental, by a New York ensemble led by 2 of our favorite musicians, Jean Fineberg (flute, sax) and Ellen Seeling (horns) — finally! Lots of Latin rhythms, courtesy of Nydia Mata, vocal contributions by Teresa Trull and Carol MacDonald, and an urban energy await you; don't be late to this date! (RR8602) CS: 9.98

Dianaruth Wharton

African Pop From the New World

She composed the musical score for For Colored Girls Who Have Considered Suicide When the Rainbow is Enuf... She played piano on Sweet Honey's first album — the only pianist they have ever worked with... She wrote In Process, successful song Love Is All Around Us... Those are just some of the credentials of this musician who blends her European classical roots with jazz, blues, folk, funk, pop and African influences on this debut solo album! She includes songs both in English and Pulaar, one of the most widely spoken of Africa's 1000 languages, and all selections were produced, composed, arranged and performed on voice and keyboards by her. Lots of talent and variety from an artist we are sure to be hearing more about. (DW87) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 15.98

Dianne Davidson

Breaking All The Rules

While newly taking the women's music world by storm, Dianne's no newcomer to the larger music scene, as this high-energy, gutsy singer, who has performed with Tracy Nelson and Linda Ronstadt, makes her debut on Second Wave Records. Years ago we carried some of her now-out-of-print albums; but she outdoes any previous effort by a long shot here. The power she harnesses in her voice is the first thing which will take your breath away: it booms, it wails, it burns, it belts her mixture of blues, country, gospel, r&b, and ballads. About half her repertoire is original (she's an excellent lyricist); the balance is perfectly chosen: includes Built For Comfort, Heaven Bound, Everything To Me. Backup vocals on one song by Tracy Nelson; outstanding production (by Dianne). Can ya tell we like this a lot? Highly recommended! (SW22011) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Box of Heaven

It's always great to be in at the beginning of a group that's really taking off, and that's definitely the case here! This four-song EP is further testimony to the duo's skill at mixing a rocking style with thought provoking social commentary. Using harmonies reminiscent of the Indigo Girls, yet with a great dance beat, the duo addresses the politics of Jesse Helms in Sink the Censorship, and builds emotional intensity in Box of Tissues. Look for them at festivals and your favorite east coast haunts. (DSP1005) CS: 6.98

With not much more than 2 voices, a guitar and a tambourine, this duo has created a surprisingly sophisticated sound: Veterans of Dinner Theater at the Southern Women's Music Festival, sisters Sonia and Cindy combine engaging melodies with catchy and thoughtful lyrics. Drum Drama!

One of the most dramatic percussionists around, Edwina Lee Tyler is a master of djembe drum, marimba, tambourine, cymbals; we've been hoping she'd make a recording for years, and finally our wish has been granted. Recorded live at the People's Voice Cafe in Greenwich Village, she begins with "the cool side," and progressively heats things up as she performs original percussion instrumentals (such as Out of Bondage) as well as new arrangements, with vocals, of a traditional spiritual (Wade in the Water) and a West African song (Ki Yak Ki Yak). As you listen, the movement and dance will absolutely come alive, in your mind and your body! (PPQ1) CS: 9.98

Elaine Townsend

Heartbreaker Blues

This wonderful debut tape of originals showcases Elaine's fine, strong voice, as it covers a lot of stylistic territory: barrelhouse blues, reggae, bluegrass, country, rock, jazz, and slow ballads! Produced by Mimi Fox, it features Mimi's amazing musical talent, plus that of Julie Homi, Nina Gerber, Laurie Lewis, Carolyn Brandy, Darol Anger, and others. Stand-out cut: Your Hands Take Flight, a paean to musicianship, with a vocal duet with herself and outstanding electric guitar instrumentals by Mimi. Recommended! (HIF001) CS: 9.98

Strong Heart

No stranger to attendees of several women's music festivals, Erica will hopefully soon be no stranger to a wider group of listeners, thanks to this 1989 debut tape. Faith Nolan

Africville

Focusing on Black women historically and presently, Faith's original songs give voice to issues as well as instill a sense of strength, through a variety of styles—blues, jazz, reggae, funk, African drumming. Here is a sampling of the topics you will learn about: Regina, a woman who was jailed for killing the white man who tried to rape her; Marie Joseph Angelique is a multi-tracked acappella song about a woman who was once a slave; Divide and Rule refers to the capitalist policy used on "colonized" people, and relates to the struggle in South Africa; Nobody Knows My People attempts to reverse the invisibility awarded by history books to everyone but white males; and title song is about the relocation of the largest Black community in Canada. Sistership

LP's on sale... This album focuses on the struggles and contributions of Black women: some songs relate to sexuality and lesbianism (She's Sixteen; "she is young, Black and gifted and gay..."); others to various political struggles. Also includes Libba Cotten's famous Freight Train and some traditional gospel and blues. Faith plays almost every instrument on the album: electric bass, 12-string, 6-string, slide guitar, harmonica and tambourine. (MCW11162) CS: 9.98

Faith Nolan

Freedom to Love

One of Faith's best releases! Includes an original rock anthem, I Black Woman; an incredible rendition of Strange Fruit, from Billie Holiday's repertoire; the title song, which equates homophobic laws with slavery; Ma Rainey's lesbian song Prove It On Me; and more, each with a clear and inspiring message of liberation. Backed by some of Vancouver's finest musicians. Recommended! (RR8903) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Faith Petric

WOMANCHILD

Faith Petric

Womanchild

Each day we all grow a little older, and when we think about it, we all know where we don't wanna be... would that all of us be able to be the Genit Gypsy, the "rambling renegade grandma" that Faith sings about. This is such a great inspirational song, we feel it's well worth the price of the tape! Also included: The Devil and the Farmer's Wife ("it confirms, yet again, if one needs reminding, the natural superiority of women"), Womanchild; The Family of Woman and Man, and other wonderful folksongs sung by a wonderful folksinger who, in her late 70's, is still performing at women's music festivals. Ferron

Phantom Center

One of the longest-awaited albums in the herstory of independent music, by an artist as singular as her name, is finally ready! Connecting rich, poetic, archetypal imagery with vibrant musical textures, it is guaranteed to create an immediate emotional impact. Instrumentalists include Barbara Higbie and Novi; songs include Stand Up, Indian Dreams, White Wing Mercy, Higher Wisdom. (CHM74830) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Ferron

Testimony

There is some mystifyingly magnetic power in the music of this woman-identified Vancouver songwriter... hard to describe but harder to ignore. Her voice and lyrics, which can stand alone as poems, will grab and hold you with their intensity. Technically polished, stylistically diverse, spanning jazz, folk, rock 'n' roll. Her testimony: "By our lives be we open... by our hearts be we women... by our eyes be we open... by our hands be we whole." (LUC003) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Ferron

Shadows on a Dime

On her latest album, this Vancouver songwriter, known for her lyrical mastery, brings us another testimony to her intelligence and very special artistry. The styles are diverse but the constant factor is the piercing portrayal of emotion, and on this album, the sparkling instrumentation adds yet another dimension. Produced with rock veteran Terry Garthwaite. (LUC004) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Four the Moment

We're Still Standing

Canada's answer to Sweet Honey in the Rock; it's an unavoidable comparison! This 4-woman acappella group lends distinctive harmonies to primarily original material with a range of political, empowering themes, from I Love You Woman, to Lydia Jackson, slave madonna... their songs reverberate with the experience and perspective of Black women everywhere. You've heard their vocals if you've heard Lillian Allen's Conditions Critical; don't miss this in either case. Recommended! (FTM1987) CS: 10.98

Gayle Marie

Lost & Found

Gayle Marie's third release is a potpourri of her audience's favorite tunes. From the folksy tunes, to the live performances in smoky bars, this tape even includes an operatic aria (plant tongue firmly in cheek). This personal and loving cassette offers a glimpse of Gayle Marie not seen before on record. (GM3) CS: 9.98

Girls in the Nose

One of our top pix for 1991!! Wild, raunchy, sexy, thrilling and hysterically funny lesbian-feminist yet politically incorrect rock 'n' roll. Loosely translating their philosophy as Viva la Vulva, this 6-woman band includes Gretchen Phillips from Two Nice Girls, here in her wilder persona. Here are some of the song titles: Come and Die (can you guess what that's about?), Bite Me, Honorary Heterosexual Lesbian, Menstrual Hut, Prisoners of Pantyhose ("So here's some advice from Girls in the Nose! Women unite, take back your hose! Take them back to the damn store... Let nylons be bygoness"), and others in this vein. Highly recommended! (GIN1) CS: 9.98

Halcyon

This Florida duo has been compared to the Indigo Girls, and with good reason — both groups employ strong vocal harmonies and ringing acoustic guitars — but Halcyon's expressive, emotional lyrics tread different waters on their debut 6-song tape. The main theme of lost love is explored from several angles, all evocative and deeply moving. Look for these women on festival stages — they're sure to be a hit! (HAL1) CS: 6.98

Heather Bishop

Grandmother's Song

Save on the LP on Heather's very first release. The title song gives the perspective of a pioneer woman growing old on the prairies. Heather is also a painter, and used a beautiful original of her grandmother for the cover art. (MOP001) LP: 6.98 ... CS: 9.98

Heather Bishop

Celebration

A feminist singer-guitarist from western Canada, Heather has a strong bluesy voice and draws material from both Black blues artists and contemporary Canadian women. This LP features more classic blues songs (Cry Me a River, Fever, Am I Blue) as well as feminist compositions. A Woman's Anger is the strong statement of a woman facing prejudice and mockery in a machinery shop. Also includes Did Jesus Have a Baby Sister? (MOP002) LP: 9.98

Heather Bishop

I Love Women...Who Laugh

Save on the LP! This LP is the embodiment of a successful transition in style, from a solid blues background to a more rock-oriented, funkier sound. Utilizing an incredible array of synthesizers, plus congas and saxophone, Heather produces strong moods and currents of emotion. Mostly original and clearly woman-identified material. Includes title cut, The Holocaust, Our Silence. Recommended. (MOP004) LP: 6.98 ... CS: 9.98

Heather Bishop

A Taste of the Blues

Save on the LP... This 1987 release is another serving of Heather's tasty blues, which is the style her voice was obviously created for... that's power, eh? Includes the sexy Seduced!, Leslie Gore's classic You Don't Own Me, Joan Armatrading's Taking My Baby Uptown ("with a pretty person on my arm"), Carolyn Brandy's Spirit Healer, and many originals. Sumptuous jacket, fine production, excellent artistry, wonderful woman. (MOP006) LP: 6.98 ... CS: 9.98

Heather Bishop

Walk That Edge

Save on this LP too... Heather's seventh recording has a simple down-home flavor, a contemporary folk sound with both country and rock influences. Her lyrics and music are sometimes sassy, sometimes sultry — daring to walk that edge — and sometimes sad and haunting, with images of separations, ghosts from the past, the path not taken. Includes Let Them Talk, which when sung by Heather becomes an affirmation of love between women, and I'm Not the One, about surviving an abusive relationship, with a driving guitar solo by Sherry Shute. A (wonderful) 1989 release. (MOP007) LP: 6.98 ... CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

The Heretics

Mass Hysteria

Toronto's premiere 4-woman band performs an inspired mix of dance music, funk and rock, and their first full-length album attests to their wit and creativity. Featuring all-around great musicianship as well as Pat Jeffries' powerful lead vocals, this 1991 release includes Heaven, a funk rave-up about a mental institution prophet; Move, a tale about the housing crisis; and He Thinks, a song which exposes the patriarchal anti-woman perspective, co-written with Lynne Fernie, who also wrote the Parachute Club's smash hit Rise Up. Recommended! (FR11) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 14.98

Holly Near

Hang in There

Holly's first album, made soon after her visit to Viet Nam during the war and inspired by the experience. Reflects her anti-war/anti-imperialist and beginning feminist consciousness and a concern for oppressed people worldwide. Contains one song performed by a choir of Vietnamese women. Includes No More Genocide and Birthday Children. (RR3800) CS: 9.98

Holly Near

A Live Album

This Florida classic second album, which captures the dynamic quality of her performances, is now back in print. Contains many of the best-loved songs about women, from a "hiking boot" mother to working class women to a friendship between a young woman and an Old Time Woman. Also includes It Could Have Been Me, Get Off Me Baby and Water Come Down. A personal favorite of this reviewer, and in an ancient quirky circumstantial way, one of the catalysts for the idea of Ladyslipper! (RR3700) CS: 9.98

Holly Near

You Can Know All I Am

Powerful—sometimes playful, sometimes painful look at the conditions of many kinds of women: in prison, organizing in factories, initiating relationships. More produced than her previous albums but Holly's voice still sparkles through. Concert leader is Marcy Dicterow who also does a beautiful violin solo on You've Got Me Flying. Includes a women's choir, Nicola & the stunning Sister Woman Sister. (RR3600) CS: 9.98

Imagine My Surprise!

Fire in the Rain

She's done it again! Holly's incredible talent as a singer/songwriter is exemplified here in musical portraits of strength and diversity. Produced by June Millington (she also joins in with guitars, percussion & vocals), this LP has a tight arrangement and polished sound. Features such songs as Golden Thread, Voices, & a remake of My Man's Got Trouble called I Got Trouble. Title cut sparkles with harmonics. (RR402) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Holly Near

Speed of Light

Polished, punchy rock 'n' roll, with an infusion of funk and reggae...Holly's musical odyssey continues! This LP has an upbeat, clean feeling, tight without a commercial, over-produced sound. Most unusual is Unity, on which she is accompanied by Afrikan Dreamland, a male reggae band from Nashville. Other musicians include Adrienne Torf on piano, Carrie Barton bass, Ray Obiedo on guitar. Contains Power, an anti-nuke song; Dancing Bird, the bluesy Back Off. (RR403) CS: 9.98

Holly Near

Watch Out!

This dynamic singer/songwriter continues to "go the extra measure in her music." Here she collaborates with the West Virginia folk and traditional quartet Trapezoid, well known for their Appalachian instruments and styles, and so enters yet another musical genre, acoustic folk music. Instrumentation here includes hammer dulcimers (played by John McCutcheon), violin, cello, mandola, and other newcomers to Holly's original topical songs plus a few. Lorraine Duisit and Freyda Epstein from Trapezoid likewise add a fresh dimension. Includes Child (about physical and sexual abuse of children), The Meek Are Getting Ready and Step It Out Nancy. (RR406) CS: 9.98

Singer in the Storm

Holly Near

Journeys

A representative sampling from her first six albums, compiled because so many folks, new to her music, have asked for one. Each of the previous are so different, and it's hard to say which is the "best," so this is a good place to begin. Includes an updated version of It Could Have Been Me. (RR405) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Holly Near & Ronnie Gilbert

Lifeline

A majestic collaboration of generations and spirits. Ronnie was one of the Weavers in the 40's and 50's, a folk group which loudly voiced the progressive and humanist concerns of the American people until the blacklist virtually silenced them, and which won the hearts and devotion of a huge following. Holly grew up admiring Ronnie's strong, proud singing and stance, and dedicated her second album (A Live Album) to her. They got together for the filming of "Wasn't That a Time", when Ronnie was learning some of Holly's songs for the Weavers' Carnegie reunion concert. Ronnie's awareness of women's issues and her consciousness of herself as a woman performer had grown because of Holly's music. They then began touring together, and this is a live recording from the Great American Music Hall in San Francisco. Styles encompass Broadway, folk, jazz, gospel. Includes the great song previously recorded by Kate Taylor, Harriet Tubman, plus Gracias a la Vida, Good-night Irene, Hay Una Mujer (new arrangement/words), Singing For Our Lives. (RR404) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Holly Near with Inti-Ilmiani

Sing to Me the Dream

In spring of '84 Holly toured with an exiled 6-man Chilean ensemble and this LP was recorded during those concerts. Inti's music is partly instrumental, South American folk music, and the vocals are part of what's known as New Song—a Latin American political/cultural movement. (RR407) CS: 9.98

Holly Near & Ronnie Gilbert

Singing With You

Both studio and live recordings from this inimitable duo. Includes a medley of old favorites (Imagine My Surprise, Something About the Women, more), Ruth Pelham's sweet, touching song from the perspective of a child whose parents have divorced, I Cried, Ferron's Kid's Song from her out-of-print record "Ferron Backed Up", and a variety of others which relate to social issues, friendship and love. (RR410) CS: 9.98

Holly Near

Don't Hold Back

Holly seems to present her listeners with one surprise after another, and this album is no exception! An entire volume of love songs: passion, heartbreak, and sheer fun...with hot arrangements and guest vocals by Bonnie Raitt, Linda Tillery, and Kenny Loggins. If you like the energy of contemporary radio and wish you could hear your favorite artists on it, you can rock out with this! For fans old and new. (RR413) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Holly Near

Sky Dances

A 1989 folky, intimate, emotion-filled release which features Holly at her absolute best, singing songs by contemporary writers such as Ferron (Testimony), Bernice Johnson Reagon (They Are Falling All Around Me—especially relevant during the AIDS epidemic), Ruben Blades, Phil Ochs, Malvina Reynolds, and Holly herself (Nicaragua), plus her inimitable interpretation of Somewhere Over the Rainbow. Her themes relate to life, death, and healing/carrying on after loss; accompanying her are John Buccchino, Michael Manning, Nina Gerber. This is the style which has endeared Holly to her thousands of fans; this album should make her many more. (RR8902) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Holly Near (w/Mercedes Sosa)

Singer in the Storm

Coinciding with the publication of Holly's autobiography comes the next-best thing to being at this once-in-a-lifetime event in person! This live recording of some of Holly's best-loved songs, recorded in Oakland in 1989, captures the vitality of her live appearances that's difficult to duplicate in a recording studio. And the icing on the cake is that it features, miraculously, Ladyslipper favorite Mercedes Sosa on two songs, including Todaya Cantamos, a fantastic rendition of one of Mercedes' most popular performance pieces! Also contains Singing For Our Lives, Great Peace March, Sing To Me the Dream, Si Buscabas, We Who Believe in Freedom, and more, with John Buccchino on piano, Melissa Etheridge on guitar, Linda Tillery and Rhiannon on vocals. Very, very highly recommended! (CHM74832) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Holly Near

Singer in the Storm-Life/Music of..

This 2-cassette "audio autobiography" is the closest most of you fans will come to taking Holly home with you! This spoken interview-style recording, with cuts from 25 songs, expresses Holly's wit and humor, honesty and candor, travail and triumph, musical talent and ability to live from the heart, as she sings and tells her story in her own words. This is not a reading from her book, but rather an animated conversation. 120 minutes. Recommended! (ENH08) CS: 15.98

Hunter Davis Torn

A wonderful sequel to Harmony, this 1988 release features more of Hunter's bluesy, soulful vocals underscored by the excellent production talents of Teresa Trull. Highlights are a wonderful country duet with Cris Williamson, Arm and a Leg, the blues-harp accompanied Ten Percent Masquerade, Star Struck, for those seriously crushed out on a performer, Infatuation, and more Hunter originals about love lost and found. Real well done! (RR8803) CS: 9.98

In Process...

We're thrilled the debut album by this 7-woman ensemble, produced by Bernice Johnson Reagon, is finally ready: spine-chilling acappella harmonies articulate and celebrate the diverse lives they share as social, political, and spiritual African American women. Their involvement began at a workshop given by the members of Sweet Honey in the Rock over several years; so imagine the quality, tradition, and consciousness you have experienced from the music of Sweet Honey, vocalized at once by 7 voices. Includes member Michelle Lanche's moving original compositions Patchwork Quilt for those who have died of AIDS, and War Children for the massacred children of South Africa; member Pam Rogers' original Wasteland, for homeless women; and Sanzenina, a South African freedom song. As Evelyn Harris of Sweet Honey says "Their repertoire is not Top 40, it's top priority." Highly recommended! (INP1) CS: 10.98

Jamie Anderson Closer to Home

This is a wonderfully lesbian-identified album filled with warmth, humor and honesty. From the hilarious Straight Girl Blues ("why do these straight girls look so butch to me?"), to the sultry eroticism of Dark Chocolate ("the way to a woman's heart is through her lips/ through the shudder of her sighs and the motion of her hips"), to the country-flavored Wedding Song, which expresses outrage at a society that only gives toaster ovens to straight couples; Jamie explores topics near and dear to many of us! Her voice is sweet, delivery is straightforward, lyrics direct, thoughtful and refreshing. Highly recommended! (TSU1001) CS: 9.98

Jaime Morton Animals Are Moving

On the debut album by this Boston-based newcomer, Jaime's strong belting voice delivers touching and personal lyrics about the realities of day-to-day living and loving. This release showcases a wide range in musical background, blending folk, blues, ballads and jazz, but let's emphasize folk! Songs include True Love, Feeding the Lonely and Jonah, which puts the line between reality and religion in question. CD contains 2 bonus tracks. (SAR578806) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Jane Howard Passage

Welcome Jane to the women's music scene: she's a strong singer-songwriter, whose material reflects her experiences as a lesbian, a mother, a cynic, an eternal optimist, and a hopeless romantic. Her voice is a rich and warm alto, her lyrics clever and thoughtful. Includes Something About Her and Crossroad, two great lesbian country tunes we'd just love to hear on the radio! (AUR1) CS: 9.98

Janet McLaughlin Solid Ground

We were introduced to this most excellent folk/country artist prior to the 1990 Rhythm Fest gathering, which emphasizes again just how important these festivals are to us all! Her vocals are compelling, warm, strong and deep, harmonies excellent, just all-around great singing-songwriting. We recommend this "new" artist to all who are looking to take a chance with meeting someone you didn't already know about! If you heard her perform, we don't need to convince you. (MP003) CS: 9.98

Jasmine

At long last their debut recording is back in print, hopefully for good; we called it one of the finest releases of the decade when it first came out. Hot and sweet jazz vocals, originals and standards, with piano, sax and clarinet, exquisite harmonies and outstanding lyric-writing. They were a duo then, as they are again now, comprised of Carol Schmidt and Michelle Isam, embodying energy, versatility, and an almost understated refinement. Recommended! (SWR01) LP: 9.98

Jasmine Wild Strings

If you can only purchase a few albums this year, make this one of them, for sure...it is magnificent, intelligent, absolutely a pleasure. The duo is now a trio (Carol and Michelle have been joined by Lydia Ruffin), and their awesome harmonies are even fuller. They have sustained their incredible powerhouse energy, plus strength in lyric, rhythm, melody. Mostly original material; includes Across the Wide, Muses, You Were Here, Seven Day Kiss. Produced by ace Terry Garthwaite, recorded with a full band. Very highly recommended! (ICE217) CS: 9.98

Her guitar is impeccable, her voice strong yet gentle, and the arrangements superb. Absolutely recommended! (EOW19) LP: 8.98 ... CS: 9.98

Four stories, each with a vision of woman as creator of the world, are told by this prominent lesbian-feminist storyteller who believes that storytelling is an empowering artform based on community. Includes Lia, which Jennifer calls "the original separatist story"; an Australian myth thousands of years old, it tells of a tribe of women who found the source of water and released it—allegorical for taking back the source of power. Spiderwoman is a Hopi traditional tale about the creation of light and people, and The Jugglers by Aina Allen relates to learning to juggle the elements of the universe, and finding the balance within ourselves. ### Love and Justice

This 1991 release is a collection of Judy's political songs (plus a few by Malvina Reynolds), which started out to be a small, simple, available-only-at-concerts project, until folks started clamoring for it to be available more widely, so here it is, in its simple and straightforward essence. She deals with lesbian/gay, peace, environmental, feminist and labor issues, just to name a quick few! Includes Sacred Mother, Do Not Tax Our Bodies, Callin' In Sick. Great songs, lyrics included. (HON107) CS: 9.98

One Voice in the Crowd

A beautifully produced recording by an Australian woman who, with her prolific songwriting and dulcet voice, continues to broaden the often-too-narrow world consciousness of us U.S. citizens! Australian feminism and social protest themes are conveyed through her serious portraits (A Heroine of Mine) and wry parodies (The I.P.D.—a male equivalent of the I.U.D.). Includes The Family Maiden Aunt from her first Australian release A Natural Selection, and a few songs which decry the power of U.S. presence—military and otherwise—on the international scene. (RR8503) CS: 9.98

Home Front

This wonderful folk artist presents a late '88 album of political songs covering a wide range of concerns. Annie, which some of you may know because Fred Small also recorded this, is about a lesbian school teacher; Golden Arches is an upbeat spoof of the MacDonald's invasion of so many countries; the title song is about the impact of the Viet Nam war on the wives, after the men come home. Thoughtful, thought-provoking, Judy is one of the most important songwriters of our time. (RR8808) CS: 9.98

With musicians like Carolyn Brandy, Juli Homi, Vicki Randle, Melanie Monsur backing her, as well as Jean and her own charged electric guitar, she belts out songs like She's the One ("One kiss and the look in her eyes/ She's the one for me..."), Brown Like Me, a song of love and solidarity for women of color, Building On a Rainbow Bridge, inspired by the elders at Big Mountain...perhaps her most substantial album ever; it's great! (FAB202) CS: 9.98

The Edge of the Horizon

Karen's first woman-identified album (and 4th altogether) contains her original "folk roll," seasoned with country and reggae, featuring a slew of great musicians such as Alix Dobkin on back-up vocals, River Lightwomoon on drums and percussion, and Barbara Cobb on bass. Karen herself sings and plays electric and acoustic guitar, accordion, banjo, synthesizer and piano. This prolific songwriter includes her Women Together and Not My Own which is about how the land we live on was stolen from Native Americans, how Jewish people have been driven from country to country, and how women in patriarchal society have been living in someone else's culture. Karen took the cover photo, and self-produced on her own label. (CAT101) CS: 9.98

To Each One of Us

Karen remains Alix Dobkin's favorite songwriter, and you'll see why when you hear this album. It's a recording of extraordinary beauty and depth, weaving elements of women's spirituality with compassion, self-awareness, and love of women. Exquisite vocal harmonies by Amy Fradon and Leslie Ritter of Crystal Song, and a 10-woman Stardance Celestial Choir—which does include Alix—on Womanspirit Rising! Also includes Full Moonlight Dance, Patience and Sarah, and one of this reviewer's favorite songs by Karen from one of her now-out-of-print albums—Bird of Song. Highly Recommended! ## Kristin Lems

We Will Never Give Up!

From a woman who has poured so much heart, time, and energy into the passage of the E.R.A., a live album especially for those who have done the same. Recorded largely in DC on June 30, 1982, with Laurie Haag on bass, contains live versions of the great Battle of the E.R.A. and My Mom's a Feminist. Also includes Failure is Impossible, The Witches Song, and title song. A restoration of determination and energy for those lowered by hopelessness or burn-out, by giving us a perspective on how long the battles women have won (e.g. suffrage) were fought before victory was achieved. ### (Title Unknown at Printing)

"Through their playing, singing and dancing, this unique ensemble merges music as distant as Eskimo singing with African/ Caribbean sounds as familiar as hip-hop and Motown..." (Essence Magazine) Founded by Tiye Giraud, lead singer and percussionist with Women of the Calabash for 7 years, this all-women's ensemble is planning a release for 1992 sometime. That's all the info we have as we go to press, but based on what we've heard over the years from Tiye (see our description of her solo release in this section) and Women of the Calabash, we're sure it will be dynamite! ## Laura Berkson

Debut album by a talented singer-songwriter with solid roots in folk, Jewish and women's traditions, for whom music is a medium for personal growth, community empowerment and world change. Included here are many originals of note, including Marie, the story of two high school girls who won the right to attend their prom together (it's a famous story now, mostly because of Laura's song); To Be Strong, for people with AIDS and their families/friends/lovers; Miriam who led the Jewish women out of the wilderness towards freedom; Open Eyes, featuring Laura's beautiful piano. ## Laura Love

Menstrual Hut (EP Tape)

A 19-minute debut cassette from one of the most distinguishing talents for our new 1990 catalog, and a voice you won't forget. Laura identifies strongly as a lesbian/feminist woman of color, and her material reflects this consciousness — both original songs and some carefully selected traditional folksongs. To her own guitar accompaniment, she presents, with a voice laden with depth and texture, her song I'm Your Daughter's Lover, Listen To Me, a tribute to Native American women; W-I-M-M-I-N; a spectacular rendition of the traditional Wayfaring Stranger, the title song, and more. We're sure this isn't the last we'll hear from Laura, but make this your introduction. Highly recommended! (OB1) CS: 7.98

Laura Love

Z Therapy

Laura's second release is a beautifully produced follow-up to her debut, on which she is accompanied by, among others, the Therapy Sisters and Z-Helene Christopher from the Z-Band — thus the title, eh? Except for her marvelous rendition of Swing Low, Sweet Chariot, all songs are original, telling of subjects from falling in love with a woman, to AIDS, to radiation, to the imprisonment of the US citizens of Japanese descent during World War II, to her cat Gi. Several songs impart a world beat, with instrumentation such as cymbals, dumbek, congas, bongos; Laura on acoustic and bass guitars. Recommended again! (OB2) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Laurie Freelove

Smells Like Truth

We're predicting big success for this artist — both because her debut solo 1991 album is pretty great, and also because it's receiving a substantial promotional push from the major label who released it. Anyone who has the Two Nice Girls self-titled album will recognize her name and her music; she was one of the original trio, and several of her own songs were recorded there, including one which appears here too, Heaven on Earth. Oddy, her vocal qualities bring to mind, for this reviewer, early Jefferson Airplane... not Grace Slick, but rather the male vocalist who sang some of the slower, quieter songs... Her material is intense and emotive, "combining vibrant, synco-pated guitar work with a telegraphic poetry of sound and feeling." (Some of that was from an old Two Nice Girls PR sheet, and it's still true!) All original songs here except for one perfect, brilliant rendition of Tim Buckley's Song to the Siren. Unique, compelling, hypnotic, and very highly recommended! (CHR21849) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 15.98

Leah Zicari

Wouldn't That Be Fun?

A pretty super-duper lesbian-affirming tape by a femme dyke-with-bike-with-guitar, and a must for every woman who's ever had a crush on Martina ("Martina I'm wishing that you would serve me/ Back and forehead me/ Come on and court me/ I'm wishing that love is the score")! Also includes What Kind of Self-Respecting Lezzie Is She?, with additional verses built upon the Romanovsky and Phillips song; Laws; Glory, Glory ("Mine eyes have seen the glory of the coming of the queers", with an entire chorale)... and several other lovely lesbian songs. Add to that good voice, accompaniment and arrangements, and you have a definitely recommended tape! (GEN62233) CS: 9.98

Lee de Anza

A Touch of Love

Lee isn't the real name of this Latina lesbian from Texas; she uses an alias to protect her musical career in the "straight" world of the Latin pop market. This album, with one song in Spanish and the rest in English, contains woman-to-woman love songs (some covers), with styles from Top 40, Latin, rock and country. She plays guitar, bass, drums, keyboards, and sings lead and back-up vocals. Includes Solo Tu, You Are My Lady, All the Woman I Need, Lady in Red, She's Like the Wind. (INT1002) CS: 9.98

If You See a Dream

For fans of music that delivers a message, the voice of this Alaska feminist is not to be missed. Her acoustic sound accents vital and beautiful lyrics in songs inspired by the many struggles of women. Perhaps most notable is Rosa, a tribute to women of color in general, and to Audre Lorde, Winnie Mandela, Alice Walker, Fannie Lou Hamer, Rosa Parks and others in particular; also includes When I Hear Music, about the true roles of women; Don't Give Up, inspired by an annual End Violence Against Women and Children speakout; and a great re-write of America, America in which God is asked to shed her grace on thee! An excellent debut album. (TRT1001) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 14.98

Thinking Like a Mountain

This early 1992 release contains 11 original songs that Libby often performs in concert, including title plus Is That What You Really Want, Go, Dancing in Front of the Guns... so we know that all her concert-going fans will want this for sure! (TRT1002) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 14.98

Linda Tillery

Secrets

A soul-stirring, heart-warming, up-tempo, long-awaited, highly-recommended album by this master of R & B/jazz/blues/contemporary music! This LP has achieved well-deserved play on black commercial radio. Count On Me fits right in there; The Chosen Ones gives us political nourishment; Fever, in a jazz rendition which tops any previous cover, gives us chills...and, a new insight into the relationship between Pocahontas and Sacajawea Basin Street, a Trull-Obiedo collaboration, is also a line song. Demonstrating the silken and varied nuances in her vocal power, sure to gain her a wider audience. (BLF736) CS: 9.98

Colorblind Blues

A.k.a. one-third of the fabulous Venus Envy band, half of the comedy duo Dos Fallopi, former Fabulous Dyketone Ms. Koch ("Coke") has put together a smashing first solo release; great production, vocals, lyrics — shades of June Millington meets Kate Clinton! Features the lovely All Night Long, the hilarious Beaver Cleaver Fever, the semi-autobiographical retro tune Hickey, and the AIDS anthem, Light of a Memory. Loads of talent here — a must! ### Phoenix

Almost impossible to get, but we're pretty sure we've managed to locate a supplier! 1990 solo release by the lead singer of the Parachute Club; we've been waiting over a year for this; thanks for your patience, those of you who ordered this last year under the projected title Beautiful and Dangerous! And, sorry the prices are so high; our import costs are astronomical. (WB71202) CS: 13.98 ... CD: 19.98

Lucie Blue Tremblay

Over the years, Olivia has introduced audiences to magical music by artists such as Cris Williamson and Meg Christian; here we are again treated to that caliber of musicianship in the mesmerizing performances of this French-Canadian artist. Not only does she remain true to her culture by giving equal time to both languages, she communicates so sweetly and intimately that English-speaking audiences are as deeply moved by her French material as her English songs. The studio side of this debut album features back-up vocals by Cris, and the live side, recorded at the Great American Music Hall, has back-ups by Cris, Tré Fure, Teresa Trull, and Deirdre McCalla. So, don't wait for this woman to become famous — treat yourself now! Recommended. (OL947) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Tendresse/ Tenderness

Reaffirming her reputation as a writer of beautiful songs, a singer rich in diversity and range, and a magically inspired whistler, her second album includes perceptive socio-political songs: Politique, Peaking, ever-touching love songs: Montreal, Absence; and even a moving rendition of the traditional folk tune The Water Is Wide. A poignant storyteller, Lucie shares her insights in both French and English on this gentle album of "nouveau folk." (OL955) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Lucie Blue Tremblay

I Want You To Know Who I Really Am

Also known as Lucie's "Coming Out Kit," this cassingle (1-song tape) is perfect to send to parents, family, old friends: "...and if you love me as much as I love you/ then you'll love me/ even if I'm not like you..." The insert even gives contact addresses for organizations such as PFLAG (Parents and Friends of Lesbians and Gays). (DS001) CS: 6.98

Lydia Lunch

Conspiracy of Women (C.O.W.)

"My language is not silence. My song is the scream, terror dwells in the shadow of my wings, my hope is my first battle and my last gasp. I am the knife with which the dead crack open the casket." This recording, taken from a seminar Lydia gave in Berlin in 1990, utilizes her no-holds-barred poetry, narrative, stories, performance art (and creative dispatch of an anti-abortion heckler) to express her stark perspectives on living in a male-dominated world — there's a lot of anger here, and sadness, and no pretty solutions, but if you're interested in hearing an incredibly raw, creative, brilliant artist put her heart on the line, by all means get this album and get ready for some inspiration. Intensely recommended! (or, recommended for the intense!) (WSP21) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Lynn Lavner
You Are What You Wear

Yet another funny album from the dyke queen of cabaret camp. To further explain Lynn's musical and theatrical style, let us just say that she performs with the "festive duo" Romanovsky & Phillips in the "Leather and Lace Tour," and guess who wears what! This album ranges from the very serious Anne Frank, in which she reminds us that "Silence Equals Death," to the humorous account of That Festive Little Neighborhood ("instead of politicians, we've a queen"). (BNT33176) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Lynn Lavner
I'd Rather Be Cute

"I'm trying first of all to entertain. Second, I want to raise an awareness in people's minds of the state of gay life today, to show the ways we are similar and the ways we are different. And third, I am trying to pay off a 1983 Honda Accord." This Jewish lesbian from Brooklyn performs humorous material in a cabaret style, from A Mother's Lament ("Please, Lynn, don't wear leather pants to the seder! and please cover your tattoo at the seder") to First Dyke On "Dynasty". (BNT81369) CS: 9.98

Something Different

From the title song: "All the other little girls liked Fred/I fell in love with Ginger/...All the other girls would braid their heads/I combed my hair with Brill-Creme/Greasy all right, but something different/..." Humorous, touching, affirming, these songs are mostly from her cabaret acts, and have titles like: Shelly, You've Gone Nelly on Me, Come to the Bars, The Role Playing Tango, 28 Barbary Lane (with reference to Armistead Maupin's best-of-the-decade Tales of the City book series). Piano accompaniment. (BNT92329) CS: 9.98

Lynn Thomas
Courage

If the Rocky Horror Picture Show ever does a sequel, we want Lynn's opening song, Dykes, to be featured! Utilizing a variety of upbeat styles, and singing with a vocal strength reminiscent of Bette Midler, Lynn pens and performs songs like Lavender Love, Best Friend, Gone Fishing, and the lovely Conditions. (LT1) CS: 9.98

Mahina
Clothesline Conversation

First of all, let me say that if y'all don't start buying some of this incredibly wonderful music from overseas, we won't continue to carry it, and then you'll have the choice of either becoming totally isolated and U.S.-centered, or having to buy a lot of expensive airline tickets to have access to this music! Did I make my point?? OK: Mahina's 2 vocals were the highlight of the New Zealand compilation "Out of the Corners". Her voice is still indescribable: rhythmic, sensual, airy, caressing, strains of early Ellen McIlwaine meets Rhiannon; most material is original and feminist: Bitches and Cows, Mothers and Daughters. Also includes a song by Hinepounamu, Young Maori Woman. One of the occasional truly exciting recordings to cross this desk; so buy it now, 'cause this year might be your last chance to experience some of the finest of New Zealand women's culture. Very highly recommended! (EMM1) CS: 11.98

Malvina Reynolds
Held Over

This courageous folk singer died March 1978, and her physical presence will certainly be missed. This album is an example of her acute awareness of the world around her. Her feminist consciousness is in evidence here too, especially in We Don't Need the Men. Includes On the Rim of the World & World in Their Pocket plus many more. (CAS3688) LP: 9.98

Margie Adam
Best of Margie Adam

This late 1990 double-length edition is one of Olivia's Women's Music Classics collections, chosen from all of Margie's albums to commemorate one of Women's Music best-selling pianists and songwriters, and the first time Margie's work is available on CD! Includes Best Friend (The Unicorn Song), Tender Lady, Naked Keys, and 14 more. (OL961) CS: 14.98 ... CD: 15.98

Of the many moods reflected here, that of a childlike exuberance predominates. Outstanding vocal harmonies by Vicki Randle, Meg Christian & Cris Williamson. All original compositions, including Best Friend (The Unicorn Song), Would You Like to Tap Dance on the Moon?, & 2 exquisite piano solos. (PLE2747) CS: 9.98

Margie Adam

An elegant, beautifully-instrumented LP of beautiful swoons and fun songs, with an extra-hot group of musicians: Jean Fineberg and Ellen Seeling on horns, Vivian Stoll on vibes, Barbara Cobb on bass, Barbara Borden, Susanne Vincenza, Carolyn Brandy, Diane Lindsay, and Michele Sell who used to play with Frank Sinatra on harp. Includes You Take My Breath Away, Cool Around You, The Time I Spent With You. (PLE2750) CS: 9.98

Margie Adam
Naked Keys

Eleven original solo piano performances...soothing, drifting, whimsical. This is Margie in some ways at her truest: her medium, her style. Her years at the piano, having this music flow through her, precede & underlie her singing & her song-writing ones. (PLE2748) CS: 9.98

Marilyn T.
Unrapped: Womanrap Poetry

A full-length tape of very lesbian-feminist political fusion rap, with heavy shades of Jamaican dub poetry and British working class beat poetry...from a white working class artist who was born in London but resides in the States. High on beat, the recording employs digital delay and studio enhancement of the voice, yielding a very theatrical and powerful effect. Includes Amazon Rap, Riff for a Sister, Workin' Dyke, Comin' Out, Intergalactic Tuesday. She calls for breaking down the patriarchy and strengthening women's cultural identity—seriously recommended! (RAG001) CS: 9.98

Marilyn T.
Clear Spears of Intention

Fantastic! Crystal-clear lesbian and feminist messages are transmitted via vivid and clever lyrics on this rap/reggae-funk/dub poetry/ toasting recording, with hot accompaniment of bass, lead and rhythm guitars, synthesizer and drum machine. Includes the exciting, sexy and explicit Hot Moth; the woman-identified Jamma Womyn; Sistar, Sistar ("you are a warrior, warrior"); When The Girls Come Out to Play; Kissing, and more! Energizing, fun, and absolutely danceable — so, if you're looking to add something spicier to your collection of 12" hot dance records, buy this and give the girls a treat! Recommended. Marsha Stevens
Free to Be (w/lyric book)

BALM — Born Again Lesbian Music — is the name of her label, which already tells a great deal about Marsha Stevens. The author of the modern hymn For Those Tears I Died (or Come to the Water) spent much time in mainstream gospel music, and then time hearing from it. Currently involved in the MCC, Marsha has been singing and writing for the gay and lesbian ministry for the past six years. Includes I Am Whole and Mommy's Song, which explores inclusive language and images within the church. With LeRoy Dysart and Ken Katon. (BAL53087) CS: 10.98

Mary Gemini
Crazy...For You

This 1989 tape means Mary's got something back in print, for which we're very glad! This compilation of music composed between 1986 and 1989 assimilates new wave, new age, reggae, and rock idioms; the incorporation of world rhythms, as well as rich orchestrations and vocal effects created with multitracks, all make this album as unique as it is interesting. Includes Julie, Druids in Manhattan. (BON1) CS: 9.98

Meg Christian
I Know You Know

Olivia's first album, by one of the originators of Women's Music... a veritable classic. The poignant & humorous lyrics, the folk & classical influences in Meg's singing, song-writing, guitar playing, convey so much warmth & continue to carry a wealth of meaning. (OL902) CS: 9.98

Meg Christian
Face the Music

Melanie DeMore
Come Follow Me

Recipient of standing ovations, Melanie is one of the most exciting new recording/ performing artists in women's music of the 90's! "Hard as obsidian", "sweet as chocolate", "strong as knots", "round as a waterdrop" are some of attempts to describe her voice in words; others have compared her to Patti (of Tuck and) or Joan Armatrading. She's the director of Voices, the Bay Area Lesbian Choral Ensemble, and her expertise in vocal possibilities is evident here, as well as her incredible range. Includes Black Jewels (In the Dawn), Glad to be Alive (Nappy Head Song). Hear her debut tape, and watch for her at festivals and concerts! (MDM1) CS: 9.98

Melanie Monsur

A very talented musician to arrive recently on our scene has produced an excellent debut tape of originals. Accompanied on various cuts by Sharon and Sandra Washington (who she tours with sometimes), June Millington, Laurie Lewis, side 1 consists of 4 vocals in folk, blues, ballad styles; her voice is quite pleasing, with good range and a smooth quality. Side 2 contains 4 solo piano pieces—gorgeous! She should really do a whole album of vocals plus another of solo piano; and maybe someday she will. But in the meantime, this is a fine sampler of her abilities. Recommended! (DOU1) CS: 9.98

Melanie Morrison
The Way You Move

This is an exciting debut album with a soulful, jazzy, sensual, sophisticated, bluesy sound. Melanie's clear voice soars through complex instrumental arrangements, as she sings her original songs about loving women: of matters of the heart; of souls and bodies connecting. Title cut is particularly hot! At this writing she's beginning to tour the festival circuit with her band, and we hope to see her on our coast soon! (MMM101) CS: 9.98

Melissa Etheridge

Known as "Melissa" to women's audiences, her high-powered debut album has made a significant impact in the commercial music world. It's full of raw passion, sexuality, intensity and emotion, explicitly lustful in a manner that's quite rare in a woman's musical repertoire... mesmerizing, and quite refreshing! All original songs with her own acoustic guitar and additional instrumentation, fairly produced, includes Similar Features and Bring Me Some Water. Recommended! (PLG842303) CS: 10.98 ... Mimi Baczewska
Turning Tide

With strong, positive, woman-identified lyrics; light, airy harmonies; catchy melodies, good cheer, up tempo rhythms; and themes of peace, co-operation, and earth consciousness, Mimi has been turning on festival crowds from Southern to National. This album is especially impressive because it follows an '88 fire in her house and studio which destroyed her instruments, possessions, master copy and duplicates of her debut tape — refer back to your 1986 catalogs... Nothing Is the Same talks about that experience; also includes Missing You and Women of the World. With all female musicians, including hot wire Toni Armstrong on bass! (MIM23) CS: 9.98

Mimi Fox
Against the Grain

From this frenzy-fingered fretboard whiz, who has toured with musicians such as Rhiannon and Terry Garthwaite and written over 400 compositions, an excellent debut album which should establish her talent to a wider audience. All works on this tape are instrumentals for acoustic and electric guitars, except for one which features Rhiannon on vocals; they range from introspective to jazzy, and abound with harmonics as well as unusual tunings and signatures. Mimi accompanies herself on drums. This was previously released under the title Textures of Loving. Recommended! (CTR023) LP: 9.98 ... CS: 9.98

Monica Grant
Harbor Girl

Produced by Melanie Monsur and featuring supporting talents of Gayle Marie, Nina Gerber and other women, this 1989 debut tape contains such humorous originals as PMS, Best Girl and Coming Out Story, plus the more serious Love's Lullaby and title song. An up-and-coming talent to watch out for. (GAN1) CS: 9.98

Monica Grant
The Heart Of It

Backed by a full band (lots of great women musicians!) for her 1991 release, this SF Bay area singer/ songwriter/ guitarist/ humorist serves up a righteous helping of her original witty, heart-ful, and honest songs. The Zenith of Love bemoans living in the state of Pre-Orgasm ("I would kill for just one spasm"), It's Your Goodbyes is a country-flavored, bouncy response to being dumped which features Crystal Reeves' gorgeous fiddle work, and Just the Idea Of You is a straightforward, sad-yet-lovely relationship piece ("Like two little children, we race for that victim chair, someone loses when someone gets there..."). The Codependency Polka is this reviewer's favorite too! Highly recommended... (GAN102) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Daylight

Nancy is a passionate pianist and prolific composer who has finally released a thoroughly, purely gorgeous album of instrumental music—by popular demand! Her melodies are lyrical, fluid, heart-rending; evocative, emotion-filled phrasing; performed with a flawless technical proficiency. Primarily, of course, her piano; on side 2, with touches of cello by Karen Jung, percussion (windchimes, cymbals, drum, tambourine) by Janelle Burdell. Includes Carole Anne, Missing the Fire. Don't stop at George you-know-who! There is a woman whose music will satisfy you solo piano lovers, and it's Nancy. Highly recommended. (ND2) CS: 9.98

Nancy Hill
Not Just Music

This singer-songwriter has been performing for women's audiences for years, and this album, though not explicit in terms of pronouns, is clearly directed to women lovers and friends. Her voice is a warm, rich alto, the style gentle, and the lyrics introspective, about relationships and the passage of time. (HLS2) CS: 9.98

Nancy Vogl
Fight Like the Dancer

With seasoned country singers Tracy Nelson and Dianne Davidson on back-up vocals, and Vassar Clements on fiddle, Nancy's second solo album, recorded in Nashville, is rooted in solid country with a little swing and blues. Nancy began this project as a songwriter's demo tape, and it blossomed into a full-fledged recording: very laid-back, sounds like someone really enjoying herself. Title cut's particularly sweet...so all you closet country fans...don't miss this new direction from one of the veterans of women's music. (OL949) CS: 9.98

Something to Go On

Nancy's mastery of acoustic steel-string guitar-picking is something to contend with! Certainly, not many could match her skill, let alone excel at it. She is a veteran of women's music tours and recordings — into her second decade. On her first solo effort she has structured one side instrumental, featuring original duets with musical partner-of-long-standing Suzanne Shanbaum, and the other side vocal. Her song Crime of the Century is an outstanding indictment of homophobia and other oppressions. Her insight into economic, social and political history infuses the work with an extra intelligence. (RR3000) CS: 9.98

Nick Mathis

Make Some Kind of Magic/Ebony Woman

Debuting at the NEWMR Festival in 1990, Nick is no newcomer to music. She's been an accomplished jazz vocalist for years, with her spicy, swinging, soulful jazz vocals which feature an amazing range. The outstanding cut here is her original Ebony Woman, a loving tribute to her Black sisters. As an expression of her commitment to women in music, she produces an annual jazz/classical concert in Hartford CT, "The Many Colors of A Woman;" she is also a regular performer at the annual CT Caucus of Black Women for Political Action's "In Praise of Black Women." Don't miss this 1986 debut album. (OLI1) CS: 9.98

Outlaw Women
Wanted

What this trio lacks in sophistication, they more than make up for in enthusiasm, fun and humor! Their themes range from the regional (Ten Below, Fieldwork Widow Blues) to the feminist (One Thin Swimsuit, God's Gift to Women), to your basic personally political (PMS Blues, Broken Promises). Acoustic guitar, bass, fiddle, mandolin and lenthil jar accompaniment. Nice harmonies, too! (WMM003) CS: 9.98

Ova
Possibilities

Save on the LP here... This 1985 release is strong and tender, full of love for women, our possibilities and sexualities; and love for the earth, as well as despair over its abuse...strong on harmonies and rhythms, utilizing a variety of African and South American instruments as well as drum machine...this collective (4 women at this release) produces another very worthwhile album. (STC444) LP: 7.98 ... CS: 9.98

Ova
Out of Bounds

Calm strength is the word that comes to mind when listening to this album. Jana and Rosemary (joined by the Amazon Voices) weave a musically colorful quilt of songs that celebrate and reflect our lives as a whole. Musically diverse, it is both moving and humorous, and highly recommended. Import. (STC666) LP: 9.98 ... CS: 11.98

Ova
Who Gave Birth to the Universe

Ova just keeps blending politics, spirituality, groundedness in the earth and woman-identification, with both strength and gentleness, in each successive recording, and this 1988 album one is as fine as ever. From Healing Touch to Political Beings, Jana and Rosemary bring their wide perspective and accomplished musicianship to a variety of concerns and musical styles. (STC888) CS: 11.98

The Parachute Club
At the Feet of the Moon

Another excellent effort by Canada's foremost political rock band...perhaps this reviewer's overall favorite LP of theirs, and in fact of any. The overall production and instrumentation is tighter and highly synthesized, while the lyrics remain political and inspiring. Songs include: Innuendo, Sexual Intelligence, Freedom Song, Walls and Laws. Highly recommended. (RCA0553) LP: 10.98 ... CS: 10.98

Small Victories

Note sale price on LP! Seen Lorraine Segato? Do you love her or what? She's the lead singer of the Parachute Club, and their third album maintains the band's integrity and is simultaneously their most mainstream so far. Produced by John Oates, of Hall & Oates; includes Love Is Fire, Tearing the Veil, Rhythm of the Heartbeat, Waves, Love and Compassion. The talents of this group are way beyond ordinary! (RCA5743) LP: 6.98 ... CS: 9.98

Pam & Maggie
Crazy For You

This collection of original songs about women's lives — from the "hopelessly het" Doin' Like My Momma Done to the joyful conversion to lesbianism in I've Seen the Light — marks the debut release by this west coast duo who had the distinction of opening for Cris & Teresa in San Diego for the Country Blessed tour. Blending the sounds of folk and country, they rely heavily on guitars and lead vocals, with a bit of synthesizer and harmony for measure. Be watching for these two at women's music festivals! (PAM1) CS: 9.98

Peggy Ward
We Are the Dance

Anyone who recognizes the vast talent that's emanating from Canada these days will want to check this Alberta woman out! Her voice is deep and strong and sure and beautiful; her lyrics woman-affirming, anti-racist, anti-patriarchy, pro-gay, pro-environmental, all those good things. Includes Sophie's Song, Bring 'er Around Lass, People Belong to the Land. (LOL1) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Phranc
I Enjoy Being a Girl

Phranc's second album could be the first major label release to contain a line such as "I'm a Jewish lesbian, you see," in a song called Take Off Your Swastika. A terrific mixture of serious and humorous, whimsical and satirical, personal and topical material, right down to the 50's cover artwork (Phranc with her glass of milk and her butch do!) Includes her second paean to M-A-R-T-I-N-A, a memorial to her grandmothers Myriam and Esther, and others ranging in theme from South African apartheid to Toys R Us. You'll thoroughly enjoy this one! (PLG842579) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 15.98

Phranc
Positively Phranc

Phranc's third release takes on a harder, electric edge yet maintains her acoustic orientation, combining her lyrical ability as a folk writer with a rocking sound at times reminiscent of early 60's music. This 1991 album contains Tipton, a stirring account of Billy Tipton's long life masquerading as a male so that she could function as a band leader/ member and play the jazz she so desperately loved; Surfer Girl, the Beach Boys classic transformed into a beautiful acappella ballad performed with Syd Straw; and other outstanding tunes such as Gertrude Stein; Dress Code; I'm Not Romantic. Always one of our faves, always recommended! (PLG848282) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 15.98

Phranc
Folksinger

Phranc, whose music is a blend of topical humor, whimsical observation and social commentary, has come somewhat full circle: early women's movement, to LA punk scene, playing with bands like Nervous Gender and Catholic Discipline, to modern acoustic folk music with a feminist perspective. This is one of few lesbian recordings to be released on an independent label other than one associated with women's music. Includes the laudatory Carolyn, Ballad of the Dumb Hairdresser, One o' the Girls, Female Mud Wrestling, Handicapped, Amazons. ("I wanna live with Martina, like Nancy Lieberman"). Style is simple, guitar and harmonica, sometimes a personable talking style. Very highly recommended! (RH856) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 15.98

Rachel Bagby
Reach Across the Lines

Rachel is an incredible multi-talented musician, who has taken as artistic approach to confronting the issue of racism and to moving people past the "isms" of sex, class, and race. Her work is a combination of poetry, music and performance, with wonderful scat, choral layering, haunting harmonies, utilizing the human voice in a myriad of ways, especially in the 3 versions of the stand-out title cut. She says the music of many peoples dance in her veins: Indian (Hindu) chants, southern root-women's stories, Baptist ministers, jazz and gospel musicians, Celtic harpists, Cherokee, and classical training; and you'll hear all of this and more on her debut tape. Highly recommended! (OTB101) CS: 9.98

Reel World
Appalachian Wind

This all-woman band celebrates their tenth anniversary of making music together with this 1990 album featuring several additional female musicians as guest performers. They alternate lead vocals on this great selection of songs — several original, and several about women. Includes Henhouse Lament, Lily May, Mama Used to Dance, Ellen's Song, as well as the South African freedom song Too Many People and Bernice Reagon's Chile, Your Waters Run Red Through Soweto — different material for a stringband — plus a lovely instrumental. (FF517) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Rhiannon
Toward Home
 Rhiannon is known for her voice (one of the most extraordinary around), for her years as lead singer of Alive!, and for her brilliant creativity as a solo artist. On this 1991 release, she departs from the instructional mode of her first two solo tapes to focus on a diversity of vocal material: from the emotionally-charged song-poem Love of the Land about her prairie origins, to the sultry, sensual Swimming Upstream, to a rendition of the traditional Shenandoah which could make one weep. She is joined by members of Voicestra, Bobby McFerrin's acclaimed vocal group (of which Rhiannon herself is a member), on Say a Prayer. Blending the songwriting talents of Betsy Rose, Janet Small, Carolyn Brandy, and Rhiannon herself, with the instrumental talents of Nina Gerber, Barbara Borden and others, this album beautifully showcases the artist's range and style, and is very highly recommended! (LR202) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Rhiannon
Loosen Up and Improvise
 This VOCAL STRETCHING AND IMPROVISATION TAPE was created by Rhiannon (known to many as the lead singer of Alive!) because many of her vocal students were frequently asking to tape her classes. This tape is the more advanced of the two, for people who already sing, and includes guided physical stretching, rhythmic drills with Rhiannon, call and response ... suggestions for developing rhythmic and melodic patterns...exercises with piano to develop strength, intonation and improvisation skills. In a relaxed and challenging environment, Rhiannon talks you through the exercises and sings with you to open up new ideas. This wonderful and skilled teacher has been developing her own vocal method for over 12 years. Very unique; if you like to sing, you need this tape! (RH11) CS: 9.98

Finding Your Voice
 This is geared to those who don't sing yet or who have lost their voices, for whatever the reasons: being "tone-deaf", having been discouraged from it when young, adult children of alcoholics, incest survivors, being shy...for those who want to begin to explore their hidden songs. Using improvisation, Rhiannon leads the listener through body instrument awareness and alignment, physical music warm-up, breathing exercises, long tones, call and response, and simple duets. Enjoy at home or in your car. (RH12) CS: 9.98

Ronnie Gilbert
Love Will Find A Way
 Ronnie's 1989 solo release includes Music In My Mother's House, The Girl in the Red Velvet Dress, Happy Birthday Mrs. Miller, No Rockin' Chair, and more great folk songs affirming women, growing older, love, and humanity in general. Primarily recorded live in concert with John Buchino. Dedicated to her dear friend Donna. (AA915) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Ronnie Gilbert
The Spirit Is Free
 On this, Ronnie's first solo recording in over 20 years, we hear stories of liberation and struggle. Ronnie is one of the original members of the Weavers, and her sense of history is clearly portrayed in this recording. With Holly Near on back-up vocals, Ronnie's title cut makes you want to leap with pleasure. Also includes Midnight Special, Hank Williams' I'm So Lonesome I Could Cry, and Judy Small's Mother, Daughters, Wives. A definite must for any serious folk collector. This woman has still got what it takes to pluck the heartstrings of social justice. (RR408) CS: 9.98

Rude Girls
Rude Awakening
 Dedicated to rude girls everywhere and to their awakening, this lively women's acoustic quartet presents a fine debut folk album. High on heart-breaking harmonies, strangled instruments, original tunes like Female Rambling Sailor, Ballad of Francine Hughes ("The Burning Bed"), The Girl in the Red Velvet Dress...and Pete Sutherland's Yuppie Ti-Yi-O ("get a job you old hippie"). Excellent production by Cathy Fink, back-up by Abby Newton, Marcy Marxer and other women...we recommend it heartily. (FF424) CS: 9.98

Mixed Messages
 The long-awaited follow-up to their slap-in-the-face debut, this feminist string band is not afraid to get raunchy, even downright rude. As Ronnie Gilbert testifies on the back of their outlandish album art, "You Rude Girls don't know when to stop, do you? Thank Goodness! I love your outrageously mixed messages." Includes Malvina Reynolds' We Don't Need the Men (one of this reviewer's all-time faves) and the condom-awareness song Safety First. (FF511) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Sapphic Journeys
 The music is what makes this tape of lesbian erotic poetry by a variety of authors outstanding. The intermittent accompaniment on violin, viola, harp and flute—refined, wonderful, exquisite—was composed and arranged (and strings played) by E. Marcy Dicterow, who has done string arrangements and performed on some women's music recordings including Cris Williamson's "The Changer and the Changed." The music glides from gypsy-like passion to gentle reflection and savoring. The poetry, by Sappho, Doris Davenport, Carol Schmidt, and others, is read by Etoile Monet and Dimitra Stukas. An all-woman production. (WOM201) CS: 9.98

Second Opinion
 This 1991 debut release stands out for its beautiful women's harmonies; some acappella, some with simple acoustic accompaniment. The trio consists of an unconventional children's musician, an old-time banjo player, and a topical singer/songwriter; how they can ever agree on a common repertoire is a mystery, but one that works! Songs range from silken visions to sardonic back-talk; includes My Computer's Down; Cathy Fink's original song about the Names Project Quilt, Names; We Three's Body Back; and much more to satisfy a listener's vocal hunger! (SEC001) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Second Wind
 These two women are outspoken "clean and sober" advocates, and women who attended the 1991 Southern Festival will remember them as the get-down-and-boogie dance band that played the Clean & Sober dance each night. Pattie and Rita met at an audition for an "all girl band" in 1980, fell in love, gigged together...then, when dyke drama on the personal side occurred, sadly the dynamic duo cut their musical and personal ties. After over a year of healing, they realized how much they missed the musical magic between them, and feeling a Second Wind musically and personally, the new band was formed. Their sound is unique, both sing lead and harmonies with feeling and high energy, all songs are original. Includes Love Abuse, about love addiction. (HA1) CS: 9.98

Sienna
Bedtime Stories
 One of the better lesbian erotica tapes this reviewer has heard (and how many is that, you are wondering?)...two explicit short stories by Sienna: Layover and Welcome Home, softly and expressively told by Magarity and Annie. Bound to give you and/or your lover(s) a thrill—a great anniversary gift! Only women 18 or over, please. (DMK1) CS: 10.98

Sue Fink
True Life Adventure
 Sue's long-awaited second album of "songs of risk and reality" has finally been released in 1989, with two of her most fantastic songs in her Big Promise tradition—Popular War and Letters to Marie—as well as many other fine originals, more in a jazzy pop torchy style. It's a very polished, sophisticated production; if you're an Anita Baker fan, or a Sue Fink fan of course, you won't want to miss this True Life Adventure. (FRO101) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Big Promise
 Save on the LP! On this globally important album, this wild and crazy woman unleashes her boundless energy, wit, and genius. It opens with the first totally contemporary new wave hit dance tune from a female perspective, Boys Are Thugs...proceeds with The End Is Near, the anti-nuke technological extravaganza featuring the LA Women's Community Chorus, expressing the wisdom of a bag-lady; then, to title cut, a technopop tune about a woman who relates to a politician who promises her the same big choices he promises the voters...and more, from ballads to jazz to straight-ahead rock. The overall result is polished, creative, funny, refreshing, substantive and outrageous. Very highly recommended, if we do say so ourselves! (LR201) LP: 6.98 ... CS: 9.98

Suede
Barely Blue
 This long-awaited late-1991 follow-up to Suede's debut is more jazzy/bluesy stylistically, and includes several concert favorites (Sister, My Foolish Heart) as well as previously unrecorded works. She interprets two John Buchino songs, If I Ever Say I'm Over You and Puddle of Love, as well as Measure of Sadness, co-written by John Buchino and Ron Romanovsky. Always an audience favorite on any stage, we welcome this artist's second baby to our catalog. (EAS1002) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Easily Suede
 Suede's long-awaited debut solo album features an intriguing blend of jazz and light rock styles; she communicates everything from a dream for world peace, as in From A Distance, to the strictly fun and seductive Doncha Wanna Know (You Got Me Where You Want Me). Self-produced, and it's Suede on all vocals, piano, guitar and trumpet! You've loved her at concerts and at festivals, finally you can take her home...her music, that is. (EAS1001) CS: 9.98

Susan Graetz
Somewhere Between
 Susan tragically died in 1985; but she gave a lot to Ladyslipper, and we'd like everyone to know her spirit and her music, which live on. Her album of 14 original, traditional and contemporary songs attests to her great sense of humor and strong love for women. Includes Peace Camp (to the tune of Downtown), I Don't Know Where I'm Going (to the tune of I Know Where I'm Going), Why Do You Bob Your Hair, Girls, More Pretty Girls Than One, I'm Not Too Fat, Healing Time, and feature Kay Gardner on flute, among others. Susan's voice was big and wide; she sang it right out! (OOW001) LP: 1.98 ... CS: 2.98

Sweet Honey in the Rock
 Five Black women singing mostly acappella. Their name "symbolizes the range of colors worn by Black women: strength, consistency, warmth & gentleness." Intertwining harmonies accentuate their gospel sound. Songs range from gospel to love songs to those with a specific political message. Includes Joann Little & Dream Variations. (FF022) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Breaths
 This compact disc-only release is a compilation of the most popular tracks from their previous releases on Flying Fish. Includes Biko, Ella's Song, Oughta Be A Woman, More Than A Paycheck, Azanian Freedom Song, Study War No More, Chile Your Waters Run Red Through Soweto, We All...Everyone of Us, title and more. Over 60 minutes in length. (FF105) CD: 15.98

Live at Carnegie Hall (Double)
 This 1988 double-album release, containing all new material from both secular/topical and spiritual sources, was recorded live to preserve the dynamism, vitality, and immediacy of an in-concert experience of this acappella ensemble. Includes the African Denko, Song of the Exile, Ode to the International Debt, Dream Song, Letter to Martin, Beatitudes. Always highly recommended. (FF106) CS: 14.98 ... CD: 15.98

Good News
 Recorded live in Washington, DC in 1981; includes Breaths, probably their finest, most breath-taking piece on vinyl, a top-notch "circular sharing of historic wisdom, boundless energy and love." (FF245) CS: 9.98

Sweet Honey in the Rock
We All...Everyone of Us
 These 5 black women need and use nothing more than their voices to create music more complete and moving than a full orchestra. On this 1983 release, which includes favorites More Than A Paycheck and Battle for My Life, powerful lyrics join intertwining harmonies which leave a message that haunts you long after the record stops spinning. (FF317) CS: 9.98

All For Freedom
 This is technically a children's album, but will inspire and be enjoyed by adults and children alike. Drawing on their rich heritage of African musical traditions, Sweet Honey has put together this dynamic and empowering collection of African songs, African stories, and gospel songs, including Calypto Freedom, Kumbaya, Juba, The Little Shekere, and title. (MLP2230) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 14.98

Feel Something Drawing Me On
 A different album concept from their previous discography, and a unique release. This is an album of sacred music: from Christian gospel songs sung by congregations in the deep south as well as Liberia, to traditional lullabies, to Meyango, a West African funeral song. Here they give voice to many of the traditions that their more contemporary music is rooted in, and beautifully document the diverse cultural, spiritual, and artistic powers of sacred song. (FF375) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

The Other Side
 Sweet Honey addresses a spectrum of issues with a blend of contemporary, protest, topical, personal and love songs. Includes Venceremos (We Will Win), Mandiacappella (a vocal improvisation based on West African drum rhythms), Woody Guthrie's Deportees, and Bernice Reagan's original Mae Frances. Recommended as always! (FF366) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Sweet Honey in the Rock
B'lieve I'll Run On...
 Second album of acappella vocals, gospel-influenced, with emphasis on harmonies. Original songs about nuclear proliferation & Jimmy Carter; women who have loved other women as mothers, daughters, sisters, lovers; the experiences of Black women; a couple about specific strong Black women—Sojourner Truth & Fannie Lou Hamer. The LP comes with one of the most beautiful insert booklets we've seen. (RR3500) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Teresa Chandler
Druthers
 This 1990 release debuts the talents of this singer-songwriter, while showcasing Nina Gerber as a producer! Teresa's smooth strong vocals are backed by performers such as Barbara Higbie on piano, Jake Lampert on drums (on the scene since her drumming days with the Berkeley Women's Music Collective), Nina herself on guitars, and others, as she moves through ballads, country swing, blues and more. (RUB101) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 14.98

Teresa Trull
A Step Away
 Everyone's favorite Durham-raised artist continues to develop her talents, range and audience; each new recording by Teresa attains new heights. This album is definitely one of the finest releases of the year, in every respect: music, material, production, everything! Each song has a complexity and a depth to it, as well as a contagious hope and joy, and instrumentation and arrangements are very full-sounding and original. Includes Maria, Rosalie, How Lucky. Highly recommended. (RR412) CS: 9.98

Teresa Trull & Barbara Higbie
Unexpected
 The women of this dynamic duo show their stuff on this LP as they have been doing on tour around the country. An eclectic bunch of styles—country, gospel, ballads—some simple, some fairly produced. Barbara is a pianist extraordinaire—don't miss her LP's on Windham Hill, (see "Jazz" section). Includes our favorite Melissa Manchester oldie, Ruby and the Dancer. (SW22001) CS: 9.98

The Therapy Sisters
Multiple Personalities
 Laboratory-tested, original songs of love, anger, and conflict resolution in which More, Gail and Lisa convert mundane situations into opportunities for self-actualization. Their music goes through mood swings, from tongue-in-cheek to heart-on-sleeve. Lisa bemoans her job in Guys in Ties, while Gail sings a poignant coming out song to her mother in Ocean. Kathy Kornloff from Two Nice Girls joins them for their punk ballad of a Middle Class White Girl who seeks a hipper image, if only for an evening. At least as much fun as your next therapy session. (TS1001) CS: 9.98

Relapse
 The Therapy Sisters are back with more harmonic tonic to keep your spirits high! Their 1991 second release contains 14 tunes, including the anatomically correct An Auditory/Lauditory and the solidarity-conscious Muffie and I Are One. Moms and teens will relate to the explosive Teenanger and Fine Day for the Blues. Also includes Peanuts Envy and Shopping. For those who believe in the healing power of music! (TS1002) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Therese Edell
From Women's Faces
 From a musician with a most unusual, deep voice, a dolphin tattoo, & a charming, dynamic performance style...an album of fine & varied original songs about women friends & relatives plus 2 by Annie Dinerman (who wrote Face the Music). Features the incredible, virtuosic violin of Betsy Lippitt who also does some back-up vocals—and ought to come out with an album of her own—Lou Anderson on bass, & others. Therese's (& her pal's) own label. (SEA545001) LP: 9.98

Tiye Giraud
Hokumbe! (Celebration!!)
 Seven years the lead singer and percussionist with Women of the Calabash, and now a founding member of the 4-woman ensemble LadyGourd Sangoma, this incredible artist performs traditional music of the Black diaspora. She draws upon African celebration, work, praise and love songs; slave songs from the American South; and stories from the Caribbean; reinterpreting and blending genres, rhythms, vocal styles and cultural traditions. From Sorceress to Gap Tooth Woman to Ol' Lady Dinah to perhaps the most outstanding track of the album, Moe Mae—a celebration song from Angola/ Zaire—Tiye completely draws the listener into her material, which she adapted, arranged, plays various traditional percussion (some of which she handcrafted) such as berimbau, hindehu, gourds, and sings: her voice has rightly been called "so malleable, percussive and sinewy that it is mesmerizing." A note: a personal priority of hers is researching and exploring the music of third world women everywhere. One of our top picks for 1992... very highly recommended! (TGR1) CS: 9.98

Toshi Reagan
Title Unknown at Printing
 We know Toshi's got a deal with Elektra, and know the album will be great, but don't know the release date; pre-orders are being accepted for delivery at the earliest possible moment. Avoid the rush! (EL7) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 15.98

Toshi Reagan
Justice
 Finally, it's here...a stunning new album from this young multi-instrumentalist and singer-songwriter who fuses traditional soul with contemporary energy. The material here is mostly original, though she does include a Georgia Sea Island song and Sting's Walking in Your Footsteps. With her famous mother, Bernice Johnson Reagan of Sweet Honey in the Rock, as well as CSelberry-Dupree and Annette Aguilar. Recommended! (FF526) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Toshi Reagan
Demonstrations
 Not only a "strong voice in a new generation of Black women's music," a really fine voice, fine songwriting and stylistically distinctive musicianship from this woman of diverse and growing talents. Toshi plays electric lead and rhythm guitar, acoustic guitar, drums and bass, and does lead and background vocals. Co-producer with Toshi and a contributing percussionist and vocalist is Toshi's mom, Bernice Reagan of Sweet Honey in the Rock. The folksy and rock 'n' roll-ish numbers here are equally strong. (TR582) CS: 9.98

Tracy Chapman
 At last you can hear the young singer/songwriter everyone's been talking about. Her rhythmic voice with a profound and distinctive vocal texture has been compared by some to early Joan Armatrading. She has played to wildly appreciative audiences everywhere, from the Michigan and National Women's Music Festivals to the viewers of MTV. Her all-original songs cut straight to the bone, combining raw emotion with searing political/social commentary; her stark vision of a world where greed and power are more important than people is countered by her conviction of a change to come, as evidenced in Talkin' Bout A Revolution and Why?. Also includes Fast Car, For My Lover, She's Got Her Ticket, Baby Can I Hold You. Highly recommended! (EL60774) LP: 10.98 ... CS: 10.98 ... CD: 15.98

Crossroads
 The second release by this Grammy-winning artist is an exploration into new styles and techniques, while maintaining her tradition of exposing life's realities through often haunting ballads; a worthy follow-up to her first album! (EL60888) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 15.98

Tracy Drach
Female Blues
 A pretty fantastic debut tape by a woman from our home town, and in fact from our home office; she may be shipping you your order this very minute! 7 original songs, from the title, a tongue-in-cheek inquiry into the nomenclature of female problems (no real words, only initials), to the commentary of Domestic Violence, to her plea for Melodrama! Her voice is rich and resonant, whether handling blues or swing, humor or seriousness. (LLS1) CS: 6.98

Another Door
 Ladyslipper has had a great privilege in witnessing the birth and development of this album because it was done independently by one of our own Slippers! Long a local favorite, this singer/songwriter/guitarist exemplifies both versatility and consistency in crowd-pleasing, whether performing solo or opening for such acts as k.d. lang or the Washington Sisters. This late 1990 release demonstrates how, from her haunting rendition of Laura Berkson's Miriam, to her lyric tale of young novice Sister Mary Oakley, to her strong pro-choice song Who Stands For Life, her intensity and honesty reach out to the listener. With a little piano help from Nancy Day and a style that is uniquely Tracy, this album marks a personal favorite around our office and is wholeheartedly recommended. (DND001) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Tret Fure
Terminal Hold
 Gradually becoming a familiar presence on the music scene, starting with a solo LP in the 70's (now out-of-print) and later known as a back-up musician and vocalist for June Millington, Tret Fure (pronounced "Fury") is now squarely in the spotlight where she belongs. Her lyrical and vocal abilities bring an inevitable yet positive comparison to Cris Williamson, who co-produces and sings harmony vocals here. The songs are mostly rock ballads, with a scrappy insistence towards what can only be termed "melodic new wave." Songs include Angel Fire, Cold, Cold Heart, Annie Aircraft. (SW22003) CS: 9.98

Tret Fure
Edges of the Heart
 Tret's long-awaited second release packs her characteristic punchy guitar and vocals along with her distinctive lyrics and arrangements; a sure winner! Yes, this includes that sweetly-hot number, Tight Blue Jeans, plus an array of energetic rock tunes and quieter ballads. Recommended! (SW22009) CS: 9.98

Tret Fure
Time Turns the Moon
 This 1990 release (her fourth, but the first is out of print) is a tight, skillful combination of vulnerable lyricism dealing with social concerns and universally personal themes. Brilliant production skills by Teresa Trull (as usual!), who has recruited superb musicians to craft a deeply layered, defined sound in both rock melodies and soft, tender ballads. Includes The Girls All Dance, Working Poor, A Sign of Life, Wild Heart. (SW22015) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Two Nice Girls
Chloe Liked Olivia
 Funny, kitschy, feisty, smart, brave, sexy, political, warm, or just plain wonderful...all of these qualities are in abundance on their 1991 release, a musical hybrid which transcends the boundaries of most musical genres. From the faux-disco of Let's Go Bonding, to the smooth-as-Smokey Swimming in Circles, to The Queer Song and Princess of Power (be on the lookout for the video!), the Girls have outdone themselves with 10 brilliant songs that run their usual range from tender to tongue-in-cheek. Title is taken from a Virginia Woolf novel. (RTR262) LP: 9.98 ... CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

2 nice girls
 They're not two, they're not nice, and they're not girls; they are three talented women who make great music together! If you can imagine the layered harmonies and humor of the Rochees, blended with vibrant, kaleidoscopic imagery as well as a true women-identified sensibility, you'll have and inking of the Girls' style, but don't expect to be able to draw too much of a comparison to anyone else, for their music is totally original as well as versatile. One moment they spoof hetero love, in I Spent My Last $10.00 (On Birth Control and Beer), the next minute they somehow express the rhythm of the life force, in Heaven On Earth. They sing of their women lovers unself-consciously. And their rendition of Joan Armatrading's Love and Affection, which they integrate into another song, Dear Jane, is alone worth the price of the album. We highly recommend the debut album of this Austin-based group. (RTR59) LP: 9.98 ... CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Two Tru

Among the Ruins

This Boston-based duo — a.k.a. Lauren Passarelli and Cindy Brown — presents their original material with texture, cool sounds, harmonies and strong melodies, in a folk-rock style on their debut full-length album. They handled most every stage of production themselves, including engineering and mixing in their own home 8-track studio. We'll be watching for these two at festivals. (FEA8901) CS: 9.98 ... ### For Therese

On March 10, 1990, to celebrate Therese Edell's 40th birthday, a group of artists and friends gathered to put on a one-of-a-kind concert that was also a loving tribute to Therese and her musical contributions; and, lucky for us, 60 minutes of this event have been preserved! Therese produced the album, which features musicians like Sue Fink, Betsy Lippitt, Kay Gardner, Deirdre McCalla, Nydia Mata, the Atlanta Feminist Women's Choir, and the MUSE choir... instrumentation such as flute, oboe, bassoon, cello, harp, glockenspiel... and songs which include Betsy's For Therese; Sue Fink performing Therese's Emma; plus Sister Heathenspinster's Calendar Days; Katie's Song; Good Friends Are the Best; Holly's Waltz; and O My Friends, co-written by Therese. Some songs even feature combined choirs! An early 1991 release; we know it will be fabulous! (SEA312) CS: 11.98 ... CD: 15.98

Ovary Action (7" EP)

In this day and age of deleting vinyl from our catalog, you might notice that we have just not only added a piece of vinyl, but one with only a 7" diameter. Know that it's got to be real special, and this one is! About the most outrageous recording we have ever heard (and most of their graphics are from Betty Dodson's Liberating Masturbation book, if that gives you a clue...) There are actually 10 selections on this little disc, including Orgasm Addict, Fuck Yourself, Sperm Brain, FCC Rap. For a true vaginal celebration, let Cammie, Jane, Kate and Joyce show you an unforgettable time. (LKT9) LP: 4.98

Yer Girlfriend

We Won't Be Silent

Yer Girlfriend is five Kentucky women who are committed to maintaining a strong political voice through the medium of popular music...to break down walls of homophobic prejudice and traditional stereotypes about women, while their audiences are tapping their toes to music that's fun. They do just that on this debut tape of original wonderfully-out lesbian and feminist songs, employing beautiful vocal harmonies. Watch for them at women's music festivals and lesbian/gay events! (ER101) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

L-Word Spoken Here

Ready for hungry ears in early 1992, their second release is a rededication to the out and proud lyrics and toe-tapping sounds audiences can't get enough of. Blues, rock, or folk, they deliver each song with the style, energy, and heart. From the ballad Still Waters, a song about taking risks, to Take Back Our Lives, suggesting that women have more to conquer than just the night, their messages are as clear as their sound is hot. (ER102) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Ysaye Barnwell

Singing...African-American Trad'n

This 8-cassette set with instructional booklet teaches rhythms, harmonies, vocal techniques and stylistic subtleties of the African American singing tradition. Sweet Honey member Ysaye Barnwell teaches all the parts to 20 wonderful choral and congregational songs, including Chants and Calls; Spirituals; Early Gospel; Songs of the Civil Rights Movement and Contemporary South African Songs of Resistance and Protest. Perfect for individuals, church, camp and community groups of any background. Recommended by Alice Walker, Ronnie Gilbert, Pete Seeger, and Ladyslipper! (HOM1) CS: 59.98

Take Two

Even better and more stylistically diverse than the harmonizing twins' first album, this 1991 follow-up includes blues, jazz, swing, country, and love songs. Most songs by Sandra, plus Sharon makes her debut as a songwriter here with Next Step, a touching love ballad. Also includes Pray for Peace, an upbeat Brazilian dance tune; Fly Me Away, a bossa-nova calypso acapella number with voice orchestra; and others they've been performing in concert. Produced by Teresa Trull, with back-up artists such as Linda Tillery, Melanie Monsur, Nina Gerber, Paul McCandless, John Buccchino, even Teresa herself. (SHS222) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Understated

This debut album of hot sounds by identical twins Sandra and Sharon is full of unique harmonies and special songs: Breaths, Sweet Inspiration, Brown Like Me, Find the Spirit, and more. Acapella funk is combined with contemporary pop/folk/jazz and a touch of calypso. Back-up vocals by Linda Tillery and Vicki Randle; expertly produced by Teresa Trull. (ICE221) CS: 9.98

Shot Out!

Whot of Love

This talented 5-woman Bay Area band will pull you back into the feel of early 70's rock, with their heavy guitar and strong danceable beat. Fusing the smooth intensity of the Parachute Club with their own original compositions, however, they are anything but outdated. From the steamy teaser Attraction Reaction to the remake of Janis Joplin's Turtle Blues, complete with acid guitar riffs, they are tight, energetic, and hot! (FM1) CS: 9.98

Wes

This earnest and sincere musician writes inspiring songs of personal struggle and affirmation. With cuts ranging from Just a Game, written during her first months of sobriety, to the catchy This Feeling, it's not surprising that she received a standing ovation at the 1990 Southern Women's Music Festival... or that Billboard awarded her their Songwriter Achievement Award for the cut Will You Ever Be There! (NV1) CS: 9.98

Tidal Waves (EP Tape)

Wes' popularity at Gay and Lesbian Pride marches comes from her powerful delivery of songs like the 3 cuts on this EP. The title cut (or is it tidal cut??) is a prayer for the end of AIDS, while I Am Gay is an affirming proclamation of lesbian/gay identity. Wes sings very honestly of her own recovery experiences in If You Listen To Your Heart. (NV2) CS: 5.98

Wimmin on the Edge

Herstory from the Edge

Highly harmonic songs of loving and healing, punctuated by an unexpected sense of humor, mark this wonderful debut album. With an unusual sound — a '67 Les Ford electric guitar, finger-picked in a traditional folk style — Tracy Riordan and Gwen Rector have created memorable and moving pieces like Song for Ida (Grandmother's Song), Big Strong Woman, and the wry hate-song to a lover's cat, I Don't Love Lucy. They've played the Southern Women's Music Festival and gay pride marches, and we imagine we'll be seeing them around a whole lot more... Recommended! (WOT1) CS: 9.98

Woody Simmons

Oregon Mountains

This is a classic women's music album, and may soon be joining some of its sisters in music heaven, so buy this before it goes out of print! Like some fresh mountain air, it has a spacious and rejuvenating quality. Mostly acoustic guitar and banjo with vocals, bluegrass/country flavored, original tunes, featuring two outstanding banjo instrumentals. Highly recommended! (DR1001) CS: 9.98

Comedy

The Android Sisters

Songs of Electronic Despair

The high-tech electrifying duo (Ruth Maleczek and Valeria Vasilievski) performs their humorous, satirical musical comments on our wondrous society. Titles include Macho Robot, Sss-X Minus One, Down On the Electronic Farm, and many more. The music's composed by Hearts of Space recording artist Tim Clark. Some copies of this album on LP slipped through our fingers several years ago, and we're glad to have rediscovered it on cassette! (ZBS1) CS: 9.98

Georgie On My Mind

If you're depressed about life under the Bush administration, cheer up with this great musical political satire from the group often heard on NPR's All Things Considered. Lyrics primarily by Elaine Newport and Bill Strauss, with lots of folks singing in the chorus. Highlights include Your Statue Needs a Tu-Tu, written especially for Jesse Helms who says "No Nudes Is Good Nudes" and You Light Up My Flag. (CS1008) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Ida Faiella and John McDonough

Dishpan Fantasy: A Real Soap Opera

This made-for-radio "goddess opera" opens when Dora, an unhappy housewife, reads an article in Ms. Magazine called "When God Was a Woman"... and her life is altered forever. When she tries a new dish detergent, "Blue Goddess Soap," she's swallowed by a giant bubble and carried away; her husband Aldo, left to do dishes for the first time in his life, also gets gobbled by a bubble. Transported to a tropical island, Dora becomes Ador, a playful nymph, and Aldo becomes Odla, with horns and hooves and a rather strong goat odor. This piece satirizes everything: male-female relationships, goddess and pagan movements, environmental and planetary awareness, and more... and sounds sort of like one of Sue Fink's "audience write-alongs" 75 minutes. (ZBS2) CS: 12.98

Live at Great American Music Hall

Note the sale price on the LP! In her inimitable style, where every breath packs a punch, Kate relates experiences as a recovering Catholic (coveting her neighbor's wife), sensitively and deeply describes Californians discussing Relationships, satirizes personals in papers, sings her song for parthenogenesis, and tells how she answered the question What Do YOU Do? at an S/M workshop (and you'll have to buy this to hear the answer!). Though Kate's audiences continue to expand at a rapid rate and the types of people she performs for has broadened significantly, she never omits her lesbian material: get your TV sets tuned up! (WHY103) LP: 6.98 ... CS: 9.98

Babes in Joyland

Recorded live in Boston (dead doesn't record well), Kate draws on her recovering Catholic roots, years of high school English teaching, and her authority on Bush and bawdy politic to build laughter of fading fears and connections made. It's hard to be a dominatrix in a kinder, gentler nation, so her comedy is more stand-with than stand-up! Join her as she gallops through the Joyland ThemePark: rubbernecking on the Planet of the Guys, getting scared straight in a Gender DeTox, and flailing away at Mom Pinata in Familyland! (WHY104) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Robin Tyler

Always a Bridesmaid, Never a Groom

A comedy album by this sharp-witted humorist, leaving few controversial subjects untouched: racism, sexism, organized religion. Robin was one of the first feminist comics, and brought recognition to the art form as part of women's culture. (RT1) LP: 9.98

Sandra Bernhard

Without You I'm Nothing (2-Set)

Don't dawdle; might soon be out-of-print! Taken from her recent one-woman show in New York, this double-play album is a musical and comedic tour de force with a unique blend of caustic wit, fragile irony and rockin' tunes. Her stories are funny, scathing and scandalous, her singing voice captivating. Among her subjects: Christmas, Stevie Nicks, the 1964 World's Fair. Dedicated to, among others, her "most inspirational friend" Madonna. (ENI73369) CS: 15.98 ... CD: 17.98

Holiday

The Barolk Folk

Come Let Us Be Merry

Prior to the 19th century, Christmas carols were dance tunes with lyrics added. The old French verb "caroler" meant "to dance in a ring"; a "caroleor" was not a singer but a dancer. The Barolk Folk trio (Carrie Crompton, Celia Wyckoff and Michael Rose) presents a program of lively and lovely instrumental dance tunes from England, Scotland, Ireland and France, performed on hammered and fretted dulcimers, recorders, viol, guitar and piano. You'll recognize a few, but many will become new additions to your carol vocabulary, as they bring a dancing spirit to your holidays. (MLP409) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 14.98

Benedictine Nuns of St. Cecilia's

Gregorian Chant: Christmas Chant

These timeless medieval chants from the Christmas Liturgy, sung in the original Latin, express a rare serene, spiritual beauty; recorded live at St. Cecilia's Abbey, Isle of Wight. (NW154) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 16.98

Danny's First Noel

If you're prone to the holiday blahs, some great political satire will probably cheer you right up! From Some Nuts Roasting Flaps on Open Fires to Ozone Has a Hole On High to Oh, Spending Spree to Oil in the World, the women and men from the Capitol Steps set the grim to humorous to ludicrous realities created by our politicians to popular Xmas tunes, and add a new dimension to the phrase "holiday spirit"! (CS1005) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

The Christmas Revels w/Jean Ritchie

Wassail! Wassail!

Subtitled An American Celebration of the Winter Solstice, featuring music of Colonial America, Southern Appalachian, Native American and Black American traditions, this extraordinary collection includes shape-note hymnals, Shaker songs, children's street games, string band dance music of the South, Native American carols and poetry. Records contain booklet with lyrics. 21 selections in all, none of which are standard Christmas carols. Includes I Will Bow and Be Simple, Chicken Foot, Exultation, Children Go Where I Send Thee. (RVL1082) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Summer Angels, Some Are Not!

The Summer Angels are a zany comedy act consisting of 3 women (with some overlap with The Fallen Angel Choir — see Holiday Section), plus one guy — or, "three white chicks and a Semite." From The Juggs' Jingle Jamboree to Fairwell to Fair Barbie to Mother Nature's On the Rag, they mix pop, progressive politics and parody... musically satirizing sports, sex, shopping, the Woodstock generation, the Gulf War, and the S&Ls, among other topics, mixing ragtime, rap, doo-wop, opera, jazz, heavy metal and polka. ### Fontaine: Why Am I Straight?

Opening with a unique rendition of the Star Spangled Mu'tuckin' Banner, Whoopi's character Fontaine, the junkie with a literature degree, returns from the Betty Ford Clinic where he has straightened out, and gives us the hilarious straight stories on Jerry Falwell, Jim & Tammy, Jesus, religious wars, homosexuality ("like Black people, they're here!"), AIDS, and everyone and everything else in the news today. Pure genius, you'll laugh out loud during repeated listenings. Very highly recommended! (MCA42243) CS: 7.98

Jennifer Griffiths & Randy Zombola
December Dulcimers
 Most festive and imaginative music, and by a woman (Jennifer) who used to work at a women's music company to boot! All instrumentals, with two hammered dulcimers, plus recorder, flute, fiddle, maracas, et al. There are traditional tunes, and not-so-traditional ones, which are always the winners to this reviewer's ears... in this case, Calypso Christmas and Reindeer Rag probably take the cake, as well as an original tune by Jennifer, Mistletoe Waltz. There are many dulcimer holiday albums out these days, but don't overlook this one just 'cause you haven't seen it in every record shop. (DSM02) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Joan Baez
Noel
 Beautiful classical arrangements, utilizing a consort of recorders, a consort of viols, lute, harpsichord, baroque organ, as well as winds, strings and percussion, and of course Joan's perfect soprano, of traditional Christmas songs: gentle, tasteful, dignified. (VAN79230) CS: 6.98 ... CD: 14.98

 The culmination of eight years of musical friendship between this harper/"glockenspieler" and this flutist/"piccolist," both musicians extraordinary; traditional Irish and French tunes plus their unique interpretations of well-known carols are marked by both light-hearted improvisation and an uncanny sense of timing. Very sweet and sublime. (INV122) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Oy Chanukah!
 It's about time, is all this Jewish girl can say. Klezmer is jazz-tinged Yiddish music which originated in the old country—Eastern Europe—and was further developed by Jewish immigrants in the first part of this century. Primary instruments are woodwinds, horns, violins, accordion, mandolin, drums, bass, piano; the energy and spirit is among the highest of any style: This recording, by a band of 15 women and men, contains celebratory instrumentals, informative narratives, and strong vocals by Judy Bressler. Includes Jewish Heroines: Dona, Dona, The Struggle for Freedom; Chassidim Dance-Making Latkes (with recipe and demonstration!); Klezified. Very highly recommended! (ROU3102) CS: 9.98 ... Sounds of the Season
 This significant album of Traditional Christmas Carols and Dances with Hammered Dulcimer, Celtic Harp, and Other Instruments can be enjoyed all throughout the year, because of the fresh interpretations to both familiar and unusual tunes. Some carols, originally danced in ancient times, are recreated with the joyous rhythms of the cittern and Irish drum. Baroque-style medieval pieces are elegantly enhanced with recorder, viola da gamba, and finger cymbals; most of the musicians are women. Maggie's artistry on the hammered dulcimer, with all its inventiveness and musical expression, really shines through. Highly recommended! (MM103) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

 This companion volume to the highly successful Sounds of the Season is a fresh collection of Christmas carols featuring hammered dulcimer, solo and with Celtic harp, recorders, viola da gamba, zarb (an Arab drum) and other traditional instruments. Marcie Telander
Earth Celebrations, Volume 2
 Many of you may be thinking, "Hey, there's no Volume 1!" Well, this is true, but is merely a compromise between two forms of time-referencing; many "Pagan" culture's years start in the fall, while the dominant culture's starts in January, which is what Volume 1, when it is released, will feature. Anyway, this volume is a celebration and remembrance of the aspects of Fall and Midwinter—the physical, emotional and spiritual harvesting of the passing year, the preparation for the inner journeying of winter—Marcie gives voice to stories and narratives of ancient and contemporary rituals and mythologies from a variety of cultures, ranging from Celtic to Jewish to Native American. Quite lovely, if occasional, music accompanies her mellifluous voice. (MT5) CS: 9.98

Margie Rosenthal & Ilene Safyan
Just In Time For Chanukah
 These two performers/educators from Portland got together because of a mutual love of Jewish music, and have been singing as a duo for years. This tape contains 13 gentle songs which tell the story of the Festival of Lights, to be enjoyed by adults and children alike, with accompaniment by guitar and flute. One of the definite highlights is Malvina Reynolds' Eight Candles (how many of you knew she wrote Chanukah music?); includes material in both English and Hebrew. Fills a definite gap. (RSF1) CS: 9.98

Mitzie Collins/ Roxanne Ziegler
Ornaments
 Mitzie on hammered dulcimer and Roxanne on harp perform instrumental Christmas music; with so many strings, the sound is naturally delicate and resonant, fitting for the season. Accompanying instruments include flutes, flute quartet, fiddle, recorder, bowed psaltery, handbells, orchestra bells, harmonium, performed by primarily women. Highly recommended! Nowell
 Outstanding! This album, although with a seasonal theme, can easily be enjoyed any time of year. 3 artists with classical backgrounds (Glennnda is a flautist well-known in classical circles) play Christmas music from around the world on hammered dulcimer, harp, flute and recorder. The unusual song selection includes Riu, Riu Chiu; Patapan; O Sanctissima; Un Flambeau, Jeanette Isabella; Cold December Flies Away; I Saw Three Ships Come Sailing In; and others which are not found on every other Christmas anthology. (SAM8606) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Rejoice
 With the addition of a cello quartet and guitar as well as arrangements by award-winning composer Cary Ratcliff, this 4-woman collaboration yields some of the prettiest Christmas this reviewer has ever heard... 18 pieces, primarily from central and eastern European traditions, including the Basque carol Companions, All Sing; The Carol of the Bagpipers; The Snow Lay On the Ground from Italy's Abruzzi mountain region, Scotland's Baloo Lammy, and the Catalanian Fum, Fum, Fum, plus 2 tunes from the American South. Hammer dulcimer, pedal and folk harp, cello, flutes and guitar blend together with classical precision. Recommended! (SAM9019) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Nancy Rumbel & Eric Tingstad
The Gift
 This is an exceptional and unusual album of Acoustic Offerings for the Holiday Season...the oboe, English horn, double ocarina, piano and chimes of Nancy Rumbel (of Radiance, previously of Winter Consort), intertwine with the delicate and steel string guitars of Eric Tingstad, with a delicacy and precision which are trademarks of masters. These renditions of traditional Christmas songs evoke warmth and wistfulness, emotion and calm. Recommended! (SG151) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Odetta
Christmas Spirituals
 This collection of Black American spirituals, while appropriate to the holiday season, is a pleasure all year, because none of these gospel songs are specifically about Christmas! Odetta harnesses her deep, distinctive, flexible, far-ranging, bone-shaking voice with passion and sensitivity, making spirituals like Go Tell It On the Mountain and Shout For Joy fresh and inspiring with her brilliant interpretations. Recommended! (ALC104) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

A Holiday Celebration
 This 1988 release contains songs they made famous such as Blowin' In the Wind (how's that for a holiday message?) plus A Soakin', Children Go Where I Send Thee, O Come O Come Emmanuel, Light One Candle, The Cherry Tree Carol, and more, joyfully and elegantly performed live-in-concert, many with full choir and orchestra. If you've been missing Mary Travers all these years, here's a good way to bring her back into your home! It's an impressive album. (GC171016) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 15.98

Radhika Miller
Blossoms in the Snow
 Radhika blends familiar favorites on traditional medieval and Renaissance instruments—recorders, vielle, mandola, rebec, bodhran, glockenspiel—with refreshing contemporary (some original) carols for flute, cello, harp, and piano. Joyful and reverent; if you have enjoyed her other releases, you'll love this; if you haven't heard her others yet, here's the perfect opportunity to get acquainted. Guest artists include Michelle Sell and David Darling. Always recommended! (RM1105) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 14.98

Robin Petrie
A Victorian Christmas
 Accompanied by Kim Robertson on harp, as well as other talented ensemble musicians, this celebrated hammered dulcimerist (known to many NPR listeners) presents a bright and cheery collection of over 20 instrumental carols. They were revived from "banishment" during Queen Victoria's lifetime... they had been abolished, along with Christmas and other holiday celebrations, by the Puritan parliament of 1647!! Includes The Furry Day Carol, The Carnival and the Crane, The Sussex Mummers Carol, The Sans Day Carol, and many more familiar and not-so-familiar tunes. (GOU125) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

The Roches
We Three Kings
 A full 60 minutes (24 songs) of Roches-style holiday cheer here, and if you haven't heard this but are familiar with their earlier works, simply recall their awe-some rendition of the Hallelujah Chorus; that's the full-choir treatment they endow these songs with. They throw in a few new versions of familiar tunes for good measure, or perhaps it would be more accurate to say that it's not always clear which are tongue-in-cheek, and that's okay... because it all feels good, like joy, which is the point anyway. Seattle Men's Chorus
Snowbound
 The nation's largest gay chorus (170 voices!) captures the holiday spirit in this 1991 release, with songs ranging from traditional selections to the Christmas Cantata. The Chorus' close-harmony acappella ensemble, the Philandros Singers, adds vocal jazz arrangements to such favorites as The Christmas Song and The Twelve Days After Christmas. Here's your chance to share the holidays with an ensemble whose performances and broadcasts have brought the message of gay pride to millions throughout the US and Canada. (SMC2) CS: 9.98 ... Shekhinah Mountainwater
A Winter Solstice Legend
 Priestess-teacher Shekhinah offers seasonal storytelling, chanting, and musical accompaniment on guitar. This new myth, which celebrates the Birth of Light, tells the tale of Mother Moon giving birth to a Star Child—the Maiden Goddess Spirit of the coming year. A wonderful alternative to patriarchal Christmas, this recording can be used as part of holiday festivities for ritual, storytelling and pageantry. Children of all ages love this one! Singh Kaur, Dean Evenson, D'Rachael
What Child Is This?
 Anyone who has enjoyed the Crimson series of chant tapes by Kim Robertson and Singh Kaur knows the incredible, exquisitely angelic sounds this vocalist can impart, and here she alchemically turns traditional carols into transcendent, totally peaceful experiences. Accompaniment consists of flute, harp, mandolin and bells, with many improvisational/ vocalization breaks. A few of the selections are instrumentals. 60 minutes. Heavenly! (SOP7137) CS: 9.98 ... Sylvia Woods
Three Harps for Christmas Vol. 2
 Sylvia's second volume makes a handsome gift with her first one. This time, in addition to familiar carols she includes an original, Winter Bells. Most pieces feature at least two harps, and Carol of the Bells has sixteen harp tracks! Quite fantastic. (TON1226) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Therese Schroeder-Sheker
In Dulci Jubilo
 We call this a holiday recording, but you may well inquire "exactly which holiday?" after listening and reading! Therese has an in-depth appreciation for Christianity's origins in Goddess and nature religions; and many of her selections reflect her own personal devotion "to all things Marian"... in other words, this is more about Mary than about Jesus! With her sublime, seraphic voice, and impeccably played medieval and renaissance harps, psalteries, recorders and bells, she performs: The Holly and the Ivy (with subtle Grail and Goddess overtones); Down in Yon Forest (contrasts a fully developed Grail-epic imagery with the ancient nature's May Queen, all the while remembering the Nativity); the Salve Mater (a more recent processional hymn in praise of Mary); and more. Highly recommended! (CEL039) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

They all contributed instrumental Christmas tracks to this benefit release for the National Coalition for the Homeless, of course! Voice of the Turtle
Circle of Fire: A Hanukah Concert
 A quartet of 2 women and 2 men, Turtle specializes in the folk songs of the Sephardic Jews who were expelled from Spain and Portugal during the 15th centuries; this live recording is Volume 5 of their Songs of the Sephardim series. They combine vocal harmonies with exotic historical instruments (such as 'ud, shawm, soprano chalumau, saz, baglama), reflecting the traditions of the Sephardim, preserving both the Judeo-Spanish culture and those of the lands through which they travelled while in exile. Songs are performed in Ladino and Hebrew. An unusual and historic Hanukah gift! (TI159) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Aster Awake

Wow! Imagine the rich, successful amalgamation of two incredibly different cultural expressions — Ethiopian melismatic singing with American R&B — and you've come close to describing this talented DC resident; she sings over dance beats in her native Amharic in a quivering, microtonal wall, croons to a native harp and light percussion, keens over a classically-tinged piano — this is "World Beat" at its best! Highly recommended! (COL46848) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 15.98

Balafon

Marimba Ensemble

We didn't know where to list this album, because it's African instrumental music created by an American 5-woman, 4-man marimba ensemble! So here it is, for lack of a more accurate category. Their purpose is to promote understanding of other cultures with the ultimate goal of global unity, peace, and sense of community. With a full chorus of marimbas (bass, baritone, tenor and soprano!), plus congas, timbales, hoshos, bells and other percussion, they produce a high energy recording which is recommended for dance, listening, and educational uses — it's great music! Histories of the compositions are explained in the liner notes. (SHN67002) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

The Lijadu Sisters

Double Trouble

A domestic release of an African recording features Nigerian twins, who are among the first female artists to have had an impact on African pop. They write their own material, and their style mixes Afro-beat pop with traditional Yoruba sounds; songs are mostly in Yoruba, couple in English. Great rhythms, excellent percussion; you can't stay still when you listen to it! Recommended. (SHN43020) CS: 9.98

Lilly Tchiumba

Angola: Songs of My People

This is a treasure, even if you don't speak Kimbundo. Lilly harmonizes beauty and passion, and transmits love and defiance, accompanied by viola, ungo, n'goma-dikanza, kabaca-piuta, and other instruments! Includes a song translated Women of Angola about the right to attain equality and to be given respect always. (MON767) CS: 9.98

M'Bellia Bel

Bameli Soy

One of our top pix for the year! By one of Africa's top female vocalists. She is from Zaire, and the album is replete with Congolese rhythms, harmonies, percussion and energetic joyousness. (SHN43025) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

The Mahotella Queens

Izibani Zomqashiyo

Striking harmonies in the Mbube style, from 4 women of South Africa's best female vocal group. They sing in Zulu, with the very upbeat backing of Mbaqanga music: an electric guitar with machine-gun licks of paired notes, whizzing up and down the fretboard; bass notes of rapid counter-melodies played high up in the instrument's register. The content of their material is not overtly political, since it would be banned and the musicians probably jailed if it were, but it reflects the strength and indomitability of their spirits. Recommended! (SHN43036) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Mahotella Queens & Mahlathini

Rhythm and Art

Already widely known and recognized for high energy stage shows and soaring vocals, this female trio (back after their temporary retirement, and now just 3) and male vocalist have revolutionized the South African pop scene. On this 1990 album the group performs 5 new compositions and 2 English versions of their most popular songs; includes what could be the most incredible version of a gospel song, God Is On Your Side, ever recorded! Again, don't expect overtly political lyrics, but be prepared to be swept away by the sheer power of this release! Highly recommended! (SHN43068) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Mahotella Queens

Marriage Is A Problem

South Africa's premiere mbaqanga harmony quartet soars with unlimited energy and exacting harmonies on this 1991 release, as they look back to traditional ways, to a time before Apartheid. Songs include Selailai/ Attractive Woman, Kgarebe Tsaga Mothusi/ Mothusi's Daughter, Nyalo Ea Tshwenya/ Marriage Is A Problem (luckily one that many of us don't have to contend with!) Very danceable, upbeat, certain to lift any dragging spirits! Highly recommended as always! (SHN43080) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Miriam Makeba, w/Belafronte Singers

The Click Song

This is a classic: Miriam's first long-playing album, recorded with the Belafronte Folk Singers! It includes her well-known songs, The Click Song, Mbube, another version also known as "Wimoweh", House of the Rising Sun, Iya Guduzi, which triple tracks Miriam's voice and was probably the first multiple recording in Zulu, the humorous One More Dance, and others, performed in Xosa, Swazi, Zulu and English. Highly recommended! (ESP155564) CS: 11.98 ... CD: 19.98

Miriam Makeba

Pata Pata

Do you kinda wonder why recordings by this vocalist from South Africa are becoming so rare?? This limited-quantity import contains "a multifaceted repertoire that knocks down walls, bridges, barriers, and transforms a dozen different languages into a universal tongue." Her daughter Bongzi does back-up vocals; includes several originals such as Amampondo, West Wind, Ngoma Kurila, plus Tanzanian folk tune Malaika, and other writers' works. The CD contains 4 extra songs. (ESP165508) CS: 11.98 ... CD: 19.98

Eyes on Tomorrow

This 1991 release features some very special guest artists: Nina Simone, Dizzy Gillespie, and Hugh Masekela! Freedom is the absolute theme on this internationally-recorded album (Johannesburg, Brussels, Bologna, NYC), with a very upbeat and dedicated spirit. Nina Simone collaborates with Miriam on a song well known in Nina's repertoire; they combine the traditional African Thulasizwe with I Shall Be Released. Rich, resonating backing vocal choirs throughout. Recommended! (PLG849313) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 15.98

Sangoma

A Sangoma is a diviner and healer who is empowered by the spirits of one's ancestors. This 1988 release by the first lady of South African music is thus infused: these are songs from her South African childhood, learned from her mother and grandmother. And although she has been in exile from South Africa for 30 years, her songs communicate prolifically and stunningly the strength and struggle of those who continue to celebrate the mysteries of their spiritual lives in spite of the repressive apartheid regime. (An interesting note: she was also exiled from the U.S. in 1968, after she married Stokely Carmichael.) Highly recommended. (WB25673) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 15.98

Emjindini

The 4 women of this exciting ensemble perform the mbaqanga music also known as South African township jazz, particularly the disco-jive stream of mbaqanga that was popular in Johannesburg in the latter 70's. The music is lively and driving, melding traditional South African vocal styles with contemporary instruments and production. (ROU5034) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Nahawa Doumbia

Didadi

Recognized in the 1984 Radio France competition as the best talent in the category of African music, this artist is a newcomer only to the universality of appeal her music has achieved. Her birthplace, Mali, serves as a gateway between Africa and the Middle East, and her music is rooted in those cultural traditions. Malian music has drawn upon Latin music from Senegal, high-life from Ghana, Afrobeat from Nigeria, soukhou from Zaire; this album blends a mixture of horns, percussion and powerful vocals into a showcase for Nahawa's majestic abilities. Includes Banani, a discourse on living well and avoiding evil, and Nierwe, a tale of how a person's life is judged. Highly recommended! (SHN64015) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Moussolou / "Women"

Recorded in 1989, when Oumou was a mere 21, this fantastic recording has sold over 200,000 copies in West Africa alone! Her strong voice, rhythmic melodies and progressive lyrics make this import a must for your collection. Songs are in Waa-soulou (a Malian dialect), and instrumental, while not listed in the otherwise informative liner notes, features a smooth bass, light percussion, and violin-ish strings both plucked and bowed. Includes the title song, which encourages society to recognize and respect our "contributions", and Diya Gneba (Great Love), which favors couples being able to choose their own partners rather than submit to prearranged weddings. Highly recommended! (WCD021) CS: 11.98 ... CD: 19.98

Sanougue Kouyate

Balendala Djibe

Here's how a reviewer from Option Magazine described this album: "This woman has pipes! Kouyate comes from Mali, and a family of Mandingo Griots, traditionally singers, tribal historians, and storytellers. The music is very traditional, the dominant instruments being the harp-like kora and the marimba-like balafon. The instrumental accompaniment, then, is delicate; and what a contrast to Kouyate's volcanic voice, which soars over the hypnotic kora and balafon lines, scorching everything in its wake, leaving absolutely no doubt as to its authority. The only western comparison I can think of is Aretha Franklin. But I can't think of another world music recording I've heard that is so instantly electrifying..." Why try saying it better? Very highly recommended! (MNG9874) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 15.98

Sona Diabate

Girls of Guinea

A member of a famous griot (traditional singers/ musicians/ storytellers) family from Guinea, one of the richest areas of African musical tradition, Sona has also made an impact as singer-guitarist with the all-female Les Amazones de Guinea band. On this solo recording, her powerful, passionate vocals are backed by female voices and acoustic guitars, creating an enchanting, melodious sound steeped in tradition yet recasting ancient melodies and rhythms in new settings. Definitely recommended! (SHN65007) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Sophie Mgcinas

Poppie Nongena

Based on the actual life story of a Black woman living in South Africa today, this original cast recording of the award-winning South African play follows the life of Poppie, as she and her family endure the brutal racism of apartheid. Songs include many South African traditional, including Nkosi Sikelela Iafrika/ Anthem, the unofficial Black South African anthem of struggle adopted by the African National Congress. We've been waiting for this one for a long time... Very highly recommended. (HAN6301) CS: 9.98

Stella Chiweze

Ambuya?

Known as Zimbabwe's Queen of the Mbira, Stella is indeed one of the only women masters of the mbira, or thumb-piano, because it is considered a man's instrument (and, until recently, it was actually illegal for women to play mbira on stage!). It is used ritually to honor and communicate with the spirits of ancestors, and is therefore a powerful component of the culture. Stella also plays drums, breaking another taboo, and sings songs about female spirits, such as the Great Spirit or Great Grandmother, and about liberation from apartheid. An unusual recording, and now re-released on a domestic label, insuring continued availability! (SHN65006) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Tshala Muana

Soukous Siren

This artist has played a leading role in taking Zairean soukous into a more contemporary internationally-oriented sound. This collection of some of her greatest recordings delivers a hard-driving set of dance rhythms as a showcase for her sweet, free-flowing lyrical vocals: her voice is cool yet exhilarating, stylish yet tough, with a very appealing huskiness. (SHN64031) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Chaba Fadela

You Are Mine

While other ethnic stars can provide excellent examples of Rai music — a modern Arabic pop style whose roots lie in traditional Algerian folk music with African, Moroccan, Spanish and French influences — Chaba (title for a young female) Fadela is the premiere voice of the movement that blends cultures and generations to produce a distinctive and beautiful sound. Her rough sensuous voice has been described as "the pride of Algeria," and her compositions as the best example of Rai music to be found. In fact, the success of Rai, in spite of government attempts to ban it (it is taboo to sing about sexuality — especially for a woman!), is in large part attributable to her. A strong dance beat, with synthesizers, drum machines and multitasking, are paired with her haunting traditional Arabic vocals on this 1988 release. Includes her major hit, N'Sel Fik, performed with Cheb (title for a young male) Sahraoui. Very highly recommended! (MNG9827) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 15.98

Krishna Chakravarty

Ananda

One of the few female sitar players who have received recognition as a master of their art, Madame Chakravarty has been as student of Ravi Shankar since 1971 and has toured, performed and taught throughout the world. Here she performs ancient rags, rich with stirring rhythms and expressive phrases, with virtuosity and fire. (FOR17046) CS: 9.98

Lucia Hwong

House of Sleeping Beauties

This gifted composer/singer/actress/dancer/painter (born in Hawaii, raised in L.A.) bridges past and present, paying homage to her Chinese ancestors while acknowledging western influences. This recording is dedicated to her grandmother Madame T.C. Lu, a great Chinese opera star; you can hear her voice, her spirit here. Lucia's training in Chinese classical music as well as western classical music is also evident in these original compositions which would fit the new age or world music labels. Instrumentals brushed with vocalizations, Dragon Dance and the full-side Tibet Suite utilize kayagum, shakuhachi, pipa, soprano sax, zither, and other ethereal sounds to evoke an aural journey to the Far East. Truly unique...recommended! (PVT2006) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 16.98

It was written by male composers Mbongeni Ngema and Hugh Masakela, to celebrate Mbaqanga music (see The Mahotella Queens) as well as the power of the children of South African townships. You'll hear the eleven young women and nine young men who were chosen for the troupe, to sing, dance, act, and continue their education in a mobile school! It's mostly acappella, very harmonic, and documents the vitality of the many townships represented here as well as their formal and informal protest of apartheid. (ROU5024) CS: 9.98

Chaba Fadela & Cheb Sahraoui

Hana Hana

If you liked You Are Mine, you'll love this too. Fadela co-wrote most of the selections, and performs them all with her male duo partner... they are compelling and unique. Contains the 89 Mix of the hit N'Sel Fik. A bonus is that the insert contains actual photos of the artists; many other Rai albums, including You Are Mine and Nights Without Sleeping, instead show models on the cover, presumably in accordance with the Islamic prohibition of photographs. (MNG9856) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 15.98

Chaba Zahouania

Nights Without Sleeping

On this excellent recording of Rai music, Zahouania uses her deep and sultry voice to convert Bedouin chants into vocal improvisations; the accompaniment blends traditional middle eastern instrumentation with contemporary western instruments and production techniques. She's following in the footsteps of the originators of Rai: rural women singers called "Cheikhates" who, in the early part of this century, adapted the chants of the nomadic herders to their own improvised words, often singing of the taboo subjects of sex and alcohol. Her family has prohibited public performances and photographs, so the cover here features the same model as Fadela's You Are Mine! (MNG9831) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 15.98

Mieko

Totem

First of all, this is fantastic dance music, so all you DJ's (closet or otherwise) take note! Japanese singer-songwriter Mieko blends Japanese melodies with African rhythms, Arabic overtones, and western technology, creating a unique, high-energy sound and style from a melting pot of cultural references. She began her career performing traditional Japanese songs, moved on to jazz and then to "ethno-jazz", and is now concentrating on developing her personal style while incorporating various types of world music and still maintaining a wide-spread appeal. She recently moved to England, and this is a U.K. import. (WOL0011) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 16.98

Chat Iskandaria

This 1988 release represents a return for this vocalist to a traditional Lebanese style (the majority of her recent discography has been of more modern music), with traditional instrumentation of oud, kanoun (like a zither), violins, piano. The songs were written by her late husband and brother-in-law. (RLX18) CS: 10.98

Umm Kulthumm

The Twinkling Star

No longer living, this woman (whose name is also written Oum Kulsoum or Imm Kulsim) remains Egypt's and the Arab world's most esteemed vocalist. She sang into her late 70's, performing lengthy concerts with long improvised epic tales, projecting dignity and strength. She never lost respect for having had 4 consecutive husbands, an unusual situation for an Arab woman in the limelight; she basically transcended the boundaries of convention; this info courtesy of Kristin Lems. ## Najma

Atish

This 1990 release, Najma's second, extends the musical fusion introduced by her first album — traditional Indian melodies and rhythms synthesized with western jazz and pop styles — as her soaring vocals hit spine-tingling heights. (SHN64026) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Rakugaki

Rakugaki is a duo of two women — Helen Dryz and Kim Oswalt — who perform on 2 traditional Japanese instruments: the koto, a 13-string or 20-string Japanese harp, and the shakuhachi, a bamboo flute. They both have studied with Japanese masters while living in Japan, and have toured for both Japanese and U.S. audiences; Helen is also a shakuhachi-maker. The music is soft, subtle and graceful, combining the traditional with the contemporary. (WFS1) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Sheila Chandra

The Struggle

"I'm proud to be Asian, an Asian Woman, and an Asian Woman in the Music Business." One of our best-sellers from years past — and one of the loveliest and most creative works in our catalog — is back in print! On this lushly textured, harmonic, innovative, up-tempo dance album, Sheila brings together the seeming paradoxes and polarities of her life. A British citizen of Indian descent (known previous to her solo releases for her vocal work with the band Monsoon), her heritage is steeped in ancient traditions, and she values them, yet feels they must be used in a progressive context. The recording blends traditional eastern sounds, vocals, chants, and instruments (sitar, gamelan, Zildjian cymbals, tabla, tamboura, etc.), with western rhythms and technology to create...Indipop! If you have enjoyed Olra Haza, try this for sure...very highly recommended! (IND3) CS: 12.98 ... CD: 18.98

Roots and Wings

This 1989 release is Sheila's first album since her eccentric decision to "retire" in 1985 at the age of 20. Part of that hiatus was spent researching fresh musical and vocal approaches, which she explores here: Kannok Al Dente incorporates a musical language of percussive vocal syllables — the Indian version of scat, various multi-tracked vocals over traditional Indian instruments such as ghatam (a finely tuned clay pot) and mridangam (a very intricate percussion instrument); even mixes of African log drum and conga with Indian percussion. We welcome her back to the recording world! (IND5) LP: 12.98 ... CS: 12.98 ... CD: 18.98

Alison Kinnaird

The Harper's Gallery

One of the leading exponents of Scottish harp music, Alison carries on the tradition of the great clarsach (small harp) players of the past. The opening cut of this album is actually stunning—and I try never to use that word—on which Ann is joined by harpsichordist Lucy Carolan, plus a fiddle and viola...transporting. The collection consists of courtly 16th, 17th and 18th century music; Alison lends her voice to a few of the pieces. Includes one said to have been written by Mary Queen of Scots the night before her execution. The recording quality is excellent — very bright and clear and almost eerily present. Recommended. (TEM003) CS: 9.98

Altan

The Red Crow

Considered to be one of the world's best bands playing Irish music, this 1990 release is their third. As is so often true, the one female, in this case ace vocalist/fiddler Mairead Ni Mhaonaigh, provides the center and foundation for the rest of the ensemble. The selections offer a balanced mix of rhythms and tempos, with reels, jigs, ballads, waltzes; some are all-instrumental and some feature vocals. (GL1109) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Anisa Angarola

Irish Aires and Dances

Since 1984, Anisa's guitar artistry has enhanced all 7 of Joemy Wilson's hammered dulcimer recordings, as well as her own duet recording with Valerie King, Pastorale. Now Anisa takes center stage, in this exciting collection of traditional dance music from Ireland. Accompaniment of flute, recorder, hammered dulcimer (Joemy, of course) and bodhran add special color; impeccable classical technique and the energy and emotion of the music unite to create a recording of special charm. (DM110) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Anisa Angarola/Valerie King

Pastorale

If we could install flashing neon arrows on our catalog pages, we'd use one in this margin! Anisa on classical guitar and Valerie on flute and piccolo are a pair of musicians whose skill is honed to near perfection in their execution of medieval, renaissance, Irish, Spanish, and impressionistic compositions. The phrasing and arrangements are elegant and dignified; even the sequencing is just right. Includes Parson's Farewell/Goddesses and the lively, embellished Carolan's Concerto. Have we said enough? Highly recommended. (JM100) CS: 9.98

Silk 1983-1990

This is a "Best of..." retrospective, covering material from her five solo releases to date: The Struggle, Nada Brahma, Roots and Wings, Quiet, and Out On My Own. Styles range from crossover Indipop to traditional chants to a Scottish lament. A wonderful way to sample her work, and to experience the breadth of her talent and her growth as an artist. And, her first title to be pressed domestically! (SHN64035) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Shobha Gurtu

Now in her 60's, Shobha is revered in her native India as somewhat of a superstar, where she is known as the "Queen of Thumri," a light classical vocal style. Her own mother was a classical singer and dancer, and Shobha has likewise passed her talents onto her children — her son Trilok Gurtu, a member of the ensemble Oregon, has featured his mother's vocals on his contemporary solo recordings. This album is more traditionally Indian in sound and concept: her warm, sensuous voice blends strength with suppleness, vigor with grace, in a combination of acquired technique and innate spirituality. She's accompanied on sarangi, harmonium and tabla. (CMP3004) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Capercaillie

Sidewalk

Considered by many to be Scotland's premiere band, in our opinion it is the incredible Hebridean lead vocalist Karen Matheson who makes it so! The 1-woman 5-man ensemble alternates vocals and instrumentals from the breadth of Scottish repertoire. 4 of the 6 songs are sung in Gaelic, conjuring up the atmosphere and artistry of a vocal tradition steeped in mystic beauty; one is an example of Scottish "mouth music," a vocal tune to dance to; another is a wonderfully spirited "waulking song," sung to accompany the rhythm of beating cloth on a table and unknown outside of the Highlands and Hebrides. Perhaps someday Karen will record some solo albums; in the meantime, enjoy her here! (GL1094) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Clannad

Macalla

Considered by some to be their best album, it is also one of their most produced, with haunting, mystical effects created with synthesizer, multi-tracked Maire vocals, reverberating harmonies, and lots of contemporary instrumentation on top of their traditional accompaniment. Includes The Wild Cry, Closer To Your Heart, Bauchaill On Eirne. (RCA8063) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Crann Uil

This 1980 recording from Dublin's Tara Records contains pure traditional Gaelic and Irish material, impeccably performed, naturally revolving around Maire's heavenly voice... It's one of the last straight-forward, all-acoustic albums Clannad recorded before they embarked on their experimental adventures with more contemporary sounds. Includes Gathering Mushrooms, The Last Rose of Summer. (TAR3007) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Clannad 2

Here's one of Clannad's earliest recordings (logically, their second...), replete with spritely melodies and remarkable harmonies on traditional Irish/Gaelic songs, and awaiting a spot in your collection. (SHN79007) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Clannad

Dulaman

In this 5-person family ensemble, it is the exquisite voice of Maire Ni Bhraonain which centers the vocal harmonies, and her harp playing which provides the focal point for the instrumental arrangements. Their repertoire consists of traditional Gaelic songs which they infuse with an up-tempo, improvisational feel yet precise and delicate musicianship. Includes Two Sisters. (SHN79008) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Shonen Knife (Double)

Their very popular Burning Farm album is once again available... on this compilation, which contains everything from that album plus their second, Yama No Atchani. This young women's trio, which has quite a substantial cult following, creates pristine pop/punk music, direct from the Japanese underground. They sing in Japanese and English, songs like Watchin' Girl, Factory Girl, Parallel Woman, Twist Barbie. (GR6047) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 15.98

Tomoko Sunazaki

Tegoto: Japanese Koto Music

From one of Japan's foremost koto masters, a "best of" compilation, from previous Fortuna releases (Moon at Dawn, Spring Night, Sound of Silk Strings), and is of course exquisite. Melancholy, contemplative, playful and elegant, she performs classical and contemporary Japanese pieces. Over 67 minutes. (FOR17058) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Uzume Talko

Chiroshi

This exciting and incredible trio of percussionists from Vancouver, consisting of 2 women, Leslie Komori and Eileen Kage, and 1 man, John Endo Greenway, revives the traditional Japanese Talko, which means "big drum"; the renewal in popularity of this instrument is occurring in both Japan and among sansai (third generation Japanese/North American). The trio is adeptly assisted by other musicians such as Xiao Yu on pipa, a stringed instrument, and Takeo on shakuhachi, a bamboo flute, and together they weave magic with their blend of Asian and North American music and rhythms. Dedicated to the spirit of Ame No Uzume No Mikoto, "The Heavenly Alarming Female." Graceful and hypnotic... recommended! (FF558) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Various Artists

CompilAsian 1

Works of both Sheila Chandra and Najma are included in this unusual anthology of female and male artists who define and expand upon the term "Indipop"... A beautiful, creative fusion of South Asian and western forms, styles, and technologies: New Bhangra alongside Ghazal-Jazz; Indipop alongside Asian house/hip-hop; dancefloor mixes alongside Indian classical experiments. We only wish the insert offered more information on the 13 or 14 musicians represented. Very rhythmic, and much of it is quite danceable. (IND7) CS: 12.98 ... CD: 18.98

Clannad (with Enya)

Fuaim

We are so pleased to discover this classic! Clannad consists of lead vocalist Maire Ni Bhraonain (Enya's sister), 2 brothers, Claran and Pol, and their 2 uncles, Pdraig and Noel O Dugain. Eithne, known to many of us now as Enya, performed and recorded with them briefly before launching her solo career. This 1982 release (the only one with Enya, and probably their last before the now out-of-print Magical Ring) contains the beginnings of their ingenious blending of contemporary modes with the traditional; you will hear intermittent (always tasteful) touches of synthesizer, clarinet, sax, electric guitar and percussion. That, coupled with these 6-part genetic harmonies, makes this a must for every Enya and Clannad fan. Produced by Nicky Ryan, who produced Enya's solo albums. Very highly recommended! (TAR3008) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

In Concert

Spectacular lead singer Maire Ni Bhraonain is Enya's sister, but if you didn't know that, you might deduce it when you hear their styles... and in fact, the entire ensemble consists of close relatives to these two! This album affords you a rare opportunity to hear this ensemble in person — almost! (Really do it if you ever have the chance...) Includes Fairies Hornpipe, Off to California, Down By the Sally Gardens, and many Gaelic tunes. (SHN79030) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Clishmaclaver

Hearing Double

The debut release by a long-aquainted duo is marked by its rich vocal harmony; Jennifer Culley and Brooke Parkhurst blend complimentary voices in this collection which reflects their appreciation for the traditional Gaelic sound (even their name is a Scottish Gaelic phrase meaning "idle gossip"). They incorporate history into their songs, employing one of the oldest traditions of storytelling. For instance, Susannah Martin, the story of a woman accused in Old Salem of being a witch, is recanted as the timeless medium of the "song tale" is maintained. Also includes a sample of Scottish "mouth music" (a lickety-split tongue-twister), an Appalachian shape-note hymn and a few contemporary ballads. Recommended! (BRP001) CS: 9.98

Connie Dover

Somebody

Vocalist with the American Celtic group Scartaglen, Connie's soaring, crystal-clear voice and sensitive interpretation of traditional songs make this 1991 release noteworthy. She is joined by instrumentalists from the Scots/Irish bands Silly Wizard, Capercaillie and Boys of the Lough to create a collection of songs that spans the music of 1000 years. From the monasteries of 8th century Ireland to the Shenandoah River Valley, the album is a powerful testament to the elusive beauty of traditional Celtic music. Includes On Castle Rock, An Air for Mary Tipton, Rosemary's Sister, Shenandoah. Recommended! (TPM0101) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

DeDannan (with Mary Black)

Song for Ireland

Before launching her solo recording career, Mary Black was known as the breathtaking vocalist with DeDannan; and here is one of the albums on which she is featured, for those of you who want a more complete discography. This Irish band transcends musical boundaries, while maintaining their advocacy for traditional music. (GL1130) CS: 9.98

Enya

This is Enya's debut album, and it's truly glorious; multi-layered harmonies, chords like a church choir and the magic of ancient Celtic culture. Enya's definitely charting some new musical territory, in her blending of classical, medieval, traditional, new age idioms with totally new, original and experimental ones. Enya composed and co-arranged the music, performs all the vocal and keyboard parts, and veritably makes a new instrument of her voice; complemented by millen pipes, violin, electric guitar. We highly recommend this! (ATL61842) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Watermark

A very dramatic, unusual, and hauntingly beautiful album by an Irish musician, which has the feel of an instrumental recording, but actually utilizes many choral textures. Enya's singing in Gaelic, Latin and English evokes a universal language which, when combined with her piano and synthesizer, creates a mystery and almost spiritual awe. There's really nothing else like it, and since we are almost at a loss for descriptive phrases, we hope you'll take our (lack of) word for it and buy it! This, her second release, includes Orinoco Flow (Sail Away), Storms in Africa, On Your Shore. Very highly recommended! (GEF24233) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 15.98

Song of the Seals

Jean has an amazing repertoire & knowledge of Scottish balladry. On this album, her lilting voice is accompanied by guitar, fiddle, & the beautiful, haunting cello of Abby Newton. (PH1054) CS: 9.98

Jean Redpath, with Abby Newton

Lady Nairne

If you're collecting albums by Jean, we hope you'll consider this one. Informing us that many of the best known and loved of Scottish popular songs are in fact the work of one woman, Jean here brings focused attention to this little-celebrated composer, Lady Nairne, a.k.a. Caroline Oliphant, wrote during the late 1700's and early 1800's, usually anonymously with disguised handwriting, because women at the time were taught to shun notoriety. The songs were written for voice only (instruments were considered artificial music and were not permitted) but here are accompanied by Abby's lovely cello. Recommended! (PH1087) CS: 9.98

First Flight

This 60-minute-plus collection brings together the best of her long out-of-print first recordings made for Elektra in the 60's. Recently over from Scotland, she sings traditional songs from varied sources, accompanying herself on guitar. (ROU11556) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

A Fine Song for Singing

Sure to win a contest for largest discography in the western hemisphere, Jean has recorded many albums of works of Scots poets set to music. Lately, a commitment to uncovering works by women has been apparent in her efforts. This album contains the amazing, well-known love song to Annie Laurie, re-written by Lady John Scott... and 2 by Violet Jacob, 1 by Helen Cruikshank, and others by Robert Louis Stevenson, W. B. Yeats, more. (PH1110) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Leaving the Land

This 1990 release is quite a departure from her usual repertoire of traditional Scottish ballads; this album, subtitled A Collection of Songs Scottish and Western, contains contemporary songs which thematically explore the reasons and feelings for leaving home, and of goals and destinations both realized and unattained. She's accompanied by Abby Newton and others. (PH1131) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Jean Redpath

"This set is mine," says Jean of the songs on this LP, "Late at night, when the atmosphere is warm & there's no longer any need to programme, or balance a set, it is songs like these that I would choose to sing." Most are quiet ballads, some sensitively accompanied by Abby Newton on cello, others delivered a cappella by this accomplished & well-loved bearer of the folk tradition. (PH2015) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Joemy Wilson

Dargason: A Dulcimer Sampler

Featuring Ruth Barrett in harmony vocals, Sylvia Woods on Celtic harp, and Laurie MacLeod on cello, Joemy leads with mountain and hammer dulcimers, crotale, tambourine, and vocals. Most are instrumentals, and the few vocals have feminist themes (The Crafty Maid's Policy, I'll Not Marry at All). Contains medieval dance tunes and Irish instrumentals. Recently remixed, digitalized and dolby-ized. (DM101) CS: 9.98

Carolan's Cup

One of the most beautiful instrumental albums to come our way... (and there are multitudes, believe me!). Music of Turlough O'Carolan, including Eleanor Plunkett, Betty MacNeill, Blind Mary. Hammered dulcimer by Joemy, with the Carolan consort—an accomplished ensemble (3 women, 1 man) consisting of a guitarist, a flutist, a violinist, and harper Sylvia Woods—all of whom arranged these courtly-sounding Baroque-ornamented pieces. Highly recommended! (DM102) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Joemy Wilson

Carolan's Cottage

Joemy's second volume of music on hammered dulcimer by Turlough O'Carolan is yet another supreme album which deserves a spot on your shelf and stereo. With graceful accompaniment by the Carolan Consort (which includes Sylvia Woods and Anisa Angarola), Joemy will transport you to the hills and fields of 18th century Ireland, via planxies and airs. Enchanting; don't miss it. (DM104) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Joemy Wilson

Celtic Dreams

Joemy's third volume in her Irish series truly captures the mystical Celtic spirit. On the 9 glorious O'Carolan tunes and other Majical melodies from Ireland, Wales, Scotland and the Isle of Man, her shimmering dulcimer is complemented by the usual brilliant accompaniment of Sylvia Woods' harp, Anisa Angarola's guitar, Valerie King's flute, and Miamon Miller's violin. Includes Faeries' Lamentation, Ash Grove, Mabel Kelly. (DM107) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Judith Pinter

Celtic Harp: Secrets From the Stone

How would you like a dreamy vacation to a mystical, magical land? Well, we've found it for you. Judith Pinter creates an atmosphere of ancient times with titles like In Defense of Guenevere, Dialogue Between the Sun and the Moon, Songs From the Four Winds. With a perfect blend of traditional, Celtic, and new age sounds, this tape is ideal for meditation and massage, and an absolute must for anyone who fell in love with The Mists of Avalon. Very highly recommended. (SG123) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Changes Like the Moon

A very witchy-looking Celtic harp recording, based on two parallel tales from Japanese and Scottish folklore: THE ROBE OF FEATHERS and THE SILKIE. Each tells a story of a beautiful magical female creature who is captured by a human male and is forced into marriage, until one day she escapes joyfully to her freedom. Accompanied by violin, viola, cello and tabla, this is a gorgeous and fitting follow-up to her highly successful Secrets From the Stone. (SG147) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

At Last the Wind

This 1989 release offers an abundance of accessible, Renaissance-flavored musical charm, using guitar, fiddle, cello and rhythmic bass lines to embellish Judith's evocative harp passages. Each composition has a rather strange myth to go with it; she wrote them, and they are included in the notes; but the music is the real reason you'll want this album. (SG158) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

June Tabor and the Oyster Band

Freedom and Rain

The majestic Queen of British folk collaborates here with renegades of electric folk, resulting in a stunning symbiosis of sound. This exuberant 10-song collection, featuring both traditional and contemporary material by writers such as Si Kahn, Billy Bragg, and Richard Thompson, makes us glad that June continues to stretch her musical self. (RYK194) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

June Tabor

Airs and Graces

Few finer voices exist anywhere; this old favorite was originally released in 1976 on the Topic label, and was hard to find domestically. June was deservedly voted top British female vocalist more than once, and no collection of British Isles music would be complete without this. Features roachard, bassoon and soprano; some double-tracked vocals; some a cappella ballads carried solely by her mysterious, lower-register rare vocal timbre. Recommended. (SHN79055) CS: 9.98

Maddy Prior & June Tabor

Silly Sisters

An exquisitely wonderful duet album of traditional English songs. Though lyrics aren't your most progressive, these two outstanding British vocalists create perfect harmonies, plus a few fine solos... a better blend of voices is hard to find. Includes My Husband's Got No Courage in Him and The Seven Joys of Mary. (SHN79040) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Maddy Prior/J. Tabor: Silly Sisters

No More To the Dance

Twelve years after their first recorded collaboration, a new masterpiece by these two vocalists, whose harmonies do truly sound like they are of a family, breaks new ground for traditional music. It features innovative textures with touches of Eastern European harmony, and constantly shifting combinations of western, eastern, modern and traditional instruments (Chinese flutes, soprano sax, Celtic harps by the women of Sileas, bagpipes, more). One of the most eagerly-awaited releases ever, and very highly recommended! (SHN79069) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Maggie Boyle
Reaching Out
 Every connoisseur of Celtic vocal music must have this quintessential album of traditional British Isles music; Maggie's performances, both as vocalist and flutist, are simply and purely exquisite—her voice like heaven—and she's accompanied by the likes of Bert Jansch on guitar, Tommy Keane on Uilleann pipes. She's a vocalist some of you have heard on John Renbourn's Ship of Fools album. Includes Busk Busk Bonnie Lassie, The Quiet Land of Erin. Recommended! (RRA003) CS: 9.98

Maggie Sansone
Hammer Dulcimer & Guitar
 An excellent tape of traditional instrumental tunes, crafted with the instruments of her specialty plus fiddle, bodhran, and bones—all performed by women. You can hear her 15 years of experience participating in groups from Irish bands to renaissance ensembles, in such fine tunes as Petronella, Sally Gardens, Si Bheag, Si Mhor, Irish Washerwoman. (MM101) CS: 9.98

Hammered Dulcimer Traditions
 Maggie's second tape features all-instrumental arrangements of Celtic dance tunes and folk songs from England, Scotland, Wales, Ireland, and America spanning the 13th to 20th centuries. The hammered dulcimer is embellished with an array of traditional instruments—harp, pennywhistle, concertina, bouzouki, viola da gamba, recorder, dombek, percussion—adding interesting and varied accompaniments, harmonies, and counter-rhythms. And, most of the musicians are women. High quality duplication; nice! (MM102) CS: 9.98

Maggie Sansone
Traditions
 This CD-only release contains (almost) all the material from her first two hammered dulcimer releases, Hammer Dulcimer & Guitar and Hammered Dulcimer Traditions. (MM104) CD: 15.98

Maggie Sansone
Mist & Stone
 This 1990 release is a beautiful collection of Celtic tunes from Ireland, Scotland, the Isle of Man, and Galicia, performed on hammered dulcimer, Celtic harp and other instruments. The selections explore the rich and varied musical kingdoms of an ancient past, as they create textures and moods which are often evocative and haunting. Includes Foggy Dew, Sally Gardens, 18th century harp airs, jigs and reels. Recommended! (MM106) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Marie Rhines
Tartans & Sagebrush
 Ladyslipper's first release, now at a bargain close-out price! Hear how the ear of a classically trained violinist can stretch a traditional tune to the limits of its inherent lyrical beauty. She weaves lush, exquisite arrangements, as if her single instrument were a string quartet, transporting you from the sultry shadows of the jazz club, through the elegance of the symphony hall, to the joyful splendor of the backhills. Banjo, guitar, bass, & harmonica accompany her fiddle & viola, & one vocal. One of the finest songs, Gloria's Ride, is original... several are Scottish tunes. She also does a superbly creative rendition of John Coltrane's Lennie's Lament, a mellow piece that gently carries your thoughts wherever they may care to wander. Marie Rhines has successfully translated the sounds of the American and European musical tradition for the voice of the classical violin. (LR101) LP: 3.98

Mary Black
No Frontiers
 Characterized by lots of tremendous harmonies, this 1989 release leans more toward a pop sound, while still retaining an acoustic foundation: guitars, double bass, accordion, piano, sax... and Mary's interpretive abilities still shine through. Includes several beautiful love songs, and, no less, a cover of the Dionne Warwick hit Say a Little Prayer! (GIF7308) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 15.98

Mary O'Hara
Irish Traditional Folk Songs

Maura O'Connell
Just In Time
 This Irish artist is a chart-topping star in her own country, for obvious reasons known to anyone who's listened to her incredibly smooth, rich vocals, and she's now gaining an international reputation in the acoustic music community. Her U.S. debut release, produced by Bela Fleck, features Nanci Griffith and Jonathan Edwards on background vocals. Includes an acappella, multi-tracked version of her self-harmonies on The Water Is Wide, plus others perfectly selected to complement her Irish inflections, such as The Isle of Malachy, Leaving Neidin. Recommended! (PH1124) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Maura O'Connell
Helpless Heart
 Gorgeous, lilting, rich, fresh — these adjectives come immediately to this reviewer's mind upon first listening to Maura's voice. Produced by the inestimable Bela Fleck, this recording combines the above qualities with New Acoustic influences & musicians (Bela, Dave Grisman, Grey Larson) on acoustic guitar, dobro, banjo, mandolin, piano, pedal steel guitar, fiddles and bass — simply the greatest! Material covered is primarily contemporary folk, like Cheryl Wheeler's Summerly; Nanci Griffith's Trouble in the Fields; Paul Brady's Helpless Heart; and Karla Bonoff's Only A Fool and Isn't It Always Love. Highly Recommended! (WB26016) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 15.98

Maura O'Connell
A Real Life Story
 Moving into a more slick production and electric sound can't hide the fact that Maura's lovely voice is deepening into a seasoned richness that is as rare as it is enjoyable — joined on one cut (A Family Tie, about alcoholism) by her three sisters, other highlights include: Shawn Colvin's I Don't Know Why, Janis Ian's Unwinding, and Lennon/McCartney's For No One, with only dobro and acoustic guitar accompaniment — gorgeous! (WB26342) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 15.98

Mitzie Collins/ Roxanne Ziegler
St. Patrick's Day in the Morning
 For everyone who has enjoyed Mitzie & Roxanne's enchanting holiday recordings, here's a non-seasonal hammered dulcimer/harp album of equal charm. Subtitled Music of Irish Inspiration, the selections are light and wistful and beautifully executed, some with accompaniment on fiddle, recorder, and flute. Sweet and magical. (SAM8910) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Pentangle
Think of Tomorrow
 This 1991 release reconfirms the legendary group's pre-eminence in the British folk-rock scene. The unique combination of Jacqui McShee's haunting vocals, Nigel Portman-Smith's virtuosic bass and keyboards, and Bert Jansch's amazing guitar, creates a vibrant blend of folk, jazz and blues. Ruth Barrett & Cyntia Smith
Music of the Rolling World
 Beautiful spring and midsummer seasonal celebration and magical songs, with dulcimer, harp, psaltery, cello, and more, recalling a time when "women, with their knowledge of plants and herbs, birth and death, were the healers of their communities." Some depict strong women and working women (The Female Highwayman), some are dances, some legends (Fairies Love Song) and to some they have added their own verses. (AEO002) CS: 9.98

Ruth Barrett & Cyntia Smith
A Dulcimer Harvest
 Ever since 1979 when Ruth and Cyntia began their musical collaboration, folks have been requesting an all-instrumental album. Twelve years later, their wishes are answered with this elegant and magical collection of favorites from the duo's first 3 albums, plus new compositions and traditional pieces. Their classical fingerpicking style is complemented by added acoustic instruments, such as Sylvia Woods' harp, Miamon Miller's violin (both from Joemy Wilson's consort), cello and more. Includes Faerie's Love Song, King of the Faeries, Grace's Dance, I Live Not Where I Love. An excellent holiday gift for any season... recommended! (AEO004) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Shelley Phillips and Friends
The Fairie Round
 This 1990 album showcases an extraordinary versatility of the artist on oboe, flute, piccolo, recorder, harp, English horn, mandolin, tin whistle and dulcimer. It's an eclectic anthology of traditional Irish, English and Welsh tunes and dances. Renaissance, Baroque and Classical selections — and even a bit of wild Bulgarian folk song. Shelley is joined by a talented ensemble of musicians on winds and strings in this delightful synergy; selections include title, The Ashgrove, Bourree/ Hornpipe, Chatter's Tune, Skye Boat Song. Highly recommended! (GOU105) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Steeleye Span
Below the Salt
 We thought we'd give this ground-breaking group, which Maddy Prior has graced with her amazing lead vocals for over 20 years now, another whirl in our catalog. This band has contemporary traditional British Isles folk ballads with fresh interpretations and rock-oriented instrumentation... their selections sometimes zany, sometimes merry, sometimes sinister! This album is one of their earliest, but in this reviewer's humble opinion, one of their best. (SHN79039) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Sue Richards
Grey Eyed Morn
 Celtic harp virtuosa and 3 times US National Scottish Harp Champion, Sue breaks new ground in her debut solo album of traditional tunes from Scotland, Ireland and Wales. Bringing a new vitality to this traditional music without compromising the essence and spirit of its source, an engaging combination of harp solos and ensemble music is created, rich in texture and endless variety evoking the myths and legends of the ancient Celts. She is accompanied on fiddle, viola da gamba, guitar and hammered dulcimers... a stunning showcase from beginning to end! (MM201) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Sylvia Woods
The Harp of Brandiswhiere
 Sylvia composed this entire suite for Celtic harp, and together with flutes, trumpets, cimbalom, celeste, acoustic bass and percussion, she weaves a fine and intricate aural tapestry. She wrote it to illustrate the fantasy story of Brandiswhiere, a legendary magical harp. It sounds every bit as magical as you'd hope, and then some, as she herself plays Celtic harp, Gwydon harp, wind harp, Minstrel harp, autoharp, celeste, xylophone, and finger cymbals. (TON1213) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Talitha MacKenzie & Martin Swan
Mouth Music
 Truly a remarkable, innovative, mesmerizing synthesis of the traditional Gaelic singing style called "puirt a beul" or "mouth music," with African rhythms and modern keyboard technology! Talitha is the vocalist on this intense material which she discovered when she traveled to Edinburgh to study Scottish and ancient Gaelic culture in depth; Martin the instrumentalist and arranger (except on one which Talitha arranged). They say it's a matter of finding a strong rhythm which complements the traditional song structures, and then creating some kind of tension or powerful or surprising harmonic context in which they happen... and they've certainly accomplished just that. Highly recommended! (RYK196) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Annabouboula
In the Baths of Constantinople
 This blend of ancient and contemporary music is created by 1 female and 2 male Greek-Americans who currently divide their time between Athens and NY. In an effort to bridge the strict division between Greek traditional music and the western pop scene, they have taken belly dance and rembetiko music, and added a funky rhythm and a wild psychedelic undertow to moody songs of passion and heartbreak. Lead singer Anna Paidoussi-Drakopoulou gives voice to songs like Moroccan Girl and I'm Not a Little Girl. Annabouboula is a Greek word meaning: all mixed up, brou-ha-ha, cacophony or babble or noise, an unholy racket, a confused uproar. Cheremshyna
 Each year there a few finds which truly excite us, and this is one for 1989-90! Cheremshyna is a Ukrainian women's trio from Montreal, and this is an extraordinary recording of their distinct harmonious vocal blend of both traditional and contemporary Ukrainian folk song — expressing beauty and love, joy and sorrow. The voices, arrangements, melodies, harmonies, and sheer energy are captivating, engaging, outstanding... if you're looking to know the world by the best music it has to offer, try this. Very highly recommended! (YFP1023) CS: 9.98

Dzintars: The Latvian Women's Choir
Songs of Amber
 Dzintars is the Latvian word for amber, a warmly glowing fossilized stone that is considered a national symbol among Latvians. The Dzintars Choir is the leading female choir in Latvia, with 76 vocalists plus 2 conductors, 2 instrumentalists, 2 choir masters, and a soloist! Produced by Mickey Hart and Jerry Garcia when the choir toured the US in 1989, the album features a cross-section of their extensive repertoire, including traditional and modern Latvian music as well as songs of other countries. Contains three Yiddish folk songs, including Oi Hanuke (imagine 76 voices singing this popular holiday song...). A work of spectacular beauty; recommended! (RYK130) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Altazor
 Blending music from the New Song movements of South America, from Afro-Puerto Rican ritual, from the traditional rhythms of Cuba, and from other sources, Altazor's sounds and messages are vibrant, passionate, and wonderful! The ensemble of 4 women — Liche Fuentes from Chile (some of you will remember her from Grupo Raiz), Vanessa Wang from the US, Dulce Arguelles from Cuba, and Jacqueline Rago from Venezuela — employs gorgeous harmonies and a rich variety of traditional instrumentation, with lyrics reflective of the struggles of people the world over. Recommended! (RR8904) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Amigas
Amigas Y Su Grupo Ritmo
 This fantastic Latin salsa ensemble from New Mexico is headed by two women, Yvonne Ulibarri and Cris Phillips: vocalists, instrumentalists and songwriters. Their band, consisting of one woman and 4 men, provides an astounding amount of percussion; together they create one of the liveliest, most rhythmic, exciting and danceable offerings in our catalog. Most songs in Spanish. (UB1) CS: 9.98

Kitka
 Called "Le Mystere de Voix San Francisco" by one of the soloists of the Bulgarian State Female Vocal Choir, Kitka performed at the Michigan festival in 1990, and this debut tape is available for those of you who didn't make the gala event! They're indisputably one of the most outstanding U.S. women's vocal ensembles specializing in the hauntingly beautiful and emotive vocal musics of Eastern Europe. Included here are diaphanous village-style duets, modern Balkan choral works, and original arrangements of traditional melodies by artistic director Boualard Brown. Cello, recorder, cimbalom and flute accompany the 14 vocalists, who can sound like twice that many. The selections are tremendous; highly recommended! (KIT1) CS: 9.98

Koutev Bulgarian National Ensemble
Bulgaria's Great Women's Voices
 Years before Le Mystere des Voix Bulgares, this recording was issued, and has been sitting in the record label's back catalog in relative obscurity... well, it's time to change that, so buy this! This company of 75 singers, dancers and musicians from Sofia performs traditional songs and dances. The vocal harmonies are particularly astounding, of course. Also contains 4 selections by the Pinn Bulgarian Folk Ensemble — equally incredible. Recommended! (MON402) CS: 9.98

Le Mystere des Voix Bulgares
 An entrancing and thoroughly gorgeous recording which has captivated the imaginations of thousands of American listeners. The Bulgarian Female Vocal Choir performs traditional folk tunes with breathtaking harmonies which can be either melodic or discordant, natural or surprising, but are always precise, luxuriously rich, and resonant. Over the years we have featured many recordings of US women performing Balkan choral singing; here's who they've learned from. (NON79185) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 16.98

Sophia Bilides
Greek Legacy
 This Greek-Italian second-generation American presents traditional songs from the mainland, island, and Asia Minor populations of Greece for both listening and dancing. Comfortable with a wide variety of regional vocal styles, from island syrtos to urban zeibekiko, her voice is deep and rich and expressive. She accompanies herself on the traditional santouri (hammered dulcimer), while being supported on laouto (lute), violi (violin), clarino (clarinet), and dumbleki (drum). These aren't updated, westernized versions of traditional songs with dance beats or synthesized instrumentation; it's the pure stuff, well researched, with an "old world" sound of ageless beauty. ## Latin American

Corazon al Sur Venas Abiertas (Open Veins)

The members of this trio, from Argentina and Colombia, currently live in Philadelphia, which makes this one of our most highly-recommended Nueva Cancion albums by artists residing domestically. Lead vocalist Susana Juniu has a superb voice — low and rich and strong — and Alba Potes' even lower backup vocals, tiple and guitar, along with Gerardo Razumney's percussive accompaniment on bombo, tambora, chucho and dumbek, complement it perfectly. Add to that an excellent selection of material from several Latin American countries, and stir. If you are a fan of Mercedes Sosa, we think you'll like this a lot (and you may recognize some of the songs, such as Todavía Cantamos); if you're not yet, try this anyway! (COR1) CS: 9.98

Edi Machado

Edi
With an unmistakably Afro-Brazilian beat and a vibrant array of percussion instruments, Edi makes her mark by successfully combining elements from the following traditions: Brazilian samba, African rhythms, Latin and American funk, reggae, and jazz. Edi is also a renowned dancer, and she builds the sound and rhythm very specifically around the dance. (She grew up in the Brazilian city of Bahia; there, she learned the dancing styles of the candomblé rites, which fused African tribal with Roman Catholic traditions.) Her material is original, her voice spicy, her delivery high-energy, and the overall performance a creative blend of cultures (the tape was even recorded in Rio, NY, LA, Maui and New Mexico)... Recommended! (BNS102) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Guardabarranco

Si Buscabas (If You Were Looking)
Sister and brother Katia and Salvador Cardenal are part of the Nicaraguan New Song movement called Volcanto—from volcan (volcano) and canto (song)—symbolic of the eruption of music, poetry, and cultural expression in Nicaragua since the triumph of the Sandinista revolution in 1979. Produced by Jackson Browne, this is one of the first albums of Nicaraguan music available in the U.S. Its beauty is virtually indescribable—but could easily bring tears to one's eyes; the quiet vibrance and richness of the music and poetry transcends any language barriers...and "destroys" State Department rhetoric right there before your eyes" says Holly Near. Spanish lyrics and English translations included only with LP. Recommended! (RR8501) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Irene Farrera

Irene
A sumptuous, very womanly and woman-oriented tape by a Venezuelan singer/guitarist who now resides in Oregon. Her voice is strong, deep, and richly-textured; her rhythms abundant; and she beautifully interprets works of contemporary Brazilian composers and other South American songwriters such as Chilean and Peruvian poets Violeta Parra and Chabuca Granda. The sambas, reggaes, and baiños are performed with Brazilian/Caribbean/Latin nuances...she plays the music of a continent, of the tropics, of the people of Latin America. Includes Gracias a la Vida, Magdalena, Senora Melancholy. Highly recommended! (IF1) CS: 9.98

Isabel Parra Cantos de Violeta

Isabel performs many of the songs her mother, Violeta Parra, wrote and made famous as one of the founders of the Nueva Cancion movement. Includes Gracias a la Vida, La Jardinera, La Lavandera and more. Isabel has a sweet, lyrical voice, and the songs are presented in a straightforward, acoustic style. (ALC27) CS: 10.98

Isabel Parra / Inti-Ililmani Homage to Violeta Parra

Isabel is the daughter of this pivotal Chilean songwriter; on this 1984 release, Isabel and Inti, an exiled Chilean 6-man folk ensemble, recount Violeta's life in song and recitation. Title, literally "Song for a Seed," conveys the germination and growth of an idea and a consciousness which Violeta represented. The sections on this recording are chronological: her parents, childhood, adulthood and political life, her death and epilogue. (MON821) CS: 9.98

Itzqueye Cantos de Lucha y Libertad

...in English, Songs of Struggle and Freedom. Yes, Nueva Cancion is alive and well in the '90s! This 3-woman, 3-man DC-area band has members from El Salvador, Argentina, the Dominican Republic, and the US. Singing in Spanish, English and Hebrew, their styles range from traditional and contemporary Latin American to Middle Eastern poetry and songs, with wonderful instrumentation and strong spirit. Includes A Mi Hija (To My Daughter). Lyrics are included in both English and Spanish. (ITZ001) CS: 9.98

Los Folkloristas

Mexico!
This 2-woman, 5-man ensemble has been in existence for 25 years (I don't think there have always been women in it — I'm sure someone will correct me if I'm wrong!), and in spite of such an extensive performing and recording history, this is the first U.S. pressing of any of their titles. Involved in the preservation of the traditional music of Latin America and its massive repertoire, they sing in Spanish and several indigenous dialects, and play over 100 different instruments! This volume offers an overview of music from all over Mexico, representing a variety of cultures, and includes lyrics and English translations. (FF521) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Marisela Verena Viento y Madera (Wind and Wood)

Marisela, a Cuban-born Puerto Rico-based singer-songwriter with a rich, deep voice, is most well-known for her #1 hit on the Latin charts in New York and Miami: Tu Companera, a song with very feminist (or, in her own words, womanist) sentiments. This album likewise opens with a strong feminist statement, Soy una Mujer (I Am a Woman), a paean to women's solidarity, depth and versatility; also includes Ella (She). (GAD1517) CS: 9.98

Mercedes Sosa

Assorted Titles-Ladyslipper To Pick
Mercedes Sosa is an Argentinian New Song vocalist/interpreter/ people's musician, whose vocal qualities are not easily described, but words like penetrating, melancholy, searing, dark, intense, reverent, steadfast, beautiful, exquisite, soothing, intelligent come close. She sings in Spanish, but somehow communicates a message that is political even to those who don't speak that language. Her music was banned in Chile in the early 70's when the military junta took power, and was also banned in her home country for awhile. Perhaps some of you will have heard her on Holly's 1990 release Singer in the Storm, and, being as moved by her as we are, will want to explore her discography. We hope everyone who reads this catalog will try out her music; but, supply is so erratic, we can rarely predict which titles will be available. The simplest thing to do is to order this generic "Assorted Titles," and let us pick one for you. If there are any you already have or do not want, please specify. (SOSA?) CS: 13.98 ... CD: 19.98

Spirited, rhythmic, political, compassionate, harmonious. Recommended! (FF494) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Sabia, project co-ordinators Hear Our Voices: Salvadorean Refug.

This group of U.S. and Latina musicians went to a Salvadorean refugee camp in '83 and compiled this cassette as an educational tool, so that North Americans might understand their situation, and fight against U.S. military and economic intervention. The songs, sung in Spanish of course, are mostly performed by women and children (apparently the majority of the camp populations) and depict their past and present lives—with all the harsh details—and future hope. (SAB2) CS: 6.98

Sukay Socavon

One woman (Quentin Howard) and 2 men (Omar Sepulveda and Carlos Crespo) comprise this group which took its name from the ancient Quechua culture, meaning "open the earth and prepare for planting". Their music articulates the spirit of the Andes, with its rhythmic and tonal complexities yet message of simplicity. A variety of traditional flutes, pipes, and stringed instruments are employed, and the recording is about 50 percent instrumental. (FF351) CS: 9.98

Sukay Mama Luna

This 1-woman 2-man trio presents lovely Ecuadorian, Peruvian, and Bolivian music featuring notched bamboo flutes, pan pipes, and charangos or Andean guitars, with lead vocals by Quentin Howard (a woman). Some contemporary material with Spanish lyrics is included in addition to their trademark traditional instrumentals; so this, their fifth release, should appeal to an even broader audience. (FF433) CS: 9.98

Tish Hinojosa

Homeland
A fusion of country/ folk/ pop melodies and Latin instrumentation, the songs of this 1989 album reflect this Mexican-American singer/songwriter's musing in the liner notes, "...wondering how my love for my parents' humble Mexican heritage and language would mix with idealistic American images of a musical future." The first cut Joaquin imagines the motivations for illegal border crossing, while West Side of Town recreates the story of her parents' lives; and Rancherita (Little Ranch Girl), is a sweet song of courtship. Sung partly in English and partly in Spanish, this album employs a variety of instruments, including harmonica, pedal steel, dobro, accordion, fiddle, bongos and more. (AM5263) CS: 10.98 ... ## Jessita Reyes

Coyote Love Medicine

Jessita, who is also a member of the Native Flute Ensemble, is most likely the first woman to master the courting flute and record her music! Here she intertwines Native American courting flute, ritual percussion instruments, and synthesizers on this unusual recording inspired by the legendary Indian trickster Coyote. On such cuts as Not Too Proud to Howl and Coyote Blues she brings in subtle touches of blues and jazz, while others have a more traditional sound. A very unique and innovative solo flute performance! (TT102) CS: 9.98

Joanne Shenandoah

Joanne, who was given the name Deguiya Whah'wa, "She Sings", is a member of the Oneida Nation-Iroquois Confederacy from NY; her mother is a Wolf Clan mother for the Oneida people. Through her contemporary ballads, she presents the Native American philosophy and heritage which continues today among the Iroquois and other tribes. Featuring her strong vocals in both English and Iroquois, with an enchanting blend of flute, rattles, bells, drums, harmonica, guitar and synthesizer, her mostly original selections include We Are the Iroquois, They Didn't Listen, Traditional Iroquois Social Songs. Recommended. (CNY545) CS: 9.98

This 1991 release features collaborations by Joanne, Oneida-Six Nations Iroquois (daughter of Maisie Shenandoah, a Wolf Clan Mother, and the late Clifford Shenandoah, an Onondaga Chief) and Paul, Mescalero Apache. All vocals, instrumentation, and songs are by the two of them — quite sweet and gentle, reflective of the Native American philosophy and culture. Includes A Prayer for Sundancer, Blessing the Little Ones, Indian Love Song. (CNY546) CS: 9.98

Joy Harjo Furious Light

Joy is a fine poet and a fairly well-known Native American voice, who writes in an impassioned and vivid style. ## Native Flute Ensemble Ritual Mesa

Jessita Reyes, Lois Little Bear, and John "Pinky" Martinez blend Native American flute, Taos Drum, Yaqui rain stick, Hopi rattle, and rain scraper with occasional synthesizer to create an environment in which traditional Southwestern and contemporary idioms meet. Clearly inspired by Native American ceremonial music, the sound is at once serene and evocative, unadorned yet complete...a soundscape of sacred sites and windswept mesas. (TT101) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Native Flute Ensemble Enchanted Canyons

The second release by this 2-woman 1-man trio was inspired by the ancient Anasazi civilization, as it creates the imagery of such "power spots" as New Mexico's Chaco Canyon and Arizona's Canyon de Chelly. The flute is framed by Native percussion instruments and synthesizers, producing a sound based on tradition yet mixed with contemporary touches. (TT103) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Native Flute Ensemble Temple of the Dream Jaguar

This trio has gone South of the Border for inspiration for its spring 1991 release. Drawing on a shared mythology between the Hopi and the Mayans, they combine their exquisite flute melodies with the hypnotic sounds of pre-Columbian instruments. (TT108) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Sharon Burch with A. Paul Ortega The Blessing Ways

Side 1 introduces Sharon, a Navajo from Chichiltah NM, whose original songs about her people and particularly women are performed in her native language, yet have the power to cross the language barrier. Her voice is lovely, incorporating occasional speaking-tones into sung phrases in songs such as Mother Earth, Cradle Song, Corn Song, Grandmother's Ways. On side 2, Paul Ortega, a Mescalero Apache, performs his songs covering some of the spiritual and philosophical views of Native Americans. (CNY533) CS: 9.98

She accompanies her lovely vocals with guitar. 7 selections are in Navajo, 2 in English and Navajo, with translations and transliterations included. Highly recommended! (CNY534) CS: 9.98

Songs of Warm Springs Indian Reser.

Includes Cougar Dance, Flaming Arrow Song, Laughing Song. (CNY6123) CS: 9.98

Amy Shapiro

Oy, Mama; Yiddish & Other Songs

Primarily popular Yiddish songs, with one Hebrew and one Macedonian (the beautiful Jovano, Jovanke, a "lesnoto" or national dance, also performed by Alix Dobkin on her first album) thrown in for good measure. The synthesized Eastern European accompaniment works very well. Includes A Yiddishe Mama and Oy Mama, Bin Ikh Farlibt. Amy is a strong vocalist as well as the host of Portland's radio show, The Yiddish Hour. (LIV01) CS: 9.98

Ashira

Castle of Water

More Songs By and For A Jewish Woman, the subtitle here, contains 10 original songs inspired by her Jewish female sensibility. Includes Rochel, one of the matriarchs; Kol Isha Blues (Kol Isha means the voice of a woman, and refers to a law which forbids a man from gazing at a woman while she is singing—this song is a riot!); New Moon Celebration, a celebration given to women in particular; Tu B'Av, when, in ancient Israel, women would dance in the fields; The Question raised by reflections on the Holocaust. Many beautiful harmonies; both titles by Ashira recommended. (JMP1) CS: 9.98

The Aviva Duo

From Generation to Generation

"From generation to generation Jewish song has provided a rich legacy for its dispersed people—a binding force for ethnic consciousness, a continuous musical expression of a culture, a history, a religion." And these two Canadian women, Merida Sachs and Shirley Steinberg, feel that although the songs are all in Hebrew and Yiddish, they have a universal quality and also want to share them with a non-Jewish audience. Translations included. It's an exceptionally lovely recording, with beautiful instrumentation by Kathryn Moses on flute and others. It includes a wordless Chassidic melody, modern Israeli compositions, a Yemenite folk melody, and Dona, Dona, a Yiddish folk melody. Highly recommended. Specify LP (Aviva 1001) or cassette (Aviva C-1001). II, Neighborhood Girls. Highly recommended. (AV1001) LP: 9.98 ... CS: 9.98

Cindy Paley

A Singing Seder

Cindy is well-known to the Jewish community of Los Angeles as a Hebrew and Yiddish folk singer. Here she sings all the songs from the traditional Passover Hagaddah (with a little help from a Cantor and a children's chorus), after she recites a brief introduction for each; beautiful arrangements, with harmony vocals, keyboards, flute, bass, and tambour. Booklet includes Hebrew, English, and transliterations. (CP1) CS: 12.98

The Klezmer Conservatory Band

Old World Beat

One of Klezmer's leading exponents, this band has spent the last decade spreading this old world beat around the planet. With traditional melodies alongside brand new tunes, this 1991 release reflects the eclectic nature of Klezmer—alternately brooding and raucous, always spirited and engaging. (ROU3115) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

A Touch of Klez!

From the 16 women and men who brought us Oy Chanukah!, an album of dance tunes and Yiddish songs, with Eastern touches in melody and harmony, for the rest of the year. The stand-outs are the rich vocals by Judy Bressler (described by a fan as a heaven-sent Russian goddess), including her brand of Klezmer scat!, and Ingrid Monson's poignant cornet improvisations. (VAN79455) CS: 6.98 ... CD: 14.98

Koleet

A Celebration of Jewish Folk Music

Koleet is an ensemble of three distinctive women's voices: Cindy Paley, Ann Brown, and Amy Helperin Krivis. With new and traditional arrangements in vocal harmony and instrumentation, they weave beautiful melodies and rhythms which span the multitude of languages reflected in Jewish culture: Ladino, Yiddish, Russian, Hebrew and Yemenite. Includes Chassidic Medley; Dror Yikra ("A Call to Freedom"), a Yemenite Shabbat song; and Yiddish songs from the Second Avenue Theatre era. Recommended! (CP3) CS: 9.98

Laura Wetzler

A World of Jewish Folk Music

Celebrating both the traditional and non-traditional role of Jewish women in Jewish life, Laura sings of the woman who hates to cook as well as the proud matriarch. Drawing from both Sephardic and Ashkenazic musical sources, she includes songs of garment workers, teachers, lovers, pioneers and resistance fighters. All 15 songs are sung in Hebrew, Yiddish, or Ladino, and are accompanied on guitar and Yemenite drum. Spirited and lovely! (NG1) CS: 9.98

Lauren Pomerantz

Jewels of the Sephardim

Subtitled "Songs from Medieval Spain," this totally unique volume contains songs in Ladino (Judeo-Spanish) which originated between 900 and 1300 A.D. on the Iberian peninsula, at which time a marvelous cultural exchange was occurring between Hebrews, Arabs (Moors) and Christians (Spaniards). This ceased in 1492 with the Inquisition, and the Sephardic Jews scattered into mid-eastern, Mediterranean and North African areas. Since then the music has been passed from generations via the oral tradition. Lauren has done much of the research for this album. Her voice is just lovely and she also plays medieval fretted dulcimer, to a background of flutes and percussion. Lyrics in Ladino (15th century Castilian, almost identical to present-day Spanish). (AEA1401) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Linda Hirschhorn

Songs for Shabbos

Linda, who freelances as a cantor in progressive synagogues, is a singer-songwriter of Jewish, women's, and political material. This album is an instructional tape that teaches how to sing—note by note and syllable by syllable with many repetitions—traditional Shabbos "Zmiros" (songs) including the blessing over the candles, and the option to use the feminine or masculine name of God. Lyrics included. (OYS1113) CS: 7.98

Songs for Pesach

Presenting both female and male options, this Passover tape goes through the entire Hagaddah, and teaches how to lead your own seder songs. Lyrics included. (OYS1115) CS: 7.98

Subtitled Songs of Celebration and Renewal, this collection of original rounds and songs in Hebrew and English celebrates our heroines (Miriam, Ruth and Naomi), daily ritual, cycles of life, and peace and justice, with reference only to a genderless and/or feminine God. Sung mostly by an acappella women's ensemble with stunning harmonies, giving a unique sense of the feminist potential within Judaism. Includes Chanukah/Solstice, Miriam's Slow Snake Dance, The Full Moon Songs, Ruth and Naomi, Women Gathering Round. Recommended! (OYS1116) CS: 9.98

Miriam Dvorin

Grandma Soup: Yiddish Songs

"When we were kids we loved to go to Grandma's house. In the small apartment above the tailor shop the sounds of Yiddish songs mingled with the appetizing aroma of what we kids called Grandma Soup. Here is a taste of Grandma soup, that mysterious blend of culinary and cultural delights we are still trying to appreciate fully." Not only does Miriam have an astonishingly beautiful voice, she gives impressively zesty performances here on violin, mandolin, autoharp, electric and acoustic guitar, and electric bass—and, she produced it. Pronunciation guide and translations included. Very highly recommended for kids and adults. (SOU101) CS: 9.98

Ofra Haza

Shaday

Combines some of the best of Ofra's previously released Yemenite material (rerecorded and resynthesized, with added English verses), plus other traditional Yemenite tunes and original tunes she performs in English. This album is obviously intended to be more accessible to English-speaking audiences, and raise her to the same super-star status in the Western world that she already enjoys in Israel. We prefer her earlier Fifty Gates of Wisdom, but the traditional material here makes this worthwhile for all Ofra Haza fanatics. (SIR25816) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 15.98

Fifty Gates of Wisdom

If you can only buy a couple of albums this year, absolutely make this one of them! Of Yemenite Jewish parentage, Ofra may be Israel's biggest star; winning awards year after year, successfully combining her indescribable voice with traditional songs (up to 2500 years old!) and contemporary rhythms...resulting in a sound so compelling, so driving, so haunting, so moving, that language ceases to be such a barrier. This album features Yemenite Jewish music from one of the oldest communities in the world, performed in Hebrew, Aramaic and Arabic. The secular songs are traditionally sung only by women; some of the devotional material descends from poetry of complex medieval meter and rhyme written by Rabbi Shalom Shabazi (1618-1670). Ofra is part of the Musica Mizrahi movement, which affirms its identity as both Jewish and Middle Eastern. Very, very highly recommended. (SHN64002) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Desert Wind

Most of the songs on Ofra's 1990 release, which fittingly coincides with her first US concert tour, are sung partially in English; but the content is still about the Yemenite Jewish community, Yemenite tradition, and peace in the Middle East, with the imagery and rhythm of the desert an integral part of this music. Fantasmorgana, a tribute to her mother and other Yemenite Jews who were persecuted and banished to Yemen's desert, includes the voice of her mother chanting in Arabic. The time's ripe for this sort of world music to gain a foothold in the arena of commercial recognition and success. (SIR25976) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 15.98

Susan & Fran

Shoshanim

This duo with a "magic spark" consists of Fran Avni and Susan Cogan, both Canadian women who performed together at the International Women's Music Festival in Israel in 1986. With breathtaking harmonies and varied instrumentation, they instill a new beat in traditional Israeli songs such as Kol Dodi and Ana Pana Dodech, whose origins go back to the Song of Songs; their songs have become household melodies in Israel! Very different from Fran's recordings for children. Absolutely recommended! (FA1) CS: 9.98

Tofa'ah

Lights

This collection of songs exclusively by women and for women is beautifully performed by this women's ensemble from Israel, on their third release. Dedicated to awakening and inspiring the Jewish spirit through music, with some of their work focusing on the joys and struggles of Jewish women, they artfully blend voices and instruments: flutes, guitar, harp, clarinet, sax and more. They perform for women-only audiences, in accordance with Jewish law, in order to give women a total positive female experience, and to stimulate the elevated female level of spirituality. Notes in English and Hebrew. (TOF3) CS: 9.98

The Sound of Joyous Song

An absolutely gorgeous album by a group of 7 women living in Jerusalem, Israel, originally from the U.S. and Australia. They combine a variety of musical heritages to create new and original Jewish music which speaks of individual and collective Jewish struggles and joys. Instruments are voices, acoustic and electric guitar, bass, percussion, banjo, flute, and violin. Songs are in Hebrew, with translations enclosed. Includes New Moon; "Woman.../Moon.../With each new moon comes a new woman.../You are unique and full as the moon is light in the darkness.../Flow with new life of coming months.../Moon.../Celebrate Woman!" These are the written words to the most beautiful song in the collection; it is vocalized with musical tones only, no words. Very highly recommended. (TOF7) CS: 9.98

From the Shores of the Golden Horn

The first volume in the "Quincentenary of the Spanish Diaspora" series (500 years after Columbus set sail) by this 2-woman, 2-man quartet; it features music of the Spanish Jews of Turkey, one of several discrete paths of exile following the Inquisition and expulsion from Spain. This collection includes lyric songs, romances, coplas (strophic festival songs), endechas (dirges) and more, performed in Ladino, a language preserved largely by the women. Accompaniment consists of dumbeks, ud, kamanja, naqqara, saz, baglama, finger cymbals, and such; a highly unusual and valuable repertoire. (TI173) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Bridges of Song

Subtitled Musical of the Spanish Jews of Morocco, this is the second volume in the ensemble's "Quincentenary of the Spanish Diaspora/Paths of Exile" series. Unlike the Jews who traveled to the Ottoman Empire, those who settled in Morocco maintained continual exposure to European influence, especially during the period when Spain ruled parts of Morocco; so their spoken language Haketia, as well as their repertoire, reflected Spanish, as well as Hebrew and Arabic, influence. (TI189) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Amazulu

Amazulu is a British 3-woman "2-tone" reggae band whose sound is a polished mix of island rhythms, nice harmonies and tight horn arrangements. Includes Montego Bay, Cairo, and a fine dance tune, All Over the World. (MNG9805) CS: 9.98

Cedella Marely Booker

Awake Zion

As was her son Bob Marley, the "Grandmother of Reggae" is a strong Rastafarian. In the fullness of her songs, she speaks to her sorrow as a mother separated from her child—for instance, in Mother Don't Cry—and of consolation, resolution, strength and faith. Here she fulfills Bob Marley's request that she should sing, in an impressive album complete with many original songs combining reggae and gospel styles, with backup by many members of the Wailers. Originally released under the title Redemption Songs. (RYK204) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

The Deltones

Oddball Boy

"Lush female harmonies... undulate through the insistent jump-up of a compact ska rhythm section. An impressive horn chorus swells up just when it should, and the rugged instrumental solos keep up ska's essential spirit of last ditch individualism." This 8-woman, 1-man ska band from the U.K. blends the vocal style of girl group doo-wop with the bouncy rhythms, keyboards and horns of Jamaican-born Ska. Great sound—be forewarned that the liner notes are informative but sexist, too, written by a woman. Songs include: Scream Jean, It's Been A Long Time...Helen, Lemon Squeezy. (ROI188) CS: 9.98

Foxy Brown

Foxy

An upcoming Jamaican superstar, Foxy hit it big with a great version of Tracy Chapman's Sorry; she also covers Tracy's Fast Car and Virginia Jail with original reggae interpretations. Her silken, caressing vocal qualities and phrasings will soothe your ear and spirit; definitely worth your time! (RAS3059) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

I-Three

Beginning

Wow! A superlative full-length LP by this dynamo consisting of Judy Mowatt, Rita Marley and Marcia Griffiths; the harmonies and rhythms are thrilling and joyful—very tight, will take your breath away at times. The opening cut, Calling Out Around The World, has the makings of a major hit, as an inspiring message to relate to and embrace the good in life. Vital, vibrant, and sincere...Recommended! (TG3) CS: 9.98

Black Woman

Probably the best release ever by this familiar voice in mainstream reggae. She wrote & arranged 6 of the 10 songs, giving us a rare glimpse into a Rastafarian woman's perspective. Black Woman is a tribute of remarkable strength and beauty. Slave Queen exhorts women to "remove the shackles on your mind," while Sisters' Chant & Strength to Go Through give promise to the vision of women shaping our personal & political futures. An exciting album, both political & spiritual, & very danceable...highly recommended! (SHN43011) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Look At Love

Featuring production by Sly and Robbie, this 1991 release delivers classic reggae, dance hall reggae, radio reggae (a kicking version of Groovin') and an inspirational rendition of Bob Marley's Jah Live, which she originally sang as a member of the I-Threes. (SHN43087) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Lillian Allen

Conditions Critical

Lillian brings her mixture of resistance dub poetry and unrelenting reggae/rap rhythms to new heights here, as she vocalizes her searing political and personal insights, indictments, and visions with poetic brilliance. Assisted by Parachute Club members Lorraine Segato, Lauri Conger, producer Billy Bryans, plus percussionist Nydia Liberty Mata and others, the sound is energizing and inspiring. Includes Sister Hold On, Dis Ya Mumma Earth, and Freedom Is Azania for Black South Africa. Recommended! (RR8802) CS: 9.98

Revolutionary Tea Party

Merely the finest album of dub poetry in our reggae section and in our catalog...but what else would you expect from a righteous feminist dub poet who teams up musically with Parachute Club members Lorraine Segato, Laurie Conger, and Billy Bryans??? A Jamaican-born Canadian resident, Lillian incorporates the ferment of the Black Power movement of the 60's; the Antiwar, Liberation, Peace and Women's movements of the 70's; and the revitalized activism of the 80's, to create a voice for equality, justice, pleasure and empowerment. Includes unique selections written expressly from a woman's perspective: Birth Poem, Birth Version, and also features the Toronto All-Girls Subversive Chorus! Lillian herself describes it as "the baaadest get down and boogie message album to hit the streets this decade; WATCH OUT!" So, take heed...Highly recommended. (RR8807) CS: 9.98

Marcia Griffiths

Assorted LP Titles (Our Choice)

Some of her best early titles, in the original imported Jamaican LP pressings. Titles currently in stock include Naturally, Steppin', Rock My Soul, but we cannot offer a choice on these, quantities are so limited. Hurry, and not a bad idea to list an alternative. (MG7) LP: 5.98

Carousel

Very contemporary Caribbean funk/dub—great synthesized and acoustic percussion, strong vocals and bouncy keyboards. Perfect for dance parties, this recording mixed oldies (Sugar Shack, The One Who Really Loves You, Groovin') with goodies like Electric Boogie and All Over the World. Excellent production. (PLG842334) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 15.98

Marcia

Smooth, lovely harmonies, graceful rhythms, and Marcia's mellow voice combine sweetly on this 1989 release of reggae-sized pop songs with traces of gospel and funk. Includes a beautiful version of Fleetwood Mac/Christine McVie's Everywhere, plus the more serious It's Not Funny. (RAS3047) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Steppin'

Considered by some to be Marcia's finest album, this long-out-of-print title returns to domestic availability! Contains some great dance tunes, some traditional lyrics, and matches her soulful vocals with some of the best rockers riddims created by Sly Dunbar and company. A mainstream reggae artist for over 20 years, Marcia is also known as one of the I-Threes, originally Bob Marley's back-up singers who have now come into their own right. Includes Peaceful Woman, Steppin' Out in Babylon. (SHN44007) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Ranking Ann

A Slice of English Toast

This fortunately-reissued album contains two "must-have" classics of the "toasting" style—this is when a DJ raps or talks, often about current issues, over a "dub riddim" track. Kill the Police Bill, originally a separate EP, is a highly political, highly incredible recording about the need to revise a bill which is turning England into a police state by allowing the arrest and detention, without charge, of any "suspicious-looking" i.e. unemployed or minority person. The sounds and rhythms create an eerie, frightening atmosphere, suggestive of brutality, with a clear call for resistance... how timely! Also includes Liberated Woman. Ranking Ann, born in England to Jamaican parents and identifying as Jamaican, has played a leading role in the development of the toasting style. Recommended! (ARW002) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Who Feels It Knows It

Too long defined as "Bob Marley's wife," Rita has emerged from his shadow to express her beliefs, mostly spiritual, to the world. Her first album, which she co-produced, is pure reggae, very smooth and tightly arranged. Includes One Draw, a humorous anthem to the Amazon of Marijuana, sinsmilla, plus Thank You Jah, Play Play, and Easy Sailing. (SHN43003) LP: 9.98 ... CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

We Must Carry On

This 1991 release, Rita's first in seven years, presents a strong collection of songs, including four Bob Marley compositions (two of which have never been released before), in this year of tenth anniversary tributes. Includes Dem A Fight, a strong appeal against war and violence, and Earth Runnings, a rocking tempo, rhythmic tune complemented by Rita's wailing gospel-like vocals along with rich supporting harmonies. (SHN43082) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Sister Carol

Black Cinderella

"Excuse me all, I'd like to say/I'm the woman DJ rappin' at your way!" Sister Carol thus refers to herself in several of her original songs, and then delivers her commentary about politics, poverty, culture and the world from a very personal perspective, always with strong presence and vitality. For instance, Down in the Ghetto is about her own experience growing up in Western Kingston. Includes Dedicated to Bob Marley, Free Food Ticket, International Style (with lyrics in Spanish, French and Swahili), Reggae Gone International, and title. Recommended! (JL17) CS: 9.98

Jah Disciple

One of our best-selling reggae artists (of Black Cinderella fame) offers more political, social, and personal commentary on this 1989 release of original songs. She performs in the DJ dub, or "toasting" style: this is when a DJ raps or talks, often about current issues, over a rhythm track. Includes Intelligence, a trait she esteems and cultivates as a woman; Get It Straight Africans; and A No Me Name Peggy, stating that "I don't like when a man does not show respect to a woman." (RAS3053) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Mother Culture

One of reggae's strongest presences, Sister Carol is renowned for her fierce combination of serious lyrics and rapid fire toasting, for her intelligence and charisma. She has a degree in education, but feels she can teach people more through music than she could in the classroom (how true!). This 1991 release, "Ivitated" to Nelson and Winnie Mandela and the Freedom Fighters in Azania (South Africa), contains Mandela's Release, Shackles, Mother Culture. (RAS3077) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Various Artists

Woman Talk: Caribbean Dub Poetry

This Mutabaruka-produced anthology brings us strong and exciting revolutionary poems set to reggae and calypso music by 6 individual artists: Breeze, Louise Bennett (Miss Lou), Cheryl Byron, Afua, Anita Stewart, and Elaine Thomas. Some of the material is feminist: Respect, Get Back, and most is quite political: South Africa, Color Bar, Desperation Poem. A fine representation of the leadership women provide in voicing political realities and in inspiring others to work for change. (HB25) CS: 9.98

k.d. lang and the reclines Angel With A Lariat

This Canadian artist has become a major sensation in country-rock, and for good reason! Her deep voice is strong and resonant (yes, even that worn-out word powerful), her delivery punchy, and her high energy inspires a raucous good time; and she's already creating some new fans of country and rockabilly, from the ranks of women's music as well as from the mainstream. Includes several originals such as Watch Your Step Polka and title song, plus other rousing numbers like Tune Into My Wave. Fabulous! (SIR25441) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 15.98

k.d. lang Shadowland

Highlight here is Honky Tonk Angels' Medley (a medley of In the Evening When the Sun Goes Down, You Nearly Lose Your Mind, and Blues Stay Away From Me), with vocals by "The Honky Tonk Angels"...consisting of no less than Kitty Wells, Loretta Lynn, Brenda Lee, and k.d. herself!! Some of you have no doubt seen the terrific video. More evocative, sultry and powerhouse vocals from k.d., in less of a rowdy, more country-ballad style than her first release. It's dynamite; don't miss it! LP (Sire 25724) or cassette (Sire C-25724): 9.95...CD (Sire CD-25724): 16.95. (SIR25724) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 15.98

k.d. lang and The Reclines Absolute Torch and Twang

Following Shadowland, this album is true to the title, with country ballads resonating from the Canadian prairies. Some great originals, such as Nowhere To Stand, It's Me, Walkin' In and Out of Your Arms, and Big-Boned Gal, as well as absolute country croons like Full Moon Full of Love...all her love songs quite genderless. A talent to be reckoned with, and an album for all fans. (SIR25877) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 15.98

K.T. Oslin Love in a Small Town

This 1990 release mixes heartbreak lyrics with a light and easy country sound. Songs include the wistful ballad of Mary and Willie, "modern lovers who never met", and Love is Strange, a story of the games some lovers play. Almost entirely K.T. originals, this album will be appreciated by established fans. (RCA2365) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 15.98

K.T. Oslin 80's Ladies

This release by one of country music's rising stars is gaining a lot of word-of-mouth popularity in the women's community. Most of the songs are original, and its all solid pop country material: broken hearts, mended hearts, loves lost and found, and, of course, a few memories. In the title song, she sings about the ways women her age (late 30's) have grown up over the years. Also includes the humorous Younger Men ("the only trouble with being a woman my age is the men my age"). (RCA5924) LP: 10.98 ... CS: 10.98 ... CD: 15.98

K.T. Oslin This Woman

Save on the LP! K.T.'s second album continues her themes of a woman growing older, needing love more than money, and love lost and found, all in original pure country. Includes title, Where Is a Woman To Go, Didn't Expect It To Go Down This Way. (RCA8369) LP: 8.98 ... CS: 10.98 ... CD: 15.98

Kathy was nominated for country singer of the year in 1990, gaining her much-deserved recognition, and this album is a taste of all of her best. From the first cut, a rendition of Nancy Griffith's Love at the Five and Dime, she demonstrates her ability to make a song her own. This album also includes Walk the Way the Wind Blows, Train of Memories and 18 Wheels and a Dozen Roses. A must for all long time Kathy Mattea fans and new converts. (PLG842330) CS: 10.98 ... Buy this tape and help them get their name out there a bit farther; they deserve it, and it's pure enjoyment. Recommended! (CIM001) CS: 9.98

Lucinda Williams Ramblin'

Recorded in 1978, this album reminds us that few artists have shared Lucinda's ability to get to the heart of country blues. She brings to the songs of Robert Johnson, Memphis Minnie and others, her already distinctive sound, filled with melancholy yet powerfully direct. Remastered and re-released in 1991. (SF40042) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Mary Chapin Carpenter Hometown Girl

Her 1987 debut album contains title, Heroes and Heroines, A Lot Like Me, Other Streets and Other Towns, and more — mostly originals, with her fabulous voice being the reason you just gotta have this. We didn't know about this in 1987, but are glad we do now! (COL40758) CS: 6.98 ... CD: 13.98

Mary Chapin Carpenter State of the Heart

If you weaken at the knees at the sound of a great voice, this is for you. This rising star has one of the strongest, surest, most wonderful voices in contemporary country music, and this 1989 album is a testament to her songwriting, vocal, and instrumental talents. Includes Read My Lips, This Shirt, Down in Mary's Land, Quittin' Time, and back-up vocals by her good friend Shawn Colvin! (COL44228) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 15.98

Mary Chapin Carpenter Shooting Straight in the Dark

This 1990 release of mostly original songs confirms the promise of the earlier albums of this city girl gone country. Ranging from raucous and highly danceable cuts such as Right Now and Down at the Twist and Shout to the plaintive hill sound of The More Things Change, these songs are about looking for love and love lost. Shawn Colvin makes a guest appearance on The Moon and Saint Christopher. Strongly suggested. (COL46077) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 15.98

The McKinney Sisters The Tiffany Transcriptions

Known as the vocal forefront of "Bob Wills and His Texas Playboys" for many years, sisters Dean and Evelyn McKinney began singing together as young girls, and quickly progressed to radio shows, the Grand Ole Opry, and Bob Wills' band. Solo careers followed for 30 years or so, and as of 1990, a half a century later, they're singing together again! To celebrate the renewal of their partnership, this album, containing 1946-1947 recordings on the Tiffany label, features the Western Swing style their harmonies are so well suited for. If you like 40's vocals, this is for you! Recommended. (KAL6002) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Nanci Griffith Little Love Affairs

LP's on sale! Nanci's album covers are nearly as evocative as her music, and this one's no exception. It's an intricate portrait of her dressed as a Texas schoolgirl (complete with bolo tie on her school uniform and bluebonnet in hand) surrounded by books and records by other Texans who've obviously been significant to her. The album is full of touching portraits of real lives and loves, beautifully rendered by Nanci and her back-up musicians. Features the poignant, Irish-sounding title song. (MCA42102) LP: 9.98 ... CS: 10.98 ... CD: 16.98

This 1988 release, recorded live in concert, contains Looking For the Time (Workin' Girl), Trouble in the Fields, favorites From A Distance, Once In a Very Blue Moon, and more, on her only bare-boned acoustic album to date. Intimately communicates the ambience of her musical herstory — the club it was recorded in, Anderson Fair, is where she received much of her musical education when she was growing up. (MCA42255) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 15.98

Nanci Griffith Lone Star State of Mind

Highly recommended...a favorite in the Slipper office! (MCA5927) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 15.98

Nanci Griffith Storms

This 1989 release, like her previous titles, is another great traveling companion; primarily original ballads, with images of the road, driving with music playing, and the country south. Includes Drive-In Movies and Dashboard Lights, It's A Hard Life Wherever You Go. (MCA6319) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 15.98

Nanci Griffith Once In a Very Blue Moon

Nanci's third release has a real country rock sound that makes you want to grab your favorite partner and dance. Daddy Said is among her best, followed closely behind by Ballad of Robin Hunter-Smith. Her style, though definitely Texan, brings to mind this reviewer's time spent in the El Dorado Hotel in Weedsport, NY...got the picture? If you like Roseanne Cash, Bonnie Raitt, or Emmylou Harris, you're sure to love Nanci. (PH1096) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Nanci Griffith There's A Light Beyond These Woods

The title song is a touching original ballad to her childhood best friend, Mary Margaret, many other originals of love, lost dreams, and her Texan home. Lovely acoustic guitar and voice! Eric Taylor on one lead vocal. Recommended. (PH1097) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Late Night Grande Hotel

On this 1991 release, this "folkabilly" artist continues her tradition of singing "stories and vignettes of life" — her literate short story-songs with deftly-drawn characters. Highlight is Heaven, another jewel by Julie Gold, of From A Distance fame (and in fact, you can hear Julie herself sing this on the folk compilation On A Winter's Night, under Various Artists in our Folk Section). Also included are duets with Tanita Tikaram (It's Too Late Now) and Phil Everly (It's Just Another Morning Here). (MCA10306) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 15.98

Nanci Griffith Poet In My Window

A beautifully self-produced LP of original country-style songs, dedicated to Marilyn Monroe and Carson McCullers, among others. Fine voice and harmonies with tasteful accompaniment. Includes Marilyn Monroe/Neon and Waltzes, Julie Anne, Heart of a Miner. (PH1098) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Her exceptional voice epitomizes emotion and heart; recommended! (MCA12) CS: 6.98 ... CD: 13.98

Aileen Vance

After the Night

One of the winners of the Songwriter's Contest at the 1990 Kerrville Folk Festival (that's where Michelle Shocked made her recording debut with the Sony walkman...), Aileen is indeed a singer/ songwriter of note...just ask Judy Small, sponsor of Aileen's Australian tour! Weaving together contemporary and traditional styles, she sings of ordinary people, of peace and justice, of personal growth and humor. Included here: In the Country of the Savior, her award-winning song about the priests murdered in El Salvador; Amarok, a haunting honoring of the wolf, and She's Like the Swallow, a re-write of a traditional ballad which transforms the female subject from victim to proud survivor. Give her a listen! (AVE002) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 14.98

Alison Brown Simple Pleasures

Are there enough words in the English language to tell how incredibly fabulous this New Acoustic musician is? Here's what Bela Fleck says: "Alison Brown is an exceptional banjoist and guitarist. The tunes that she writes are melodic and involving. Her technique is formidable and her playing is filled with twists and turns. But the thing I enjoy the most is to see someone come along with musical intelligence and apply it to the five-string banjo. That's rare and I like it." The Alisons steal the show here — Alison Krauss accompanies on fiddle; Dave Grisman on mandolin, Mike Marshall on guitar. All instrumental, one of our Top Pix for 1992, we think almost everyone in the world would really enjoy this, so don't deprive yourself of such a sure pleasure. It's simple — order this! Very highly recommended! (VAN79459) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Walkin' Dreams: First Recordings 1

This is the first volume of a comprehensive collection of material from Patsy's first sessions. All songs were produced by the legendary Owen Bradley, and each volume has extensive liner notes. This edition includes her very first recordings, from 1955, plus others through '61; it features country weepers and more sophisticated jazzy cocktail lounge blues; among the songs, her original Walkin' After Midnight, Three Cigarettes in an Ashtray (recently covered by k.d. lang), plus A Church, A Courtroom, and Then Goodbye. (RH70048) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 15.98

Patsy Cline

The Rockin' Side: 1st Recordings 3

This album focuses on her rockabilly/ rock 'n' roll recordings: hillbilly boogie, jump honky-tonk swing, urban r&b, and uptempo pop songs! Some of her best, and most of this is not included in other collections of her material, thus it is an aspect of her talent often overlooked. Includes Gotta Lot of Rhythm in My Soul, Ain't No Wheels On This Ship. (RH70050) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 15.98

Folk ♦ Traditional

I've Got That Old Feeling

This prodigious artist picked up the Grammy Award for Best Bluegrass Recording for this album at the 1991 ceremonies, at the ripe old age of 19! Expert fiddler and soulful vocalist, she breathes vitality and passion into these songs about leaving and being on the road. She and banjo-playing Alison Brown are the show-stoppers, along with other members of her acoustic band. (ROU0275) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Amy Fradon & Leslie Ritter Amy & Leslie

Their second release is technically excellent, with more beautiful harmonies and several selections definitely worth hearing. Highlights for us include the Celtic-influenced women's spirituality songs: The Moontree, Nadya, Faerie Song; their version of Once In a Very Blue Moon; and Hymn To Her, for the earth... also includes more love songs to men than their previous release. Rory Block briefly guests on slide guitar. (ALC110) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Patsy Cline, Kitty Wells, et al Country Gals

Riley (Harper Valley P.T.A.), Jan Howard, and Jeannie Pruett, performing country classics, many of them songs that became associated with their names. (MCA20534) CS: 6.98

Ranch Romance Blue Blazes

This 1991 release is a hot mix of "regressive country" originals, incorporating acoustic honky-tonk, rockabilly and swing. Characterized by thoughtful original lyrics, entertaining music and great arrangements for guitar, fiddle, accordion and bass, it has been described as k.d. lang and Patsy Cline meet Bob Wills. Includes The Buckaroo, which could be called an oral version of Thelma & Louise. Look for more tour dates on the East Coast! (SUG3794) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Ranch Romance Western Dream

From several opening dates for k.d. lang to their 1990 debut women's festival performances, this 4-woman trad-but-rad band has brought their flawless harmonies, driving rhythm, hot instrumental work and wild yodeling to thousands of new fans around the country! Perfect for 2-stepping or any other partner dancing you'd care to do, as well as feet-stomping and finger-snapping, their old standards like Why Don't You Love Me (Like you Used To) and Lovesick Blues are mixed with originals by lead vocalist Jo Miller: her Baby's On the Town features heartick Jo singing of her woman lover who's playing the town. Highly recommended! (RCH001) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Sweethearts of the Rodeo One Time, One Night

The Sweethearts are Kristine Arnold and Janis Gill, and this is an easy, sweet album with gentle, country-style harmonies on original songs plus others by Wendy Waldman, Lennon McCartney, and more. Recommended for kicking back, and great for in-car use! (COL40614) CS: 6.98 ... CD: 13.98

Tim Williams

Creole Nightingale

Yes Tim's a woman, and yes the power of her deep voice might send you through the ceiling! It's clear why she's the best loved female country singer in Louisiana, and why she's raised 10,000 people to their feet at the New Orleans Jazz Festival — she has the makings of a superstar. If you're a country fan who has ever wished for a little more gusto in the voices of female vocalists, here's your ticket. Includes Laissez Le Bon Temps Roulez, Make Your Woman Feel Wanted, Steppin' Out Blues. Recommended! (GS11022) CS: 9.98

Amy Fradon & Leslie Ritter Crystal Song

A truly gorgeous, at times madrigal-like debut recording by a harmonizing duo. They often perform at alternative healing and "Woman As Priestess" workshops, and some of their songs are considered to be medicine songs. This is an acoustic, folksy tape, with a variety of original material: the acappella Earth-song; Crystal Song; Persephone; Starwheel; Catskill Green. Recommended for all listeners with an interest in spirituality or just a simple love of fine folk harmony. (CRY1) CS: 9.98

Ani DiFranco

"With a 'do' like Sinead's and a style akin to Vega's, how can you go wrong?" (to quote our venerable purchasing manager, Reggie)... Ani (pronounced "Ah-nee") is a young songwriter, singer & guitarist whose songs and poems are literate, melodic, feminist, well-arranged and full of meaningful imagery — plus she's got a lovely versatile voice! Songs include: Work Your Way Out, Dog Coffee, Lost Woman Song (for the writer Lucille Clifton), and Pale Purple. We encourage you to take a chance on this artist's debut tape, even if you haven't heard of her before, especially if you do enjoy Suzanne Vega and/or Shawn Colvin... highly recommended! (ANI1) CS: 9.98

Anne Hills

Woman of a Calm Heart

What most of us aspire to be, for sure...and the title song, written by assistant producer Ilene Weiss, is alone worth the price of this beautiful contemporary folk album. Anne's voice is pure and smooth, crystal clear, and her carefully-selected repertoire is a perfect match. Includes a lovely duet with Livingston Taylor, Akasha Wind, plus Eliza Gilkyson's Tennessee Road, Politicos, her own The Child Within, and Angel in Paradise, featuring background vocals by Rory Block. (FF464) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Anne Hills/ P Herdman/ C Mangsen Voices

When 3 of the most beautiful women's voices in folk music — Anne Hills, Priscilla Herdman, and Cindy Mangsen — collaborate on an album featuring their perfect 3-part harmonies, the result's as fabulous as their fans might expect! It took them two years to develop and record this project of traditional and contemporary songs, and their care and meticulousness is evident. Perhaps a highlight is their acappella work; most songs include back-up by producer/cellist Abby Newton and other acoustic musicians. There's even a game included here: they don't tell you who sings what when, you have to guess (there are some clues...)! Includes Wayfaring Stranger, Waiting for Isabella, Requiem for the Giant Trees. Highly recommended! (FF546) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Bare Necessities Take A Dance

How to characterize this lovely bit of musicianship? As their extensive and informative liner notes indicate, this is a problem the band faces regularly, but can best be summed up as "beautiful but slightly esoteric English dance music." The mostly traditional material on this 1991 release is arranged in a unique manner: one person plays the melody while the others improvise harmonies and counter-melodies, making the recording especially fresh and spontaneous. Includes the achingly beautiful classical piece, The Wood Duck. Again, highly recommended! (FF564) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Bare Necessities English Country Dances

Many-star rating! Buy this one!! We are placing this exquisite instrumental album by a quartet featuring Jacqueline Schwab, Mary Lea, Peter Barnes and Earl Gaddis in this section because it is music drawn from baroque, classical, Irish, and folk idioms, and because lots of people use it for folk-dancing! But the refinement, lushness, discipline, and lulling beauty sounds Baroque/classical/new-age, and will be just as loved by those who appreciate incredible instrumental music. As a few of the song descriptions indicate, this is music to fall in love to. The harmonies run, soar, float, and chase each other with counter-melodies and ornaments played by viola, violin, fiddle, flute, flageolet, recorder, guitar, piano. (VAR013) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Ben & Jerry's Newport Folk Festival '88 Live

The ice cream folks are sponsoring the Newport folk festival now, and this compilation from the '88 event includes cuts by Holly Near (Step It Out Nancy), Cheryl Wheeler (Half a Book), Queen Ida, Patty Larkin, Doc Watson, Taj Mahal, Tom Paxton, and other folkie favorites. (ALC105) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Ben & Jerry's Newport Folk Festival Mementos — Live '88, Volume 2

Beginning with a bouncy zydeco tune from Queen Ida (La Louisianne), this recording is a more-than-adequate example of the fun and sun had at this venerated festival. The 12 cuts are mostly rollicking-goodtime songs, the performances personal and spirited, and the lineup impressive; includes Holly Near, Cheryl Wheeler, Richard Thompson, Taj Mahal, Doc Watson, the Nashville Bluegrass Band and others. (ALC113) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

blackgirls Procedure

blackgirls are in reality 3 white women from North Carolina who bring together vocal excellence and classical training on a variety of acoustic instrumentation (strong on violins; no percussion) to create a new folk/punk sound. The melodies reflect their musical background, adding a simple beauty to the thought-provoking lyrics imparted in 3-part harmonies. The tempo changes from song to song, from dreamy to jarring, keeping listener interest sparked. Produced by Joe Boyd, known for his work with Fairport Convention, Sandy Denny, and 10,000 Maniacs, to give you a clue about the sound. Includes A Visit to the Behaviorist. Highly recommended! (MAM0017) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

blackgirls Happy

When the computer ate my somewhat rambling first review of this recording not once but thrice, I figured it was Divine Intervention, and thus went back and listened again. How to describe the uncategorizable? To compare them thematically and musically to the Indigos, Bush, Joni, Roches & Raincoats does not do justice...But, life ain't fair, a fact these girls recognize and (sometimes cheerfully) lament. No simple downer missives of life's and love's lumps, but wistful observations, multi-layered declarative chants, honest (& therefore clever) statements — all with lovely vocals and instrumentation. Produced again by Joe Boyd. Buy this, I mean it. (MAM0024) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Blue Rose

This is a 5-woman super-stringband! Cathy Fink, Marcy Marxer, Laurie Lewis, Molly Mason, and Sally Van Meter, some of the finest players in the country-folk field, put their talents together beautifully, creating one of the smoothest, clearest, loveliest albums you'll encounter. The material, which underscores their perfectly-meshed harmonies, is unusual: Geraldine and Ruthie Mae, for instance, is a touching tale of two bag ladies; and we guess they got their name by combining their songs Blue Love and Wild Rose. Recommended. (SUG3768) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Carol McComb Tears Into Laughter

Long ago and far away, Ladyslipper carried an early album by Carol, Love Can Take You Home, which we loved. She's back in 1990 with a release which is again direct and beautiful, simply stated and elegant. On gentle folk love songs (Idaho Sky) to classic country (Forgive and Forget) to songs with subjects as difficult as the effects of Alzheimer's disease (Faded Dresden Blue), she's assisted by such notables as Nina Gerber, Laurie Lewis, Sally Van Meter, Barbara Higbie, Vicki Randle, and Dianne Davidson. Welcome back! (KAL41) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Cathy Fink/M Marxer/R & L Williams Learn to Sing Harmony (3-Tape & Bk)

Cathy, Marcy, Robin and Linda — all wonderful singers themselves — teach beginners or experienced singers the principles of two, three, and four-part harmonies to enhance favorite folk, country and bluegrass songs. A special feature: the parts are recorded on separate stereo tracks for practicing either with the melody or harmony lines. This handsome volume contains three one-hour cassettes and a music book... great lessons and great fun! (HOM3) CS: 37.95

Cathy Fink & Marcy Marxer

This 1989 duo folk-country album is a masterful example of duet harmonizing and tasty instrumental work. Features three of Cathy's originals, including Names, her theme song for the Names Project Quilt from the AIDS benefit in Washington; also one song for battered women. The CD contains two extra live cuts. (SUG3775) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

The Chenille Sisters

At Home with the Chenille Sisters

Recorded live, their second album captures all of the outrageous charm, wacky humor, and lush vocal harmonies that have made The Chenilles a legend in the Midwest. From the sly hilarity of originals like Girl Shoes and The Break-Up to rarely-heard chestnuts like Kalamazoo to Timbuktu and songs of conscience like Holly Near's Hay Una Mujer Desaparecida, this release should ensure their national fame. (RH26) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

The Chenille Sisters

Tight, luscious harmonies and a substantial dose of humor might briefly characterize the debut release by these 3 mid-western talents who have appeared on Prairie Home Companion. They sail through an upbeat, zippy, varied repertoire: originals, Dinah, 50's and 60's pop tunes, contemporary stuff... some excellent acappella performances. Even the lyric sheet is funny. If you think their harmonies sound genetic, they say, "We really are sisters. We just have different parents." Definitely recommended. (RH29) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Mama, I Wanna Make Rhythm

From a hilarious reworking of La Bamba, wherein the refrain becomes "listen to your mama," to an ode to chocolate, to a beautiful original by Connie Huber called Roadmaps, to their exquisite harmonizing on jazz classics like The Wind and Hummin' To Myself, the Chenilles lift their artistry to new heights on this 1991 release. (RH39) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Cheryl Wheeler

Half a Book

On this 1987 release, Cheryl slows down her tempo a bit so we can really hear her beautiful acoustic guitar playing and distinctive resonant voice. Her poetic lyrics tell of growing up and of the trials and tribulations of falling in and out of love. Tell Him Goodbye could easily be a sequel to Addicted, a song about co-dependency on her first album. ## Cheryl Wheeler Circles & Arrows

The humorous cover reflects the sense of honesty and realism this artist imparts, in addition to her combination of strength and fragility. Great original songs performed in her vibrant vocal style, from I Know This Town, nostalgic without dipping into mushy sentiment, to Arrow, a straightforward ballad produced by Jonathan Edwards (who also contributes back-up vocals on most of the album), to Estate Sale, a cheerful sing-along about the joys of "going through dead people's houses"! Limited quantity, list alternative. (CAP92063) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 16.98

Before we encountered this album, the only thing we'd known about Cheryl was that she performed on the Lianna soundtrack. Now we're fans. Her vocal quality is quite unusual: strong, vibrant, compelling, very rich and resonant, and we recommend it on this count alone. Her songs are vignettes; best cut may be Behind the Barn, a touching duet with Jonathan Edwards who also skillfully produced the album and also seems to be quite a Cheryl Wheeler fan. Styles are folk/pop and light rock, all showcasing her vocal versatility. (NS0001) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Christine Lavin et al

Life According to 4 Bitchin' Babes

Christine plus Patty Larkin, Megan McDonough, and Sally Fingert were recorded Live at the Birchmere, alternately entitled Buy Me Bring Me Take Me: Don't Mess My Hair... their unforgettable concert tour together has been eternalized and immortalized here. You'll get to experience their humor, indescribable voices, and very on-target material. Includes Junk Food, Ladies Lunch, Sensitive New Age Guys, Prisoners of Their Hairsdos, Not Bad For a Broad, These Boots Are Made For Walkin', and Home Is Where the Heart Is, a touching vignette by Sally about a lesbian couple and a gay couple. Approx. 60 minutes... recommended! (PH1140) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Future Fossils

This is Christine's first LP (she had an earlier EP called Husbands and Wives, about relationships—the unequal kind) full of social commentary, 50/50 humor and serious, somewhere between live and studio, of original songs. This artist is some-one the NY Times calls "a pungent folk-pop humorist...writes wryly comic vignettes of city life that also have an emotional edge." Includes Cold Pizza for Breakfast, a spoof of diets, Regretting What I Said which skewers men who find it difficult to tell the truth, and Don't Ever Call Your Sweetheart by His Name which turns the tables on men who've called women "darling" for centuries...this song was banned from Gracie Mansion. During a discussion of New Age music with this reviewer, Christine said, "My mantra is pizza." (PH1104) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Beau Woes

From undoubtedly the sharpest wit in the contemporary folk scene, a splendidly entertaining, lively, honest and eclectic album. Includes her clever Biological Time Bomb; her song for all those athletically challenged, Ballad of a Ballgame; the more serious Gettin' Used to Leavin' with veteran folkie Eric Andersen; her spoof on Camping; and other humorous and cynical vignettes. A gem. (PH1107) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Good Thing He Can't Read My Mind

First of all, if you are a Suzanne Vega listener, this album is an absolute must for your collection... Christine's Mysterious Woman adds new dimensions to the existential meanings of defrosting the refrigerator! Title song accurately describes the delicious experience of eating sushi (sucking down a bucketful of tentacle slime; or, chewing the suction cups off the bottom of an old bathtub mat) and other activities tolerated in the name of love. Both satire and good folk music fill this album, and even a duet with Livingston Taylor. (PH1121) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Attainable Love

Ten more serio-comic songs that debunk, explore and create the myths of contemporary (het) romance; includes Shopping Cart of Love and Sensitive New Age Guys, as well as the somewhat more serious Victim/Volunteer, The Kind of Love You Never Recover From, and title. A straightforward acoustic production from this insightful observer/ commentator. (PH1132) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Compass

People Magazine said: "She is a slyly witty songwriter who seems to have undergone an irony-lift... It's as semi-detached observer that Lavin is most striking, though. If we could get her and Loudon Wainwright III named our national folk music laureates, we'd have most of the country's problems accurately described, if not solved, in no time." 1991 release. ## Cindy Kallet

Working on Wings to Fly

"Listening to you is like lying on your back while someone feeds you grapes," said someone to this Martha's Vineyard musician. We rarely carry LP's of folksinger-with-guitar music unless there's something really distinctive about it and in this case it's her enchanting voice—a good octave lower than your average folksinger but with the same sort timbre heard in the clearest soprano. An outstanding acappella number in 3 parts (with friend), plus other original songs about New England coastal life. Accomplished guitar accompaniment. Highly recommended. (FL63) CS: 9.98

Cindy Kallet, E. Epstein, M. Ciccone Angels in Daring

Cindy teams up vocally here with Ellen Epstein and Michael Ciccone to present a stunning collection of primarily acappella music drawn from contemporary and traditional sources of the British Isles and America, with a liberal sprinkling of sea music. Their close, perfectly-pitched harmonies have inspired enthusiastic responses from audiences and critics alike, described as warm and healing, technically elegant... and it's all true. Includes Sail Away Ladies, a couple of shape-note hymns, and Cold Is the Night, which Cindy wrote expressly for these 3 minstrels. Definitely recommended! (KEC1) CS: 9.98

Cindy Kallet

Dreaming Down a Quiet Line

The title encapsulates the beauty and the peaceful simplicity of both the northern New England coast and of this 1989 release of primarily original contemporary folk songs. Featuring beautiful harmony vocals on some by Ellen Epstein, Michael Ciccone, and Lisa Kallet-Marx, it includes Song for Margaret, Sarah's Song, Glacier Song. (STM1) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Claudia Schmidt

New Goodbyes, Old Hellos

Claudia's third album is thematically compassionate and rich in musical styles—I'm a Little Cookie is transformed into an almost Dixieland jig, while the poem Skin Gangsters relates to childhood suffering in an orphanage and flows into the bluesy Tired, and the gospel treatment of Bill Withers' Grandma's Hands is positively righteous! Also includes a beautiful pianolin solo. Recommended. (FF305) CS: 9.98

Claudia Schmidt/ Sally Rogers

Closing the Distance

An absolute aural delight by two of the finest musicians in the acoustic music universe. They trade licks, leads and harmonies on their first joint album of original, traditional and new material...includes Lovely Agnes; Mama, I Miss You Tonight; the acappella Appalachian Round; a Native American melody Hey, Hey Watenay!; I Walk in Beauty. Highly recommended! (FF425) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Essential Tension

Her most personal statement to date, this 1991 release of all original material communicates an introspectiveness that clearly marks a period of profound growth and change for the artist. Her voice has a powerful new edge and, with its incredible 3-octave range, has never been more expressive. The album reflects a greater maturity as both a composer and a poet in love with the sound and meaning of language. Worth the 3-year wait! (RH38) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Coon Creek Girls

Early Radio Favorites

We've waited a long time for a reissue of the music of this Kentucky group, featuring banjo-picker Lily May Ledford. They were one of the last, best, and most popular mountain string bands on the old-time music scene, and certainly one of the only recognized female ensembles in their time and genre. Between them they played banjo, fiddle, mandolin, guitar, and bass. Made in the 1930s, their entire output of early recordings is included here, with Banjo Picking Girl, Bile Them Cabbage Down, How Many Biscuits Can You Eat?, and a medley they performed for the Roosevelts and England's king and queen at the White House in 1939. (OH142) CS: 9.98

The Cowboy Junkies

Whites Off Earth Now!!

Recorded live in 1986, this is the little-known first recording by the Cowboy Junkies. It includes eight covers (that don't sound anything like the originals) of material by artists ranging from Bruce Springsteen to John Lee Hooker and Robert Johnson, plus one original by Margo and Michael Timmins. Margo is so torchy that she steams on cuts like State Trooper and Forgive Me. Slow and smoky, this album is highly recommended. (RCA2380) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 15.98

Cowboy Junkies

The Trinity Sessions

Margo Timmins is the vocalist of this mostly-Timmins ensemble, and her voice is the distinguishing characteristic of the group; it's smoky, moody, bluesy, evocative... and electric guitar is the prevailing instrumentation, making for a heady ambience. Includes the loneliest version of I'm So Lonesome I Could Cry ever recorded; and a cover of Lou Reed's Sweet Jane. Recorded live in Toronto. (RCA8568) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 15.98

The Caution Horses

Their second release — 1990 — contains Witches ("There are witches in the hills calling my name/ saying come join us sister, come kiss the flame"), as well as Sun Comes Up, It's Tuesday Morning; Cause Cheap Is How I Feel; Rock and Bird; and Powderfinger. (RCA2058) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 15.98

Daryle Ryce

Carolina Blue

Classifying an album like this is a challenge, because this North Carolinian singer-songwriter's rich voice moves effortlessly from soft rock to blues to jazz to country swing! From the traditional folk sound of Living From Day to Day to the jazzy Brazilian instrumental Jonathan and to her parody on modern stereotypes in Put Me in the Movies, she demonstrates that no genre is out of her reach — and does so with great style. (ROU3093) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Eliza Gilkyson

Pilgrims

If you think folk music is lacking lyrically, melodically, or spiritually, never fear, Eliza Gilkyson is here! This accomplished singer-songwriter has created this dazzling album from her very heart, and it's sure to touch a chord in yours. As a captain in self-exploration, she charts aspects of her quest for love and understanding with a compelling, magnetic voice - at times reminiscent of the qualities of Chris Williamson or Ferron. Includes Material Man ("...dicking with the dollars...missile-envy madness..."), Foolish Heart, Calling All Angels. Her first release since her out-of-print 1979 debut album on Helios Records, which we had long ago...incredibly talented, intensely aware, searching and caring, Eliza offers a musical gift not to be passed by. Highly recommended. (GC171007) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 15.98

Legends of Rainmaker

Most notable here is an original country-rock song Rosie Strike Back, a passionate plea for a woman to leave an abusive relationship, on which she is backed by Bonnie Raitt...second, a beautiful cover of the early 60's hit song written by her father, Terry: Greenfields (surely some of you remember that? "Once there were greenfields kissed by the sun..."). A nice follow-up to Pilgrims. (GC171323) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 15.98

Elizabeth Cotten

Freight Train & Other NC Folk Songs

It's hard to believe that a talent as rare and true as Libba's can go unrecognized for so many years, but thankfully, by the time she died in 1987 at the age of 95, she was finally gaining a small portion of her deserved acclaim. What she was able to record in her last 30 years is best described as legendary. Her most popular original song Freight Train, her well-known Oh Babe It Ain't No Lie, and her beautifully simplistic rendition of the gospel classic What a Friend We Have in Jesus appear on this recording, which was originally released in 1958 as Folksongs & Instrumentals for Guitar. Any fan of traditional folk, blues and gospel will appreciate this treasure, and will recognize the impact she has had on countless other performers, from the Seegers to Faith Nolan. (SF40009) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Good Ol' Persons

Anywhere the Wind Blows

For over a dozen years, this 3-woman 2-man ensemble has continued to fashion their remarkable blend of country, swing, bluegrass, folk, and contemporary singer-songwriter stylings. This 1989 release features wonderful harmonies between lead vocalist Kathy Kallick, bassist Bethany Raine, and dobroist Sally Van Meter, plus the instrumental prowess of all members. Includes Dreaming in Three Quarter Time and several Kallick originals. (KAL38) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Holly Near/ Arlo/ Ronnie/ P. Seeger HARP

When this reviewer dies and goes to folk heaven, she fully expects this recording to be heard in elevators and dentist offices. HARP bridges the gap of generations and gives a real sense of the social and political struggles which have brought us to where we are. On this live recording, Pete and Ronnie (two original members of the legendary Weavers) lead the group on classic oldies like Jacob's Ladder, Oh, Mary Don't You Weep, Wimoweh. Arlo solos with such favorites as City of New Orleans and All Over The World. Holly's solos include Fine Time and a moving medley with Ronnie of Marvin Gaye's What's Going On — and her own Foolish Notion. The four perform together and weave harmonies. This is historical folk music at its best. (RR409) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Three of the foremost contemporary voices of protest music document the vitality and spirit of songs of working people and social consciousness. ### The Most Dulcimer

"Over the years, I have made about 40 record albums...They all have had some dulcimer accompaniments, but people looking through the record bins always study the record jackets bemusedly and sooner or later ask The Question: "Which one has the most dulcimer?" ### Diamonds and Rust in the Bullring

1989 marks Joan's 30th year of performing, as well as the release of this album. Recorded live in the bullring, literally, in Bilbao, Spain, it contains an equal number of songs in English and Spanish. Features an incredible duet with Mercedes Sosa on Gracias a la Vida — alone worth the price of the album! — plus Famous Blue Raincoat, Let It Be, No Woman No Cry, and No Nos Moveran, her Spanish version of the civil rights anthem We Shall Not Be Moved. Joanne Rand
Home

"Her sound embodies the strong but supple spirit of primal warrior woman, of Womenspirit Rising. Her voice comes across exuberant yet steadfast, with an unyielding sensuality... If there is a category called Environmental Female Singers, Joanne Rand has quickly and forcefully become a favorite, with the most unquestionably Deep Ecology lyrics yet." (Earth First! Journal) Start your Joanne Rand collection with Choosing Sides, and if you like that one, come back for this worthwhile 1988 debut release; includes Nobody Lays a Hand On Me, Radiation On My Windshield, Thanks. (JR1) CS: 9.98

Joanne Rand
Choosing Sides

Gorgeous voice social/political/spiritual songs gorgeous voice... This woman's range will take your breath away! Her melody lines are ever interesting, zipping up and down the octaves; her lyrics passionately expressive of Absolute Commitment to Earth and Wilderness; and I already told you about her voice, for which I am resisting the temptation to compare to other singers you probably love. The only problem with this 1989 album is that its black-and-white cover will too likely be overlooked in stores. Songs include Antarctica, Privileged Class, Koyaanisqatsi, and just about the most beautiful love song imaginable, Always Be Warm. Highly recommended! (JR2) CS: 9.98 . . . CD: 14.98

Judy Collins
Fires of Eden

Another mix of original songs and interpretations by this legendary folk voice, this 1990 release includes Fortune of Soldiers, which is presented as a hope for peace, and Queen of the Night, a tale of a streetwoman who but for fortune could be any one of us. Back Roads

Recorded with friends in the living room, this record of country-folk music is remarkably well done. While some songs lean towards melancholic nostalgia, others show that it's more desire for a simpler life ahead that inspired the words of this singer/songwriter. (KAL06) CS: 9.98 . . . CD: 15.98

All the songs were previously released except Alice Stuart's Full Time Woman. A beautiful collection, it also contains Unfinished Life, She Rides Like the Dolphin, Across the Great Divide, Redtail Hawk, Emma Rose. Like so many others, we miss her. This 1989 release contains all previously unreleased live and studio recordings compiled by Kate's musical associate and friend, Nina Gerber, after Kate's untimely death at age 44. It spans the period from 1979, with Fly Away, to 1986; the title song, the last song Kate ever recorded, was largely recorded in her hospital room. Includes a previously unreleased version of her most popular song, Give Yourself to Love, as well as Rising of the Moon and a few unaccompanied performances. The album radiates with Kate's heartfelt music, and we are glad that Kate's spirit is able to live on...and on...through her still-growing discography. (KAL30) CS: 9.98 . . . CD: 15.98

Laurie Lewis
Love Chooses You

Laurie has recently gained lots of admiration among the women's music audience, following her national tour with Cris Williamson and Teresa Trull, as well as her album with Blue Rose, but she's been making serious music for years and years. As lead vocalist, fiddle-player, and awesome songwriter, her mostly-original country-folk material on this 1989 release is strong, down-to-earth, and just simply pleasurable to listen to. Includes title, Old Friend, and The Women of Ireland/ Ryes-traw. (FF487) CS: 9.98 . . . CD: 15.98

Laurie Lewis & Kathy Kallick
Together

This bluegrass duet album hails from two of the Bay Area's most popular acoustic performers: both are singer-songwriters, Laurie a fiddler, Kathy a rhythm guitarist. Their long-time friendship and association (they were both members of the Good Ol' Persons string band, and Kathy is still their lead singer) is evident in their collaboration. Were excited about this fall 1991 release! (KAL44) CS: 9.98 . . . CD: 15.98

Lisa Pawlak
Keep It Simple

If only all "Girl-With-Guitar" debut recordings were this good, the term wouldn't have suffered such a PR downside! Armed with a Gorgeous Voice — smoky sweet and sultry — and lead and rhythm acoustic and electric guitars, she performs original soft rock songs about her sobriety, views on romance, relationships, and life in general. Her self-harmonizing will knock your socks off - in fact, if Janis Ian and Teresa Trull had a kid, chances are she'd sound alot like Lisa! (FLX1) CS: 9.98

Lui Collins
There's a Light

Lui is joined, on this (her third) recording, by Sally Rogers and Leo Kretzner. Her style continues to expand, encompassing some blues sounds here. The highlight of this album is a moving rendition of Ecstasy—not to be missed by anyone who loves the song as much as this reviewer. Lui creates the aura of New England folklore as on her originals Dance Me Round and Midwinter Night. If you want to get back to basics, buy this album. (GL1061) CS: 9.98

Mary McCaslin
Old Friends

Who'd ever think anyone could send chills up your spine by singing the Supremes' song My World is Empty Without You Babe or the Beatles' Things We Said Today? Mary has done it on this record—with an unusual minor guitar tuning & exquisite harmonies in her arrangements. These 2 songs, plus her original title cut, make this album one of our favorites & are worth the price of the album. (PH1046) CS: 9.98

Michelle Shocked
The Texas Campfire Tapes

The amazing story of an obscure informal walkman-recording, first creating a raging cult following for this young itinerant folk artist, then catapulting her to national fame and fortune! Her style on this "debut" recording (a re-issue of the very same walkman-recording) is an absolutely appealing blend of talking blues and original folk song-stories, full of subtleties and ironies, accompanied by only her acoustic guitar and the crickets who were present at this Texas folk festival campfire. Long-wearing; gets better and more intriguing with every listening; recommended! (MER834581) CS: 8.98 . . . CD: 14.98

Michelle Shocked
Short Sharp Shocked

Michelle's first studio recording, a wild success for her, and established her firmly in the US music scene. Title comes from a behavior modification technique used by the psych industry. (MER834924) LP: 10.98 . . . CS: 10.98 . . . CD: 15.98

Michelle Shocked
Captain Swing

On this highly anticipated follow-up to Short Sharp Shocked, Michelle once again surprises and challenges her audience. The 10 original songs are decidedly swing oriented, with full band and horn sections. She describes this as "music that goes from one end of Mississippi to the other, from Chicago R & B to New York be-bop to New Orleans mambo." Includes God Is a Real Estate Developer, Must Be Luff, My Little Sister. (MER836878) CS: 10.98 . . . CD: 16.98

All we know as we go to press for fall 1991/ winter 1992 is that she's been traveling the country, recording songs (with the 48-track digital recording unit she happens to have stashed in her Winnebago) for a new album. It'll contain collaborations with various "roots music" artists. We'll ship the moment it arrives. (MER7) CS: 10.98 . . . CD: 15.98

They accompany their piercing, haunting vocal harmonies on guitar, autoharp and dulcimer, except on their instrumentals in which they play lead! A veritable classic. (VAN21/22) CS: 11.98 . . . CD: 15.98

The New Coon Creek Girls
Playing Our Respect

Considered the foremost women's bluegrass quartet in their tenth year of playing, the Girls offer some righteous instrumentals as well as vocals on this 1990 release. They were originally performed in the 40's, 50's and 60's by some of the bluegrass pioneers who laid the foundation for their sound: Lily May Ledford, Lester Flatt and Earl Scruggs, Bill Monroe, Jim and Jesse, and others. A true trip down memory lane for bluegrass and country music fans! (TUR5069) CS: 9.98

Pamela Warrick-Smith
Work, Fight and Pray

With the vocal depth and virtuosity usually associated with opera singers, this exciting singer/ arranger/ percussionist has compiled a collection of spirituals, chain gang songs, and the oddly appropriate Desperado of Eagles' fame. Accompaniment includes piano, guitar, cello, oboe, percussion and the gorgeous voices of the Ace Movers, a 14-piece choir in mostly call and response arrangements. Songs include: Roberta Lee; Jody; Poor Boy; Black Betty; Mad, Mad, Mad, Mary, and The Sisters of the Cross of Shame. Recommended! (GH721) CS: 9.98 . . . CD: 15.98

Patty Larkin
Step Into the Light

A well-produced debut album from a New England artist who has been appearing at women's music festivals since 1985. Some of her original songs have a country bent; some are satirical (Not Bad For a Broad); some are about beloved substances (Caffeine); and several are love songs. (PH1103) CS: 9.98

Patty Larkin
I'm Fine

Fairly stunning production by Darleen Wilson, who also engineered and mixed this Boston-area artist's second release; buy it for the title cut alone! Patty's fine, as is her voice, which has seasoned and grown richer... nice. Includes the sleazy blues sound of Pucker Up. (PH1115) CS: 9.98

Patty Larkin
In the Square

Recorded live at Sanders Theater in Harvard Square, this 1990 release includes both new and favorite songs, with the added sparkle of Patty's witty introductions and off-the-cuff exchanges with the audience. The album demonstrates why she's one of the most in-demand acoustic performers, particularly in her home region of New England. (PH1136) CS: 9.98 . . . CD: 15.98

Peter, Paul & Mary
Flowers & Stones

This 1990 release, the 16th of their career, retains the intimacy of a traditional PP&M recording, while adding an improvisational character. Priscilla Herdman
Darkness Into Light

Buy this for a most superb acappella rendition of Sojourner Truth's speech Ain't I A Woman?, set to music by Priscilla with harmony vocals by Anne Hills, Cindy Mangsen—chilling! Her flowing alto, with Abby Newton's smooth cello and other acoustic instrumentation, also does justice to songs by some of the best contemporary writers, such as Judy Small, Connie Kaldor, Malvina Reynolds...a quintessential folk album, with themes of peace, children growing, people working and loving. (FF420) CS: 9.98 . . . CD: 15.98

Queen Ida and Her Zydeco Band
Cookin' with Queen Ida

She cooks up a hearty menu of traditional Zydeco and Cajun harmony, blending in blues, reggae and more, on this 1989 release. Includes Hard Headed Woman and C'est Moi, her personal lament to life on the road. (GNP2197) CS: 9.98 . . . CD: 15.98

Queen Ida and the Bon Temps Band
Zydeco a la Mode

Queen Ida's taking the country by storm, at the moment! She and her band perform Zydeco music (a mixture of Cajun/ Creole-French Canadian/Acadian by way of Louisiana—with rhythm 'n' blues licks, bits of rock, Caribbean, reggae, c & w) which is extremely upbeat and danceable and, as such a multi-cultural synthesis, appeals equally to black and white audiences. Ida plays accordion, her brother Al does most of the lead vocals, and her son Myrick Guillory is also a band-member, playing rub-board (cousin of the wash-board). (GNP2112) CS: 9.98

Another World

We've had requests for this 1985 release, so in 1990 we're adding it! Includes Love Radiates Around ("her love is true: music and it radiates around... My chance for true happiness awaits upon her kiss... she is mine and I am hers through seasons all..."), Older Girls, Face Down at Folk City, Gimme A Slice, title song, and more great songs. (WB25321) CS: 9.98 . . . CD: 15.98

The Roches

Their first album as a trio, and the one which firmly endeared them to great numbers of music lovers who also appreciated humor and ingenuity. Their harmonic and lyric accomplishments reached new peaks here. All acoustic, simply and skillfully produced. Includes the autobiographical We, Mr. Sellack, Quitting Time. Recommended! (WB3298) CS: 9.98

The Roches
Nurds

If you love to laugh, you'll love this group and everything they record, including this album. Includes The Death of Suzy Roche, Factory Girl, This Feminine Position, My Sick Mind. (WB3475) CS: 9.98

Rory Block
The Early Tapes 1975-1976

This young white artist began performing the music she learned from the Mississippi Delta in the early '70's in Greenwich Village; her pure blues style, with its original spontaneous and genuine flavor, is preserved here in this collection of standards and originals culled from her first LP recording sessions. (ALC111) CS: 9.98 . . . CD: 15.98

Rory Block
Rhinestones & Steel Strings

This recording certainly has the sparkle suggested in the title. Rory's voice has developed in timbre and elasticity; it springs all over, seemingly, without effort, and she sure doesn't stay stuck in one style. Treat yourself to the incredible way she uses her blues voice on an old folk tune, The Golden Vanity, to hammered dulcimer accompaniment—stunning—and, to a guitar/synthesizer almost-classical instrumental, El Vuelo Del Alma. Also notable is the acappella God's Gift to Women with the Persuasions. And of course, plenty of good blues and steel guitar. Recommended. (ROU3085) CS: 9.98

Rory Block
I've Got a Rock in My Sock

With musical contributions by Stevie Wonder and Taj Mahal, this album features blues, traditional and original contemporary material — her most varied to date — and all done justice by Rory's forceful and heart-rending vocals...plus her new ventures into synthesized bass and drum programming. Includes her own Send the Man Back Home, as well as a lovely acoustic guitar/ synthesizer instrumental. Recorded and mixed in 7 different locations; probably a record-setter, so to speak. Recommended! (ROU3097) CS: 9.98

House of Hearts

Dedicated to her son Thiele who died tragically in 1986 at age 20, this is Rory's most personal album to date. With the exception of Krye, written and performed by her other son, the songs here are all Rory's—filled with hauntingly beautiful melodies and poetic lyrics. Her brilliant guitar and synthesizer playing and exquisite blues-soul voice caress every line of this very touching eulogy. Recommended! (ROU3104) CS: 9.98 . . . CD: 15.98

Rory Block
Mama's Blues

Bonnie Raitt said, "Rory Block has been an inspiration to me since we started out years ago. Her guitar playing, singing and songwriting are some of the most soulful in traditional and modern blues." This is Rory at her blues best here! On this outstanding 1991 release, she pays tribute to the great musicians who have always been her source of inspiration: Robert Johnson, Son House, Tommy Johnson, Bessie Smith, and others. Several are "originals" (but stylistically culled from lots of rural blues material), and others are her personal renditions of songs she has heard and studied. This recording should answer her most-often-asked question, "How come a young white girl from NYC was drawn to the blues music of the black rural south of the 1930's?" (ROU3117) CS: 9.98 . . . CD: 15.98

Rosalie Sorrels

Report from Grimes Creek

This 1991 release is the culmination of a career and of a remarkable life. As reflected in thoughts and recollections of the log cabin in Utah in which she grew up and now again lives, she weaves a tale, through song and story, of home, roots, and rural western America. Poignant and articulate. (GL2105) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Sally Van Meter

All in Good Time

The hottest new dobro star around, Sally's already known to many fans for her work with Blue Rose and Good Ol' Persons. This 1991 debut solo release is a superb collection of songs and instrumentals which showcase her talent and creativity. She's joined by Kathy Kallick, Jerry Douglas, Mike Marshall, and others. (SUG3792) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Sam Weis

So True!

With a deep, earthy voice and celestial 12-String guitar, Sam Weis is perhaps familiar to you from her debut instrumental album of several years ago, called Hologram. Anyway, she's a delightful songwriter as well, focusing on this reviewer's favorite subject, yes, LOVE! The satisfying kind ('Til We've Seen It All, When You Rock Me) and the bumper kind (Trouble in Paradise, You Lied). Also includes an incandescent instrumental, Nasty Habits. Nicely produced too! (SRM101) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Equal Scary People

This debut recording lopes energetically and quite competently through a variety of styles — primarily a swinging folk, with Caribbean rhythms (title song, I Wish I Were A Princess), and a lovely sultry blues cover of James Brown's It's a Man's World. With a vocal range reminiscent of a young Janis Ian, Sara is also an impressive arranger and producer. Recommended! (EL60903) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 15.98

Shortstop

Sara's second release shows an impressive elevation of vocal arrangement and songwriting skill — she evinced her talents quite considerably on her first album, but here she is again, even better! She spreads her loving perspective over a variety of relationships — her gay sister in title cut, the elderly and bewildered Aurora, her very opposite but appreciated boyfriend (The Very Thing). Her irrepressible humor kicks up in Too Fast, a paean to female sexual aggression, and Take It Like a Man is her bluesy take on feminist history. A lovely and balanced recording. (EL60964) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 15.98

Sarah McLachlan

Touch

We were introduced to this singer-songwriter when she shared a bill with Holly Near, and here's her debut 1989 release; it features her wide vocal range, gorgeous harmonies, and introspective lyrics. Tape and CD contain one bonus track. (ARI8594) LP: 10.98 ... CS: 10.98 ... CD: 15.98

Shawn Colvin

Steady On

Shawn contributes back-up vocals on Suzanne Vega's album (including her best-known song Luka). Suzanne does the same on Shawn's; that simple fact tells you a bit about what to expect here. The debut album by this "acoustic pop" singer-songwriter (whose history includes eight months performing with the Red Clay Ramblers!) features her silvery vocals, acoustic guitar and thoughtful lyrics, against a backdrop of tasteful accompaniment. Includes Diamonds in the Rough. (COL45209) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 15.98

The Short Sisters

A Little Gracefulness

Three women (neither short nor sisters) present material which truly reflects their fondness for gorgeous melodies (yes!), opportunities for interesting harmonies (again!), and both pertinent and impertinent subject matter (absolutely!). The title song, which expresses the way they try to achieve harmony as a group, was written by John Calvi about his experiences working with people suffering from AIDS, trauma, and political persecution. Primarily acappella, this release includes a well-selected variety of wonderful rounds, ballads, traditional and contemporary work songs and funny songs. Lots of fun, lots of heart and beauty; definitely recommended. (BS8654) CS: 9.98

The Story

Grace in Gravity

D'ya know that feeling, when you first hear a new group or artist, where the voices and music reach that perfect synergy and you just sink into a warm relaxation of wonder and pleasure? Well, help yourself to this! These two Boston area women, Jonatha Brooke and Jennifer Kimball, synthesize their voices, lyrics, acoustic and occasional electric accompaniment into a superb arrangement of contemporary folk with jazz and New Acoustic influences — lots of pristine acoustic guitar, floating acoustic bass, and crisp drum work, plus simply angelic vocals (Suzanne Vega meets Jasmine) and poetic, painterly lyrics. Highly recommended, if you hadn't already guessed! P.S. — Love the comic-strip feeling of Dog Dreams... (GL2104) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Suzanne Vega

Already likened to Canadian counterparts Ferron and Jane Siberry for her poetic lyrics and emotional intensity, Suzanne Vega is rapidly gaining national attention for her debut album. While the crisp and sparkling instrumental arrangements alone are enough to recommend it, it is the subtly-layered lyrical complexity that puts it in this reviewer's all-time Top 10...using colorful analogies and stark images, the effect sparks recognition and identification with the situations she illustrates, however obtusely...Highly recommended. (AM5072) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 15.98

Solitude Standing

Gaining her a significantly more wide-spread recognition of her exceptional lyric talent, this second release includes Luka, about an abused child (the initial "hit" on the album—says something for a bit of public consciousness), the acappella Tom's Diner, the pure folk progressions of Gypsy, the title song with images of the female persona of solitude. Again, sharp fragments of life as we have all experienced it, tumbling in a kaleidoscope arrangement, juxtaposing all sorts of contrasts, recognizing yet transcending the limitations of language. (AM5136) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 15.98

days of open Hand

The telltale voice and emotionally inspired songs make her third release "classic Vega," as it expands on her folk forte and includes her unique communications of consciousness and observation. Background vocals by Shawn Colvin and rhythmic accompaniment accent her thought-provoking messages. Includes Book of Dreams and Big Space, which calls for "passion in the language." (AM5293) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 15.98

Syd Straw

Surprise

This 90's folk rocker, who guest-appears on Phranc's third release, creates songs with a poetic nature and a rhythmic backbone. The sound is mellow at times and borders on rock, but the depth and substance of the lyrics form the appeal of this "listen to more than once" kind of album. Employing some unique instrumentation, it includes Chasing Vapor Trails, Crazy American and Heart of Darkness (VIR91266) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Teri Tibbett

Living the Alaska Life

Subtitled Songs From the New North, this is a great tape for and about northern women! Mush Them Dogs is dedicated to the women who run the Iditarod Race, while Yukon Women tells of the raw and rugged independent women who build their own cabins. She'll Be Comin' O'er the Tundra says "she'll be musing six white huskies," and Lady of the Chilkoot is the true story of 70 people who were buried in an avalanche on their way to the gold fields. If you live this life or wish you did, you'll love this tape! (MIG1) CS: 9.98

Theories of the Old School

Even the Navajo

Tight, interesting instrumentation, crafted phrasing, and thoughtful lyrics characterize this captivating ensemble composed of 2 female singer/ songwriter/ instrumentalists and a male percussionist. Using guitars, flutes, Chapman Stick, congas, piano and various percussion, Theories harmonizes its way through a range of original songs covering subjects from love to nuclear waste; includes Last Dolphin, Yucca Mountain, title. Recommended! (TOS1) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Trapezoid

Moon Run

This acclaimed vocal-instrumental ensemble has undergone quite a transition since appearing on Holly Near's Watch Out (the only musician common to both incarnations is Paul Reisler); but the unique blending of components — hammer dulcimer, piano, woodwinds, violin, percussion and voice — has maintained its ethereal yet earthly quality. A most exquisite album, from the hauntingly beautiful vocals of Cheryl Hurwitz and Anne Louise White to the instrumental prowess of each individual performer. Includes Anne's Persephone Rising. (NAE3011) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Cool of the Day

Gorgeous and highly recommended! From our good friends at Sugar Hill of Durham NC, independent music capital of the world, a Trapezoid record which includes such lovelies as soprano sax, material by Ferron, Nobuko Miyamoto, Barbara Keith (Bramble and the Rose — ooh, beautiful!), and the almost eerie and ethereal harmonies between Lorraine and Freyda. ### I'm Gonna Let It Shine

Subtitled A Gathering of Voices for Freedom, this superb collection of classic acappella Civil Rights and Freedom songs was first envisioned at one of Bill Harley's annual Martin Luther King birthday potlucks. It quickly grew into a recording by a diverse group of singers, notably several original members of the SNCC Freedom Singers, Solly Makholiso (a South African poet), Sally Rogers, Charlie King, Cathy Fink, and several school children. Their literature describes the result as "a family and educational recording with a social conscience," with all proceeds donated to organizations working for justice. ### On A Winter's Night

Subtitled The Best of the New Singer/Songwriters, as well as Ballads to Warm the Heart, this anthology includes songs by several artists that make it well worth the purchase price. Firstly is Heaven, a gorgeous song written and performed by Julie Gold, author of the now-very-famous From A Distance... I forwarded right to this cut, and was not disappointed! (So here's her solo album??) Also included are selections by the 3 other Bitchin' Babes — Patty Larkin, Sally Fingeret, and Megan McDonough — as well as Cheryl Wheeler, and other women and men. Christine has done lots over the years to create exposure for artists, which we really appreciate, and you will too! (NS0028) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Anna Domino

This Time

This singer, songwriter, artist, chanteuse has developed a sizeable cult following in the art underground; she refers to herself as a storyteller relying on her instincts to weave a tale, while calling her music "Anna Pop" or "Domino Pop." This 1987 release features her compelling voice — its rhythms and emotion have elicited comparisons to Suzanne Vega, Kate Bush, Tracy Thorn, Jane Siberry and Sade. Includes She Walked, Lake. (GR6007) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Colouring In The Edge & The Outline

On this 1989 EP album, the heroine for bitter romantics everywhere follows up This Time with a dichotomy of technology and sparse blues — blending soul, Latin, funk, introspective folk, electronics and blues with catchy melodies and a cool urban beat. Most songs are about love, set within a stark reality of hardship, but extremely melodic and an audio pleasure. Recommended! (GR6041) CS: 7.98 ... CD: 10.98

The B-52's

The 1979 debut album by the favorite 2-woman (Cindy Wilson, Kate Pierson) 3-man quintet; includes 52 Girls, Dance This Mess Around, Lava, Rock Lobster, and other great dance tunes. (WB3355) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

London Warsaw New York

The second release (1989) by this Polish singer-songwriter, creator of beautiful many-tracked harmonies, conveys a big airy sound. (EPC45472) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 15.98

Bette Midler

The incredible soundtrack from the incredible movie sums up the amazing breadth of Bette's talent as a vocalist and song interpreter; a favorite around the Ladyslipper office. We hope it truly brings her the recognition she should have received years ago, for her supreme musicianship. Includes Under the Boardwalk, I Think It's Going to Rain Today, The Glory of Love. Highly recommended...Bette, we love you! (ATL81933) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 15.98

Some People's Lives

This release includes the smash hit From A Distance, a song of timeless importance but which carries a special message for the 90's. Also includes Night and Day and The Gift of Love. Highly recommended. (ATL82129) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 15.98

Bonnie Raitt

Nick of Time

Could be the best recording she's ever done; this 1989 release has a distinct air of maturity, and apparently grows out of her new sobriety...includes her own The Road's My Middle Name and the title cut, about aging and realizing one is running out of time; two by Bonnie Hayes; and Nobody's Girl. Plenty of her signature blues, some background vocals by David Crosby and Graham Nash. (CAP91268) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 15.98

The Weavers

Together Again

From the 1980 reunion at Carnegie Hall, 25 years after their previous concert there, documented in the film WASNT THAT A TIME. A vital piece of political and musical history, as if an entire movement culminated in this performance, simultaneously giving the audience a view of the huge backdrop of which each era of music-for-social-change is but a small part. Lee Hays, one of the 4 Weavers, died shortly after this reunion concert. (LOO1681) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Luck of the Draw

The anxiously-awaited follow-up to the multi-Grammy-award-winner, Nick of Time, this 1991 release is filled with heartfelt ballads as well as down-in-the-groove bluesy rockers... songs that are highly personal, and disarming in their honesty and clarity about relationships. Bonnie has reached a smoother point in life — sobriety, love, success and recognition all rolled into one — and her music has never sounded better. Contains Something to Talk About, plus 4 originals, including Come To Me. Bonnie financed the special environmentally-friendly packaging of the CD; it's free of plastic jewel box and blister pack, all that permanent junk! (CAP96111) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 15.98

City Streets

The superstar legend of the 70's makes a comeback in the 90's, with an album of original material plus a few new collaborations with long-time song-writing partner Gerry Goffin. (CAP90885) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 15.98

Tapestry

This classic, one of the best selling albums of all time by anyone anywhere, includes (You Make Me Feel Like) A Natural Woman, I Feel the Earth Move, You've Got a Friend, and more by this influential singer-songwriter. (COL34946) CS: 8.98 ... CD: 15.98

Cocteau Twins

Blue Bell Knoll

This group is one of the most oft-requested by folks who kindly offer suggestions for artists they believe should be represented in our catalog (please feel free; we appreciate them!), so we thought we'd try a title. The Twins consist of one woman, Elizabeth Frazer, who writes and sings the bizarre lyrics (we are told; lyrics not included) in a sweet, resonant soprano (Kate Bush meets Jane Siberry), and two men who play the very melodic music. They're favorites in Britain, not nearly as well-known here, and very prolific, with over 20 albums in their discography. (CAP90892) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 15.98

Heaven or Las Vegas

This 1990 release is for Cocteau Twins fans who already have all their back catalog. Includes Iceblink Luck, Wolf in the Breast, Fotzepolitic, Frou-frou Foxes in Midsummer Fires. (CAP93669) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 15.98

Greatest Hits (Double Set)

For the hard-core fan, this is of course the definitive collection; it contains If I Had A Hammer, Guantanamera, Aunt Rhodie, Goodnight Irene, Wimoweh, and 20 others. (VAN1516) CS: 11.98 ... CD: 15.98

The Weavers at Carnegie Hall

From the 1955 concert that launched the folk renaissance. Includes Wimoweh, Kisses Sweeter Than Wine, Shalom Chevarim, Woody's Rag & 900 Miles, Goodnight Irene. (VAN73101) CS: 6.98 ... CD: 14.98

Dark Adapted Eye

This British diva of modern rock creates a vivid earthy - interspersed - with - ethereal tableau of images, sounds, rhythms; many drawn as though from East Asian industrial funk-yards! She wrote all lyrics, most of the music, and plays guitars, keyboards, bass, flute, sitar, kalimba, percussion, and drone guitar. Lyrics are a bit strange (we should be surprised?) and her vocal style swings from rich and full to high and floating. Move over, Ms. Bush. 20 songs. (WB25618) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 15.98

Blast the Human Flower

Less instrumentally diverse than her previous album, this 1990 release is nonetheless quintessentially danceable Dax — though twin themes of sensuality and morbidity run through her work, Blast dances a little closer to the edge. Includes King Crack, Big Blue '82, The Id Parade, Daisy, plus a cool 90's version of Lennon & McCartney's Tomorrow Never Knows. (WB26126) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 15.98

Edie Brickell & New Bohemians

Shooting Rubberbands at the Stars

Artfully blending the music, ambience, sentiments, and vocal and lyrical styles of the Bohemian 50's, folk-rock 60's, punk 70's, and New Folk/ New Age 80's, Edie adds her own light touches and distinguishing signature to her debut album of original material. Primary instrumentation consists of guitars of various sorts—many of them electric—drums and bass; and her vocal quality is somewhat reminiscent of Suzanne Vega, Michelle Shocked, Christine Lavin...you get the picture. (GEF24192) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 15.98

Ghost of a Dog

Picking up where their first album left off, this release uses a more varied instrumentation to produce a slightly smoother sound. Opening with the catchy and clever Mama Help Me, Edie weaves words into that distinctive bohemian sound. Also includes Carmelito, a lighthearted tale of infidelity, and the romantic Times Like This. (GEF24304) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 15.98

The Ellen James Society

Reluctantly We

This 2-woman 2-man band combines the riveting energy of the punk movement with post-punk intricacy and accuracy... their music demands attention, captivating the listener both musically and lyrically. Lots of Indigo Girls connections: the album features a live cut recorded with them; the two ensembles have been touring together; this record label was created by Amy Ray of the Indigo Girls; and she co-produced it with the 2 women of the band, Chris McGuire and Cooper Seay. You might recognize the Society's name from The World According to Garp; Ellen James was a woman whose tongue was cut out by her rapist, and many women cut out their own tongues to express their support for her. (DAE01) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Eurythmics

Sweet Dreams

In addition to being a fantastic musician, leader Annie Lennox has probably been the most visible female artist to represent and promote an image of androgyny in the mid-80's pop scene. Contains their debut hit Sweet Dreams Are Made of This. (RCA4681) CS: 8.98 ... CD: 15.98

Be Yourself Tonight

Aretha Franklin teams up with Annie Lennox here to perform the phenomenal feminist declaration Sisters Are Doing It For Themselves!...a song to celebrate the conscious liberation of the female state/ Mothers, daughters and their daughters too! Woman to woman/ We're singing with you...Sisters are doing it for themselves/ Standin' on their own two feet/ And ringin' on their own bells." (RCA5429) CS: 8.98 ... CD: 15.98

Exene Cervenka

Running Sacred

"Iconoclast" is defined by Webster's as "1. One who destroys or opposes the use of sacred images, 2. One who attacks traditional beliefs or institutions." Exene exemplifies this particular word, quite simply, and goes further to articulate her visions and perspectives in an acoustic/folk/cowgirl rock vein — thoroughly enjoyable, literate, poetic, funny — just do yourself a favor and get it, OK? (RH70757) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 15.98

Old Wives' Tales

During the past decade, Exene has been primarily known for her work with the pioneer band X; her first solo release is more acoustic and folkie in style, but her lyrics are still pointed and somewhat biting. Produced by Tony Gilkyson, who provides some accompaniment and back-up vocals, as does Eliza Gilkyson! Many of the songs here present a woman's perspective: Famous Barmaid, White Trash Wife, She Wanted. (RH70913) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 15.98

Horse

The Same Sky

From the opening song And She Smiled, Horse sets the tone for this "must have" album. Her androgynous look may confuse some (not unintentionally; the label rep we first spoke to was reluctant to confirm the gender of this artist!), but one listen to her multi-octave voice and her "play it till you drop" band should convince you that this album should earn a respected place in your stereo cabinet. Other tracks like The Speed of the Beat of My Heart and Never Not Going To Will prove that an artist with heart, beat and talent can still blend just enough vocal and just enough instrumentation to overwhelm without overpowering. Very highly recommended. (CAP48966) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 15.98

Indigo Girls

We've gotten lots of requests for albums by these two young Georgia women, particularly from our own area where they've played frequently, so as they debut on a major label, we thought it time to answer to our customers' wishes. Folk-rock style, shared and alternated lead vocals, original songs laden with dark, dream-like imagery, expressive of restlessness, need, demons, and ghosts of pain. (EPC45044) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 15.98

Strange Fire

This re-release of their earliest full-length album, originally issued in 1987, contains title cut plus Crazy Game, Hey Jesus, Make It Easier. Production is simple, acoustic. (EPC45427) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 15.98

Indigo Girls, w/Ellen James Society

Nomads * Indians * Saints

While the music of Emily Saliers and Amy Ray is firmly rooted in the folk-rock tradition, this 1990 release leans more towards the contemporary-pop end of the spectrum. Thoughtful, introspective and self-challenging are still apt descriptions of their lyrical content, but the music has a harder edge to it, especially those songs which feature Amy's husky voice. With guest appearances by Mary Chapin Carpenter on Southbound in the Springtime and the Ellen James Society on 1, 2, 3. A must for fans who want to follow the evolution of the band. (EPC46820) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 15.98

Live: Back On the Bus Y'All

This 1991 release is an 8-song album containing live renditions of some of their most-often-requested material from their earlier albums, plus their cover of Dylan's All Along the Watchtower (not currently available on other titles) and a previously released version of 1 2 3 thrown in for good measure. They are accompanied on several selections by the Ellen James Society. Rather than lyrics, you'll find four photos in the insert. (EPC47508) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

The Innocence Mission

The Innocence Mission is basically Karen Peris's vehicle — apologies to the rest of the band, it's true! She wrote or co-wrote all of the incredibly evocative, painting-like songs, and plays keyboards & sings, although the word "sings" does not anywhere near adequately convey what she does with her voice... howabout "tempts the angels down for a kiss"? Howabout taking the best vocal elements of Maria McKee, Aimee Mann, Susanna Hoffs & Edie Brickell and rolling them into these amazingly visual sound portraits with a sensual pop twist? Howabout treating yourself to this album? I'd advise it... (AM15274) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 15.98

Jane Olivor

In Concert

Many customers have put in requests for titles by this vocalist, and we see why... gorgeous, expressive voice, excellent selection of songs. This 1982 release contains Pretty Girl, Annie's Song, and more. (COL37938) CS: 6.98 ... CD: 13.98

First Night/ Chasing Rainbows

This specially priced 2-on-1 cassette contains 2 entire albums: songs include Come Softly To Me, L'important C'Est La Rose, Lalena, The French Waltz, and 16 more heartfelt interpretations. (COL38224) CS: 9.98

Jane Siberry

No Borders Here

One of the most highly recommended recordings in our catalog and even better than her first: lyrically and instrumentally adventuresome, features beautiful harmonics and harmonies, electricity: takes you on a journey. Includes Dancing Class, Waitress, Extra Executives, Symmetry. Like new air for old, tired, cynical ears. The form here is more rock/new wave (not acoustic) and again we don't know which category to place it in. Your record collection, perhaps? (OA0302) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 15.98

Bound By the Beauty

Newly announced as we go to press, and certainly bound to be beautiful, as she's one of our very favorite artists. (REP25942) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 15.98

Jane Siberry

The first release by an artist most of you are familiar with (we hope), this Toronto-based musician has, for good reason, been likened to Joni Mitchell, Dory Previn, and the Roches, and we'd add Ferron to that, but she's too quirky to really be like anyone else. These are clever, imaginative original songs; Jane accompanies her voice with ringing harmonies plus guitar, piano, synthesizer, and co-produced on her label. There isn't an accurate category for this album...it has strains of folk and even punk, in her bizarre sense of humor. One of the best here is The Mystery of Ogwen's Farm, a lament for a cow who disappeared. Our endorsement is qualified by the lyrics to one song which promote a generalized, oppressive misconception about why fat women are fat (fear of being attractive to men)...but all in all, the strengths outweigh this flaw, and we highly recommend this for all the other cuts. (STR002) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Janis Joplin

Pearl

This classic contains Me and Bobby McGee, Mercedes Benz, Cry Baby, A Woman Left Lonely, Buried Alive in the Blues, and more. (COL30322) CS: 6.98 ... CD: 13.98

Janis Joplin's Greatest Hits

Includes Summertime, Piece of My Heart, Ball and Chain, Me and Bobby McGee, accompanied by Big Brother and the Holding Company, Kozmic Blues Band, and Full Tilt Boogie Band. (COL32168) CS: 6.98 ... CD: 13.98

Farewell Song

Contains material which was never released prior to her death, some from live performances. Includes Tell Mama, Medley: Amazing Grace/Hi Heel Sneakers, One Night Stand with the Butterfield Blues Band, and title song, with an eerie reference to dying at the end. (COL37569) CS: 6.98 ... CD: 13.98

Jennifer Warnes

Best of Jennifer Warnes

Some of her biggest hits here, including Right Time of the Night, I Know A Heartache When I See One, Shot Through the Heart, I'm Restless, Come To Me, and more, from 1976 through 1982. (ARI8348) CS: 8.98 ... CD: 14.98

Famous Blue Raincoat

Inspired interpretations of 9 songs by one of the '60s most important songwriters, Leonard Cohen — Jean of Arc, Song of Bernadette, Bird On a Wire — performed in Jennifer's inimitable vocal style, recorded in 1986. (PVT2092) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 15.98

Jill Sobule

Things Here Are Different

With vocal and harmonic references to Jane Siberry, Chynna Phillips and Susanna Hoffs, this Todd Rundgren-produced album contains Jill's heartfelt, literate songwriting with easy, flowing, rhythmic accompaniment... including an all-women's philharmonic string quartet on 3 songs! Thoroughly enjoyable. (MCA6375) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 15.98

Joan Armatrading

Back to the Night

One of her best albums, from back in '74, when she played her distinctive acoustic guitar a lot and developed a style totally unlike anyone else's. Contains two exceptionally beautiful love songs, Dry Land and Come When You Need Me, which she co-wrote with Pam Nestor, and which she completes with some fine piano. Also the memorable title song and No Love For Free. (AM3141) CS: 8.98 ... CD: 14.98

Whatever's For Us

Joan's very first recorded work, at age 22, a collaboration with Pam Nestor — almost all acoustic and all as lovely as the magical jacket. Joan was born in St. Kitts in 1950, Pam in Guyana in '48. Both moved to England during childhood, met in '69 and started writing together shortly afterwards, to create classics like Visionary Mountains, Gave It a Try, and the title love song. Recommended! (AM3227) CS: 8.98 ... CD: 14.98

Joan Armatrading

Includes Love and Affection, Down to Zero, Save Me, Somebody Who Loves You. (AM3228) CS: 8.98 ... CD: 14.98

Show Some Emotion

With the title song, Woncha Come On Home, Opportunity, Mama Mercy, Willow, this 1977 release showcases her distinctive throaty vocals and superb guitar style. (AM3273) CS: 8.98 ... CD: 14.98

Me, Myself, I

Joan's first venture into a rowdier, slightly-more-commercial sound, and a highly successful one, too. The beat is punchy and throbbing, the vocals clipped and exuberant. Includes title cut, Ma-Me-O Beach, When You Kisses Me, All the Way from America. (AM3316) CS: 8.98 ... CD: 14.98

Track Record

A sort of "Greatest Hits" album, which really demonstrates her diversity. Includes cuts from The Key, Walk Under Ladders, Me Myself I, Joan Armatrading, Show Some Emotion, and the EP How Cruel. Also features two songs not recorded elsewhere, Heaven and Frustration. (AM3319) CS: 8.98 ... CD: 14.98

To the Limit

Includes Your Letter, You Rope You Tie Me, Bottom to the Top and her classic statement on homophobia, Taking My Baby Uptown. (AM4732) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 15.98

Sleight of Hand

This 1986 release, written, arranged and produced by Joan, includes Kind Words (And A Real Good Heart) ("doesn't mean you get respect"), Reach Out, Laurel and the Rose, and a bargain price on the CD! (AM5130) LP: 8.98 ... CS: 8.98 ... CD: 14.98

The Shouting Stage

On this 1988 release, the subject matter is relationships: jealous ones, cheating ones, those that have reached the "shouting stage," unequal ones ("Man likes to own/ A woman shares/ Man has his needs/ A woman cares"). Includes A Woman Needs, Living For You, Stronger Love. (AM5211) LP: 10.98 ... CS: 10.98 ... CD: 15.98

Hearts and Flowers

This 1990 release, all written, performed and arranged by Joan, can best be described as the alter ego to The Shouting Stage. The subject matter is once again relationships, but this time focuses on the positive side: she explores the depth of true friendship in More Than One Kind of Love; talks about finding true love only when the rules of society are abandoned in Promise Land; and describes the wonderful changes in a person's outlook when love is found in The Power of Dreams. A must for fans, and a great place to start for newcomers to her unique blend of synthesized sounds and tender ballads. (AM5298) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 15.98

Mean Old Man

Note new low price!! Content the same as The Amazing Joan Armatrading, a Dutch reissue of Whatever's For Us, plus the song Lonely Lady, (not recorded on any US releases to our knowledge), a great rock tune co-written with Pam Nestor. (PMC34) CS: 6.98

John and Mary

Victory Gardens

Because John was a founding member of 10,000 Maniacs, comparisons of Natalie Merchant to Mary Ramsey are inevitable — OK, they both have lovely unique voices, the beautiful instrumentation here is stylistically similar to the Maniacs (so if you like the 10,000, you're bound to like this 1), and the lyrics are thoughtful and poetic. But the comparisons stop there! Mary is a classically trained violinist and viola player who co-wrote many of the songs here, and whose voice blends a folk purity with a wavering sweetness. Includes a lovely version of Un Canadien Errant. (RYK203) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Joni Mitchell

Court & Spark

We think this is one of her best releases ever; so we're offering it for all you nostalgic types. (ASY1001) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Chalk Mark in a Rain Storm

This 1988 release, which features guest artists such as Peter Gabriel, Willie Nelson, Billy Idol, Tom Petty, and Wayne Shorter, contains Lakota, My Secret Place, The Tea Leaf Prophecy (Lay Down Your Arms), and others, as she address the institutions of militarism, materialism, marriage and more. Also: her lovely version of the traditional Corinna, Corinna, which she calls A Bird That Whistles. (GEF24172) CS: 8.98 ... CD: 15.98

Night Ride Home

From the first cricket call on the title song, this album pulls the listener in with its mellow, sensuous sound. Described as a mixture of her older and more recent styles, this 1991 release is highly accessible yet still retains the Joni Mitchell stamp of individuality. With a richness musically, lyrically, and vocally, titles include Cherokee Louise, about an abused child, Slouching Towards Bethlehem, and Ray's Dad's Cadillac. Strongly suggested listening material. (GEF24302) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 15.98

Blue

Here's another classic classic, if it's time to replace that old worn-out vinyl! (REP2039) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Karla Bonoff

Karla Bonoff

One of our favorites, with Lose Again, Isn't It Always Love, Someone to Lay Down Beside Me. Most songs are original; in addition to her outstanding voice, she contributes piano and acoustic guitar; Wendy Waldman and Linda Ronstadt on background vocals. (COL34672) CS: 6.98 ... CD: 13.98

Restless Nights

Includes the beautifully harmonic song Baby Don't Go and The Water Is Wide. We love her. Midline. (COL35799) CS: 6.98 ... CD: 13.98

New World

This 1988 release is a collection of new original songs by one of our favorite artists; it's a varied album, demonstrating depth of lyric and breadth of style, and underscoring her songwriting talents; some of these are bound to become classics, as many of her earlier songs did...and her voice still elicits pure emotion. She made this album exactly as she wanted to, and the quality shows. (GC171014) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 15.98

Kate Bush

The Sensual World

Complex, layered, and allegorical songs, with instruments such as Uilleann pipes and Celtic harp, combine to make one of Kate's typically weird yet most accessible albums to date. The most surprising element here is the fact that several songs feature vocal contributions by the Trio Bulgarka. Includes Deeper Understanding, portraying a computer that has become the primary source for companionship, and Rocket's Tail, on which the Trio's vocal harmonies are a prominent and integral part of the song's structure. (COL44164) LP: 10.98 ... CS: 10.98 ... CD: 15.98

Lionheart

Note savings on LPI! The mellowest Kate Bush we've found, if Kate can ever be called mellow... Symphony in Blue and Oh England My Lionheart are both melancholy and beautiful, while Kashka from Baghdad is a light, shimmering piece about two men in love, and Fullhouse documents the inner splits and struggles that we face as women. (EMI17008) LP: 8.98 ... CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

The Dreaming

This album wins the "Wildness of the Year" Award—the instrumentation is exquisitely intricate and complex, using an assortment of electric pianos, synthesizers, Uilleann pipes, pennywhistle, bouzouki, mandolins, etc. The vocals are lower than Kate's usual siren blast—perhaps she's been coached by Nina Hagen on this one? But the real strength lies in the lyrics—she creates surreal landscapes of fantasy and fact—no clear lines here...The title song is an eerie, haunting recreation of a dream about the colonization of Australia—sure to give goosebumps! Other songs include: Night of the Swallow, Get Out of My House, Suspended in Gaffa, and Houdini—the jacket is a somewhat disturbing photo related to a line in the song ("with a kiss I'd pass the key"). Recommended. (EMI17084) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Never For Ever

No question, strangeness reigns. The general mood of this LP is one of fantasy (Breathing, The Wedding List), with a little frenzy thrown in (Violin). The vocal impact of Kate's sometimes chilling harmonies is stunning. Great instrumental back-up. Also includes Army Dreamers and Babooshka. Import. (EMI17115) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Hounds of Love

This 1985 recording resembles little in Kate's previous discography. Images of spirituality and conflicting layers of consciousness pervade; myth and reality merge and split love and life and death and rebirth—you'll be lucky to land with your feet on the ground! Instrumentation is similarly textured: subtle vocals and piano peek through wave after wave of electronically-altered keyboards, drums, vocals, a wide array of synthesizers. Side 2 is subtitled "The Ninth Wave" in reference to Tennyson's The Coming of Arthur. Highly, highly recommended for the acoustically challenged. (EMI17171) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

The Whole Story

This is a BEST OF album, with some of her most well-known cuts from previous recordings including Babooshka, Wow, Breathing, Wuthering Heights, Hounds of Love, The Dreaming. (EMI17242) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 16.98

Laura Nyro

Christmas and the Beads of Sweat

One of her most wonderful early albums; includes Brown Earth; When I Was A Freeport And You Were The Main Drag; Up On The Roof, and more. (COL30259) CS: 6.98 ... CD: 13.98

Laura Nyro and Labelle

Gonna Take a Miracle

Sweet, wild harmonies, and some great old tunes—Monkey Time, Dancing in the Streets, Spanish Harlem, Jimmy Mack, I Met Him on a Sunday. Nydia Mata on congas and bongos. (COL30987) CS: 6.98 ... CD: 13.98

Nested

Original songs about passion, the universe, and her unborn child. Also some social commentary, as in American Dreamer: "Autumn's child is catchin' hell! For having been too naive to tell! Property rights from wedding bells..." Cut-out, limited quantity. (COL35449) CS: 6.98

Eli and the Thirteenth Confession

Includes Woman's Blues, Emmie, Stoned Soul Picnic, Sweet Blindness. (COL9626) CS: 6.98 ... CD: 13.98

Laura Nyro

Laura-Live at the Bottom Line 2-Set

This 1989 double release comes after a long hiatus, and coincides with her appearance at the Michigan Womyn's Music Festival! Includes both classics from her repertoire and new songs: Emmie, the beautiful love song to a woman, plus Women of the One World, My Innocence/Sophia (Sophia: goddess of wisdom), Stoned Soul Picnic, And When I Die, The Confession, High Heeled Sneakers, in wonderful in-concert renditions. Recommended! (CYP6430) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 16.98

Laurie Anderson

Mister Heartbreak

Oh, Missus Lady! This album will put you under Laurie Anderson's magical spell, as she takes you on a journey through lush, surreal musical landscapes. The high level of structural and emotional diversity seems impossible to attain, but the universal result will reach into the tender depths of any listener's soul. Gorgeous instrumentation (Korean kayagum, synclavier, electronic conches, shakere, violin, bells, wood blocks, guitars, bass, bamboo, to name a few) with help from such talents as Roma Baran, Peter Gabriel, Bill Laswell, Anton Fier, William Burroughs, Phoebe Snow...Songs include: Kokoku, Blue Lagoon, Excellent Birds, Sharkey's Day, Sharkey's Night, Gravity's Angel. Highly recommended, if you hadn't already guessed. (WB25077) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Big Science

This excellent album is a wonderfully bizarre compilation of poetic musings taken from an original body of work entitled United States I-IV. The rhythm and flow of the lyrics are enhanced by the synthetic re-structuring of Laurie's voice...various electronic "instruments" and synthesizers work to render it from a clipped and almost inhuman chant to an echo-y and dreamlike narration...spooky fun! Songs include: Sweaters, O Superman, It Tango. Co-produced by the talented Roma Baran. Highly recommended. (WB3674) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Strange Angels

Two intense years in the making, this 1989 release is Laurie's most direct to date, more melodic, with Laurie somehow more emotionally exposed than in previous recordings. Her vocal abilities are more upfront (hey, she's a soprano!), and she incorporates vocal contributions from such greats as Bobbie McFerrin and the Roches. Includes Beautiful Red Dress, a paean to her period ("look out baby! I'm at high tide") with sarcastic references to unequal pay for equal work ("for every dollar a man makes a woman makes 63 cents. Now, fifty years ago that was 62 cents. So, with that kind of luck, it'll be the year 3,888 before we make a buck"). Angels are another primary theme, and their counterparts, devils, too. A significant piece in the developing vision of this artist — recommended! (WB25900) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 15.98

Home of the Brave

Note sale price on LP's! This digital soundtrack from the film features the elements we've come to expect from this prolific artist: Roma Baran's creative and crisp production, the layers of sound and aural color, and of course, Laurie's wry and teasing view of American culture and society. (WB25400) LP: 7.98 ... CS: 9.98

Madonna

Immaculate Collection (Double Play)

This 17-song long-playing album contains a long string of hits, plus two "new" (at the time of release) hits-to-be, Justify My Love and Rescue Me. Includes: Like A Virgin (how could you not have a new appreciation of this song, after seeing her film?), Material Girl, Express Yourself, Holiday, Papa Don't Preach, Into the Groove, and many more...relentless beat, tireless energy, as each step of the way, she has continued to push boundaries to a new outer edge. (SIR26440) CS: 14.98 ... CD: 19.98

Mama Cass

Dream a Little Dream of Me

Nina Hagen

Nun Sex Monk Rock

A leading figure in the Euro-punk/avant-garde movement in the late 70's, East German Nina Hagen utilizes her voice in ways the listener wouldn't recognize as humanly possible. This 1982 tape represents her at what seems to be the wildest point in her English-speaking recording career— shrieks and guttural groans, crashing guitars and drums—sure to make an impact at any party! (COL38008) CS: 6.98

Nona Hendryx

Female Trouble

This 1987 album from this power-filled, passionate singer-songwriter — now at a great price — is dedicated to Winnie Mandela, and contains Winds of Change (Mandela to Mandela), a beautiful tribute, as well as Too Hot to Handle, Drive Me Wild, and other tunes, mostly original, brimming with sexuality, desire and confidence — the sparks do fly! With Peter Gabriel on vocals and keyboards. (EMI46550) CS: 6.98 ... CD: 11.98

SkinDiver

From Labelle to here: it's been a long trip! This album is one of the year's most difficult to categorize; the rhythmic, exotic sound effects, almost all programmed by Nona on computer, synthesizer, drum machine and electronic percussion, provide the background for the intensely searching lyrics of her original songs. She embarks on a journey through the inner recesses of her spirit, and shares her discoveries. Includes Women Who Fly, 6th Sense, Interior Voices. Recommended! (PVT2055) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 16.98

Oleta Adams

Circle of One

Discovered in a small hotel piano bar by the band Tears for Fears, Oleta was first tapped to contribute vocals to their 1989 album — in fact, they refused to finish recording until she consented to quit her job and join them! One listen to the smoky, glowing embers of her incredible voice shows you why! Features the hit Get Here, plus Rhythm of Life as well as title, I've Got a Right and other originals. Pull up a comfy chair, pour a cup of tea, and warm yourself by her fire! (PLG846348) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 15.98

Patti Smith

Easter

This is our favorite Patti Smith album jacket... where else in the commercial realm did you see hairy armpits on a woman in 1978? Includes Rock n Roll Nigger, opening with frantic poetry; Because the Night, co-written with Springsteen; Space Monkey; Babelogue, High on Rebellion. (ARI8349) CS: 6.98 ... CD: 14.98

Dream of Life

Finally, the album that so many have been awaiting, as Patti comes bounding out of a long retirement with this 1988 release. Beginning with the visionary People Have the Power and ending with the gentle lullaby The Jackson Song, she explores the relationships and the thin boundaries between dreaming and waking life, heaven and earth, physical and spirit worlds...showing she has lost neither her punch nor her poetry. (ARI8453) CS: 6.98 ... CD: 14.98

Wave

Patti's final album before her 9-year hiatus is a tightly-produced culmination of her ideals and her art. It is also the most emotionally absorbing, in this reviewer's opinion...The ethereal, yet powerful Hymn twinned with the gut-wrenching Revenge creates an impact as yet unmatched, and Citizen Ship combines the personal and political realities of immigration to the "land of the free" in a stark, uncompromising dirge. Buy this; it's worth your time. (ARI8546) CS: 6.98 ... CD: 14.98

The Best of Phoebe Snow

Includes Harpo's Blues (I Wish I Was a Willow), Teach Me Tonight, Poetry Man, and Don't Let Me Down. (COL37091) CS: 6.98 ... CD: 13.98

Something Real

Note LP bargain price! Phoebe's first release in many years communicates a sense of groundedness and maturity. About half are originals, including I'm Your Girl and title cut...glad to have her back! (EL60852) LP: 8.98 ... CS: 10.98 ... CD: 15.98

Pretenders

This classic recording, featuring Chrissie Hynde — one of the hottest women rockers ever — was voted into the "Top 100 Rock 'N' Roll Recordings of All Time." Includes such faves as Precious, The Wait, and Brass in Pocket. (SIR6083) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Rickie Lee Jones

Flying Cowboys

Her best ever, take our word for it...right from the opening cut. Flight seems to be a theme here, as well as her usual collage/kaleidoscope of wonderful images, personalities, truths, emotion, nuances and poetic clips. Includes Rodeo Girl. (GEF24246) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 15.98

Pop Pop

This 1981 release is a sparse, acoustic, jazz-influenced album, featuring songs both familiar and obscure...an intriguing collection. Includes Bye Bye Blackbird, Spring Can Really Hang You Up the Most, Up From the Skies. (GEF24426) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 15.98

Pirates

No one can imitate the smoke-swirling-in-the-air vocals of this woman—like an ambience, sometimes a reed instrument, sometimes a rhythm instrument; and, no one writes songs quite like she does: image-laden like dreams, snatches of stories; sensual, sparse, street-kid tough, understated like good poetry. Includes We Belong Together, Woody and Dutch on Slow Train to Peking. (WB3432) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Robin Holcomb

The NY times said about this 1990 debut release: "Ms. Holcomb has done something remarkable here: she has created a new American regionalism, spun from many threads — country rock, minimalism, Civil War songs, Baptist Hymns, Appalachian folk tunes, even the polytonal music of Charles Ives. The music that results is as elegantly simple as a Shaker quilt, and no less beautiful." Since we were at a loss for words here, we're glad someone else wasn't! Her style could also be described as New Music "folk"... unusual in every respect, from voice to lyric to melody to subject matter. (EL60983) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 15.98

Sade

Diamond Life

Contains her number 1 hit, Smooth Operator, and should be in your collection of classic albums by great female vocalists! (COL39581) CS: 8.98 ... CD: 14.98

The Shirelles

This "greatest hits" collection includes Soldier Boy, Dedicated to the One I Love, Will You Love Me Tomorrow, Mama Said, I Met Him On a Sunday. (EV4102) CS: 5.98 ... CD: 10.98

Sinead O'Connor

I Do Not Want What I Haven't Got

This 1990 release opens with the Serenity Prayer and ends with the title cut which sounds like a Buddhist meditation; in-between are songs about topics ranging from social statements to the physical aspects of love to recognition of spiritual realities and inner strength. Includes Nothing Compares 2 U and I Am Stretched On Your Grave: ("my grief for the girl that I loved as a child... the priests and the friars/ approach me in dread/ because I still love you... if your hand were in mine I'd be sure we'd not sever/ my apple tree my brightness"). (CHR21759) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 15.98

The Lion and the Cobra

Sinead has been part of the renaissance of women artists which has been the surprise of the 1988 commercial music scene. Her debut album is raw, intense, and varied, demonstrating her own quick extremes and contradictions (lustful yet demure; wild and loud yet innocent) as well as her ability to create within a multitude of musical styles. (CHR41612) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 15.98

Stealin Horses

The Stealin Horses duo is Kiya Heartwood on acoustic guitar and vocals, Kopana Terry on drums and backing vocals, and their music is in synch with the current major-label visibility for female artists whose material is both progressive politically and accessible. Their folk-rock originals include their own Harriet Tubman (different from the version sung by Kate Taylor, Holly and Ronnie); Walk Away, about a woman alone trying to keep her farm; Ballad of the Pralltown Cafe, shut down by town officials for being a place where blacks and whites mingled. (ARI8520) LP: 8.98 ... CS: 8.98 ... CD: 14.98

Stevie Nicks

The Other Side of the Mirror

A special for you bargain-hunters! Stevie is known for her many years with Fleetwood Mac, as well as for her accomplishments as a solo artist in her own right. Her silvery voice, always her trademark, here graces mostly original songs, including Juliet and Alice. This 1989 album is dedicated to "Alice (in wonderland), my grandmother, the Queen of Hearts." (ATL91245) CS: 4.98 ... CD: 10.98

Tanita Tikaram

Ancient Heart

There's a quality about this British woman's voice that's almost mesmerizing; it's so deep, yet light and airy; so expressive; so unusual; if you want something with a truly unique sound, try this. All original songs, Tanika on all vocals and guitar, very tastefully and simply produced; recommended! (REP25839) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 15.98

The Sweet Keeper

This follow-up to her debut album contains more original songs of inner secrets and stories, in her amazing, exotic voice that's a good octave below most women's ranges — and that much richer. Beautiful melodies and arrangements; includes Little Sister Leaving Town, Once & Not Speak. (REP26091) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 15.98

Everybody's Angel

This 1991 release manages to be incredibly rich, simple and sophisticated all at the same time. While the list of instruments is impressive in itself — fugel horn, alto and tenor sax, trumpet, guitar, drums, piano, Hammond organ, loop horn, and a whole string orchestra — Tanita's deep, husky voice soars above, weaving through lyrics which defy easy interpretation. Jennifer Warnes provides vocal support on Mud In Any Water and Only the Ones We Love. (REP26486) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 15.98

10,000 Maniacs

In My Tribe

Natalie Merchant is the eloquent lead singer of this band, of special note to some of us because Tracy Chapman opened for them at the beginning of her new release tour (to return as the main act weeks later...) — apparently Natalie was at least in part responsible for choosing their opening act, and it's easy to see why: there's a similarity in their content. She wrote or co-wrote most of the songs, and they are a medium in which she expresses her socio-political observations on such subjects as child abuse, greed, the military, and even the beat generation! (EL60738) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 15.98

Blind Man's Zoo

Natalie Merchant offers a second album full of musical, lyrical, pointed song-vignettes. She gracefully tackles topics from poverty to environmental pollution to war to imperialism to racism, powerfully communicating messages of conscience in songs like Hateful Hate, Jubilee, The Lion's Share, Dust Bowl, Poison in the Well. May the radio signals ever be filled with sounds like these! (EL60815) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 15.98

Tetes Noires

Clay Foot Gods

Their third and most interesting, complex album to date; and, they now have a drummer! Described as "hipper than the Raincoats, more topical than the Andrews Sisters, and more numerous than the Roches," this 6-woman band from Minneapolis utilizes multi-harmonies and original material which pokes fun at the American institutions various people hold dear. Includes Dear Jane and Why Are The Farmers Dying? (ROU9008) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Throwing Muses

Hunkpapa

Biting, disjointed lyrics and driving, sometimes danceable instrumentation give this unique 3-woman 1-man band (guitars, bass, piano, percussion, vocals) a unique style. The first cut Devil's Roof sounds a bit like a demented Suzanne Vega with a full back-up band... Features original songs by band-members Kristin Hersh and Tanya Donelly, with no feelings spared in the lyrics in songs like Mania and Fall Down. (SIR25885) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 15.98

'Til Tuesday

Welcome Home

This 1988 release is just the thing to put on the stereo after a hard day at the grind — the lyrics are sweet, soothing, wistful, literate and sensitive, to use just a few appropriate adjectives! Bassist and songwriter Aimee Mann also happens to have one of the most gorgeous voices this reviewer has ever heard — trust me, and give this a try... Includes Coming Up Close, Lovers' Day, Angels Never Call, and No One is Watching You Now. Oh yeah, most enthusiastically recommended! (EPC40314) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Everything's Different Now

Many documentations of the loss of one's lover would simply wallow in melancholy and blame, boring us to tears — well, this is certainly not the case here! As with any exceptional artist, Aimee Mann has taken the stuff of her life and skillfully transformed it into a thing of beauty. Some of the songs on this 1988 release do reflect pain, yes, but with such sweet candor and desire to process what went wrong and get on with life, that the listener is gifted with the resulting recording — highly recommended, if you hadn't already guessed! (EPC44041) CS: 6.98 ... CD: 13.98

Toni Childs

Union

Infused with polyethnic rhythms, moods, arrangements and background vocal styles, Toni's debut album showcases her amazingly rich, deep, full, expressive, emotive, powerhouse voice (at intermittent moments recalling Joan Armatrading or Nina Simone) as well as her conceptual, songwriting, and collaborative abilities. Zimbabwe and other cuts feature vocal tracks by African choirs from Zambia and Swaziland. This album offers depth and sustained interest; each listening will uncover new strands and layers...recommended! (AM5175) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 15.98

House of Hope

Combining a voice like Roland Gift's and the intensity of Melissa Etheridge, Toni Childs adds something all her own to create unique and compelling songs. Her themes on this latest album are varied — spouse and child abuse, failing in love, angst — but no simple phrase can express the nuances she manages to pack into each piece. With a great voice, complex music and soul-searching lyrics, this is a fantastic follow-up to a promising debut album. Listen for the title song during one of the driving sequences in the movie Thelma and Louise. (AM5358) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 15.98

R&B ♦ Rap ♦ Dance

Adele

This New Jersey native turned European sensation, where she is the undisputed queen of "house" music, exudes tremendous lung power as well as a volcanic eruption of attitude and conviction. With driving acid house beats and stirring melodies, the tracks on this debut album encapsulate the energy and excitement of the 90's dance boom. By the time of its 1990 release in the US, it had already gone platinum and gold in several countries around the world. Includes her incredible dance cover of Respect, plus Musical Freedom, Warning!, I Thank You. Recommended! (CAP93708) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 15.98

Aretha Franklin

What You See Is What You Sweat

This hot 1991 release includes Everyday People, Mary Goes Round, Ever Changing Times, and her electrifying version of I Dreamed A Dream, from the Broadway show Les Miserables, which she has adapted as an unforgettable tribute to Martin Luther King. (ARI8628) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 15.98

Aretha's Greatest Hits

Includes Respect, Natural Woman, Baby I Love You, Do Right Woman, Do Right Man, Spanish Harlem, Chain of Fools...in other words, just what the title says. (ATL8295) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Aretha Sings the Blues

Aretha explores one aspect of the roots of soul and rock here, and presents blues and jazz/torch numbers: Muddy Water, Laughing On the Outside (Crying On the Inside), and more. (COL40105) CS: 6.98 ... CD: 13.98

The Triplets

...Thicker Than Water

Diana, Sylvia and Vicky Villegas were born 7 minutes apart and raised by their American Mom and Mexican Dad in Mexico, where they developed their musical roots at a very young age. They consciously sought to produce an aural picture inspired by personal experiences, memories of Mexico and their American pop music influences. Accomplishing this goal, their debut album showcases their songwriting depth, their vocal power, and their indescribable sisterly harmonies — the heart and soul of their musical identity. They synthesize Latin and pop sounds on most of their songs: Spanish Surrender, Dancing in the Shadows, The Sunrise, and title track, Blood Is Thicker Than Water. Wilson Phillips, move over... Recommended! (PLG848290) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 15.98

Crystal Waters

Surprise

This artist performed at NYC Gay Pride in 1991, and is popular in the Gay Community there, as well as supportive of it. She creates general as well as some pretty PG dance music, such as Gypsy Woman (She's Homeless)...in fact she has two versions of it on this 1991 album. (PLG848894) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 15.98

En Vogue

Born to Sing

This vocal quartet, besides having beautiful voices, also co-wrote several of the songs. Taking turns at lead vocals, they also do some scorching harmonies (Boogie Woogie Bugle Boy). One song in particular, Hold On, brings to mind a young Evie Harris (Sweet Honey in the Rock). (ATL82084) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 15.98

Gladys Knight & the Pips

The Very Best of ...

Fourteen of their biggest hits, including I've Got To Use My Imagination, Midnight Train to Georgia, Baby Don't Change Your Mind. (SM4909) CS: 6.98 ... CD: 10.98

Grace Jones

Nightclubbing

This recording is Grace's finest, in this reviewer's humble opinion...it combines crucial elements of island rhythms and rock/disco riffs to create a sultry, smoky-hot compilations of dance tunes. Recommended! (PLG842368) LP: 8.98 ... CS: 8.98 ... CD: 15.98

Irma Thomas

Live: Simply the Best

This New Orleansian singer's career has spanned over 30 years, and this is her first live recording! It also functions as a sort of "Greatest Hits" compilation, covering classics such as Hip Shakin' Mama, Otis Redding's I've Been Loving You Too Long medleyed with Please, Please, Please, plus contemporary covers like That's What Love is All About. If you want to experience an intimate, joyously rhythmic evening with a fantastically fun woman, put this on! (ROU2110) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Monie Love

Down to Earth

Perhaps familiar to you as Queen Latifah's partner on the incendiary Ladies First, or perhaps from her radio hit, It's A Shame — regardless, buy this immediately, put it on your stereo, push the "repeat" button, and get ready for some serious fun! Monie is one of the few female rappers who doesn't spend most of her time complaining about or fending off disses from the guys — she's got better things to do, like telling the music industry bozos Don't Funk Wid the Mo, exhorting her slack sisters to clean up their acts in Pups Lickin' Bone, shrugging off an abusive lover in Just Don't Give A Damn, and thoroughly embodying self respect, independence & a joyous intelligence. Highly recommended! (WB26358) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 15.98

Various Artists

Red Hot & Blue

This collection, created as a benefit for AIDS, is a sensational treatment of Cole Porter songs by hot, current artists. Its range includes a traditional rendition of You Do Something to Me by Sinead O'Connor, a heartbreaking version of So In Love by k.d. lang, and contributions by David Byrne, Annie Lennox, Neneh Cherry, and others. This is one compilation tape that really works, with eclectic nature, originality and imagination...a great album for expanding your horizons! (CHR21799) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 16.98

Various, inc. The Mint Juleps

Do It A Cappella

At this point in 1991, this is the only recorded audio work we have of the oft-requested amazing women's a cappella sextet the Mint Juleps; they perform 3 cuts here: Don't Let your Heart, I Want to Live Easy, and Higher and Higher; and, they collaborate with Ladysmith Black Mambazo on The Lion Sleeps Tonight. Also features works by the Persuasions, Rockapella, Take 6, True Image, and more by Ladysmith. This is the original soundtrack recording from the film starring Spike Lee, Debbie Allen, and the above musicians. (EL60953) CS: 11.98 ... CD: 16.98

Wendy Waldman

Letters Home

She's been one of our faves for years, even though it's not always easy to keep her titles in stock... she has a beautiful voice, kinda bluesy. This 1987 album contains all original songs, and she really rocks out on some of them: This Wall, Destined To Be Wild, The Renegade Side, and more. And, a budget price! (CYP661114) CS: 6.98 ... CD: 12.98

Wilson Phillips

This one will make us (older ones) really feel our ages, because the trio consists of 2 grown daughters of Beach Boy Brian Wilson — Carnie and Wendy — and 1 of Mamas and Papas' Michelle and John Phillips — no, not Paige Matheson, tho she looks kinda like her... it's Chynna! The three women have been friends since early childhood, and their seamless blend of voices parallels this close friendship. The album is characterized by signature harmonies and a sound both innocent and sophisticated, elegant in its simplicity. Several original songs are included, plus their rendition of Tim Hardin's Reason To Believe (again for us old-timers!). (CAP93745) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 15.98

Neneh Cherry

Raw Like Sushi

Neneh Cherry is a hard artist to classify, because she blends techno-pop, rock and rap. One of the contributors to Red Hot & Blue, she addresses timeless yet contemporary issues such as teen lust, birth control, and growing up. Not just for youngsters, this artist is hot, her music danceable and her message vital and clear. Includes Inna City Mama. (VIR91252) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Overweight Pooch

Female Preacher

This 1991 debut album by Overweight Pooch, aka Tonya Davis, is packed with cuts that deliver everything from hard core street rap, to innovative blues/rap fusion, to her own individual style of Hip House: The Overweight Jam, Queen of Rap, Female Preacher (a great dance tune), Feeling Good, Hip House Party, Kickin' Da Blues and more. Female, overweight and proud! (AM5349) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 15.98

The Pointer Sisters

Serious Slamm'n'

Emerging from the age of funk, the Pointer Sisters use and liven up the spirit of today's dance and rap music. This new release features songs like Serious Slamm'n' Shut Up and Dance, and Flirtatious — draw your own conclusions! So if you're ready to dance, let June, Anita and Ruth turn you on. (RCA6562) CS: 6.98

Queen Latifah
All Hail the Queen
 Queen Latifah, a.k.a. Dana Owens, has established herself as one of the most significant forces shaping the powerful fusion of rap, dancehall reggae, hip-hop and funk... with a heaping dose of political content. Included here are the scathing The Evil That Men Do, which attacks the oppressions of racism and poverty; Ladies First ("Stereotypes have got to go"); A King and Queen Creation in which she traces her ancestry, and that of all Black people, back to Queen Nefertiti of Egypt. Mama Gave Birth To the Soul Children, Princess of the Posse. Recommended! (TB1022) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Jeffmajors & Yasmeen
Back To Classics
 Yasmeen is known to many the world over for her 12 years as a member of Sweet Honey in the Rock. This 1989 album is a collection of classics from the African-American church, and includes five hymns plus What the World Needs Now. Yasmeen is the vocalist, Jeffmajors the harper; and actually, they consider this a trio album, featuring the two of them plus the harp, Hanifah, named for an ancient African queen who healed through her incredible beauty. This instrumentation yields new and unique interpretations of spiritual classics. (JY1136) CS: 9.98

(COL37691) CS: 6.98

Sister Rosetta Tharpe
Sincerely, Sister Rosetta Tharpe
 Not just gospel—blues and jazz too—by the foremother who popularized gospel music on the secular stage...at spots such as the Cotton Club and the Apollo. As Sippie Wallace said, "Honey, there ain't no difference (between blues and gospel). In the church we say Jesus, and in the blues we say baby." Many church members felt Rosetta had committed sacrilege, but she felt the Lord would listen wherever she sang. Selections were recorded primarily in the 40's, including Shout Sister, Shout; Swing Low Sweet Chariot; Sometimes I Feel Like a Motherless Child; Down by the Riverside. Several are accompanied by her own hot guitar. Recommended! (ROS1317) CS: 9.98

Soho Goddess
 Soho broke easily into the alternative dance music scene with their hit Hippy Chick, and their rhythm permeates this entire album. This playful release bounces from the light clear lyrics of Out of My Mind, to Girl On a Motorbike, to the happy-with-life-and-love message of Nuthin' on My Mind, to the title cut. We can't say enough about the great beat and danceability of this album, so we dare you to try it and sit still while listening to it! (ATL91585) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 15.98

Yo-Yo
Make Way For the Motherlode
 Familiar to rap fans as the LA high schooler/hip-hopster who puts NWA's Ice Cube in his place, this founder of the Intelligent Black Women's Coalition is a delight as she rhymes her way through such issues as pregnancy, sex, and disrespectful males. Includes Stand Up for Your Rights, You Can't Play with My Yo Yo, Sisterland, The IBWC National Anthem, Girl Don't Be No Fool. Ice Cube shows up to dis and be dissed on one cut. (EW91605) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 15.98

Say Amen, Somebody (Double Set)
 Music from the original soundtrack plus more recorded live in performance. If you saw the documentary film, you witnessed the effervescence and amazing vocal powers of Willie Mae Ford Smith, affectionately known as "Mother Smith," and the Barrett Sisters. Also includes music by Thomas A. Dorsey (called "The Father of Gospel Music," who was Ma Rainey's accompanist back in '24), Zella Jackson Price at the "Mother" Smith Tribute, the O'Neal Twins, and Mahalia Jackson...i.e., many of the gospel greats. (DRG12584) CS: 14.98 ... CD: 18.98

Gospel Warriors
 A wonderful anthology of some of the most exemplary female gospel soloists in history, with recordings from 1931-1982...passionate, dynamic, commanding, and improvisatory...from the sanctified denominations, the only ones in which women were allowed full expressive freedom. Includes cuts by Clara Ward, The Georgia Peach, Sister Rosetta Tharpe, Mary Johnson Davis, Marion Williams, Bessie Griffin, Sister Jessie Mae Renfro, and Francis Steadman. (SF1003) CS: 9.98

Beth Scalet
Blues in Paradise
 The simple exterior of this debut cassette belies the sheer raw power of the interior. Reminiscent at moments of early Ellen McIlwaine, Beth belts out her songs which are all original, yet true to the country blues tradition. She accompanies herself righteously on guitar and harmonica, except on two tracks (including title, winner of a Billboard Song Contest award) which feature fuller bands behind her. She's currently rehearsing an all-woman blues band, and we hope she's making plans to tour the festivals! Highly recommended! (BSC1) CS: 9.98

Big Mama Thornton
Ball N' Chain
 This 60-minute CD is an excellent Big Mama anthology: includes Hound Dog, which she was the first to record and popularize, long before Elvis Presley (and only received $500 for it); title song, one of her originals, recorded also by Janis Joplin; Wade In the Water, Little Red Rooster, Unlucky Girl and more. She was also a drummer and harmonica player, and one selection here features her on both. (ARH305) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Big Mama Thornton
Jail
 Willie Mae Thornton belts the blues on her original songs here (Little Red Rooster, Ball N' Chain, Jail), plus the famous Hound Dog—which she recorded and popularized long before Elvis Presley (and only received $500 for it). Edwin Hawkins' Oh Happy Day, and more. Recorded live at Monroe State Prison and Oregon State Reformatory. Dynamite stuff. (VAN79351) CS: 6.98 ... CD: 14.98

Etta Baker
One-Dime Blues
 She's a virtuosa performer in a style heard infrequently these days — the finger-picked guitar tradition known as the "Piedmont blues." Using a 2- and 3-fingered technique similar to that of other North Carolina guitarists such as Elizabeth Cotten and Reverend Gary Davis, Etta fingerpicks with clarity and precision. However, she never sacrifices emotion for technique, creating music that's remarkable in range and depth — by turns gentle and strong, subtle and assertive. This 1991 album contains her first recordings since 1956: masterworks from an exceptional artist. (ROU2112) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Ida Cox
Wild Women Don't Have the Blues
 A volume originally recorded in 1961. Many folks have since belted this blues song, but here is the woman who wrote & first sang it in 1924...& it's one of the strongest, no-nonsense women's statements ever made. Ida was one of the most important Classic Blues singers of the golden era ("the only decade when women reigned"). This edition is wrapped in entertaining & informative liner notes. (ROS1304) CS: 9.98

Joanna Connors
Believe It!
 Joanna's debut recording amply demonstrates why she is rapidly becoming one of the Chicago blues scene's most sought-after artists, and why she is turning the heads of veteran bluesologists. As vocalist and electric guitarist, she simply sizzles; this is high impact music... searing and supercharged! Exhilarating; recommended. (BP3289) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Katie Webster
Swamp Boogie Queen
 Bonnie Raitt considers Katie's voice "the voice of the century," and makes a guest appearance here, on guitar and vocals, to emphasize her opinion...which we'd agree with. And, she's already released over 500 recordings; it's about time for her to gain some notoriety. This, her first album in several years, is a musical jumbo of blues, gospel, Louisiana swamp pop, r&b and soul, featuring her terrific boogie woogie piano. Includes Who's Making Love?, Black Satin. (ALL4766) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Katie Webster
Two-Fisted Mama!
 To find a better mix of blues, soul and boogie than this, one would have to club-hop in New Orleans for a week! Her booming voice and piano prowess predominate on every song, and the transition from blues to boogie proves to be no challenge for her big league talent. Includes C.Q. Boogie, a song commemorating the birth of her grandchildren, and So Far Away, a gospelized version of the Dire Straits song. Recommended for anyone with an appreciation for the down-home New Orleans sound! (ALL4777) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Abbey Lincoln
Abbey Sings Billie
 This superlative contemporary vocalist matches the emotional intensity of her first influence, Lady Day, in this beautiful tribute. Abbey's efforts as a spokesperson for the civil rights movement became a catalyst for her artistic expression, and much of her previous material was extremely political, so it is no wonder that she includes her interpretation of Strange Fruit here. Recommended! (ENJ79633) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 15.98

Koko Taylor
Queen of the Blues
 On this all out, foot-stomping, house-rocking recording, Koko wraps her giant voice around 10 great songs, including Queen Bee, Flamin' Mamie, Come to Mama, I Can Love You Like a Woman (Or I Can Fight You Like a Man). With guest performances by Albert Collins, James Cotton, Son Seals, and Lonnie Brooks. (ALL4740) CS: 9.98

Koko Taylor
Live From Chicago: Audience w/Queen
 From the Grammy-winning Queen of the Blues, a live recording on which Koko and her band romp, stomp and wail through many of her best-loved tunes: I'm A Woman, Come to Mama, Let the Good Times Roll, and her million-seller, Wang Dang Doodle. She also debuts her own The Devil's Gonna Have a Field Day. Both she and her fans have been waiting for this one. (ALL4754) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Koko Taylor
Jump for Joy
 Lots of original material on this 1990 release from The Queen, which will probably cause you to do as the title suggests! Outstanding sound quality, too. Includes I Don't Want No Lovers, Tired of That, and It's a Dirty Job, with Lonnie Brooks. (ALL4784) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Saffire
The Uppity Blues Women
 The Washington Post describes this as "Sassy, brassy, raunchy...racy blues and ragtime tunes with rollicking jollyroll harmonies. Lean, mean blues by women old enough and frank enough to want what they want when they want it." Their second release includes Even Yuppies Get the Blues, Annie's Blues, Fess Up When You Mess Up. Yeah! (ALL4780) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Saffire
The Middle Aged Blues
 Natural acoustic down-home blues on this debut tape by a culturally and geographically diverse trio: Gaye, a black Virginia Baptist; Earlene, part Cherokee and all Okie; and Ann, a Jewish Ohioan. They rotate vocals on this collection of blues songs, some original, and all play a variety of the following instruments: guitar, bass, piano, harmonica. Includes Middle Aged Boogie Blues, Your Husband's Cheating On Us. Fun! (SAF1) CS: 9.98

Saffire — The Uppity Blues Women
Hot Flash
 If you ever get a chance to see these rowdy blueswomen live, by all means go! Humorous, affirming, bawdy lyrics sung by this multi-racial trio to rollicking acoustic piano, bass, guitar, harmonica & kazoo accompaniment. Titles include Two in the Bush is Better Than One in the Hand, Shopping for Love, Elevator Man, Torch Song #1/#2, No Need Pissin' On a Skunk. Lots of fun! (ALL4796) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Valerie Wellington
Million Dollar Secret
 A strong, wonderful debut album by the popular hot young Chicago blues singer who appeared as Big Maybelle in the movie Great Balls of Fire, the story of rockabilly legend Jerry Lee Lewis; other theatrical roles have included portrayals of Ma Rainey and Bessie Smith — get the picture of her power? This followed her opera and classical training! Includes great originals like Independent Blues; songs that cry out from the blues' most extreme depths like Cold, Cold Feeling; Bessie Smith classics like Dirty No-Gooder's Blues, which harbor no illusions about men... Accompanied by Sunnyland Slim and other Chicago musicians. Recommended for all blues fans! (ROO619) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Sorry But...: Women's RR Blues
 In the 1920's & 1930's, thousands of black men headed north on the trains for the factory jobs...jobs not accessible to women, so they stayed behind. This experience was one the blues were largely founded upon: listen to the sound of the blues harp, to lines like "Goin' to Chicago, sorry but I can't take you." This record gives us the side we haven't heard much about. Again, chock-full of information, both details and overview; the liner notes even explain how early recordings were technically made. Tunes by Bessie Smith, Sippie Wallace, Bessie Jackson, Sister Rosetta Tharpe, & others. (ROS1301) CS: 9.98

Jazz

The Andrews Sisters

The Andrews Sisters
Rarities
 These women crystallized a style of tight harmonies and novelty songs; this re-release contains Boogie Woogie Bugle Boy, Don't Fence Me In, and other classics from a bygone era! (MCA22012) CD: 14.98

Various Artists
Ind. Women's Blues 1: Mean Mothers
 First in a series of Independent Women's Blues...and one of the best, most refreshing anthologies of women's blues in existence. Informative, insightful, fascinating liner notes... good sound quality, which is difficult to obtain with reissues... outstanding selection of material. Includes Bessie Brown's Ain't Much Good in the Best of Men Nowadays (1926), a 1939 Ida Cox recording One Hour Mama (she also wrote Wild Women Don't Get the Blues), Billie Holiday's Baby Get Lost. (ROS1300) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Various Artists
Ind. Women's Blues 2: Big Mamas
 Another dynamite collection of tunes, mostly reissued here for the first time, like Ethel Water's No Man's Mama, Ora Alexander's Men Sure Are Deceiving, Billie Holiday's Now Baby or Never, Rosetta Reitz, who compiled the series, describes in the liner notes some aspects of searching and re-engineering these treasures; background noises are filtered out, yielding a very clean, clear sound quality. (ROS1306) CS: 9.98

Various Artists
Ind. Women's Blues 3: Super Sisters
 An anthology of bawdy blues, most dealing with women's sexuality, others just rowdy in language, spoken or omitted, such as a line by Sweet Peas Spivey (younger sister of Victoria who died at age 33): "When I first met you, I thought I fell in good luck/Now I know you ain't worth a ———." A humorous and delightful compilation and jacket. Songs by Ida Cox, Bertha Idaho, Mildred Bailey, Ella Fitzgerald, Lizzy Miles (Take Your Fingers Off It), Martha Copeland (I Ain't You Hen, Mr. Fly Rooster), and others. (ROS1308) CS: 9.98

Various Artists
Ind. Womn's Blues 4: Sweet Petunias
 More great women's blues, many involving women's sexuality, as you may astutely pick up from the title. Priceless liner notes. (ROS1311) CS: 9.98

Boogie Blues: Women Sing & Play
 Passion, vitality, sensuality, intensity...these are the foundations of the type of blues known as boogie woogie. In fact, Rosetta Reitz, on the liner notes, informs us that the word "boogie" was a euphemism for sex around the turn of the century, and that "to boogie and the boogie beat were integral to the blues." Boogie woogie was referred to as "fast western" or "fast blues," as differentiated from the slow blues of New Orleans and St. Louis. Sixteen cuts from 1930 to 1961, including Christine Chatman's The Boogie Woogie Girl, Hazel Scott's Brown Bee Boogie, Ella Fitzgerald's Cow Cow Boogie, and other greats. (ROS1309) CS: 9.98

Sissy Man Blues: Str't & Gay Blues
 Blues vocals with a sexual theme from the '20s, '30s and '40s, pertaining to women and men—lesbian, gay and straight—demonstrating how gay elements have always been a part of the American musical counter-culture. Contains selections from 2 LP's on the Stash label, AC-DC Blues: Gay Jazz Reissues and Straight And Gay. Includes Fairey Reels and Bessie Jackson's B.D. Women's Blues (B.D. for Bull Dagger or Bull Dyke, the story goes). (JAS13) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Betty Carter
The Betty Carter Album
 Betty "Bebop" Carter is the youngest and last of the traditional jazz vocalists. Her sounds are those of an improviser who scats, tugs and pulls on the beat, moves, dips, soars...her voice is the most versatile of instruments. Her second record on her own label contains six originals, including the amazing, exuberant Happy, On Our Way Up (Sister Candy). (BET1002) LP: 4.98

Betty Carter

Finally
Recorded live in concert in 1969, this album was strangely not issued until 1975, and now reissued in 1991. The rarer of the two albums she recorded for Roulette, it contains a great collection of favorites (Girl Talk, Blue Moon, Ego) plus several standards medleys. Still a major voice today, she is considered by many to be the premiere jazz vocalist currently recording. (RLT95333) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Betty Carter & Carmen McRae

The Carmen McRae-Betty Carter Duets
This live-in-concert Grammy nominee features two of the great living jazz vocalists engaging in dashing exchanges, spontaneous rounds of scat, intricate harmonies, and pure enjoyment of each other's genius, which is shared in fully and audibly by the audience. Tunes such as Stolen Moments (You Belong To Her), Sophisticated Lady, It Don't Mean A Thing (If It Ain't Got That Swing) acquire new dimensions in the company of these incredible women. Recommended! (GAM2706) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

B. Holiday, E. Fitzgerald, et al

Billie, Ella, Lena, Sarah!
A collection which has been growing and changing since the release of "Ella, Lena and Billie" in 1956. Some of the most significant recordings by some of the greatest jazz singers ever. Includes Billie's What A Little Moonlight Can Do, Ella's My Melancholy Baby, Sarah's East of the Sun (And West of the Moon). (COL36811) CS: 6.98

Billie Holiday

Billie's Blues
This one includes her great rendition of Summertime, plus nine others. (COL32080) CS: 6.98

The Billie Holiday Collection

Ten golden greats, including one of the very few currently-in-print issues of Strange Fruit. This song, about lynching, was one of the most political and significant recordings she ever made. It was banned from British airwaves officially by the BBC, and unofficially from US radio; even today, it is almost always omitted from anthologies—except occasional European ones, like this release from Italy—to remind us how far our society hasn't come. One of our best sellers. (DV5018) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

The Billie Holiday Songbook

Here's an excellent anthology we've located, which also includes Strange Fruit in addition to Lady Sings the Blues, Billie's Blues, Stormy Blues, and six others. Informative notes on each song; clear sound; we recommend this collection highly. (VVR623246) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Cleo Laine

Woman To Woman

Cleo, an internationally acclaimed artist with a career spanning 3 decades, is the only singer ever to receive Grammy nominations in the categories of jazz, classical, and female popular vocals...she's amazing! A 1989 release. (RCA7999) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 16.98

Dinah Washington

Timeless Treasures

"I like to get inside of a tune and make it mean something to the people that listen, something more than just a set of lyrics and a familiar melody." This was Dinah's philosophy, from 1943, when she became the vocalist with Lionel Hampton's orchestra, through 1946 when she left the band to chart her own course, throughout her 20-year career. This is a collection of top hits, including Willow Weep For Me, Smoke Gets In Your Eyes, Ain't Misbehavin', 5 more. (EVA827) CS: 6.98

Dorothy Donegan

Dorothy Romps

This retrospective of the works of one of the most outstanding pianists in jazz history spans 1953-1979, as Volume 9 in Rosetta Records' Foremothers series. From boogie woogie to honky tonk to blues, pop and even classical, this album demonstrates the spectacular technique and broad-ranging abilities of the artist. Includes Greig's Boogie, Louise, I Want A Little Girl, Minuet in G, Lullaby of Birdland. (ROS1318) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

The Ella Fitzgerald Collection

Note sale price on LP! 20 of her hits, including Sophisticated Lady, A Tisket - A Tasket, I Found My Yellow Basket, Gotta Fiddle In My Shoe, Ella. (DV2004) LP: 4.98 ... CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Emily Remler

This Is Me

"It is important to understand what this collection of music is all about. Emily, while being acknowledged the world over as one of the great jazz guitarists, was encumbered with the reputation of being a straight-ahead player who could interpret other people's music her way, however great that was. What drove her intensity was a passion to get to a point in her career which would allow her to play and write her music her way. And that is what she accomplished with this collection." This 1990 release, Emily's last before her untimely death, is truly incredible, bringing out her song-writing talents for the world to hear: music that is emotive, fluid, melodic, transformative. Includes Song for Maggie, Deep In a Trance, Carenia, Majestic Dance. Highly recommended! (JUS0501) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 15.98

International Sweethearts of Rhythm

There were many all-women's jazz bands in the 40's (men were away, women could play) but this was the hottest and the first integrated women's group. Like other Rosetta titles (most listed in "Blues") this is essentially a book-and-record set, and is probably worth double the price. Although the band lasted over a decade, it was ignored by the white media because it played primarily for black audiences and is still omitted from history books. Don't miss this essential herstory. (ROS1312) CS: 9.98

Judy Garland

Greatest Hits

You know what the greatest greatest hit here is; of course, Over the Rainbow... Also contains Rock-A-Bye Your Baby With a Dixie Melody, Zing Went the Strings of My Heart and more. (EVR0852) CS: 8.98 ... CD: 14.98

Leni Stern

Closer to the Light

Leni is an exceptional jazz guitarist from Germany whose original compositions are extremely lyrical and melodic, delicate and light — as is her style itself. She plays primarily electric guitar, with a bit of acoustic, layering haunting melodies and evocative harmonies on top of the tight accompaniment by sax, bass and percussion. The sound reminds this reviewer of some of the ECM recordings from the late 70's, and brings Pat Metheny to mind in particular. Highly recommended! (ENJ79634) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 15.98

Marian McPartland

Interplay

This is the album with which Marian launched her own extensive and successful record label! It features her with bass accompaniment only, recorded in a small, intimate nightclub setting. Featured are a couple of originals, as well as some beautiful tunes by other composers: New Orleans, Here's That Rainy Day. (HAL100) LP: 6.98 ... CD: 15.98

Solo Concert at Haverford

This has always been one of our favorites of Marian's albums — just her and her incredible talent, performing both original compositions and other wonderful pieces like Send In the Clowns. (HAL111) LP: 6.98 ... CD: 15.98

Marilyn Monroe

Never Before and Never Again

Contains many vocals never before released, some from the original soundtrack of Gentlemen Prefer Blondes, and others. Includes Happy Birthday To John F. Kennedy, which she sang to JFK at Madison Square Garden in 1962, plus Heat Wave, Diamonds Are A Girl's Best Friend, Kiss, She Acts Like A Woman Should, Little Girl from Little Rock, more. (DRG15005) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Mary Lou Williams

First Lady of Piano

Lots of early classic Mary Lou, with selections recorded 1936-1953 and transferred from old 78's; many original compositions, and she absolutely swings! From her own Mary's Boogie, to Lady Be Good, to The Lady Who Swings the Band; 16 "sides" altogether, including several with Andy Kirk and His Clouds of Joy...it's apparent how she earned the title. (GOJ20) CS: 6.98

Zoning

Now at a bargain price! Mary Lou Williams, who lived from 1910-1981, was the only major jazz pianist who lived through and played the music of each new era of jazz. She started recording in 1927 and stayed in the forefront through the big band, swing and modern transitions. This, her last record on her own label, consists of instrumental compositions for piano & back-up instruments. Mary brought together here many of the compositions that she liked to play in concert or in clubs. Each selection stands in its own right, but they all blend together to form a whole; part of her concept of musical zoning. Very highly recommended. (M103) LP: 3.98

The Nina Simone Collection

The edition by one of the most unusually honest artists in the biz includes her unique interpretations of House of the Rising Sun, Don't Let Me Be Misunderstood, The Way I Love You, See-Line Woman, When I Was a Young Girl. (DV5104) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Nina Simone

My Baby Just Cares for Me

Nina has a lot of fun with this live recording. Her charm and energy come through loud and clear on songs as lovesick as Do What You Got to Do and as unique as You Took My Teeth. It also includes an audience-assisted version of the title cut and the rollicking Pirate Jenny... as well as Mississippi Goddam, Four Women, Sugar In My Bowl, and more. (HD4374) CS: 6.98

Porgy

Gathered here is one of the most interesting collections of Nina's many sounds and styles — touches of funk, calypso, synthesizer, Broadway — as her telltale powerful voice takes you through a range of tempos and moods. Includes Fodder On My Wings, Sugar In My Bowl, Four Women and The Other Woman. (HD4384) CS: 6.98 ... CD: 14.98

The Best of Nina Simone

This absolute classic, amazingly still in print, includes blacklisted and banned material such as Mississippi Goddam and Pirate Jenny, plus Four Women, See-Line Woman, I Put a Spell on You... which certainly validates the claim of the title! (PHP822846) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

The Best of Nina Simone

This compact disc includes her marvelous interpretations of I Shall Be Released, I Wish I Knew How It Would Feel To Be Free, Go To Hell, Suzanne, and 8 other songs. (RCA4374) CS: 8.98 ... CD: 14.98

Sarah Vaughan

Timeless Treasures

16 great hits, including Summertime, Black Coffee, Whateva Lola Wants, East of the Sun. (EVA32) CS: 6.98

The Sarah Vaughan Collection

Sarah began singing professionally in 1943 and continued to become one of the greatest jazz vocalists ever, with the distinguishing characteristics of a pronounced vibrato and perfect control. This anthology includes 20 of her greatest, such as What A Difference A Day Makes, Scat Blues, East of the Sun, Motherless Child, I Feel Pretty. (DV2023) LP: 3.98

Memorial Album: I'll Be Seeing You

Sarah died in April of 1990, and this collection was created as a tribute to her greatness. Includes unissued performances from 1949-1962, with Count Basie, Duke Ellington, Woody Herman, Joe Williams and Nat King Cole. A portion of the proceeds from this project will be donated to Lung Cancer research in the name of the Vaughan family. 67 min. (VJ1015) CD: 15.98

Tania Maria

The Real Tania Maria: Wild!

Master of two instruments—a fiery piano and impassioned scatting voice—Tania Maria blends Indian/Brazilian/Portuguese idioms with European classical precision and American jazz improvisation. Her fifth and most rewarding American release, recorded live at the Great American Music Hall, consists of up-tempo, rhythmic Portuguese sambas—no slow ballads here. The rapport between audience and performer is evident on the impromptu call-and-response sections such as Sangria. Recommended! (CON264) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Bay Area Women's Philharmonic

The Music of Florence Price

A premiere recording of an outstanding, trail-blazing Black American classical woman composer, by virtuoso pianist Althea Waites (who also played with Kay Gardner on Mooncircles). Born into a climate of unrest, activism and the cultural movement called the Harlem Renaissance in 1898, Florence began composing at age 11 and continued to write symphonies, chamber works, arrangements for spirituals, and solo piano works until her death in 1953. This very lovely and accessible recording includes Sonata in E Minor, The Old Boatman, Cotton Dance, Dances in the Canebrakes. Produced by Jeannie Poole. Very highly recommended for both new and seasoned listeners of classical music. (CAM1027) CS: 9.98

Barbara Harbach

18 C Harpsichord/Women Composers II

Here Barbara continues her important research into works by 18th century women composers who wrote for harpsichord. On her second volume, she includes works by an anonymous composer who wrote under the name "A Lady," as well as lovely pieces by Cecilia Maria Barthelemon, Maria Hester Park, and Elisabeth Turner. 66 min. Also recommended. (GAS281) CD: 14.98

Barbara Harbach

18 C Harpsichord/Women Composers I

This unique series by harpsichord master Barbara Harbach brings to light works by several neglected 18th century women composers who wrote for solo harpsichord. Back then, society didn't approve of professional women composers (big surprise); so while their male counterparts wrote for the church or courts, these women wrote for themselves, informal salons and each other, and therefore had more freedom to be innovative...and so they introduced new twists of harmony and melody. This volume includes beautiful works by Cecilia Maria Barthelemon, Marianne Martinez, Marianne d'Auenbrugg, Elisabeth de Gambirani, and Mary Hester Park. 66 min. Recommended! (KIN2010) CD: 14.98

Tuck and Patti

Tears of Joy

Fairly incredible jazz vocals by Patti Cathcart, accompanied only by her husband Tuck Andress' guitar. Each song is a perfect gem; notably Cindy Lauper's Time After Time, plus Takes My Breath Away, title, and more. The maturity and sensitivity revealed in her style is impressive and engaging, the result of nine years of working in this duo. Very fine. (WH0111) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 16.98

Tuck & Patti

Love Warriors

Their second incredible release maintains the intimacy of the first recording while reaffirming their position in the realm of contemporary jazz. With one voice and one acoustic guitar, they present an eclectic combination of Brazilian sounds, jazz standards and gospel. It showcases Patti Cathcart's production and writing skills as well, with two originals, including the stand-out satiny title cut. Recommended. (WH0116) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 16.98

Dream

No ordinary "girl with guitar" here! This woman's voice is as sensual and smooth as silk, and her vocal relationship to Tuck's incandescent guitar borders on the surreal as they dance and blend and slip and slide around the corners of jazz ballads (As Time Goes By, Friends in High Places), 3 of Patti's originals (High Heel Blues is her acappella ode to the agony and ecstasy of addictive shoe shopping, which this reviewer is also cheerfully powerless over!) and Wendy & Lisa's From Now On (We're One). Recommended. (WH0130) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 16.98

Baroque Treasures

This long-awaited release, which we welcome with open arms, contains brilliantly executed 16th century works by women composers: Marianne Martinez, Camilla de Rossi, Mlle. Duval, Maddalena Laura Lombardini Sirmen, and Elizabeth Jacquet de la Guerre. Four of the five works were first performed in the US by this orchestra; all the composers represented were noted in their time, although little is now known about some of them. Conducted by JoAnn Falletta, the Bay Area Women's Philharmonic was founded in 1980 by Miriam Abrams to promote women composers, conductors and performers. 75 minutes. Highly recommended! The digital recording features innovative arrangements and excellent musicianship. (PRO500) CD: 16.98

The Dartington Piano Trio (piano/violin/cello) artfully performs Clara Schumann's Piano Trio in G Minor, Op 17 and Fanny Mendelssohn's Piano Trio in D Major, Op 11, two rarely-performed works by women composers whose talents have historically been veiled in the light of their more famous and acknowledged male relatives. 56 min. (HYP66331) CD: 19.98

Elena Polanska

The Medieval Harp

With the ensemble La Camerata, on instruments ranging from viele de bras to shalmey to Irish and medieval harp, Elena performs works from the 12th through 14th centuries. She chose these particular pieces for their agreeable and entertaining character, and the musicians clearly enjoyed playing them. (TRN2307) CS: 6.98

The Uptown String Quartet

Bringing together 4 very accomplished female musicians, this album presents a wide-ranging assortment of compositions — some extremely complex — performed in their unique all-string sound (2 violins, viola, cello). The album changes tempo from cut to cut, to keep the listening ear well tuned; on side 1, for example, they move from the somber Let Us Break Bread Together to the catchy Jelly Rag Roll. This project was designed to exemplify the talents and creativity of jazz musicians; and it certainly succeeds! (PLG838358) LP: 10.98 ... CS: 10.98 ... CD: 15.98

Various Artists

THE MEDIEVAL & RENAISSANCE HARP

Elena Polanska, Harp
La Camerata

The Renaissance Harp

Elena performs on Irish harp with La Camerata, an ensemble which plays a colorful assortment of period instruments: rebec, recorder, vielle (predecessor of the violin), crumhorn, viola da gamba, psalter, lute, zorb and percussion. Several works here are by anonymous composers (therefore probably by women!), one by Henry VIII, and others from the 1400's and 1500's. This recording technically belongs in our classical section; but may be listed in the new age section, due to the revived interest in this instrument among new age music listeners. (TRN2314) CS: 6.98

Medieval/ Ren. Music for Irish Harp

Elena performs on both Irish (gut-strung) and medieval (metal-strung) diatonic harps here, as well as tambourin; she is accompanied by Guy Durant and Roger Cotte on vielle and recorder. Compositions originate from the 12th through 16th centuries, and every piece is quite beautiful! Includes dances, pavanes, salterellos, sequences which sound like derivations from Gregorian or monastic chants, and other forms which convey dignity yet simplicity. For aficionados of new age and classical music alike. Recommended! (TRN4019) CS: 6.98

The Medieval & Renaissance Harp

Music of 5 centuries is performed beautifully by Elena on harp, with La Camerata on almost every other instrument of the period: crumhorn, vielle, shalmey, lute, zorb and more. 12 pieces from medieval days and 33 from the Renaissance are brought together on this 62-minute album, making it easy to follow the transition from vocal style to a more dance-oriented instrumental basis over the years. (TRN1746) CS: 6.98 ... CD: 10.98

The Baroque Harp

During the 17th century, the harp was primarily used to perform music written for the lute, spinet, organ, and clavinet (except for in the Celtic countries, where it enjoyed a reputation in its own right, due to the traveling poets). This recording demonstrates material drawn from both sources of repertoire, primarily performed as solo harp pieces, accompanied by recorders on a few. Includes minuets, marches, sarabandes, Welsh Air, Johann Pachelbel's Ciaccone and 13 Variations, and the anonymous but easily recognizable My Lady Greensleeves... quite lovely. (TRN1771) CS: 6.98 ... CD: 9.98

Evelyn Glennie

Rhythm Song

Evelyn is one of a very few percussion soloists who performs primarily on marimba and other tuned percussion instruments. This young Scotswoman lends her exceptional musical and technical virtuosity to classical compositions by Gabriel Faure and Saint-Saens, to Scott Joplin rags, to Mexican dances, and other pieces encompassing a wide variety of musical styles. Unusual and entrancing! (RCA60242) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 16.98

Hildegard von Bingen/ Sequentia

Symphoniae: Spiritual Songs

This recording of spiritual songs contains texts and music in praise of the female divinities who figured prominently in much of Hildegard's work: the Virgin Maria, the virgins who inhabit heavenly realms at the end of time, St. Ursula, and the virtue of Wisdom, traditionally considered a feminine Deity. Some of Hildegard's final visions are expressed here. Performed by Sequentia, an international group of musicians devoted to the vocal and instrumental music of the 12th and 13th centuries, with vocal ensembles, harps, psalteries, fiddles, flutes, and symphony. (DHM77020) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 16.98

Hildegard von Bingen

Ordo Virtutum (2-Set)

This double set includes Ordo Virtutum, one of Hildegard's mystery plays, in which she confronts the Devil and her own temptations, ultimately triumphing over them. Also includes the musical ensemble Sequentia performing medieval sequences — the most significant poetical and musical form of the Middle Ages — with liddle, psalter, flute, harp and hurdy-gurdy. Once again available! (DHM77051) CS: 18.98 ... CD: 29.98

Hildegard von Bingen

A Feather on the Breath of God

Sequences and hymns by a remarkable and creative personality from the Middle Ages (1098-1179) — in fact, the most celebrated woman of her age as a visionary, naturalist, playwright, poet and composer, as well as politician. Her canonization was proposed, but never came about. This recording draws upon her large collection of music and poetry. The Symphony of the Harmony of Celestial Revelations, and is lovely even to ears with little classical or devotional inclination. Her pieces frequently present visions of women — St. Ursula, the Virgin Mary — sometimes with erotic imagery. Currently a renewal of interest is occurring in this composer, though her works are hard to come by. (HYP66039) CS: 14.98 ... CD: 19.98

Joya: Women Composers Around World

With works by female composers Haruna Aoki, Ruth Watson Henderson, Deon Nielsen Price and Kazuko Osawa, this album offers a rare blend of Eastern sounds and the classical genre. Side one, entitled Joya for Fifteen Musicians, from a traditional Buddhist New Years ceremony, is a composition whose tempo was originally set by Buddhist monks who struck a gong in cadence with their heartbeats; the music and translated poetry focus on the positive side to every life situation. Side two, which includes Missa Brevis for Concert Choir, Big Sur Tryp-tych, and Mon, also accents positive emotion through its uplifting tempo. Produced by Jeannie Pool; proceeds benefit the CSUN International Institute for the Study of Women in Music. (CAM1025) CS: 9.98

Lucille Goodman, accompanied by Harriet Wingreen on piano, employs an explosive, hypnotic voice to bring to life original compositions by 9 renowned female composers: Florence Price, Ruth Crawford Seeger, Nancy Van de Vate, Miriam Gideon, Patsy Rogers, and Dorothy Klotzman. Her range and intensity go beyond performance alone and reflect a commitment to the intended emotion of the songs. Highly recommended for those who appreciate outstanding vocal discipline. (CAM1037) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Marnie Hall, narrator

Women Composers & their Music, V. 1

Marnie is the force behind the Leonarda and Gemini Hall record labels, which have done more to promote and preserve classical and contemporary works by female composers than any other that we know of. Both samplers represent composers from the middle ages through the present, and contain over 80 minutes of music and narration. The first volume includes works by Ellen Taaffe Zwilich, Lili Boulanger, Fanny Mendelssohn Hensel, Barbara Kolb, and 12 other women, as well as a few male composers. Culled from the Leonarda catalog with voice-over interviews (of the living composers only!) and commentary. (LEO1) CS: 12.98

Pickles and Peppers: Rags by Women

Over 150 women composed and published rags around the turn of the century; but only recently has this fact been unearthed. The old familiar story: many composed under pseudonyms, or with initials, or never had their work published; biographical material on the artists represented here was difficult to come by. Ragtime was a very disciplined and structured style, almost a classical form. Contains 20 rags, including Judy's Rag, Dish Rag, The Thriller, by 11 women, impeccably performed by Virginia Eskin—who specializes in recording works by women composers. (NE225) CS: 9.98 ... ### Women Who Run with the Wolves 2-Set

Magical storytelling, myths and commentary by a Jungian analyst who explores the Wild Woman Archetype. She says, "Women and wolves, and women and wildlife really, have been tarred with the same brush. They have been destroyed, exiled and exploited. And the 'Wild Woman' is an endangered species in our culture. Her wisdom and natural instincts must be reclaimed before it is too late, or we shall be a very dry tribe of females indeed. These tapes are a reclamation project to call back the feminine soul, the wild feminine." ### Snake Talk/Messages from the Mother

Presented by "A Traveling Jewish Theater," this unique program, subtitled Urgent Messages from the Mother, is built around the following premise: In pre-patriarchal times the Goddess had as her ally and teacher the snake. Together they carried the wisdom of the cyclical nature of all existence. The 3 aspects of women — the maiden, the mother and the crone — were seen as the Three Fates or the Triple Goddess who served as the creator, preserver, and destroyer of life in ancient peoples' mythologies. In this theatrical piece, each of these aspects is embodied in a contemporary character: Else, Rifke, and the Hag. As Naomi moves from one character's home place to the others', we witness one woman simultaneously experiencing 3 parts of herself while moving through the circle of her life. (TJT1) CS: 10.98

Bellybutton
 Save on the LP! Rated the top children's album in 1983 by the CBC — Canada's national radio network — this is assuredly one of the more delightful kids' LP's around. Half the songs are by Connie Kaldor, and they're terrific (she also does back-up vocals). There's If You Love a Hippopotamus ("and you love her a lotamus") and title song "Oh my bellybutton I love you...You're the only friend I have—the one who really cares/cause every time I need you—you're always there...When things get down and looking kinda grim/I simply lift up my shirt and stick my finger in..." Also a song by Ferron, Boom Boom, which was on her 2nd now-out-of-print LP. Some great rock, country, and good-time instrumentation. Heather produced and mixed. (MOP003) LP: 6.98 ... CS: 9.98

Heather Bishop
Purple People Eater
 Well folks, we lucked out! Heather Bishop decided to focus her considerable talent, wit, and warmth on another kids' album. Opening with a moving rendition of Ghost Riders In The Sky complete with female pronouns, she then swings into The Fairy Song and the rollicking The Name Game ("Shirley Shirley Bo Birely..."). Winter Lullaby will soothe sleepyheads of all ages, as will her gentle version of Somebody Over the Rainbow. Connie Kaldor, Tracy Riley & Ilana Zaremba contribute inspired back-up vocals and again, production and instrumentation is highly sophisticated. Recommended for preschool, middle young. Save on this LP too! (MOP005) LP: 6.98 ... CS: 9.98

A Duck In New York City
 Winner of the Gold Parents Choice Award, and following in the tradition of Bellybutton and Purple People Eater, Heather's third children's album is much more than a collection of songs — it's the story of the adventures of a country duck in the big city. From a chance meeting with a robot on the street to playing a guitar solo with the Stug Opera. Heather's whimsical fantasy abounds — funny and touching in turns. Several of the songs are by Connie Kaldor, who accompanies Heather on vocals. Includes Dancing Fool and I Want A Robot. Highly recommended! (MOP008) CS: 9.98

Jackie Torrence
Brer Rabbit Stories
 The symbolic representative of the slave, Brer Rabbit used shrewdness, craftiness and speed to avoid capture. The stories synthesized this character with African tales and Native American legends. Jackie grew up with these stories and here uses a simplified version of the old dialect—"for the rhythm and color of the stories cannot be heard or seen without it." (WES725) CS: 9.98

Janet & Judy
Musical Almanac
 Deserving winner of the Parents' Choice Award for Best Children's Album of 1987, this volume's themes are science and nature. Utilizing their wit, cleverness and energy, they transform potentially dry subjects into pure fun and good times! Astronomy, biology, zoology...my favorite is Nob Nearthing from What Can We Do to Save the Planet, who tells us how to save our planet by not nasting nater, not nolluting, naving nelenecicity, and recycling our newspapers (because their nerds begin with the letter "n"). Hot beats, terrific music, great stories...highly recommended! (JJ003) CS: 9.98

Jean Craighead George

Lullaby Magic
 Remarkable — I had to leave the keyboard and take a nap! Sweet little lullabies, uniquely designed with vocals on one side and instrumental versions of the same songs on the flip side, so you can sing to the baby yourself; lyrics included. Features music by Buffy St. Marie, Mozart, Brahms, James Taylor, the Beatles and more. Beautifully packaged, easy to use, Joanie's voice is very soothing, and the instrumentals are superbly arranged in a quasi-classical style with oboe, bassoon, cello, and other instruments rarely heard on children's recordings. Enchanting. (DIS1) CS: 9.98

Joemy Wilson

It was the logical album for Joemy to record, since for years parents and teachers have been telling her that they play her soothing sounds to settle down their hyper young things! ## Judith Viorst

Alexander & Terrible, Horrible Day

"If a person is having a terrible, horrible, no good, very bad day, one of the things she can do is go to Australia. Another thing she can do is holler and cry. Another thing she can do is sulk in her room, all full of gloom. Or kick the door. Or eat a whole peach pie...Another thing she can do is write a book." And we're glad this one did! Her writings, read perfectly, brilliantly by Blythe Danner, are very humorous and realistic, rooted in her own (obviously sharp) memories of childhood. Includes stories and poems from six of her books, Rosie and Michael, if I Were In Charge of the World and Other Worries, more, to a musical background. Very highly recommended! The 36-page book was written with Shelley Gill (an experienced musher herself — she completed the Iditarod in 1978) and beautifully illustrated by Shannon Cartwright; if you read the book while listening, just turn the page when you hear the Meow! This whimsical and musical tale of the far north makes a wonderful gift for the adventurous girl. (PAW8) CS: 13.98

Oldies For Kool Kiddies

Custom-made for the young and the nostalgic; for baby boomers and boomer kids! Rock 'n' roll favorites from the 50's and 60's, like Lollipop, Monster Mash, Rockin' Robin, Blue Moon, Spish Splash, The Loco-Motion, and many more, re-recorded by a children's chorus and a bunch of baby boomer adults! The cover lends itself to the kinds of stereotypes we at Ladyslipper don't endorse, but maybe you can use the opportunity to discuss that with your kids, if you agree with us. Or throw the cover away and make your own! We think the inside cassette is worth it. (RB101) CS: 9.98

The Re-Bops

Funny 50's & Silly 60's

This isn't just a "Volume II" of the Re-Bops' first hit album; it's a collection of some of the wackiest, nuttiest songs that the baby-boom generation ever drove their parents crazy with! Updated versions of those favorites, from Purple People Eater to Woolly Bully to Witch Doctor to Does Your Chewing Gum Lose Its Flavor on the Bedpost Overnight?, will keep you and the kids in your life giggling, jumping and singing for years to come. The music's extremely high-energy, the production very professional, the instrumentation representative of world cultures, the lyrics pretty right on and aware as well as fun, and we can't imagine that this wouldn't be a hit anywhere! Songs promote self-confidence, owning one's inner power (as opposed to transferring it to TV superheroes), peaceful co-existence, friendship, and mischief! Includes Chocolate Pudding Queen, Rainbow of Colors, The Power, I'm Cool. For ages 4-11... highly recommended! (AMZ01) CS: 9.98

Walk A Mile

One of the most animated, contemporary, professional, hippest kids' recordings we've heard; it should have strong appeal to kids from a wide range of cultural and socio-economic backgrounds, as it cures the problem of boring children's music! This ensemble of mixed gender, race, and age (half are kids, half adults) sings songs by Jan Nigro, Laura Nyro's brother, leading us to conclude that good songwriting is a family trait. Great messages, about independent thinking, justice, truthfulness, conflict resolution, and more. Winner, 1989 Parents' Choice Award. Highly recommended! (LCM101) CS: 9.98

Vitamin L

Very honest, loving and open — play this on a quiet day for yourself and bear witness to one gay couple's expression of love. (HMO1) CS: 8.98

The Flirtations

Michael Callen sings with this gay acappella quintet with strong clear voices and great harmonizing. Cuts range from campy versions of "straight" songs like Why Do Fools Fall in Love? to Wallflower, a powerful song about AIDS. Lida Rose and Housework showcase a beautiful soprano, reminiscent of Bronski Beat's Jimmy Somerville. Also includes Santa Maria, a traditional song with lyrics in Spanish by the group's own Aurelio Font; Sweet Honey's Breaths; and an incredible cover of Cris Williamson's Shooting Star. A wonderfully varied album; very highly recommended! (SIG902) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Fred Barton

Miss Gulch Returns

This "wicked musical" is a totally quirky parody of Dorothy's weird neighbor (the one with the bicycle and basket, who became the wicked witch of the west) who was out to get her little dog Toto in The Wizard of Oz. Fred performs her character in her famous costume, and devises an entire history for her. This one-man show has developed a cult following among gay men, and we've received requests for it, so here it is. (GUL5757) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 16.98

"Mehn's Music"

Over the past several years, the development of gay and anti-sexist "men's music" (or "mehn's music," as we call it) has taken place, drawing its incentive and inspiration from the women's music movement. Some of the recordings are by gay men, and relate to the lives of both gay men and lesbians; others are by men who wish to support the efforts of feminist women in re-examining and changing roles and stereotypes. It's quite easy to distinguish from the other men's music that fills the world!

Fred Small

Love's Gonna Carry Us

Fred's debut recording contains one of his most well-known and most-often-recorded songs, Fifty-Nine Cents, the amount women make for every dollar made by male counterparts; plus I Lost That Pretty Little Gal of Mine (to Title IX), A Modest Proposal (The Long Underwear Song), and others written with wit and insight into various issues. (AQU1) CS: 9.98

Geof Morgan

Talk It Over

A charming variety of songs on a range of political (rape, wife abuse, etc.) and personal topics. Stand-out is a gentle song of love and friendship from one man to another, Duncan; also the humorous Like Glass ("I never thought I'd fall for a smoker! But Cupid's not the Surgeon General"). Great guitar and bass accompaniment by Nina Gerber and Cary Black; vocals by Charlie Murphy. (FF436) CS: 9.98

Geof Morgan

Founder of Nexus Records, an umbrella company helping sponsor independent recordings, many by women, Geof is also active in many progressive movements. His songs reflect this, with titles like Homophobia; Goodbye, John Wayne; Grandpa Used to Sing. (NEX102449) CS: 9.98

Heartsinger/Ron Lambe

Songs of Love and Nature

This is an unusual selection of songs celebrating men loving men, especially those involved in building and sustaining intimate, loving relationships, as well as nature and the unity of all beings. Ron Lambe has been managing editor of RFD, a 14-year-old reader-written journal for rural gay men, for the past several years, and he has taken poems by various contributors to the magazine and set them to music. The songs are sung by tenor/counter-tenor Heartsinger (Richard Strange), to piano accompaniment by Stephen Klein. (LLR213) CS: 9.98

Jimmy Somerville

Read My Lips

For those wondering what happened to the distinctive voice that launched Bronski Beat and The Communards, look no further! Now Jimmy has struck out alone on this solo album. The upbeat synthesized sound and telltale voice ring out loud and clear as he combines his pro-gay rights lyrics into a stinging dance beat. Includes Perfect Day, And You Never Thought This Could Happen to You, and Control. Highly recommended for fans of his earlier work, and for anyone who can appreciate the merging of the upbeat techno-sound with one of the most powerful voices in music today! ## John Bucchino

On the Arrow

Known to many as the talented pianist generally in Holly Near's company, John has written, arranged and produced a tape of his own vocal material...which reflects both lyrical acumen and a vulnerability, as well as some of his lightning piano. (DIN301) CS: 9.98

Lunacy

This album is a first, an entrancing album of pagan/goddess spirituality music from two "taggot witches," as they call themselves. This acappella duo—Greg Johnson and Sparky T. Rabbit—performs primarily original songs, with occasional material from Starhawk and others. One of the most notable songs here is Boys Burned Too, a very tender and touching tribute to the gay men who were burned along with the witches. Also includes Paula Walowitz's She's Been Waiting; Aphrodite's Song, Demeter's Song, The Moon Song ("The full moon! Is her vagina spread wide! With the wild realm of all possibilities! Every possibility pouring out..."), Kali Ma ("Dark Mother/Black Mother"), Purple God ("Queer God"). We like this album — recommended! (LUN1) CS: 10.98

Marc Almond

Enchanted

Marc is a musician who has worked with Bronski Beat and Jimmy Somerville (one of their collaborations appears on Jimmy's The Singles Collection). This is a pretty fabulous album of synthesizer pop...and though his lyrics are not overtly gay, there is little question of his sensibility on dance tunes like Madame de la Luna and Carnival of Life. "Eros awake! Our hearts to take! Ready to break every law! I find I'm no longer/Chasing my youth! The truth is that I'm chasing yours..." (CAP94404) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 15.98

Mark Ginsberg

Reclaiming the Wind

This gay composer, singer and musician (piano, guitar, synthesizer, flute, congas and percussion) says this release "is about bringing back the magic that has been long forgotten, buried deep within our hearts... By listening to the inner voice we will find the loving truth of the living God/Goddess." Mainly Jewish spiritual themes, sung in Hebrew and English, some truly beautiful lyrics from traditional Hebrew sources (translated from Shir Hashirim: "O that he would kiss me with his lips. Indeed your caresses are better than wine...") We Will Make It is an upbeat song peace in the Middle East. Altogether musically and vocally superior, and lyrically imaginative — highly recommended! (MRK1) CS: 9.98

Mark Weigle

One Good Reason

Mark's original, guitar-accompanied folk songs deal with his process of coming out; they recall his previous pain and isolation, and his discovery of peace and pride since affirming his gayness. Includes Leave the Light Alone, a declaration of love between two men; Love Is So Hard to Hide, inspired by the book The Front Runner; and more. (MKW1) CS: 9.98

Michael Callen

Purple Heart

If his name sounds familiar, it may be because Michael, a musician who has been battling AIDS since 1981, has been in the forefront of organizing for AIDS support and education: testifying before Congress, editing publications, appearing on major TV shows, participating in fund-raising events. His recording is high-energy, celebratory, and very frankly about sexuality, passion and love ("how to have sex in an epidemic/without getting caught up in the polemic"...from How To Have Sex). Songs include Where the Boys Are, Me & Dickie D (his Nice Jewish Boy), and Living in Wartime, performed with band-partner ex-Deedee Nightshade Pam Brandt. He thanks Lesbians and feminism in his notes. And, he's got a real nice voice, with amazing vocal endurance. Enough to recommend it highly. (SIG881) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

AIDS, Medicine, & Miracles

New York Gay Men's Chorus

Ny, Ny * A Broadway Extravaganza

A fantastic tribute to NYC by the city's own Gay Men's Chorus, a non-profit educational organization founded in 1980. Directed by Gary Miller, this group lovingly paints the town red with songs like Jerome Kern's All the Things You Are, a Sondheim medley, Rodgers and Hart's New York, and of course, the title song. Excellent orchestration and recording. (PRO198) CS: 10.98 ... CD: 15.98

I Thought You'd Be Taller!

An energetic, humorous, loving, campy, gay-affirming album, as evidenced by some of the song titles: Womb Envy, The Prince Charming Tango, Closet Case, (I Can Have) Attitude...these guys are simply the cat's p.j.s, the crown prince(s) of the Renaissance of gay men's music...don't miss an opportunity to see them live! ### Trouble in Paradise

Dedicated to gay and lesbian activists around the world, this LP practically leaps out of your speakers and turns your immediate environment into a rollicking carnival of gay delight! Produced by Teresa Trull, it's one of the finest examples of music/commentary/comedy to emerge from the growing genre of political gay men's music. You can't listen to some of the songs—What Kind of Self-Respecting Faggot Am I?, Wimp, Guilt Trip—without feeling, at the very least, wry amusement at seeing yourself in them...also includes Homophobia and some great advice for Ronnie and others, Don't Use Your Penis (For a Brain). Instrumentation is sophisticated; some of the best of Bay Area talent put in an appearance. Highly recommended. (FRF102) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Romanovsky & Phillips

Emotional Rollercoaster

Returning to more of an acoustic sound, the third album from the "queens" of political camp (and we don't mean Camp David!) is again chock-full of humor and social commentary. It's as gay- and lesbian-positive as the others, with even more political determination because of the fight against AIDS and the renewed homophobia from the Right. The empowering Living With AIDS could be the theme song of our generation—and makes this album a must for everyone. And from an expose of the absurdity of the Crimes Against Nature laws to the rallying cry for unity and responsibility in the face of AIDS fear ("We don't have to sacrifice our passion or our pride; we just have to be on the safe side") and the humor of My Mother's Clothes, Waltz For the New Age, Straightening Up the House a la Kate Clinton, Ron and Paul demonstrate they know that the personal is political. Very highly recommended! (FRF103) CS: 9.98 ... CD: 15.98

Be Political, Not Polite

Packed with 15 new songs, this challenging and political — perhaps even a bit controversial — hour-long 1991 release is their best, in their opinion! John Buccino is keyboardist/arranger, and they've enlisted the help of a few friends to sing back-up on several songs: Holly Near, Alix Dobkin, Phranc, and Michael Callen (of the Flirtations). Includes Oh No... I'm in Love (With My Therapist), When Heterosexism Strikes, Queers in the Closet, about outing, Love is All It Takes, for lesbian and gay parents, and many other new hits. Of course we recommend this! (FRF104) CS: 11.98 ... CD: 15.98

the wimps

Sacred Bull

the wimps are a punkish band working to challenge, or at least expose, outmoded patriarchal concepts of men's roles, especially toward women, and traditional concepts of what makes a man "manly." On this album, they take an ironic look at such institutions as pornography, sexist language, exploitation of animals, Catholicism and the drug wars, pointing out the hypocrisies men are supposed to accept as their top priorities, and with a good dose of wit, weave their songs into a unified statement. Includes Missionary Dance, Brotherhood of Man. (WIM1) CS: 5.98

Desert Hearts

Our best-selling video...based on the novel by Jane Rule, turned into film by Donna Deitch, and needs no introduction because most of you have probably seen it several times already! ### The Best of Gilda Radner

This video thankfully preserves some of Gilda's funniest performances from the early years of Saturday Night Live: Roseanne Roseannadanna, Emily Littella, Baba Wawa, Lisa Lupner, Lucy Ricardo, and more, which she personally selected for this compilation. The world, and we, will miss her continuing wit and brilliance; she died of cancer in 1989, to which she would have said, "It's always something..." Highly recommended! (WAR35148VC) 29.98

Greta Garbo

Queen Christina

Queen Christina of Sweden, played by Garbo, was independent, witty, androgynous, and she wore men's clothes. This film, while throwing in the obligatory Hollywood het romantic stuff, does communicate an ambiguity in Queen Christina's sexuality with a bit of a lesbian undertone. Since the notes call the film a blend of history and fiction, we like to think that they made up the guy, and that she really ran off with the woman she keeps kissing throughout the flick. 1934, black & white, 100 min. (MGM531VC) 29.98

Greta Schiller & Andrea Weiss

The Children's Hour

Starring Shirley MacLaine (she's great!) and Audrey Hepburn, this 1961 film, based on Lillian Hellman's controversial play, shattered the stage and film taboo against depicting or mentioning lesbianism. It was inspired by an actual case of two school-teachers whose careers and lives were radically damaged when rumors that they were in a lesbian relationship circulated in their community. It doesn't end as any of us would wish it did, but you can either cut off your VCR a minute early, or acknowledge the reality of internalized homophobia, especially back then. Recommended! Every design is available as a pendant, strung on a silk cord; as a pin (make your own bolo!); and as earrings, which hang from pierced earwires... please specify.

Ladyslipper Revisited

The Ladyslipper staff has taken the often overwhelming catalog and developed a no-nonsense approach to how we classify our music. So here it is, a list of personal favorites and when and why we like them.

I. MUSIC WE'D MOST LIKE TO MAKE LOVE BY

- DISAPPEAR FEAR: DEEP SOUL DIVER (p. 26)
"With two incredibly sexy voices and rhythmically changing tempos, my only regret is that it doesn't last longer."
- JASMINE: JASMINE (p. 28)
"Makes you want to wrap yourself around someone."
- QUEEN LATIFAH: NATURE OF A SISTA (p. 60)
"Perfect for those wilder nights!"
- LUCIE BLUE TREMBLAY: LUCIE BLUE TREMBLAY (p. 29)
"These tunes are very sensual and, since I can't understand the words, I don't have to listen too hard."
- KAY GARDNER: OCEAN MOON (p. 14)
"We put this one on CD so that we wouldn't have to get up to flip the tape."
- ESTHER "LITTLE DOVE" JOHN: The Elements (p. 13)
"Like making love outdoors without the twigs, sand, or ants."

II. MUSIC TOO DEEP FOR US TO UNDERSTAND

- KAY GARDNER: A RAINBOW PATH (p. 15)
"Heck, two years ago I didn't even know what a chakra was."
- ANNA HOMLER: BREADWOMAN (p. 10)
"Perhaps something to study further/an interesting concept..."
- RUTH BARRETT: PARTHENOGENESIS (p. 20)
"I believe it, I'm just not sure I get it."
- IDA FAIELLA & JOHN McDONOUGH: DISHPAN FANTASY (p. 35)
"Lots of fun, but try tracing the plot all the way through after it's over."
- FERRON: TESTIMONY (p. 26)
"I'm approaching my millionth time listening to it and am hoping for divine intervention to understand Bellybowl but even if that never comes, I'll still listen to it."

III. MUSIC TO VEGETATE TO

- KAY GARDNER: A RAINBOW PATH (p. 15)
"Well, it's just meditative - you know."
- BROOKE MEDICINE EAGLE: DRUMMING THE HEARTBEAT (p. 45)
"This tape and a tub of bath salts for bouyancy makes a nifty at-home 'sensory deprivation tank' experience."
- KIM ROBERTSON/SINGH KAUR: CRIMSON VOL. 1: GURU RAM DAS (p. 15)
"Powerful antidote to stress."
- ON WINGS OF SONG: OM NAHAMA SHIVAYA (p. 18)
"It puts me right out to pasture!"

IV. MUSIC MOST LIKELY TO KEEP US AWAKE AND IN TUNE ON THAT LONG DRIVE TO THE MICHIGAN FESTIVAL

- YER GIRLFRIEND: WE WON'T BE SILENT (p. 34)
"Radical out of control in your face 'out' music."
- CRIS WILLIAMSON: THE CHANGER AND THE CHANGED (p. 25)
"Know all the words and singing out loud to women-loving-women tunes works better than coffee (cuts down on pit stops too)."
- JAMIE ANDERSON: CLOSER TO HOME (28)
"Great songs to sing at the top of your lungs."

V. MUSIC TO WORK BY (AKA, PULLERS' PICKS & SHIPPERS' SELECTIONS)

- SOHO: GODDESS (p. 60)
"Catchy, poppy and upbeat!"
- CHRISTINE LAVIN: anything (p. 50)
"Always great for a laugh and you need that when all the cassettes start to look alike."

VI. ALBUM WE'RE LEAST LIKELY TO PLAY FOR MOM

- THE YEASTIE GIRLZ: OVARY ACTION (p. 34)
"Mom couldn't talk to me about sex when I was a kid; this album would put her a coma."
- GIRLS IN THE NOSE: GIRLS IN THE NOSE (p. 26)
"She might like Honorary Heterosexual Lesbian but I don't think Bite Me is for her."
- VARIOUS ARTISTS: BY WORD OF MOUTH (p. 66)
"I'm glad I'm out to my mom but I don't want to share my sex life with her."
- ALIX DOBKIN: LIVING WITH LESBIANS (p. 23)
"She just wouldn't get it!"

VII. ALBUM MOM WOULD REALLY LIKE (REALLY SHE WOULD)

- JOEY WILSON: GIFTS III (p. 36)
"Beautiful seasonal music from around the world; if I gave her this one, she might think I was starting to grow up."
- HILDEGARD VON BINGEN: SYMPHONIAE (p. 64)
"She loves classical so maybe the subliminal feminist message might get through."
- LIBANA: FIRE WITHIN (p. 16)
"She loves choral music."
- LIBBY RODERICK: IF YOU SEE A DREAM (p. 29)
"Come on, everybody likes Libby!"

VIII. ALBUM BEST SUITED FOR THE MUSICALLY IMPAIRED TO SING ALONG WITH

- THE RE-BOPS: OLDIES FOR KID KIDDIES (p. 69)
"Everybody has heard the tunes and probably knows all the words."
- BETTY: HELLO BETTY (p. 24)
"Impossible for even the non-musically impaired to harmonize to as well as they do, but you gotta try cause it's just fun!"
- SWEET HONEY IN THE ROCK: anything (p. 32-33)
"They have so many parts to their harmonies, you have a pretty good chance of getting some of it right some of the time."

IX. ALBUM WE'RE MOST LIKELY TO BE CAUGHT LISTENING TO AT HOME

- TRACY DRACH: ANOTHER DOOR (p. 33)
"Her smooth bluesy voice makes me melt, but since she works here I'm embarrassed to listen to it at the office."
- RHIANNON: TOWARD HOME (p. 32)
"This woman's voice moves me to chills on a hot summer day!"
- TYE GIRAUD: Hokumbe! (Celebration!) (p. 33)
"Makes me feel like I'm celebrating."
- FERRON: PHANTOM CENTER (p. 26)
"This album suits me in more moods than any other."
- THE WASHINGTON SISTERS: TAKE TWO (p. 34)
"Great for those mellow moods."
- LISA KOCH: COLORBLIND BLUES (p. 29)
"I like to listen to it with my girlfriend."
- OFRA HAZA: FIFTY GATES OF WISDOM (p. 46)
"Year after year, I can never get enough of this."
- MERCEDES SOSA: anything (p. 44)
"The emotion overtakes me."
